CAP. XVII.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, for one Year, beginning the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; for the more effectually puniſhing Serjeants, Drummers, and Fifers, for Miſbehaviour and Deſertion; for ſecuring Deſerters from the Militia Regiments; and for explaining and amending ſo much of an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, as relates to inliſting Militia Men into his Majeſty's other Forces.

" XVII. AND whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, it is enacted, That any ' Militia Man inliſting himſelf into any of his Majeſty's other Forces, ſhall, over and above any ' Penalty or Puniſhment to which any ſuch Militia Man was liable, be deemed to be legally inliſted, and ' ſhould, from the Day on which his Engagement to ſerve in the Militia ſhould end, belong as a Soldier ' to ſuch Corps of his Majeſty's other Forces into which he ſhall have inliſted, and ſhould, till regularly ' diſcharged, be liable to all the Duties of a Soldier, and to all Pains and Penalties inflicted by the Act ' for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters: And ' whereas the ſaid Proviſion hath been found very inconvenient, and prejudicial to the Militia Service;' Be it therefore enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid recited Proviſion ſhall be and is hereby repealed.

Clauſe in the Act of the laſt Seſſion, repealed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Officer, Serjeant, or other Perſon recruiting for Men to inliſt and ſerve in his Majeſty's other Forces, ſhall, at any Time from and after the paſſing of this Act, wilfully and knowingly inliſt any Perſon who, at the Time of ſuch Inliſting, ſhall be inrolled and engaged to ſerve in any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England, every ſuch Inliſting ſhall be deemed null and void; and in caſe any Militia Man ſhall, at any Time from and after the paſſing of this Act, deny to any Officer, Serjeant, or other Perſon recruiting for Men to inliſt and ſerve in his Majeſty's other Forces, that he is, at the Time of his offering to inliſt, a Militia Man then actually inrolled and engaged to ſerve (which the ſaid Officer, Serjeant, or other Perſon, is hereby required to aſk any Man offering to inliſt); and ſhall inliſt Recruiting Parties from the King's other Forces inliſting Militia Men; ſuch Inliſting deemed void. Militia Man denying, at the Time of inliſting, that he is inrolled, and

inliſt in his Majeſty's other Forces, or ſhall offer himſelf to be inrolled and ſerve in the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, belonging to any other County, Riding, or Place; every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, on Conviction thereof by the Information and Oath of one Witneſs, before a Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place, wherein ſuch Perſon was firſt inrolled and engaged to ſerve in the Militia (which Oath ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter) ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol of ſuch County, Riding, or Place, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for and during any Time not exceeding ſix Months, over and above any Penalty or Puniſhment to which ſuch Perſon ſo offending is or ſhall be liable by Law; and every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, from the Day on which his Engagement to ſerve in the Militia ſhall end, and not ſooner, ſhall belong, as a Soldier, to ſuch Corps of his Majeſty's other Forces into which he ſhall have been ſo inliſted, and ſhall, till regularly diſcharged therefrom, be ſubject to ſuch Duties, Pains, and Penalties, as the Soldiers in ſuch Corps ſhall be liable to.

'XIX. And whereas the ſeveral Powers granted by the Laws now in being, relating to the Militia 'Forces within that Part of Great Britain called England, for puniſhing Serjeants, Drummers, and Fifers, 'for Miſbehaviour, Diſobedience of Orders, or Neglect of Duty, during the Time the Militia to which they 'belong is not in actual Service, or is not called out to annual Exerciſe, have been found defective and 'inſufficient;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer, engaged to ſerve in any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, within that Part of Great Britain called England, and who ſhall have received Pay therein at any Time from and after the paſſing of this Act, during his Engagement to ſerve in any ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, and during the Time the Militia, to which he ſhall belong, is not in actual Service, or out at annual Exerciſe, ſhall miſbehave, be negligent in his Duty, or be diſobedient to the Orders of the Adjutant, or other his ſuperior Officer, and be thereof convicted upon the Oath of the Adjutant, or other his ſuperior Officer, or other credible Witneſs, before a Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, to the Militia whereof ſuch Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer, ſhall belong (which Oath ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter); ſuch Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer (over and above any Penalty or Puniſhment to which he ſhall be liable by any former Law) ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, or Place, wherein ſuch Offender ſhall be engaged to ſerve in the Militia, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding ſix Months.

Serjeant, Drummer, or Fife, guilty of Miſbehaviour, &c. may (over and above the Penalty he is ſubject to by former Acts) be committed for ſix months;

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer, during the Time the Militia to which he ſhall belong is not in actual Service, or out at annual Exerciſe, ſhall deſert from the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, in which he ſhall be inrolled and engaged to ſerve; it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Headborough, Conſtable, or Tythingman, of the Town or Place where any Perſon who may be reaſonably ſuſpected to be ſuch a Deſerter ſhall be found, to apprehend, or cauſe him to be apprehended, and to cauſe ſuch Perſon to be brought before any Juſtice of the Peace living in or near ſuch Town or Place, who hath hereby Power to examine ſuch ſuſpected Perſon; and if by his Confeſſion, or the Teſtimony of one or more Witneſs or Witneſſes upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of ſuch Juſtice, it ſhall appear or be found that ſuch ſuſpected Perſon is ſuch a Deſerter, ſuch Juſtice ſhall forthwith cauſe him to be conveyed to the Gaol of the County or Place where he ſhall be found, or to the Houſe of Correction, or other publick Priſon, in ſuch Town or Place where ſuch Deſerter ſhall be apprehended; and tranſmit an Account thereof to the Secretary at War for the Time being, to the End ſuch Perſon may be proceeded againſt as is herein after directed; and the Keeper of ſuch Gaol, Houſe of Correction, or Priſon, ſhall receive the full Subſiſtence of ſuch Deſerter, during the Time that he or they ſhall continue in his Cuſtody, for the Maintenance of the ſaid Deſerter, but ſhall not be intitled to any Fee or Reward on account of his or their Impriſonment; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Priſoner to be delivered up to the Order of the Secretary at War, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Secretary at War for the Time being, upon receiving ſuch Account as aforeſaid, if ſuch Deſerter ſhall be taken out of the County to the Militia whereof he or they ſhall belong, to iſſue out an Order, under his Hand and Seal, to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Priſon where ſuch Deſerter ſhall be confined, requiring ſuch Gaoler or Keeper to deliver ſuch Deſerter to the Perſon or Perſons therein named, which he is hereby required to do; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall thereupon convey ſuch Deſerter in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Means, as the Secretary at War for the Time being ſhall direct, before a Juſtice of the County to the Militia whereof ſuch Deſerter ſhall belong, who ſhall forthwith cauſe him to be conveyed to the Gaol, Houſe of Correction, or other publick Priſon, within the ſaid County, to the End ſuch Deſerter may be proceeded againſt as is herein after directed.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Deſerter ſhall remain and be kept in ſuch Gaol or Priſon without Bail or Mainprize, until ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, to which ſuch Deſerter ſhall belong, ſhall be called out to annual Exerciſe, or embodied and called forth into actual Service, which ſhall firſt happen; and the Officer then commanding ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, ſhall iſſue out an Order under his Hand and Seal, to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Priſon where ſuch Deſerter ſhall be confined, requiring ſuch Gaoler or Keeper to deliver ſuch Deſerter to the Perſon or Perſons therein named, which he is hereby required to do; and ſuch Officer commanding ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, is hereby impowered and required to ſummon and hold a Court-martial for the Trial of ſuch Deſerter, in ſuch Manner, and with the ſame Power and Authority, as given and directed by the Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters; and if upon ſuch Trial ſuch Deſerter ſhall be found guilty, it ſhall and may be lawful to puniſh him in ſuch Manner as ſuch Court-martial ſhall in their Diſcretion think fit, agreeable to the Powers and Proviſion of the Articles of War, and the ſaid Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer, ſhall deſert, during the Time the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, in which he ſhall be inrolled and be engaged to ſerve, ſhall be in actual Service, or at annual Exerciſe, and ſhall not be apprehended during ſuch Time, ſuch Deſerter ſhall and may be apprehended and proceeded againſt in the ſame Manner as is herein before directed in the Caſe of ſuch Serjeant-major, Serjeant, Drum-major, Drummer, or Fifer, deſerting, during the Time the Militia to which he ſhall belong is not in actual Service, or out at annual Exerciſe.

XXIV. And, for the better Encouragement of any Perſon to apprehend and ſecure ſuch Deſerters as aforeſaid, be it further enacted, That the Juſtice of the Peace before whom any ſuch Deſerter ſhall be committed, ſhall and may iſſue his Warrant in Writing to the Clerk of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to which ſuch Deſerter ſhall belong, directing and requiring ſuch Clerk to pay out of the Stock belonging to ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, into the Hands of ſuch Perſon who ſhall apprehend any ſuch Deſerter, the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Deſerter that ſhall be ſo apprehended and committed.

Perſons apprehending Deſerters, intitled to 20*s.* Reward.

XXV. Provided always, That if any Perſon ſhall harbour, conceal, or aſſiſt, any ſuch Deſerter, knowing him to be ſo, the Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of five Pounds; to be levied and recovered in the ſame Manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures are to be levied and recovered in and by an Act of the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and re-'duce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the raiſing and training of the 'Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England.'

An Act to prevent Frauds and Abuſes in the Admeaſurement of Coals, ſold by Wharf Meaſure, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof; and between Tower Dock and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex.

'WHEREAS many great Frauds and Impoſitions are practiſed in the Ameaſurement of Coals within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and at the ſeveral Wharfs ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, to the great Loſs of the Conſumer, and Diſcredit of the fair Trader, many of whom are frequently haraſſed with vexatious Law Suits, and Offences which, as the Law now ſtands, are not in their Power to prevent:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, Office appointed for a Term.

That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be erected and continued within the City of London, in or near Thames-Street, one Publick Office, which ſhall be called by the Name of 'The Land Coal Meters Office for the City of London, and between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex;' which ſaid Office ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, for and during the Term of fourteen Years then next enſuing, be managed by John Evans of the City of London, Coal Merchant, who is hereby nominated and appointed to be the Manager of ſuch Office; which Office, when erected, ſhall be kept open every Day (Sundays excepted) from the twenty-fifth Day of March to the twenty ninth Day of September yearly, during the Continuance of this Act, from the Hour of Five in the Morning till Nine in the Evening; and from the twenty-ninth Day of September to the twenty-fifth Day of March yearly, during the Continuance of this Act, from the Hour of Six in the Morning till Six in the Evening.

Principal Coal Meter, &c. ſubject to Court of Aldermen:

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid John Evans, and the Principal Coal Meter within the Limits aforeſaid for the Time being, and his and their Deputies or Servants, acting under him or them in the Admeaſurement of Coals, by virtue of or in purſuance of this preſent Act, ſhall be, and they, and every of them, are hereby declared to be ſubject to the Power, Juriſdiction, and Comptroll, of the Court of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City of London; and ſhall and may be diſmiſſed and ſuſpended by the ſaid Court, from the Execution and Emoluments of their ſaid reſpective Offices, upon Complaint and Proof of any Fraud, Default, Neglect, or other Miſbehaviour in the Management or Execution thereof, which Complaints ſhall and may be heard and determined by the ſaid Court in a ſummary Way; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof in any ways notwithſtanding.

At his Deceaſe, Corporation to appoint.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid John Evans ſhall happen to die before the Expiration of the ſaid Term of fourteen Years, the ſaid Office ſhall be managed by ſuch Perſon as ſhall be nominated and appointed by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as Principal Land Coal Meter for the City of London, until he ſhall, before two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London (who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame) take an Oath in the Words or to the Effect following; to wit,

His Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I will truly and faithfully, according to the beſt of my Judgment and Ability, execute the Office of Principal Land Coal Meter for the City of London, and for all the Wharfs ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex.

'So help me GOD.'

Labouring Meters to be appointed:

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid John Evans, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons that ſhall, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, be nominated and appointed to manage the ſaid Office, and he or they is and are hereby authorized to appoint a ſufficient Number of Perſons to be labouring Coal Meters within the ſaid City of London, and at the ſeveral Wharfs ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex; one of which ſaid labouring Coal Meters ſhall attend every Day (Sundays excepted) at ſuch of the Coal Wharfs, Warehouſes, or other Places of Sale, within the ſaid City of London, and at the Coal Wharfs, Warehouſes, or other Places of Sale, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, at which he ſhall be ſtationed by the Perſon or Perſons executing the Office of Principal Land Coal Meter, during the Continuance of this Act, at ſuch Times as is required by the Wharfinger or Dealer in Coals, where ſuch Meter is ſtationed to meaſure out the Coals, which ſhall, from Time to Time, be ſold by Wharf Meaſure, at any of the ſaid Wharfs or Warehouſes where ſuch labouring Coal Meters ſhall be ſo ſtationed as aforeſaid.

VI. And

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as one of the labouring Coal Meters, to be appointed as aforeſaid, until he ſhall, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid City of London (who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame) take an Oath in the Words or to the Effect following; to wit,

Their Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I will duly and faithfully, to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, execute the Office of one of the labouring Coal Meters for the City of London, and the ſeveral Wharfs ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex; and that I will truly and impartially meaſure all Coals between Buyer and Seller, without Favour or Hatred.

'So help me GOD.'

Oaths to be recorded.

And the ſaid Juſtices reſpectively, who ſhall adminiſter the Oaths by this Act directed to be taken, are hereby required to certify the taking thereof to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the ſaid City of London after the taking of ſuch Oaths reſpectively, there to remain on Record.

Coal Meters not to be intereſted in the Sale of Coals,

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Principal Coal Meter, or any of the Perſons to be employed under him, ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, during his or their reſpective Continuance in their Office or Employment as aforeſaid, be directly or indirectly intereſted or concerned in the Sale of any Coals whatſoever, otherwiſe than in their ſaid reſpective Offices; he or they reſpectively ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds; and being thereof convicted before the ſaid Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, ſhall be diſmiſſed from his or their ſaid reſpective Office or Employment, and be for ever diſabled from holding or executing the ſame or any other under this Act.

3 l. Penalty on labouring Coal Meters not attending on Notice.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of the ſaid labouring Coal Meters, having Notice in Writing given to him or them to attend at any Wharf within the Limits aforeſaid to be named in ſuch Notice, at any particular Hour of the next Day to be therein mentioned, in order to meaſure the Coals of ſuch Perſon giving ſuch Notice, ſhall refuſe or neglect to attend and do his or their Duty accordingly; every ſuch labouring Coal Meter ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of three Pounds; which Sum, if not paid within one Calendar Month next after the Conviction of the offending Party, ſhall or may be recovered of or from the ſaid Principal Coal Meter for the Time being, in like Manner as might have been againſt the Party ſo convicted.

Stations to be frequently varied.

IX. And, in order to prevent Confederacy, be it enacted, That the Stations to be appointed to and for the labouring Coal Meters, at the ſaid Wharfs, ſhall be frequently varied by the Principal Coal Meter, or the Perſon or Perſons executing the Office of Principal Coal Meter, in ſuch Manner as he or they ſhall think fit.

Coals to be meaſured in Preſence of a labouring Meter.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Coals which, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, ſhall be ſold as and for Wharf Meaſure, at any Place or Places within the ſaid City of London, or at any of the ſeveral Wharfs, Warehouſes, or other Places, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, ſhall be meaſured in the Preſence of one of the ſaid labouring Coal Meters, in ſuch Manner as is directed in and by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Meaſures and Prices of Coals; and the ſaid labouring Coal Meters ſhall and may, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, to fill up any Buſhel or Buſhels of Coals, as ſhall appear to him or them to be deficient or wanting in Meaſure, out of the Stock of Coals of the Perſon or Perſons ſo vending or contracting for the Sale of the ſaid Coals.

Coal Meters Fee.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That four Pence by the Chaldron, for every Chaldron of Coals which, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, ſhall be ſold and delivered at any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, within the ſaid City of London, and the Liberties thereof, or between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, ſhall be paid by the Perſon who keeps the Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, where ſuch Coals are carted from, or by the Seller of ſuch Coals, to the Principal Land Coal Meter for the Time being, or to the labouring Coal Meters, for the Purpoſes following; that is to ſay, Part of the ſaid Sum for the Uſe of the ſaid Principal Coal Meter, as a Recompence for his Labour and Trouble, and for defraying the Charges of his Clerks, Meſſengers, Houſe Rent, Fire, Candles, and all other Expences incident to the Execution of the Office aforeſaid, and the other Part for the Hire of the labouring Coal Meters; and thereupon ſuch Principal Land Coal Meter ſhall, and he is hereby required to deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to every Seller of ſuch Coals, or the Carmen who ſhall cart, lead, drive, or carry the ſame, a Paper Writing or Ticket, ſigned by the ſaid Principal Land Coal Meter, and counterſigned by the ſaid labouring Coal Meter attending and delivering the ſame, in which ſhall be contained as well the Chriſtian and Surname of the reſpective Sellers, as of the Conſumers of the ſaid Coals, the Quantity, and Day of the Week, Month, and Year of the Delivery and Admeaſurement, the Amount of the Metage Charge, and the Names of the Carmen or Perſons employed to cart, lead, drive, or carry, the ſame Coals; and alſo ſhall contain a Notice to the Purchaſer or Purchaſers of the ſaid Coals, that if he, ſhe, or they, is or are diſſatisfied with the Meaſure thereof, which Diſſatisfaction muſt be expreſſed to the Carman before any Part thereof are ſhot or unladen from the ſaid Cart; which ſaid Ticket being thus made compleat, and Metage paid, ſhall be delivered unaltered by the labouring Coal Meter counterſigning the ſame, without Delay, to the Carman or Perſon employed to cart, carry, drive, or lead, the Coals deſcribed in ſuch Ticket, to the Conſumer therein named; which ſaid Ticket unaltered, the Carman or Perſon therein named to be employed to cart, carry, lead, or drive, the Coals in ſuch Ticket deſcribed, ſhall, and he is hereby hereby required to deliver to the reſpective Conſumers therein named, or to their Agent or Servant who ſhall attend to receive the Coals deſcribed in ſuch Ticket, for the Uſe of ſuch Conſumer; and thereupon he, ſhe, and they, are hereby required to pay to the Seller named in ſuch Ticket the Metage therein ſpecified: And if the labouring Coal Meter, counterſigning ſuch Ticket, ſhall, after Payment of the Metage Charge in purſuance of this Act, refuſe to deliver ſuch Ticket as herein before directed to the Carman or Perſon employed to cart, lead, drive, or carry, the Coals therein deſcribed; ſuch labouring Coal Meter ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings: And if ſuch Carman or Perſon employed to cart, carry, lead, or drive, the Coals deſcribed, in ſuch Ticket, ſhall, after the ſame Ticket ſhall have been ſo delivered to him by the labouring Coal Meter counterſigning the ſame, either alter, or neglect or refuſe to deliver the ſame Ticket to the Conſumer therein named, or to the Agent or Servant who ſhall attend to receive the Tolls deſcribed in ſuch Ticket; ſuch Carman or Perſon employed to cart, lead, or drive, the Coals deſcribed in ſuch Ticket, ſhall likewiſe forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of ten Shillings.

Penalties on altering Tickets, &c.

or carrying Coals without.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Cart or Carts loaded, or in which any Quantity of Coals, exceeding ſeventeen Buſhels, ſhall be ſent or driven from any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, within the ſaid City of London and the Liberties thereof, or from any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, without having firſt obtained ſuch Ticket as aforeſaid; that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Vender of the ſaid Coals, being convicted thereof by the Oaths (or being one of the People called Quakers, by Affirmation) of two or more Witneſſes, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid City of London or County of Middleſex, and which he and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to adminiſter and take, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Dimenſions of Sacks.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Wharfinger, or Dealer in Coals, ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, make uſe of one or more Sack or Sacks for the carrying of Coals within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, or at any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, ſituate betwen the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, of leſs Dimenſions than four Feet in Length, and two Feet in Breadth, being convicted thereof by the Oaths (or being one of the People called Quakers, by Affirmation) of two or more credible Witneſſes, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London or County of Middleſex, and which he and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to adminiſter and take, ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Penalty on Wharfingers, &c, bribing Meters;

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Wharfinger, or Dealer in Coals, ſhall directly or indirectly give, or cauſe to be given, to any labouring Coal Meter within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, or at any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Fee, Reward, or Gratuity whatſoever, over and beſides the four Pence per Chaldron herein before enacted and allowed for the Charges of Metage, being convicted thereof by the Oaths (or being one of the People called Quakers, by Affirmation) of two or more credible Witneſſes, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London or the County of Middleſex, and which he and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to adminiſter and take, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

and on Meters permitting deficient Sacks to be uſed,

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any labouring Coal Meter ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, uſe, or permit or ſuffer Sacks to be made uſe of, for the meaſuring or carrying of Coals, of leſs Dimenſions than four Feet in Length, and two Feet in Breadth, at any Place or Places within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, or at any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, being convicted thereof by the Oaths (or being one of the People called Quakers, by Affirmation) of two or more credible Witneſſes before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London or County of Middleſex, and which he and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to adminiſter and take, ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings.

or otherwiſe not performing their Duty.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any labouring Coal Meter, to be appointed and qualified purſuant to this Act, ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, deliver a falſe or counterfeit Ticket to any Dealer, Conſumer, Carman, or other Perſon, with Intent to prejudice or defraud any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, or ſhall take or receive from any Dealer in Coals any Sum or Sums of Money, Fee, Reward, or Gratuity whatſoever, over and beſides the four Pence per Chaldron herein before enacted and allowed to be taken for the Metage Charge; or if any ſuch labouring Coal Meter ſhall wilfully make, permit, or ſuffer to be made, falſe Meaſure, of Coals at any Place or Places within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, or at any Wharf, Warehouſe, or Place, ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, being in any or either of the ſaid Caſes convicted thereof, by the Oaths (or being one of the People called Quakers, by Affirmation) of two or more credible Witneſſes, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London, or the County of Middleſex, and which he and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to adminiſter and take, ſhall, for every Offence in either of the ſaid Caſes, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, and be rendered incapable of ever ſerving there after in the Office of a Coal Meter, Exemptions with reſpect to Water-works, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act ſhall not extend to the Owners of any Works for raiſing Water by Fire, nor to the Owners of any Coals to be bought, ſold, and delivered, as and for Pool Meaſure, but that they ſhall and may have one Chaldron of Coals, or more, delivered under the Inſpection of his or their own Agent (in the Abſence of a Meter) and in that Caſe, ſuch Perſons are hereby reſpectively exempted from Payment of any Metage Charge, by virtue of this Act; but if ſuch Perſons ſhall require the Care or Attendance of any Meter to be appointed in purſuance of this Act, then, and in ſuch Caſe, they ſhall pay the Metage Charge of four Pence by the Chaldron hereby laid, as other Conſumers of Coals are hereby obliged, or ought to do, in purſuance of this Act; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Penalty on Meters ſuffering Coals to paſs without being meaſured.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch labouring Coal Meter ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, wittingly or willingly ſuffer any Coals ſold as and for Wharf Meaſure (exceeding the Quantity of ſeventeen Buſhels) to be ſent from any Wharf or Warehouſe within the ſaid City of London, and the Liberties thereof, or from any Wharf or Warehouſe ſituate between the Tower of London and Limehouſe Hole, in the County of Middleſex, without being meaſured in the Manner herein before directed, and ſhall not give Information thereof to the principal Land Coal Meter, or his Deputies, at the ſaid Office, within two Days next after ſuch Coals ſhall have been ſent as aforeſaid, and ſhall be duly convicted thereof by the Oaths of two or more credible Witneſſes; ſuch labouring Coal Meter ſhall from thenceforth be for ever rendered incapable of acting as a labouring Coal Meter within the Limits compriſed in this Act, and forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Coals may be remeaſured.

XIX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall be diſſatisfied with, or think him or herſelf aggrieved by or in the Meaſure of any Coals ſold to him or her by Wharf Meaſure within the Limits aforeſaid, and ſhall, upon Delivery to him or her of the Meter's Ticket accompanying ſuch Coals, ſignify his or her Deſire to have the ſame re-meaſured; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Carman or Driver of the Cart or other Carriage, in which the ſaid Coals ſhall be brought, ſhall continue at the Houſe or Lodging of the Purchaſer of the ſaid Coals, with the ſaid Coals and ſaid Cart until they are re-meaſured; and the ſaid Purchaſer ſhall immediately ſend, or cauſe to be ſent, to the Vender of the ſaid Coals, or to his or her Wharf, Notice in Writing, that the ſaid Coals are going to be re-meaſured, and alſo ſend Notice thereof to the Land Coal Meter's Office; and thereupon the ſaid principal Meter, or one of the labouring Meters (not being the Meter under whoſe Inſpection the ſaid Coals were originally meaſured) ſhall, within the Space of two Hours next after ſuch Notice in Writing left at the Land Coal Meter's Office aforeſaid, attend to re-meaſure the ſaid Coals, and ſhall accordingly re-meaſure the ſame, Sack by Sack, in the Preſence of the Vender and Purchaſer of the ſaid Coals, or their Agents or Servants, if any of them ſhall attend and deſire to ſee the ſame re-meaſured; for which Re-admeaſurement the Purchaſer ſhall pay the principal Meter the Sum of ſix Pence for every Chaldron of Coals ſo re-meaſured: And in caſe the Coals thus re-meaſured ſhall not amount to the Quantity for which they were ſold, then the Vender of ſuch Coals ſhall forfeit and pay for every Buſhel of Coals found deficient the Sum of five Pounds, and alſo forfeit every Chaldron of Coals ſo found deficient or wanting in Meaſure to and for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſaid Coals ſhall be ſo re-meaſured; and the labouring Meter, under whoſe Inſpection the Coals were firſt meaſured, ſhall, for every Buſhel ſo deficient, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings; which Sum, if not paid within five Days next after his Conviction, ſhall and may be recovered from the Perſon executing the Office of Principal Meter for the Time being; and the Coal Porters who ſhall meaſure the ſame for the Vender thereof, ſhall, for every Buſhel of Coals ſo wanting, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and ſix Pence.

Carmen to be paid 2 s 6 d. per Hour, when ſtopped to re-meaſure.

XX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Cart ſhall be ſtopped or detained for the Purpoſe or Pretence of re-admeaſuring the Coals laden thereon, the Owner of every ſuch Cart ſhall be intitled to the Sum of two Shillings and ſix Pence per Hour, for every Hour the Cart ſhall be ſo detained, over and above the uſual Cartage of ſuch Coals; which two Shillings and ſix Pence per Hour ſhall be paid by the Vender of the ſaid Coals, in caſe the ſame ſhall, upon ſuch Re-admeaſurement, be found deficient in Meaſure; or by the Purchaſer of the ſaid Coals, in caſe the ſame ſhall not be re-meaſured, or ſhall, upon ſuch Re-admeaſurement, be found to amount to the Quantity for which the ſame were ſold.

Dealers offending under this Act, not liable to Penalties of Act 3 Geo. 2. c 26.

XXI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Seller of, or Dealer in, Coals, within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall, for any Offences under this Act, be ſubject or liable to any other Penalty, Forfeiture, or Diſability, than what are herein before reſpectively inflicted or enacted, in or by the Act of the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Coal Trade, or any other Law, Statute, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Recovery and Application of Penalties, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid ſeveral Forfeitures and Penalties impoſed, and to be incurred, by virtue of or under this preſent Act, ſhall be recovered and applied in the Manner, and to and for the Purpoſes, following (that is to ſay); Such and ſo many of the ſaid Forfeitures and Penalties as do and ſhall exceed the Sum of five Pounds, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; the one Moiety of which ſaid Forfeitures and Penalties (that is, where each of them exceeds five Pounds) ſhall be to and for the Uſe of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof (with full Coſts of Suit) to and for the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame; and all other the aforeſaid Forfeitures and Penalties ſhall be recovered by way of Complaint made unto any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the City of London, or for the ſaid County of Middleſex, who is and are hereby required to call the Parties before him or them, and to hear and examine ſuch Complaint on Oath, or upon Affirmation (in caſe any Teſtimony in this reſpect ſhall be given by any of the People called Quakers, and which Oath or Affirmation ſuch Juſtices are hereby reſpectively required and impowered to adminiſter and take), and upon due Proof thereof made to his or their Satisfaction, to grant a Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, for levying ſuch Forfeitures and Penalties accordingly; the one Moiety thereof to and for the Uſe of the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to and for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh in which ſuch Offences ſhall have been reſpectively committed; and in caſe ſuch Forfeitures or Penalties ſhall not (after ſuch Conviction or Convictions) be forthwith paid, that then the ſame ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the reſpective Offenders, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be convicted, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to ſuch Offender or Offenders; and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be committed to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding thirty Days, and not leſs than ſeven Days, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour.

Appeal.

XXIII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That if any Perſon ſo convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall think himſelf aggrieved, he may appeal to the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the City of London or County of Middleſex next after ſuch Conviction, but not afterwards; and that Seſſions, when ſo appealed to, ſhall, at the then next Seſſions after bringing ſuch Appeal, hear and finally determine the ſame; and if the Appellant in ſuch Appeal ſhall not make good, ſupport, and ſucceed in ſuch his Appeal, or proſecute the ſame with Effect, the ſaid Court of Seſſion ſhall then award ſuch Coſts as they ſhall think reaſonable, to be then and there in open Court, with the Penalty adjudged on and by ſuch Conviction, paid to the Proſecutor or Informer; and for want thereof, to commit the Perſon or Perſons thus appealing to the Common Gaol of and for the City of London or the County of Middleſex, and there to remain until he or they ſhall and do make actual Payment of ſuch Coſts and Penalty, to the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame ſhall be awarded, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; but in caſe the ſaid Appellant ſhall make good, ſupport, and ſucceed in ſuch his Appeal, and be acquitted of his Conviction, the ſame Court ſhall, in that Caſe, award to ſuch Appellant reaſonable Coſts, to be then and there in open Court paid to him or them, by the Perſon or Perſons on whoſe Information or Proſecution ſuch Conviction ſhall have been founded or made; and for want of ſuch Payment, the ſaid Court of Seſſions ſhall commit ſuch Informers and Proſecutors reſpectively to the Common Gaol of the ſaid City of London, or the County of Middleſex, there to remain until he or they ſhall and do actually pay to ſuch Appellant the Coſts ſo reſpectively awarded to them as aforeſaid; but no Conviction to be pronounced or made by virtue of or under this Act, ſhall be quaſhed or vacated for want of Form only.

No Certiorari.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, That no Writ of Certiorari ſhall iſſue or be iſſuable to remove the Record of any Conviction, or Proceedings thereon to be taken, made, or pronounced, in purſuance or by the Authority of this Act, into any of his ſaid Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

Limitation of Actions.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Information, or Suit, ſhall be brought, filed, or proſecuted, againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing to be done in purſuance of this Act, the ſame ſhall be commenced or filed within two Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and ſhall be laid in the City of London, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in or to ſuch Actions, Suits, or Informations, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence on any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear ſo to have been done, or if any ſuch Action, Suit or Information, ſhall be brought or filed after the Time for this Purpoſe herein before in this reſpect limited, or ſhall be laid or brought in any other County or Place, then the Jury, in every ſuch Caſe, ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuit, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Actions, or if a Verdict ſhall paſs againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; or if upon Demurrer Judgement ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Full Coſts, and ſuch Remedy for the Recovery of the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Coſts of Suit in other Caſes by Law.

General Iſſue.

Full Coſts.

Publick Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this preſent Act ſhall be deemed, judged, and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and all other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Term of the Act.

XXVII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for fourteen Years from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

See 32 Geo. 2. c. 22. § 4. 7 Geo. 3. c. 28.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

"WHEREAS by an Act made in this Seſſion of Parliament, the Sum of one million five hundred thouſand Pounds is authoriſed to be raiſed for the Publick Service, by Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum, and a Lottery to be attended with Annuities after the like Rate; and all ſuch Annuities are, by the ſaid Act, charged upon the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund:" We your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, towards making good the Payment of the ſaid Annuities ſo charged on the ſaid Fund, have reſolved to give and grant unto your Majeſty the ſeveral additional Rates and Duties herein after mentioned; and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral additional Rates and Duties following; that is to ſay, Additional Duties upon certain Linen Cloth imported.

For every Ell of Linen Cloth or Sheeting above one Yard Engliſh in Width (except Flanders Holland Cloth) which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, three Pence.

For every Ell of Linen Cloth called Drilling, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, three Pence.

And after thoſe Rates for any greater or leſs Quantity of ſuch Goods reſpectively, over and above all other Duties impoſed thereon by any former Act of Parliament.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Linen Cloth the Produce and Manufacture of the Eaſt Indies; nor to any Damaſk or Diaper Tabling, Napkening, or Towelling; nor to any Cambricks or Lawns; nor to any Dutch Barras or Heſſens Canvas, which may be imported into this Kingdom.

Cloth exempted.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duties granted by this Act ſhall be paid down in ready Money, without any Diſcount or Allowance; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed or appointed for raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying the former Duties upon the like Goods, imported into this Kingdom, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, reſpectively relating thereto, were particularly repeated, and again enacted, in the Body of this preſent Act.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Goods or Merchandizes that have paid the Duties hereby granted ſhall, at any Time or Times, be again exported by any Merchant or Merchants, within three Years from the Importation thereof; the Duty by this Act granted, and which ſhall have been actually paid, for ſuch Goods or Merchandizes, ſhall, without any Delay or Reward, be repaid unto ſuch Merchant or Merchants who ſhall export the ſame; under the ſame Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed and directed by any Act of Parliament with reſpect to any former Drawback upon ſuch Goods.

To be repaid upon ſuch as ſhall be exported within 3 Years.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Money ariſing by the ſeveral Rates and Duties herein before granted (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, recovering, and paying, the ſame) ſhall, from Time to Time, be reſpectively paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenue; and ſhall be carried to, and made Part of, the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund, towards making good the Payment of the Annuities in reſpect of the ſaid one million five hundred thouſand Pounds, charged upon the ſaid Fund by the ſaid Act made in this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for raiſing the Sum of one million five 'hundred thouſand Pounds by way of Annuities, and a Lottery attended with Annuities, to be charged on 'the Sinking Fund.'

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Monies which ſhall, from Time to Time, ariſe and remain in the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, of the Duties granted by an Act made in this * Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for granting to his Majeſty, additional Duties 'upon Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſe-hair Hats and Bonnets, and upon certain Materials for 'making the ſame, imported into this Kingdom,' ſhall be alſo carried to, and made Part of, the ſaid Fund, towards making good the Payment of the ſaid Annuities.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for explaining an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, to prevent Extortion in Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and Bailiffs of Franchiſes or Liberties, in Caſes of Execution.

29 Eliz. c. 4.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, 'An Act to prevent Extortion in Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and Bailiffs of Franchiſes or Liberties, in 'Caſes of Execution, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That it ſhall not be lawful to or for any Sheriff, 'Under-Sheriff, Bailiff of Franchiſes or Liberties, nor for any of their Officers, Miniſters, Servants, 'Bailiffs, or Deputies, nor for any of them, by reaſon or colour of their or either of their Office or Offices, 'to have, receive, or take, of any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, directly or indirectly, for the ſerving and 'executing of any Extent or Execution upon the Body, Lands, Goods, or Chattels, of any Perſon or Per-'ſons whatſoever, more or other Conſideration or Recompence than in this preſent Act is and ſhall be 'limited and appointed, which ſhall be lawful to be had, received, and taken; that is to ſay, Twelve-'pence of and for every twenty Shillings, where the Sum exceedeth not one-hundred Pounds; and ſix 'Pence of and for every twenty Shillings, being over and above the ſaid Sum of one hundred Pounds, that 'he or they ſhall ſo levy or extend, and deliver in Execution, or take the Body in Execution for, by virtue 'and by force of any ſuch Extent or Execution whatſoever: And whereas, as the Law now ſtands, Sheriffs 'are, by virtue of the ſaid recited Act, intitled to the Poundage therein mentioned, for taking the Body of 'any Perſon in Execution, upon Judgments obtained upon Bail Bonds, entered into for the Appearance 'of Perſons proſecuted for Offences againſt the Laws relating to his Majeſty's Revenues of Cuſtoms or 'Exciſe, ſuch Bail Bonds being proſecuted in the Name and at the Suit of the Sheriffs to whom ſuch Bail 'Bonds are given, though the Sheriffs proſecuting ſuch Bonds are merely Truſtees in the Suits, for the Be-'nefit of the Crown, and the Sheriffs executing ſuch Proceſs, would not in thoſe Caſes be intitled to any 'Poundage, if the Proceedings were carried on in the Name of the Crown; by Means whereof the Intent 'of the Laws relating to the Revenues of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe will in ſuch Caſes be ſo far defeated:' To remedy which Inconvenience for the future, May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to allow any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or other Perſon whatſoever employed in the Execution of Proceſs, any Poundage, for taking the Body of any Perſon in Execution upon any Proceſs at the Suit of any Sheriff, or other Officer or Miniſter of the Crown, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Perſon proſecuted, either for any Duties due or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or for any Penalty inflicted by any Act of Parliament made or to be made for the preventing the clandeſtine Running or Receiving any cuſtomable or prohibited Goods; or in any Caſe whatſoever where the Sheriff or Officer executing ſuch Proceſs would not be intitled to Poundage, if the Proceedings were or had been carried on directly in the Name of the Crown; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Caſes not intitled to Poundage, &c.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to inforce, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Execution of an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the ſeveral Duties upon Houſes, Windows, and Lights; and for granting to his Majeſty other Duties upon Houſes, Windows and Lights; and for explaining the ſaid Act.

' WHEREAS ſeveral Duties were granted upon Houſes, Windows, and Lights, by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the ſeveral Duties upon Houſes, Windows, and Lights, and for granting to his Majeſty other Duties upon Houſes, Windows, and Lights: And whereas the Rates and Duties thereby granted were directed to be raiſed and levied in ſuch Manner as the Duties hereby repealed were directed to be raiſed and levied by the ſeveral Acts therein mentioned, except with reſpect to ſuch Particulars wherein the ſaid Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament had altered the ſame: And whereas Difficulties have ariſen with reſpect to the raiſing the ſaid Duties upon Houſes, Windows, or Lights, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by reaſon that an Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual levying of the Duties upon Windows or Lights, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is not mentioned or referred to in the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things contained in the ſaid Act, made in the twenty-ſixth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for the more effectual levying, collecting, and paying the Duties therein mentioned, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland (except ſuch as are varied by the ſaid Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, or by this Act) ſhall be in full Force, and be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, throughout that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying, from the tenth Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſix, the ſeveral Duties upon Houſes, Windows, and Lights, by the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame, or the like Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and that all Acts and Proceedings (if any have been) for raiſing and levying the ſaid Duties upon Houſes, Windows, or Lights, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, granted by the ſaid Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, agreeably to the Proviſions made in the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, ſhall be valid and effectual; and all Perſons concerned therein ſhall be, and are hereby indemnified in reſpect thereof.

6 Geo. 3. c. 33.

26 Geo. 2. c. 12.

' II. And whereas Doubts have ariſen, whether Commiſſions and Warrants given and granted unto the ' ſeveral Officers employed in the Survey and Inſpection of the Rates and Duties upon Houſes, Windows, ' and Lights, by the ſaid former Acts impoſed, are or ſhall be deemed good, valid, and effectual, in reſpect ' of the Rates and Duties granted by the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Commiſſions and Warrants already given and granted to ſuch Officers ſhall be, and be deemed, valid and effectual with regard to the Rates and Duties granted by the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſaid Commiſſions and Warrants had been or were granted and made out to every ſuch Officer reſpectively ſubſequent to the paſſing, and in purſuance of the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to continue ſeveral Laws therein mentioned, relating to the clandeſtine Running of uncuſtomed Goods, and preventing Frauds relating to the Cuſtoms; to prevent the clandeſtine Running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; to the granting Liberty to carry Rice from his Majeſty's Provinces of Carolina and Georgia, in America, directly to any Part of Europe Southward of Cape Finiſterre, in Ships built and navigated according to Law; and to the prohibiting the Importation of Books reprinted Abroad, and firſt compoſed, written, and printed, in Great Britain.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11.

'WHEREAS the ſeveral Laws herein after-mentioned are near expiring: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Clauſes in an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, 'An Act againſt clandeſtine 'Running of uncuſtomed Goods; and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Cuſtoms;' relating to ſuch Foreign Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as ſhall be taken in at Sea out of any Ship or Veſſel, in order to be landed or put into any other Ship or Veſſel, or Boat; and alſo relating to Goods not reported, and found after clearing Ships; and whereby further Remedies are provided againſt re-landing Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and Foreign Goods ſhipped out for Parts beyond the Seas; and alſo relating to the opening or altering the Package of Goods on board Ships outward bound; and alſo relating to hovering Ships or Veſſels of the Burthen of fifty Tons, or under; and alſo concerning the Bales or Package in which Coffee ſhall be exported; and alſo relating to Rum imported in Caſks or Veſſels not containing twenty Gallons at the leaſt; and alſo relating to Certificate Goods entered in order to be exported to Ireland; which were to have Continuance for the Term of three Years from the ſeveral Times of the Commencement thereof, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament reſpectively; and which by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts paſſed in the ninth Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, and in the ſecond, eighth, fifteenth, and ſixteenth, twentieth, twenty-ſeventh, and thirty-third Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, were further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, to the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

8 Geo. 1. c. 18.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, 'An Act to prevent the clandeſtine Running of 'Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; and to prevent Ships breaking their Quarantine; and to 'ſubject Copper Ore, of the Production of the Britiſh Plantations, to ſuch Regulations as other enume-'rated Commodities of the like Production are ſubject;' which was to be in Force for two Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts (except the Clauſes obliging all Ships and Veſſels to perform Quarantine) was to have further Continuance to the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which, by an Act made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, was intended to be further continued to the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-four, but, by Miſtake, the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſeven was inſerted therein, inſtead of the ſaid Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-four; and which, by ſeveral ſubſe-quent Acts made in the twenty-firſt, twenty-ſeventh, and thirty-third Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, was further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, to the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

3 Geo. 2. c. 28.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for granting Liberty to carry Rice from his Majeſty's Pro-'vince of Carolina in America, directly to any Part of Europe Southward of Cape Finiſterre, in Ships built 'in and belonging to Great Britain, and navigated according to Law,' which was to be in Force for five Years, from the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and alſo an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, to continue the ſaid Act from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and to extend that Liberty to his Majeſty's Province of Georgia, in America; which ſaid Acts, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts made in the fifteenth and ſixteenth, twentieth, twenty-ſeventh and thirty-third Years of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, were further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, to the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament. further continued to 29 Sept. 1774.

IV. And be it further enacted, That ſo much of an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for prohibiting the Importation of Books reprinted Abroad, and firſt 'compoſed, or written and printed in Great Britain; and for repealing ſo much of an Act made in the 'eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen ANNE, as impowers the limiting the Prices of Books;' which Act was to continue in Force from the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-nine, for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which, ſo far as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Books reprinted Abroad, and firſt compoſed or written and printed in Great Britain, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts made in the twentieth, twenty-ſeventh, and thirty-third Years of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, was further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, to the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament. 12 Geo. 2. c. 36. further continued to 29 Sept. 1774.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the Second, for Encouragement of the Arts of Deſigning, Engraving, and Etching Hiſtorical and other Prints; and for veſting in, and ſecuring to Jane Hogarth, Widow, the Property in certain Prints.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament paſſed, in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Arts of Deſigning, Engraving, and Etching, Hiſtorical and other Prints, by veſting the Properties thereof in the Inventors, and Engravers, during the Time therein mentioned, has been found ineffectual for the Purpoſes thereby intended;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall invent or deſign, engrave, etch, or work in Mezzotinto or Chiaro Oſcuro, or, from his own Work, Deſign, or Invention, ſhall cauſe or procure to be deſigned, engraved, etched, or worked in Mezzotinto or Chiaro Oſcuro, any Hiſtorical Print or Prints, or any Print or Prints, of any Portrait, Converſation, Landſcape, or Architecture, Map, Chart, or Plan, or any other Print or Prints whatſoever, ſhall have, and are hereby declared to have, the Benefit and Protection of the ſaid Act and this Act, under the Reſtrictions and Limitations herein after-mentioned. 8 Geo. 2. c. 13.

Original Inventors, &c. of Prints, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall engrave, etch, or work in Mezzotinto or Chiaro Oſcuro, or cauſe to be engraved, etched, or worked, any Print, taken from any Picture, Drawing, Model, or Sculpture, either ancient or modern, ſhall have, and are hereby declared to have, the Benefit and Protection of the ſaid Act, and this Act, for the Term herein after-mentioned, in like Manner, as if ſuch Print had been graved or drawn from the Original Deſign of ſuch Graver, Etcher, or Draftſman, and if any Perſon ſhall engrave, print, and publiſh, or import for Sale, any Copy of any ſuch Print, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this and the ſaid former Act, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be liable to the Penalties contained in the ſaid Act, to be recovered as therein and herein after is mentioned.

intitled to the Benefit of recited and preſent Act, &c.

" The ſole Right of printing and reprinting the late W. Hogarth's Prints, veſted in his Widow and Execu" trix for twenty Years. Penalty of copying, &c. any of them, before Expiration of the Term; ſuch
" Copies excepted as were made and expoſed to Sale after the Term of 14 Years, for which the ſaid Works " were firſt licenſed, &c."

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Penalties and Penalty inflicted by the ſaid Act, and extended, and meant to be extended, to the ſeveral Caſes compriſed in this Act, ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered in like Manner, and under the like Reſtrictions and Limitations, as in and by the ſaid Act is declared and appointed; and the Plaintiff or common Informer, in every ſuch Action (in caſe ſuch Plaintiff or common Informer ſhall recover any of the Penalties incurred by this or the ſaid former Act), ſhall recover the ſame, together with his Full Coſts of Suit.

VI. Provided alſo, That the Party proſecuting ſhall commence his Proſecution within the Space of ſix Calendar Months after the Offence committed.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſole Right and Liberty of printing and reprinting intended to be ſecured and protected by the ſaid former Act and this Act, ſhall be extended, continued, and be veſted in the reſpective Proprietors, for the Space of twenty-eight Years, to commence from the Day of the firſt publiſhing of any of the Works reſpectively herein before and in the ſaid former Act mentioned.

The Right intended veſted in the Proprietors for 28 Years.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced or brought againſt any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for doing, or cauſing to be done, any Thing in purſuance of this Act, the ſame ſhall be brought within the Space of ſix Calendar Months after the Fact committed; and the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence; and if, upon ſuch Action or Suit, a Verdict ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Actions, then the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have and recover Full Coſts; for the Recovery whereof he ſhall have the ſame Remedy as any other Defendant or Defendants, in any other Caſe, hath or have by Law.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Pariſh Poor Children, of the ſeveral Pariſhes therein mentioned, within the Bills of Mortality.

'WHEREAS it would greatly tend to the Preſervation of the Lives of the Infant Pariſh Poor of the ſeveral Pariſhes hereafter mentioned, and be of publick Utility, if the Officers of ſuch Pariſhes 'were compelled by Law to ſend ſuch Infant Poor into the Country, to be nurſed, for a certain Time; 'and proper Perſons appointed Guardians in each Pariſh, to inſpect into the Management and Uſage of 'ſuch Infants: And whereas the keeping Regiſters of ſuch Infant Poor, until they ſhall reſpectively arrive 'at the Age of fourteen Years, be placed out Apprentice, or otherwiſe diſpoſed of, would be a further 'Means of preſerving the Lives of ſuch Infants:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Child and Children, who on or before the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, was or were born in, or received into, any Workhouſe or Pariſh-houſe; or which ſhall thereafter be born in any Workhouſe or Pariſh-houſe, or received by any Select Veſtries, Governors, Directors, or Managers, appointed for the Management of Parochial Affairs, or by any Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, or other Officer or Officers authorized by the ſeveral Pariſhes following, or any of them, reſpectively; that is to ſay, The ſeventeen Pariſhes without the Walls of London; the twenty-three Pariſhes of Middleſex and Surry, being within the Bills of Mortality, and the Liberty of the Tower of London; and the ten Pariſhes within the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter; ſhall be nurſed and taken care of in Manner as hereafter mentioned.

Children born in, or received into, any Workhouſe, are to be taken care of, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Children, under the Age of ſix Years, who, upon the ſaid firſt Day of July, ſhall be under the Care of Veſtries, Governors, Directors, or Managers of the Poor, or Pariſh Officers, ſhall, within fourteen Days after the ſaid Time, be ſent into the Country, to a Diſtance not leſs than three Miles from any Part of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter; there to be nurſed and maintained at the Charge of their reſpective Pariſhes.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Children who ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, be born in, or ſhall be received into, Workhouſes or Pariſh-houſes belonging to the ſaid Pariſhes, not being ſuckled by the Mother, under the Age of two Years, ſhall, within fourteen Days after their Birth or Reception, be ſent into the Country, to a Diſtance not leſs than five Miles from any Part of the ſaid Cities of London or Weſtminſter; and all Children received into ſuch Workhouſes or Pariſh-houſes above the Age of two Years, and under the Age of ſix Years, ſhall, within fourteen Days after their Reception, be ſent into the Country, to a Diſtance not leſs than three Miles from any Part of the ſaid Cities of London or Weſtminſter; there to be nurſed and maintained in Manner hereinafter directed.

Weekly Rates to be paid, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the Nurſing and Maintenance of each Child ſo put out as aforeſaid, the reſpective Sums following ſhall be paid; that is to ſay, For the firſt ſix Years of their Age, a Sum not leſs than two Shillings and ſix Pence; and from that Time until ſuch Child ſhall be put out Apprentice, or return to the Workhouſe, a Sum not leſs than two Shillings per Week; and ſhall alſo, over and above the ſaid Charge of nurſing and maintaining each Child, pay to every Nurſe who ſhall have received any Child of or under the Age of nine Months (the ſaid Child being alive, and having been treated properly, and to the Satisfaction of the Guardians hereafter mentioned, or the major Part of them, aſſembled at any Meeting appointed by this Act) after having been under her Care twelve Months, a Sum not leſs than ten Shillings, as a Reward for her Pains and Care taken in the Nurſing of ſuch Child: And the Governors, Directors, Managers, or Overſeers of the Poor, of the reſpective Pariſhes from whence ſuch Children ſhall be ſo ſent to nurſe, ſhall find good, proper, and ſufficient Cloathing for each and every of them reſpectively; and ſhall defray the Expences of Conveyance, Medicines, Burials, and all other neceſſary Expences incurred on account of the ſaid Children; and ſhall keep, in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpoſe, ſeparate, regular, and exact Accounts of all Expences incurred in relation thereto.

Five Guardians to be choſen.

V. And, in order the more effectually to guard againſt all dangerous Conſequences which may ariſe to the ſaid Children from falſe Parſimony, Negligence, Inadvertency, or the annual Change of Pariſh Officers, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That five Noblemen or Gentlemen, Inhabitants of each Pariſh, ſhall, within fourteen Days after the ſaid firſt Day of July, be appointed and choſen, under the Title or Denomination of Guardians of the Pariſh Poor Children; two or more of which ſaid Guardians ſhall be choſen out of the Select Veſtry, or out of the Governors, Directors, or Managers, of the Poor of each Pariſh; and where there is no Select Veſtry, Governors, Directors, or Managers, then the ſaid five Guardians to be choſen and appointed out of the Noblemen and Gentlemen Inhabitants of each Pariſh; and the Election to be made upon Tueſday, or ſome other Day in Eaſter Week, by the Inhabitants having Right to aſſemble in Veſtry: And in caſe there ſhall be no Noblemen or Gentlemen, or not be a ſufficient Number of ſuch Noblemen or Gentlemen who will accept of the Office of Guardians; then the ſaid Guardians, or ſo many as ſhall be wanting to make up the Number of five, ſhall be choſen out of the principal and moſt reſpectable Inhabitants: And if any of the Parties ſo choſen ſhall refuſe to act, or ſhall afterwards reſign their Guardianſhip, or ſhall die, that then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, a further Choice

ſhall be made in the ſame Manner as before mentioned, within fourteen Days after ſuch Refuſal, Reſignation, or Death, of ſo many as ſhall be neceſſary to complete the Number.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Noblemen, Gentlemen, or principal Inhabitants, who ſhall, in conſequence of this Act, be firſt choſen and appointed Guardians of the Pariſh Poor Children, ſhall continue and remain in their reſpective Offices till the Day in Eaſter Week, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, of the Inhabitants meeting for the Choice of Guardians as aforeſaid; and that the Guardians then choſen, or at any Time thereafter to be choſen, ſhall remain in their reſpective Offices for the Term of three Years then next enſuing: And that all Appointments of Guardians in future ſhall be once in three Years only; except in Caſes of Death, Reſignation, or Refuſal as aforeſaid.

VII. Provided always, That no Churchwarden, or Overſeer of the Poor, ſhall be elected into the ſaid Office of a Guardian.

Power and Duty of Guardians;

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Guardians, or any one of them, ſhall have free Admittance to viſit and ſee the ſaid Pariſh Poor Children, and inform themſelves fully concerning their State and Condition; and the ſaid Guardians ſhall alſo have full Liberty to examine, and have free Acceſs to, all Regiſters, Books, and Accounts, relating to the ſaid Children: And in caſe of any Neglect or improper Conduct, whereby the Life or Health of a Child may appear to the ſaid Guardians, or to any one of them, to be in Danger, to report the ſame to the Select Veſtry, Governors, Directors, or Managers, or to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor: And if the ſaid Veſtry, Governors, Directors, or Managers, Churchwardens, or Overſeers, or ſome or one of them, do not take the moſt efficacious Meaſures to remedy the Evil complained of; that then it ſhall be lawful to and for the ſaid Guardians, or any one of them, to inform one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and give Evidence of the Facts; and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace is and are hereby impowered to give ſuch Orders and Directions therein, as he or they ſhall think moſt proper.

to be ſummoned every 6 Weeks.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Guardians ſhall be ſummoned, by the Veſtry Clerk, at leaſt once in ſix Weeks, to meet at the Veſtry-room, or where there is no Veſtry-room, in other convenient Place: and two of the ſaid Guardians ſhall make a Quorum, either of them having the Liberty of calling in one of the Churchwardens or Overſeers; and when only one of the ſaid Guardians is preſent, he ſhall have the Liberty of calling in two of the Churchwardens or Overſeers, who ſhall attend him accordingly; and when any Number of the ſaid five Guardians ſhall meet, they ſhall have the Liberty of calling in two of the Churchwardens or Overſeers, as the Majority of them ſhall think proper.

Liberty granted to Foundling Hoſpital.

'X. And whereas in many Pariſhes the ſaid Select Veſtries, Governors, Directors, or Managers, 'Churchwardens, or Overſeers of the Poor, may find it inconvenient and difficult, through want of regular 'Correſpondence with proper Perſons in the Country, to ſupply them with Nurſes, and alſo to take the 'Charge of inſpecting Nurſeries in ſuch a Manner as ſhall prove effectual to the Preſervation of the 'Lives of the ſaid Children;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Select Veſtries, Governors, Directors, or Managers, Churchwardens, or Overſeers of the Poor, ſhall be at Liberty to ſend their ſaid Pariſh Poor Children, or any of them, being under the Age of ſix Years as aforeſaid, to the Hoſpital for the Maintenance and Education of Expoſed and Deſerted Young Children; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Governors and Guardians of the ſaid Hoſpital for the Time being, to receive ſuch Children: And the ſaid Select Veſtries, Governors, Directors, Managers, Churchwardens, or Overſeers of the Poor, are hereby impowered to agree with the ſaid Governors and Guardians for that Purpoſe, upon ſuch Terms, and in ſuch Manner, as ſhall be adequate to the Support and Maintenance of each Child.

The Charge to be defrayed out of the Poor Rates, &c.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Terms ſo agreed upon, and the Sums agreed to be paid for the Admiſſion, Maintenance, and Education, of ſuch Pariſh Poor Children as ſhall be ſent to the ſaid Hoſpital, ſhall be paid by the Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor for the Time being, out of the Poors Rate of each Pariſh reſpectively: And in caſe any Sum or Sums of Money agreed between the ſaid Select Veſtries, Governors, Directors, or Managers, Churchwardens, or Overſeers, and the Governors and Guardians of the ſaid Hoſpital, or any five of them in Committee, ſhall not be paid, by ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be authoriſed by the ſaid Governors and Guardians to receive the ſame; it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the Counties of Middleſex or Surrey, the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, or Liberties of the Tower Hamlets, reſpectively, to ſummon the Overſeer or Overſeers who ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Payment and to order immediate Payment to be made of ſo much as ſhall appear to ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to be due, together with ſuch Coſts and Charges as may have been incurred by the ſaid Governors and Guardians in conſequence of ſuch Refuſal or Neglect: And if the Overſeer or Overſeers ſhall refuſe or neglect to obey the Order of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, the Sum directed to be paid thereby ſhall be recovered by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, together with the Coſts attending ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That at the Time of the Death, Diſcharge, or Apprenticeſhip, of any ſuch Pariſh Poor Child, a Certificate thereof ſhall be ſent, by the Secretary of the ſaid Governors and Guardians, to the Veſtry Clerk, or Overſeers of the Poor, of ſuch Pariſh to which the ſaid Child did belong.

Hoſpital Account to be kept with each Pariſh diſtinct.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Hoſpital Acconnt ſhall be kept with each Pariſh diſtinct, in a proper Book or Books, with marginal Columns, according to the Schedule annexed, annexed, marked (A); and that ſuch Book or Books, or true Copies thereof, ſhall be ſigned by the Secretary of the Hoſpital.

'XIV. And whereas it often diſturbs the Peace of Domeſtic Life, checks Marriage, and diſcourages 'Induſtry, to place out Boys to the Age of twenty-four Years;' therefore, in order to remedy the ſame, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to place or bind out Boys as well as Girls Apprentices, by the reſpective Pariſh Officers for the Time being, and alſo by the Governors and Guardians of the Hoſpital for the Maintenance and Education of Expoſed and Deſerted Young Children, for the Term of ſeven Years, or till they ſhall attain their reſpective Ages of twenty-one Years, and no longer.

Apprenticed for not more than ſeven Years, &c.

'XV. And whereas the Sums of twenty Shillings to forty Shillings, now uſually given with a 'Child placed out by the Pariſhes, are by no means adequate to the procuring ſuch Maſters and Miſ-'treſſes as are in general fit and proper: And whereas there is a general Neglect in the Moral and 'Religious Inſtruction of Apprentices; and ſome pecuniary Encouragement may excite Maſters and 'Miſtreſſes to diſcharge their Duty in this Reſpect, towards young Perſons who are thus intruſted to 'their Care:' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no ſuch Pariſh Child ſhall be bound out an Apprentice with a Sum leſs than four Pounds two Shillings as an Apprentice Fee; forty Shillings whereof to be paid to the Maſter or Miſtreſs within ſeven Weeks after executing the Indentures, and the remaining forty-two Shillings to be paid after ſuch Apprentice ſhall have ſerved three Years of his or her Apprenticeſhip.

Apprentice Fee not to be leſs than 4l. 2s.

'XVI. And whereas the Act of the Second of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the keeping 'regular, uniform, and annual Regiſters, of all Pariſh Poor Infants under a certain Age within the Bills of 'Mortality, requires no Account of the Children after the Age of four Years;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Veſtries, Governors, Directors, Managers, Overſeers of the Poor, or other Officer or Officers, of the ſeveral and reſpective Pariſhes herein before-mentioned, or ſome or one of them, ſhall, and they are hereby directed and required, on or before the ſaid firſt Day of July, to provide, or cauſe to be provided, at the Expence of their reſpective Pariſhes wherein there is or ſhall be a Workhouſe, Hoſpital, or other Houſe or Place provided for the Maintenance of the Poor, a Book of Royal Paper, which ſhall be ruled with diſtinct Columns, and the Title of each Column ſhall be wrote or printed in ſuch Page agreeable to the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (B); and the Book belonging to each reſpective Pariſh, wherein there is not nor ſhall be any ſuch Workhouſe, Hoſpital-houſe, or Place, ſhall in every Page be ruled with diſtinct Columns, and the Title of each Column ſhall be wrote or printed in ſuch Page agreeable to the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (C); any Thing in the ſaid Act of the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

2 Geo. 3. c. 22.

Particular Regiſters to be provided.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be mentioned, at the Foot of each Regiſter, the groſs Number of the Children, remaining in the Hands of Mothers, who have been relieved by the reſpective Pariſhes during the Courſe of the Year, not entered in the Regiſter; and the Number of ſuch who are known to be remaining alive.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Abſtract of the Regiſter of the ſaid Infant Poor ſhall be according to the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (D.)

Manner of conducting Regiſters.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Names of all the Pariſh Poor Children who ſhall be alive, under the Care of any Governors, Directors, Managers, Churchwardens, or Overſeers of the Poor, on the firſt Day of July next enſuing, ſhall be entered in the ſaid Regiſters, and ſhall be continued on, and transferred from Year to Year, in the ſaid Regiſter, till their Death, or Diſcharge to Parents or Friends, or till they are reſpectively placed out Apprentice; and that the Day of placing them out, and the Time of their Servitude, ſhall be entered in the ſaid Regiſters as above-mentioned.

Annual Liſt to by made out, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a full Liſt of all Apprentices placed out by the reſpective Pariſhes ſhall be made out by the Veſtry Clerks, or other proper Officer, and delivered, in the Month of February in every Year, to the Company of Pariſh Clerks; the ſame to be written on Royal Paper according to the Schedule annexed, marked (E), to be bound up and depoſited by the Company of Pariſh Clerks; and the ſaid Company ſhall make out an Abſtract thereof, diſtinguiſhing the Number placed out from each Pariſh, and how many of them were born in the Workhouſe or Pariſh-houſe, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be printed: and ſhall ſend ſix fair Copies of the ſaid Abſtract to each Pariſh reſpectively.

Regiſters and Liſts.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the firſt annual Regiſter of the ſaid Infant Poor, and alſo the firſt annual Liſts of Apprentices, hereby intended and directed to be kept, ſhall commence on the ſaid firſt Day of July, and ſhall end on the thirty-firſt Day of December enſuing; and, after that Time, the ſaid annual Regiſter and Liſts ſhall commence the firſt Day of January, and end the thirty-firſt Day of December following.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Expences incident to and attending the Nurſing, Maintenance, Education, placing out Apprentice, or otherwiſe relating to the Matters herein contained, the Manner whereof is not herein particularly ordered and directed, ſhall be paid out of the Monies ariſing from the Poors Rates of the reſpective Pariſhes wherein ſuch Expences ſhall be incurred.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Churchwarden, Overſeer of the Poor, Veſtryman, Clerk of the Veſtry, Maſter of the Workhouſe, Maſter or Warden of ſuch Company of Pariſh Clerks, or any Clerk of ſuch Company, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall neglect his Duty as directed in and by this Act; ſuch Churchwarden, Overſeer of the Poor, Clerk of the Veſtry, or Maſter of the Workhouſe, Maſter or Warden of ſuch Company of Pariſh Clerks, or ſuch Clerk of ſuch Company, Perſon or Perſons, ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay to the Informer the Sum of five Pounds; to be recovered before any two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by virtue of a Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Juſtices before whom the ſame ſhall be recovered, directed to any Conſtable or other Peace Officer; and if there ſhall be any Overplus of the ſaid Forfeiture, the ſame ſhall be returned to the Owner, after the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale ſhall be deducted. Penalty on neglecting Duty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be, a Publick Act; and be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Publick Act.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to enable his Majeſty to put the Cuſtoms, and other Duties, in the Britiſh Dominions in America, and the Execution of the Laws relating to Trade there, under the Management of Commiſſioners to be appointed for that Purpoſe, and to be reſident in the ſaid Dominions.

25 Car. 2. c. 7.

'WHEREAS in purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of 'King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland 'Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade, the Rates and Duties impoſed by that, and ſeveral 'ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, upon various Goods imported into, or exported from the Britiſh Colonies 'and Plantations in America, have been put under the Management of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms 'in England for the Time being, by and under the Authority and Directions of the High Treaſurer, or 'Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being: And whereas the Officers appointed for the Collec- 'tion of the ſaid Rates and Duties in America, are obliged to apply to the ſaid Commiſſioners of the 'Cuſtoms in England, for their ſpecial Inſtructions and Directions, upon every particular Doubt and Dif- 'ficulty which ariſes in relation to the Payment of the ſaid Rates and Duties; whereby all Perſons con- 'cerned in the Commerce and Trade of the ſaid Colonies and Plantations are greatly obſtructed and de- 'layed in the carrying on and tranſacting of their Buſineſs: And whereas the appointing of Commiſſioners 'to be reſident in ſome convenient Part of his Majeſty's Dominions in America, and to be inveſted with 'ſuch Powers as are now exerciſed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, by virtue of the Laws 'in being, would relieve the ſaid Merchants and Traders from the ſaid Inconveniencies, tend to the En- 'couragement of Commerce, and to the better ſecuring of the ſaid Rates and Duties, by the more ſpeedy 'and effectual Collection thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Cuſtoms, and other Duties impoſed, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, upon any Goods or Merchandizes brought or imported into, or exported or carried from, any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, may, from Time to Time, be put under the Management and Direction of ſuch Commiſſioners, to reſide in the ſaid Plantations, as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by his or their Commiſſion or Commiſſions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, ſhall judge to be moſt for the Advantage of Trade, and Security of the Revenue of the ſaid Britiſh Colonies; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſo to be appointed, or any three or more of them, ſhall have the ſame Powers and Authorities for carrying into Execution the ſeveral Laws relating to the Revenues and Trade of the ſaid Britiſh Colonies in America, as were, before the paſſing of this Act, exerciſed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force: And it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions, to make Proviſion for putting in Execution the ſeveral Laws relating to the Cuſtoms and Trade of the ſaid Britiſh Colonies; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. Provided

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Deputations, and other Authorities, granted by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England before the paſſing of this Act, or which may be granted by them before any Commiſſion or Commiſſions ſhall iſſue in purſuance of this Act, to any Officer or Officers acting in the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, ſhall continue in Force as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had not been made, until the Deputations, or other Authorities, ſo granted to ſuch Officer or Officers reſpectively, ſhall be revoked, annulled or made void, by the High Treaſurer of Great Britain, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Publick Highways of this Kingdom; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned. Rep. by 13 Geo. 3. c. 78.

See 8 Geo. 3. c. 5.

LVII. AND, to the Intent that there may be only one Law ſubſiſting for the ſeveral Purpoſes aforeſaid, be it further enacted and declared, That from and after the twenty-firſt Day of September next following, an Act paſſed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Firſt, aſcertaining 'the Breadth of 'Highways leading from one Market Town to another;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the fourteenth and fifteenth of King Henry the Eighth, for 'altering of Highways in the Weld of Kent;' as alſo an Act or Bill paſſed in the twenty-ſixth of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, 'The Bill for the Highways in the County 'of Suſſex;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the ſecond and third of King Philip and Queen Mary, intituled, 'The Statute for the mending of Highways;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the fifth of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, 'An Act for the Continuance of the Statute made ſecond and third Philip and Mary, for the 'Amendment of Highways;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the eighteenth of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, 'An 'Act of Addition unto the former Acts for amending and repairing of Highways;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, 'An Act for explaining of the Statute for the amend-'ing of the Highways between Middleton and the King's Ferry leading into the Iſle of Sheppey in the 'County of Kent;' as alſo an Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, 'An Act for 'the Amendment of Highways in Suſſex, Surry, and Kent;' as alſo ſo much of an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſecond of King Charles the Second, intituled, 'An additional Act for the better repairing of Highways 'and Bridges,' as relates to the Highways; CAP. XLIII.

See 8 Geo. 3. c. 25.

An Act to amend and enforce the Acts of the eighteenth, twenty-firſt, and thirty-ſecond Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, for the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Importation and wearing of Cambricks and French Lawns.

18 Geo. 2. c. 36. 21 Geo. 2. c. 26. 32 Geo. 2. c. 32.

'WHEREAS an Act paſſed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the 'Second, intituled, An Act for prohibiting the Wearing and Importation of Cambricks and French 'Lawns; and alſo one other Act paſſed in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, in-'tituled, An Act for explaining, amending, and enforcing an Act made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of 'his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for prohibiting the Wearing and Importation of Cambricks and 'French Lawns; and another Act made in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty 'King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Importation of 'Cambricks and French Lawns, have been found ineffectual:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Cambrick or French Lawn ſhall be imported into any Part of Great Britain, except into the Port of London only.

No Cambrick or French Lawn to be imported, except into the Port of London, and in Britiſh Ships navigated according to Law,

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Cambrick or French Lawn ſhall be allowed to be imported into the Port of London from any Parts beyond the Seas, except in Britiſh Ships navigated according to Law; and except Notice be firſt given to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms of the Species, and Quantity, and Marks of the Packages, of ſuch Cambricks and French Lawns, and the Name of the Ship in which the ſame are intended to be imported; and a Licence given under the Hands of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England for the Time being, or any three of them, for the landing thereof, within thirty Days from the Date of ſuch Licence; which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge to the Perſon demanding the ſame: And if any Cambricks or French Lawns ſhall be imported into Great Britain contrary to the Intention of this Act, or without ſuch Licence as is herein before directed, ſuch Goods, with the Package containing the ſame, together with the Ship or Veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized and proſecuted as herein after mentioned; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding,

III. Provided always, That no ſuch Licence ſhall be granted for the Importation or Landing of any Cambricks or French Lawns in any other Package, or in any leſs Quantity, than is directed and allowed by the laſt recited Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That ſuch Licence ſhall be produced and delivered up by the Maſter or Perſon taking charge of the Ship wherein ſuch Cambricks or French Lawns ſhall be imported, together with the Marks, Numbers, and Contents of each Package, indorſed on the Back thereof, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms, at the Time of entering and reporting ſuch Ship, on the Forfeiture of one hundred Pounds; and ſuch Cambricks and French Lawns ſhall, upon Landing, be warehouſed under the like Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions; and ſhall not be afterwards delivered out of ſuch Warehouſe, but on Condition to be exported to ſome of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, under the like Securities and Reſtrictions as are expreſſed and directed in the ſaid laſt recited Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of King George the Second, and upon Payment of the ſame Duties as they are now liable to by Law.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, no Cambrick or Lawn whatſoever ſhall be imported from the Kingdom of Ireland, into any Part of Great Britain, until the Importation of Cambricks bricks and French Lawns into the Kingdom of Ireland ſhall be prohibited by Law, upon Pain of forfeiting the ſaid Goods, and the further penal Sum of five Pounds for every Piece of Cambrick or Lawn ſo imported.

Veſſels from Foreign Parts found hovering, &c. having on board any Cambrick or French Lawns, not licenſed, VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, where any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever coming or arriving from foreign Parts, and having on board any Cambrick or French Lawns, without ſuch Licence as is herein before directed, ſhall be found at Anchor, or hovering within the Limits of any of the Ports of Great Britain, or within two Leagues of the Shore, or ſhall be diſcovered to have been within the Limits of any Port, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, (unleſs in caſe of unavoidable Neceſſity and Diſtreſs of Weather, of which Neceſſity and Diſtreſs the Maſter, Purſer, or other Perſon, having or taking the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall give Notice to, and make Proof of, before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of ſuch Port as aforeſaid, immediately after the Arrival of ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port) all ſuch Cambrick or French Lawn, together with the Cheſts, Boxes, and other Package whatſoever, containing the ſame Goods, and the Ship or Veſſel on board which the ſame ſhall be found, or the Value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt (whether Bulk ſhall have been then broken or not) and the ſame Goods and Package ſhall and may be ſeized and proſecuted, or the Value thereof be recovered by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, in Manner herein after mentioned; any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, forge or counterfeit any Mark or Stamp, to reſemble any Mark or Stamp which ſhall be provided or uſed in purſuance of this Act; or ſhall forge, reſemble, or counterfeit, the Impreſſion of any ſuch Mark or Stamp, upon any Goods required by this Act to be marked or ſtamped, or ſhall import or bring into Great Britain any Foreign Cambricks or Lawns, or Goods of the Kind uſually called or known by or under either of thoſe Denominations, having any ſuch counterfeit Mark, Stamp, or Impreſſion thereon; or ſell or expoſe to Sale any Cambricks or Lawns, or Goods of the Kind uſually known by or under either of thoſe Denominations, with ſuch counterfeit Mark, Stamp, or Impreſſion thereon, knowing ſuch Mark or Stamp to be counterfeited; every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be judged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer as in Caſes of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Penalty of forging or counterfeiting any Stamp, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Goods which ſhall be ſeized and condemned in purſuance of this Act, and all Penalties and Forfeitures whatſoever by this Act inflicted (unleſs otherwiſe directed to be condemned and recovered by this Act) ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney General, or in the Name or Names of ſuch Surviſor, or other Officer or Officers of the Exciſe or Cuſtoms as aforeſaid; and that one Moiety of the clear Produce ariſing from the Sale of all ſuch Goods, and of all the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, after all Charges deducted, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Officer or Officers who ſhall ſeize, inform, or proſecute for the ſame.

Capias to iſſue upon entering an Action, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon every Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, entered or filed as aforeſaid, for any Penalty impoſed by this Act, a Capias in the firſt Proceſs ſhall and may iſſue, ſpecifying the Sum of the Penalty ſued for; and the Defendant or Defendants ſhall be obliged to give ſufficient Bail or Security by natural-born Subjects, Perſons naturalized, or Denizens, to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Capias ſhall be directed, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Capias ſhall iſſue, at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution; and ſhall likewiſe, at the Time of ſuch Appearancee, give ſufficient Bail or Security by ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for ſuch Offence or Offences, in caſe he, ſhe, or they, ſhall be convicted thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Body or Bodies to Priſon.

General Iſſue.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action or Suit, ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and the ſame was done by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear to have been ſo done, then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants: And if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant ot Defendants ſhall have appeared; or if, upon Verdict or Demurrer, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plainliff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have ſuch Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law.

Treble Coſts.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Cambricks or Lawns, or Goods of the Kind uſually known by or under either of thoſe Denominations, ſhall be ſeized by virtue or in purſuance of this or any other Act now in Force; or if any Action ſhall be brought by the Owner or Claimer of ſuch Goods againſt any Officer of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, or any other Perſon, for any Thing done in purſuace of this or any other Act now in Force, and any Doubt or Queſtion ſhall ariſe where ſuch Goods were manufactured; the Proof thereof ſhall lie upon the Owner or Claimer of ſuch Goods, and not on the Perſon who ſeized the ſame, or againſt whom ſuch Action ſhall be brought; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proof on Owner or Claimer.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Policies of Aſſurance; and for reducing the Allowance to be made in reſpect of the prompt Payment of the Stamp Duties on Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other Exciſeable Liquors; and for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs.

5 Geo. 3. c. 46.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Admiſſions into Corporations or Companies, and for further ſecuring and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain; it is, among other Things, enacted, 'That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-five, if the Proprietors 'of more than one Perſon in any Ship, Cargo, or both, or of more than a particular Number of Perſons 'in general Partnerſhip, or of more than one Body Politick or Corporate, to a greater Amount in the 'whole than the Sum of one hundred Pounds, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, be aſſured on the ſame 'Policy, ſuch Policy ſhould be void, and the Premium paid thereon remain the Property of the Aſſurer; 'with a Proviſo, that it ſhould and might be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any 'Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, by one Policy, ſtamped with five Shillings 'each; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding: And whereas ſuch Part of the ſaid Act 'as is before recited, has been found very inconvenient to Merchants, Traders and others, reſiding out of 'this Kingdom, and injurious to the commercial Dealings thereof:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to the Amount of any Sum not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, by a Policy ſtamped with a Stamp of five Shillings; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to the Amount of any Sum whatſoever, by one Policy ſtamped with two Stamps of five Shillings each; and that every Policy ſo ſtamped ſhall be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; any Thing in the ſaid Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or any former Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Policies for any Number of Perſons, and to any Amount, not exceeding 1000l. may be aſſured by a 5s. Stamp; and to any higher Amount by a 10s. Stamp.

II. Provided always, That if any Riſque or Adventure, diſtinct from the Riſque or Adventure mentioned in the original Policy, and upon which any further Premium ſhall be given, ſhall be, by any Writing or Declaration not duly ſtamped, added to any ſuch original Policy, ſuch additional Aſſurance ſhall be void, and the Premium paid thereon ſhall remain the Property of the Aſſurer.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the better and more effectual raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying, the ſaid Duties herein before mentioned, the ſame ſhall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commiſſioners, for the Time being, appointed to manage the Duties payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and charged on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, by former Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; who, or the major Part of them, are hereby impowered to employ ſuch Officers under them, for that Purpoſe, as they ſhall think proper; and to provide and uſe ſuch Dies and Stamps, to denote the ſaid Duties herein before mentioned as they ſhall think fit; and to repair, renew, or alter the ſame, from Time to Time, as there ſhall be Occaſion; and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things, neceſſary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the ſaid Duties, in the like, and in as full and ample Manner, as they, or the major Part of them, are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

Powers, &c. granted by former Acts, extended to the Duties hereby granted.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Powers, Regulations, Proviſions, Articles, Clauſes, Penalties, Forfeitures, Diſtribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things preſcribed, inflicted and appointed, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, on which any Policy of Aſſurance ſhall be ingroſſed, written, or printed, and not herein altered, ſhall be in full Force and Effect with relation to the Duties herein before mentioned; and ſhall be applied and put in Execution for the managing, raiſing, levying, collecting, ſecuring, receiving, and paying the ſaid Duties herein before mentioned, and accounting for the ſame according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Powers, Regulations, Proviſions, Articles, Clauſes, Penalties, Forfeitures, Diſtribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and other Matters and Things, were herein repeated, re-enacted, and applied to the ſaid Stamp Duties herein before mentioned.

Penalty of counterfeiting or forging, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, to reſemble any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed, authoriſed, or allowed, to be uſed by, or which ſhall be provided, made, or uſed, in purſuance of this Act; or ſhall counterfeit or reſemble the Impreſſion of the ſame, thereby to evade the Payment of any of the Duties herein before-mentioned; or ſhall utter, vend, or ſell, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, liable to any ſuch Stamp Duties, with ſuch counterfeit Stamp, Mark, or Impreſſion thereon, knowing the ſame to be counterfeit; or ſhall privately or fraudulently uſe any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, authoriſed or allowed to be uſed by, or provided or uſed, or to be provided or uſed, in purſuance of this Act, relating to the ſaid Stamp Duties, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors of any of the ſaid Duties, or any Part thereof; every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be adjudged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Monies ariſing by the ſeveral and reſpective Duties herein before-mentioned (the neceſſary Charges of Management, and of raiſing, collecting, receiving, paying, and accounting for, the ſaid Monies, excepted) ſhall be iſſued and applied to ſuch and the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as the Duties upon Policies of Aſſurance are, by former Acts of Parliament, directed to be iſſued and applied.

Proof, as to Value aſſured, on Defendant.

VII. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued or proſecuted under, and by virtue of this Act, for aſſuring the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to a greater Amount than the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, by a Policy ſtamped with a Stamp of five Shillings only; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Proof, as to the Amount or Value ſo aſſured, ſhall lie on the Perſon or Perſons that ſhall be ſued or proſecuted, and not on the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue or proſecute.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Allowance, after the Rate of ſix Pounds in the one hundred Pounds per Annum for ſix Months, authoriſed to be made by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, (intituled, 'An Act for granting to his Majeſty a Duty upon Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other Exciſeable 'Liquors; and for eſtabliſhing a Method for granting ſuch Licences in Scotland; and for allowing ſuch 'Licences to be granted at a Petty Seſſion in England; in a certain Caſe therein mentioned,') to every Perſon who ſhall, at one Time, bring to be ſtamped, or buy of the Commiſſioners for managing the Stamp Duties, Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, the Duties whereof ſhall amount to ten Pounds and upwards, upon the preſent Payment of the ſaid Duties, ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ceaſe and determine.

4l. per Cent. only is to be allowed.

IX. And it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, inſtead and in lieu of ſuch Allowance, there ſhall be allowed and paid in Great Britain, to every Perſon who ſhall, at one Time, bring to be ſtamped, or buy of the ſaid Commiſſioners, Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, charged with any Duties in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament, which ſhall, in the whole, amount to ten Pounds or upwards, after the Rate of four Pounds in the one hundred Pounds per Annum for ſix Months, upon the preſent Payment of the ſaid Duties at the Head Office for marking or ſtamping Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

9 Annæ, c. 23.

'X. And whereas it hath been the Practice of late for the Owners of unlicenſed Coaches to let the 'ſame out for Hire, by way of Job, by the Day, or for leſs than a Day, contrary to the true Intent and 'Meaning of an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, (intituled, 'An Act for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs; and for charging certain new Duties on 'ſtampt Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and on Cards and Dice, and on the Exportation of Rock Salt for 'Ireland; and for ſecuring thereby, and by a Weekly Payment out of the Poſt Office, and by ſeveral Duties on

'Hides

'Hides and Skins, a yearly Fund of one hundred eighty-ſix thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy Pounds, for thirty-two Years, to be applied to the Satisfaction of ſuch Orders as are therein mentioned, to the Contributors of any Sum not exceeding two Millions to be raiſed for carrying on the War, and other her Majeſty's Occaſions) to the great Prejudice of his Majeſty's Revenue, and of the licenſed Hackney Coachmen:' For Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, upon every Information before the Commiſſioners appointed, or to be appointed, for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, againſt any Perſon, for driving for Hire, or letting to Hire, any Hackney Coach, contrary to the ſaid Act made in the ninth Year of her ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, although no expreſs Hiring ſhall be proved; yet unleſs the Party accuſed ſhall appear, and make Proof to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, that no Money or other Gratuity was made or paid, or agreed or intended to be made or paid, for the Uſe of ſuch Coach, the ſame ſhall be deemed and adjudged a Driving for Hire, or Letting to Hire, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes whatſoever; and every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, incur ſuch and the like Penalty as if ſuch Money, or other Gratuity, was actually proved to be made or paid; any Statute, Bye-law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

XI. And, for the better and more eaſily diſtinguiſhing ſuch Coaches and other Carriages as ſhall be entered at the Head Office of Exciſe in London, purſuant to the Act of Parliament made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty George the Second, and ſhall be let out for Hire, from Gentlemen's Coaches, and for making the Owners and Drivers thereof the more eaſily amenable to Juſtice for any Offences committed by them; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Job Coach licenſed at the Head Office in London, which ſhall be driven or let to Hire on private Contract, within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or the Suburbs thereof, or within the Pariſhes and Places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, for any Time longer than one Month, without having the Exciſe Number or Mark fixed under the Foot-board of every ſuch Coach, the ſame ſhall be deemed and adjudged a Coach driven or let to Hire, contrary to the ſaid Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne; and every Perſon ſo letting or driving for Hire as aforeſaid, ſhall incur and be liable to the like Penalty as any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall drive or let to Hire by the Hour, Day, or otherwiſe, any Hackney Coach or Coach Horſes within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or Suburbs of the ſame, or within the Pariſhes and Places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, without Leave or Licence from the Commiſſioners for regulating and licenſing Hackney Coaches and Chairs, are now by Law liable unto.

Licenſed Jobb Coaches, without the Exciſe Mark under the Footboard, liable to a Penalty.

'XII. And whereas a Doubt has ariſen, whether licenſed Hackney Coachmen, plying for Hire, are 'compellable to carry Fares any where within the Diſtance of ten Miles from the City of London or Weſt-minſter;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, every Coachman, licenſed by the Commiſſioners for regulating and licenſing Hackney Coaches, plying for Hire within the City of London or Weſtminſter, ſhall be obliged and compellable, on every Day of the Week, at ſeaſonable Times, to go any where within the Diſtance of ten Miles from the City of London or Weſtminſter; and in caſe of Refuſal ſo to do, ſhall be liable to the like Penalty and Puniſhment as may by Law now be inflicted, in Caſes of Refuſal to carry for Hire by licenſed Hackney Coachmen.

Licenſed Hackney Coaches, to go, within 10 Miles from London.

Fares allowed to licenſed Hackney Chairs.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, every Perſon who is or ſhall be licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, to keep and uſe for Hire any Hackney Chair within the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Suburbs thereof, and within all and every the Pariſhes and Places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or any Perſon legally acting under ſuch Perſon, ſhall be intitled to, and may demand, receive, and take, for the Hire of any ſuch Hackney Chair, the Rates and Fares herein after-mentioned; that is to ſay,

For any Diſtance not exceeding one Mile, twelve Pence.

And for any Diſtance being above one Mile, and not exceeding one Mile and four Furlongs, one Shilling and ſix Pence.

And for every further Diſtance not exceeding four Furlongs, ſix Pence.

And by the Hour, eighteen Pence for the firſt Hour, and ſix Pence for every Half of an Hour after.

The ſaid former Acts herein before recited, or any Statute, Bye Law, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Fares for Hire herein before-mentioned, ſhall and may be recovered in the like Manner as the Fares, ſettled by the ſaid Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, are by Law made recoverable.

Offenders may be committed either to Priſon, or to Bridewell.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Caſe where any Perſon, for any of the Offences mentioned in any Law relating to the licenſing and regulating of Hackney Coaches and Chairs, ſhall be liable to be committed to Priſon, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, either to commit ſuch Offender to Priſon, in like Manner as by any former Act of Parliament they are authorized to do, and for any Time the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall think fit, not exceeding one Month, or, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit ſuch Offender to his Majeſty's Workhouſe of Bridewell in London, or ſome other Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, not exceeding one Month; and alſo to receive the Correction of the ſaid Houſe, if the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſo think fit to order.

Hackney Coachmen miſbehaving, their Licence may be revoked, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, if any Perſon who is or ſhall be duly licenſed to let or drive for Hire any Hackney Coach, within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall be guilty of Miſbehaviour in his Employment, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three of them, either to revoke ſuch Coachman's Licence, or to inflict a Penalty not exceeding three Pounds, upon Conviction for every ſuch Offence, to be paid to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed; and if any Perſon ſo convicted as aforeſaid ſhall not be able, or ſhall refuſe to pay the ſaid Sum ſo to be impoſed as aforeſaid, he ſhall be committed to his Majeſty's Workhouſe of Bridewell, or ſome other Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of thirty Days.

Fare of Hackney Coach.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every or any licenſed Hackney Coachman, or his Driver, to demand and take for his Hire, the Rate or Sum of twelve Shillings and ſix Pence for a Day's Work or Hire, reckoning twelve Hours to the Day; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

To do the like Work on Sundays.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, every licenſed Hackney Coachman, or his Driver, who ſhall drive with any Hackney Coach on the Lord's Day, ſhall be liable to do the like Work, as well without the Weekly Bills of Mortality as within the ſame, as ſuch Coachman, or his Driver, is by this or any former Act compellable or liable to do on any other Day of the Week.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Clauſes in this preſent Act, and in the ſeveral Acts of Parliament heretofore made and paſſed concerning Hackney Coaches and Chairs, as relates to the Juriſdictions, Powers, and Authorities, of the Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs; and of Juſtices of the Peace; and to the Rules, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Orders and Directions, in the ſame Acts, or any of them, mentioned; ſhall be, and are hereby, continued in full Force and Effect, for and during ſuch further Time as any other Part of the ſaid Acts, relating to the licenſing of Hackney Coaches or Chairs, ſhall be in Force and have Continuance.

Perſons authoriſed to inſpect the Regiſter Books of Carts, &c.

XX. And whereas it frequently happens, that many Perſons have Occaſion to inſpect the Regiſter 'Books of Carts, Cars, and Drays, required by Law to be kept by the ſaid Commiſſioners, in order for 'the more eaſy Diſcovery and bringing to Juſtice the Offenders againſt the Laws now in being relating to 'the Drivers of ſuch Carts, Cars, and Drays: And whereas no Directions are given by any of the ſaid 'Laws for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Clerk keeping ſuch Entry, to permit or ſuffer any Perſon to 'inſpect the ſaid Regiſter Books, or to make or give out any Copy of ſuch Entry or Entries;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, having reaſonable Cauſe to inſpect ſuch Regiſter Books of Carts, Cars, or Drays, kept or to be hereafter kept by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall and may, and they are hereby authoriſed to inſpect the ſame; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Clerks keeping ſuch Regiſter, is and are hereby directed and required, upon Requeſt of any Perſon or Perſons having ſuch reaſonable Cauſe to inſpect the ſame, to produce the Regiſter Book or Books of ſuch Carts, Cars, or Drays, and to make and give to ſuch Perſon or Perſons a true Copy or Copies of ſuch Entry or Entries therein as ſhall be required; and the ſaid Commiſſioners Clerk is hereby authoriſed to demand and receive for every ſuch Search, and a Copy of every ſuch Entry, the Sum of four Pence, and no more; and the like Sum where only ſuch Search ſhall be made, although no Copy of ſuch Entry ſhall be required.

No Certiorari.

XXI. And be it enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall ſuperſede Execution or other Proceeding upon any Order or Orders made by the ſaid Commiſſioners in purſuance of this Act; but that Execution and Proceedings ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; any ſuch Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithſtanding.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, he or they ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, for his and their Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or Judgement ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Demurrer; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared; then ſuch Defendant and Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; for which Coſts he and they ſhall have ſuch Remedy for Recovery thereof, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Caſes where by Law Coſts are given to Defendants.

CAP. XLV.

An Act for encouraging and regulating the Trade and Manufactures of the Iſle of Man; and for the more eaſy Supply of the Inhabitants there with a certain Quantity of Wheat, Barley, Oats, Meal, and Flour, authoriſed by an Act made in this Seſſion to be tranſported to the ſaid Iſland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

5 Geo. 3. c. 26. 'WHEREAS the Property of the Iſle of Man being now veſted in your Majeſty, your Heirs and 'Succeſſors, in purſuance of an Act made in the fifth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act for carrying into Execution a Contract made, purſuant to the Act of Parliament of the twelfth of his late 'Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, between the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury and the Duke and 'Dutcheſs of Atholl, the Proprietors of the Iſle of Man, and their Truſtees, for the Purchaſe of the ſaid 'Iſland and its Dependencies, under certain Exceptions therein particularly mentioned; it is expedient that 'Proviſion be made for encouraging, improving, and regulating the Trade and Manufactures of the ſaid 'Iſland, and the Fiſheries on the Coaſt thereof: And whereas it is neceſſary that a Revenue ſhould be raiſed, 'in the ſaid Iſle of Man, to anſwer theſe Purpoſes, and to defray the Expences of Government there: We, 'your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain aſſembled in Parliament, 'being deſirous to make ſome Proviſion for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the Duties payable to his Majeſty in the ſaid Iſle of Man on all Goods imported there, or exported from thence, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid; and that in lieu thereof there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the following Duties for and upon the Goods and Merchandizes herein after-mentioned, which ſhall be brought or imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man; that is to ſay,

The new Duties. For every Gallon of Britiſh Spirits imported from that Part of Great Britain called England, one Shilling.

For every Gallon of Rum, the Produce of the Britiſh Plantations, imported from England, one Shilling and ſix Pence.

For every Pound Weight of Bohea Tea imported from England, one Shilling.

For every Pound Weight of Green Tea imported from England, one Shilling and ſix Pence.

For every Pound Weight of Coffee imported from England, nine Pence.

For every Pound Weight of Tobacco imported from England, two Pence.

For every Chaldron of Coals, Wincheſter Meaſure, imported from Great Britain or Ireland, three Pence.

For and upon all Hemp, Iron, Deal Boards, and Timber, imported from Foreign Parts, five Pounds per Centum ad Valorem.

For every Ton of French Wine imported, four Pounds.

For every Ton of all other Sorts of Wine imported, two Pounds; and after theſe Rates for any greater or leſs Quantity of ſuch Wine.

For and upon all Sorts of Corn and Grain imported from England, for which any Bounty ſhall have been allowed and paid upon the Exportation thereof, ten Pounds per Centum ad Valorem.

For all other Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatſoever, which are or may be intitled to any Bounty, or to any Drawback of the Duties of Exciſe, on Exportation, in Great Britain, which ſhall be imported from Great Britain into the ſaid Iſle of Man, five Pounds per Centum ad Valorem.

For and upon all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, whatſoever, not herein before particulary charged (except ſuch Goods as are exempt from Duty by this Act) imported from Great Britain or Ireland, two Pounds ten Shillings per Centum ad Valorem.

And for and upon all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatſoever, not herein before particularly charged (except ſuch as are exempt from Duty by this Act) imported from any other Port or Place from whence ſuch Goods may be lawfully imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man, fifteen Pounds per Centum ad Valorem.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties herein before granted, ſhall be paid down in ready Money, without any Diſcount or Allowance; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, under the Authority and Direction of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, in like Manner and Form, and by the ſame Rules, Regulations, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duties of Cuſtoms, payable in Great Britain, are raiſed, levied, collected, and recovered, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating thereto, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act; and (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, levying, recovering, anſwering, paying, and accounting for the ſame) the ſaid Rates and Duties ſhall, from Time to Time, be brought and paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenue; and ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain, after the neceſſary Expences attending the Government of the ſaid Iſle of Man, and the Adminiſtration of Juſtice there, are from Time to Time defrayed, ſhall be reſerved for the Diſpoſition of Parliament.

Goods to be imported Duty-free from any Place, except Great Britain.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import into the ſaid Iſle of Man, in any Ship or Veſſel, from any Port or Place whatſoever, any Flax or Flax Seed, raw or brown Linen Yarn, Wood Aſhes and Weed Aſhes, Fiſh and Fleſh of all Sorts, and any Sort of Corn or Grain, from any Part or Place whatſoever (except from Great Britain only), without Payment of any Cuſtom or other Duty whatſoever.

Goods allowed to be imported Duty free from Great Britain or Ireland;

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Subjects to import into the ſaid Iſle of Man, in Britiſh Veſſels navigated according to Law, from any Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland, any Sort of white or brown Linen Cloth, and Hemp or Hemp Seed, being the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland; Horſes and Black Cattle; all Utenſils and Inſtruments fit and neceſſary to be employed in Manufactures, Fiſheries, or Agriculture; Bricks and Tiles; all Sorts of young Trees, Sea-Shells, Lime, and Soapers-waſte, Pack-thread, and ſmall Cordage for Nets, without Payment of any Cuſtom or Duty whatſoever for the ſame.

from Great Britain only.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Subjects to import into the ſaid Iſle of Man, in Britiſh Veſſels navigated according to Law, from any Port or Place in Great Britain, without Payment of any Cuſtom or Duty whatſoever, any Sort of Salt, Boards, Timber, and Hoops, being the Produce and Manufacture of Great Britain; Iron in Rods or Bars, Cotton, Indico, Naval Stores, and any Sort of Wood commonly called Lumber, as ſpecified in an Act paſſed in the eighth Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the Firſt, (intituled, 'An Act for giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned') of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America; and all other Goods of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, for which any Bounty or Premium is allowed by Law on the Importation thereof into Great Britain.

8 Geo. 1. c. 12.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That due Entries ſhall be made of the Goods herein before mentioned, which are allowed to be imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man, Duty-free, at the Cuſtom-houſe for the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, expreſſing the Quantity and Qualities of ſuch Goods, in the uſual Manner, before landing thereof, and the ſame ſhall be landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms for that Purpoſe; on Failure whereof, the ſaid Goods ſhall be liable to the Duty of fifteen Pounds per Centum ad Valorem; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Reſtrictions and Limitations.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Linen Cloth ſhall be imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man, but ſuch only as ſhall be bona fide and without Fraud laden and ſhipped in Great Britain or Ireland, and carried directly from thence; and no Glaſs or Woollen Manufactures ſhall be imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man, but ſuch only as ſhall be bona fide laden and ſhipped in Great Britain, and carried directly from thence; and no Teas, Brandy, Strong Waters, or other Spirits whatſoever, Coffee, or Tobacco, ſhall be imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man, but ſuch only as ſhall be bona fide and without Fraud laden and ſhipped at ſome Port of England, and carried directly from thence, under the Reſtrictions and Limitations herein after mentioned; upon the Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods as ſhall be imported or carried contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or the Value thereof, together with the Ship or Veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported or carried, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel; to be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and proſecuted and ſued for as herein after directed; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms impowered, &c.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England, or any three of them, ſhall and may grant Licence, without Fee or Reward, (to continue in Force for three Months) to any of his Majeſty's Subjects, to export, from any Port of England into the Port of Douglas, in the Iſle of Man, but to no other, in Britiſh Ships navigated according to Law, any Quantity of Spirits, not exceeding, in the whole, fifty thouſand Gallons of Britiſh diſtilled Spirits, and thirty thouſand Gallons of Rum the Produce of the Britiſh Plantations; any Quantity of Tea, not exceeding twenty thouſand Pounds Weight of Bohea Tea, and five thouſand Pounds Weight of Green Tea, in one Year; any Quantity of Coffee, not exceeding five thouſand Pounds Weight, in one Year; and any Quantity of Tobacco, not exceeding one hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds Weight, in one Year, to commence from the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and in every ſucceeding Year; and for the Goods ſo exported, by virtue of ſuch Licence, the Exporter ſhall be intitled to receive the like Drawbacks, but under the ſame Security, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, in all Reſpects, as are allowed and preſcribed for ſuch Goods reſpectively when exported from Great Britain to Ireland; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding: And his Majeſty's Receiver General of the Iſle of Man, or his Deputy, is hereby enjoined and required to keep a Regiſter, at the Port of Douglas, of the Quantity of each Species of Goods ſo imported as aforeſaid; and to tranſmit an Account thereof, every Quarter, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at London.

'IX. And whereas there are now ſecured for the Duties, in his Majeſty's Warehouſe at the Port of 'Douglas, in the Iſle of Man, one hundred Hogſheads, containing one hundred thouſand Pounds Weight of Tobacco, and upwards, which were imported into the ſaid Port the ſeventeenth Day of March laſt;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Tobacco ſhall be deemed and conſidered as Part of the limited Quantity allowed by this Act for one Year, from the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Subjects to import into the ſaid Iſland, under the Reſtrictions and Limitations before mentioned, only ſo much Tobacco, within the Time above ſpecified, as will make up the ſaid annual Allowance of one hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds Weight.

None of the Goods enumerated to be exported again.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Tea, Brandy, Strong Waters, or Spirits, of any Kind whatſoever, Coffee, Chocolate, Tobacco, Glaſs, or Coals, Britiſh or other wrought Silks, or Salt, nor any Wine, ſhall be exported, or ſhipped or laden on board any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported, from the ſaid Iſle of Man, to any Place whatſoever; on Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods, or the Value thereof, together with the Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in which the ſame ſhall be laden, with all her Furniture; to be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and ſued for and proſecuted as herein after is directed.

Regulations to be obſerved with reſpect to Goods carried Coaſtwiſe.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Goods carried Coaſtwiſe in the ſaid Iſle of Man ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Securities, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Reſpects, as are preſcribed and directed, by any Act of Parliament now in Force, with reſpect to Goods carried Coaſtwiſe in Great Britain.

No Wool, &c. may be exported;

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Wool, Woollen or Bay Yarn, or live Sheep, ſhall be exported, or ſhipped or laden on board any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported from the Iſle of Man; under the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are inflicted by any Law now in Force, againſt the exporting ſuch Goods from Great Britain to Foreign Parts; except as herein after is provided.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing herein before contained ſhall extend to prohibit the Exportation of Wool, Woollen or Bay Yarn, or live Sheep, from the Iſle of Man to Great Britain; the Exporter firſt giving Bond to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with one or more ſufficient Surety or Sureties, to be approved of by his Majeſty's Receiver General or his Deputy, in the Iſle of Man, in Penalty of five hundred Pounds, for the due Landing thereof, according to the Entry, and to return a Certificate within three Months, from the Date of ſuch Bond, under the Hands and Seals of the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms, at the Port or Place in Great Britain where ſuch Goods ſhall be landed, teſtifying the Landing thereof; the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted.

The uſual Bounties and Drawbacks allowed on Exportation of Goods.

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, (Malt and Barley excepted) which may be lawfully exported from Great Britain to the Iſle of Man, ſhall, upon being ſo exported, be intitled to the ſame Drawbacks and Bounties, under the like Rules, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Reſpects, as ſuch Goods are intitled or liable to by Law, upon Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland.

No Diſtillery of Spirits.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Low Wines or Spirits whatſoever ſhall be made, extracted, or diſtilled, within the Iſle of Man, from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any Sort of Grain, or from Meal or Flour, or from any Foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith; and if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall make, extract, or diſtil, or cauſe or procure to be made, extracted, or diſtilled, any Low Wines or Spirits, from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, or from any Meal or Flour, or from any Foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith; or ſhall uſe or mix, or cauſe or procure to be uſed or mixed, any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, or any Meal or Flour, or any Foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith, in any Worts or Waſh, in order for the making, extracting, or diſtilling, Low Wines or Spirits, or ſhall put or lay, or cauſe or procure to be put or laid, in any Tun, Waſh-batch, Caſk, Copper, Still, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, or any Meal or Flour, or any Foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith, for the Purpoſe of preparing any Worts or Waſh, or for making, extracting, or diſtilling, Low Wines or Spirits, in the ſaid Iſle of Man; that then, and in each and every of the ſaid Caſes, ſuch Perſon or Perſons acting contrary to the Directions of this Act, or the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any ſuch Tun, Waſh-batch, Caſk, Copper, Still, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, which ſhall be made uſe of contrary to the Intention of this Act, ſhall be found, ſhall reſpectively, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and all ſuch Wheat, Barley, Malt, and other Grain, and ſuch Meal and Flour, and ſuch Foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith, and ſuch Worts and Waſh, Low Wines and Spirits, with the Tuns, Waſh-batches, Caſks, Coppers, Stills, or other Veſſels or Utenſils ſo made uſe of, ſhall be alſo forfeited; and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and ſued for and proſecuted as herein after is directed.

Veſſels built in the Iſland, being regiſtered and duly atteſted, &c. deemed Britiſh built.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Ships or Veſſels which have been, or ſhall be, built in the Iſle of Man, which ſhall be owned by his Majeſty's Subjects in the ſaid Iſland, ſhall be deemed and paſs as Ships of the Built of Great Britain, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, upon one or more of the Owners thereof regiſtering ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and making Proof upon Oath of the Built and Property thereof, before his Majeſty's Receiver General, or his Deputy, in the ſaid Iſle of Man, in the Manner and Form directed for regiſtering Ships, by an Act made in the ſeventh and eighth

Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, 'An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating 'Abuſes, in the Plantation Trade;' which Oath ſhall be atteſted by the Officer who adminiſtered the ſame, and being regiſtered by him, ſhall be delivered to the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, for Security of her Navigation; and a Duplicate thereof ſhall be tranſmitted, by the ſaid Receiver General, or his Deputy, to the Port of London, to be there entered in the general Regiſter of all trading Ships belonging to Great Britain. 7 & 8 W. 3.

XVII. And for promoting Induſtry, and to encourage the Inhabitants of the Iſle of Man to engage in the Herring Fiſhery upon the Coaſts thereof, and in the Manufacture of Linen Cloth, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſeveral and reſpective Bounties or Sums of Money herein after mentioned, ſhall be allowed and paid for the Boats employed in ſuch Fiſhery, and to the Manufacturers of ſuch Linen Cloth under the ſeveral Limitations and Reſtrictions herein after expreſſed; that is to ſay, Bounties allowed for the Herring Fiſhery, and Manufacture of Linen Cloth; viz.

To the Owner or Maſter of ſuch Boat as ſhall take the firſt Maze, conſiſting of five hundred Herrings, in each Seaſon, videlicet, between the firſt of June and the firſt of December, in every Year, the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall fiſh the greateſt Number of Nights, in each Seaſon, as aforeſaid, the Sum of ten Pounds.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall fiſh the ſecond or next greateſt Number of Nights in each Seaſon, as aforeſaid, the Sum of ſeven Pounds ten Shillings.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall fiſh the third greateſt Number of Nights in each Seaſon, as aforeſaid, the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat, which ſhall fiſh the fourth greateſt Number of Nights in each Seaſon, as aforeſaid, the Sum of two Pounds ten Shillings.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall take the greateſt Number of Herrings in each Seaſon, provided it exceeds fifty Maze, or twenty-five thouſand Herrings, the Sum of ten Pounds.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall take the ſecond or next greateſt Quantity of Herrings in each Seaſon, exceeding the Number of twenty-five thouſand Herrings, the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Owner or Maſter of the Boat which ſhall take the laſt Maze of Herrings each Seaſon, the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Admiral of the Herring Fiſhery for each Seaſon the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Vice Admiral of the ſaid Fiſhery, for each Seaſon, the Sum of three Pounds.

To the Water Bailiff of the Iſland, or his Deputy, in conſideration of the Trouble and Expences of attending at the ſeveral Ports, and viſiting the Coaſts during the Herring Fiſhing Seaſon, the Sum of twenty Pounds.

To the Weaver or Perſon who ſhall weave in each Year, the greateſt Number of Yards of Linen Cloth within the ſaid Iſland, of the Value of ten Pence, and not exceeding the Value of one Shilling and ſix Pence per Yard, the Sum of ſix Pounds.

To the Weaver or Perſon who ſhall weave, in each Year, the next greateſt Number of Yards of Linen Cloth within the ſaid Iſland, of like Value, the Sum of four Pounds.

To the Perſon who ſhall ſpin, in each Year, the greateſt Quantity of Linen Yarn within the ſaid Iſland, the Sum of five Pounds.

To the Perſon who ſhall ſpin, in each Year the next greateſt Quantity of Linen Yarn within the ſaid Iſland, the Sum of three Pounds.

To the Perſon who ſhall export for Sale, in each Year, the greateſt Number of Yards of Linen Cloth of the Manufacture of the ſaid Iſland, being all his own Property, the Sum of ten Pounds.

Which ſeveral and reſpective Allowances, herein before mentioned, ſhall be paid upon Demand to the reſpective Perſons intitled thereto, by his Majeſty's Receiver General in the Iſle of Man, or his Deputy, out of the Duties of ten Shillings payable to his Majeſty, in the ſaid Iſle, for and upon every Boat or other Veſſel employed in the Herring Fiſhery, and out of the Money ariſing to his Majeſty from the ſeveral Bay Fiſheries of the ſaid Iſland. Bounties to be paid out of the Fiſhery Duties.

XVIII. And, in order to aſcertain the Number of Nights ſuch Boats ſhall have fiſhed, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter of every Boat employed in the Fiſhery ſhall deliver, Weekly, an Account in Writing of the Number of Nights he has ſo fiſhed in each preceding Week, to the Admiral, or Vice-Admiral of the Herring Fiſhery; which Accounts ſhall be verified by the Oaths of the Admiral or Vice-Admiral, and the Maſter of the Boat claiming ſuch Bounty, at the End of each Seaſon, before the Water Bailiff of the Iſland, or his Deputy; and in caſe the Money ariſing by the ſaid Duties payable to his Majeſty, in the ſaid Iſle of Man, for and upon Boats and Veſſels employed in the Herring Fiſhery, and from the ſeveral Bay Fiſheries of the ſaid Iſlands, ſhall not be ſufficient in any Seaſon to pay the Bounties herein before granted, then the ſaid Bounties ſhall be only paid in equal Rates and Proportions, according to the Receipt of the ſaid Duties, and the Money ariſing from the ſaid Bay Fiſheries. Bounties to be paid proportionally.

XIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Auhority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be intitled to the Bounties herein before mentioned, unleſs the Boat, for which ſuch Bounty is claimed, ſhall, before ſhe proceeds upon the Fiſhery in each Seaſon, be regiſtered at the Cuſtom-houſe at the Port of Douglas; and the Maſter of ſuch Boat ſhall give Bond to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with one or more ſufficient Surety, to be approved of by his Majeſty's Receiver General, or his Deputy, in the penal Sum of one hundred Pounds, that ſuch Boat ſhall not export, from the ſaid Iſle of Man, any Goods prohibited hibited to be exported from thence; or import, into the ſaid Iſle, any Goods prohibited to be imported there; or export or import there, as aforeſaid, any Cuſtomable Goods, for which the Duties due and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, have not been duly anſwered and paid; and ſhall not be otherwiſe employed or uſed in any illicit Trade, whereby his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall or may be defrauded: Which Bonds ſhall continue in Force for three Years from the Dates thereof; and, in caſe no Fraud ſhall appear within that Time, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty's ſaid Receiver General to cancel the ſame.

Regiſter's Fees.

XX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Officer regiſtering any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, and taking any Bond in purſuance of this Act, to demand and receive from the Maſter or Owner of ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, one Shilling for every Regiſter, and from the Perſon giving ſuch Bond, one Shilling for every Bond, and no more.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That before any Perſon ſhall be intitled to the reſpective Bounties, granted by this Act for the Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture, each Perſon claiming ſuch Bounty, ſhall reſpectively make Oath before his Majeſty's Receiver General of the Iſland, or his Deputy, of the Number of Yards of Linen Cloth wove or exported by the ſaid Perſon ſo claiming, and alſo of the Quantity of Linen Yarn ſpun by the Perſon claiming the Bounty for Spinning, agreeable to the Terms before ſpecified.

Where Goods ſhall be unſhipped or landed before Duty paid, &c. The Parties concerned forfeit treble the Value, &c.

XXII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, if any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, liable to the Payment of Duties in the Iſle of Man, by this or any other Act of Parliament, ſhall be unſhipped or landed from any Ship or Veſſel inward bound, before the reſpective Duties due thereon are paid, agreeable to Law; or if any prohibited Goods whatſoever ſhall be imported into, or exported out of, the ſaid Iſle of Man; every Perſon who ſhall be aſſiſting or otherwiſe concerned, either in the unſhipping or landing inwards, or in ſhipping or loading outwards, ſuch Goods, or to whoſe Hands the ſame ſhall knowingly come after the unſhipping, landing, or relanding the ſame, ſhall, for each and every Offence, forfeit treble the Value of ſuch Goods, to be eſtimated and computed according to the beſt Price that each Commodity then bears at the Town and Port of Douglas in the ſaid Iſland; and the ſaid Goods, and all the Boats, Horſes, Cattle, and Carriages whatſoever, made uſe of in the landing, loading, removing, Carriage, or Conveyance thereof, ſhall alſo be forfeited and loſt; and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and ſued for and proſecuted as herein after mentioned.

XXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Sums of Money which ſhall be paid, incurred, or recovered, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be deemed, and are hereby declared to be, Sterling Money of Great Britain; and ſhall be paid, collected, and recovered, to the Amount of the Value which ſuch nominal Sums bear in Great Britain.

Forfeitures and Penalties. 5 Geo. 3.

XXIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by this Act, as well ſpecifick as pecuniary, and all Suits or Informations which ſhall be brought or commenced for the Recovery thereof, ſhall be ſued for, proſecuted, tried, heard, and determined, and the ſaid Penalties, and Forfeitures diſtributed and diſpoſed of, in ſuch Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, as are preſcribed and directed in and by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for the more effectual preventing the Miſchiefs ariſing to 'the Revenue and Commerce of Great Britain and Ireland, from the illicit and clandeſtine Trade to and 'from the Iſle of Man,' with reſpect to the Forfeitures and Penalties therein mentioned.

And for and upon all Paper which ſhall be printed, painted, or ſtained, in Great Britain, to ſerve for Hangings or other Uſes, three Farthings for every Yard ſquare, over and above the Duties payable for ſuch Paper by this Act, if the ſame had not been printed, painted, or ſtained; and after thoſe Rates reſpectively for any greater or leſs Quantity.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all other Paper (not being particularly rated and charged in this Act) ſhall pay the ſeveral and reſpective Duties that are charged, by this Act, upon ſuch Paper as is neareſt above in Size and Goodneſs to ſuch unrated Paper.

III. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Ream of Paper, chargeable by this Act, ſhall be underſtood to conſiſt of twenty Quires, and each Quire of twenty-four Sheets.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Rates and Duties, charged by this Act upon Goods imported into any Britiſh American Colony or Plantation, ſhall be deemed, and are hereby declared to be, Sterling Money of Great Britain; and ſhall be collected, recovered, and paid, to the Amount of the Value which ſuch nominal Sums bear in Great Britain; and that ſuch Monies may be received and taken, according to the Proportion and Value of five Shillings and ſix Pence the Ounce in Silver; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and recovered in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as any other Duties, now payable to his Majeſty upon Goods imported into the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, may be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and recovered by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating thereto, were particularly repeated, and again enacted, in the Body of this preſent Act: And that all the Monies that ſhall ariſe by the ſaid Duties (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, levying, recovering, anſwering, paying, and accounting for the ſame), ſhall be applied, in the firſt Place, in ſuch Manner as is herein after mentioned, in making a more certain and adequate Proviſion for the Charge of the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and the Support of Civil Government, in ſuch of the ſaid Colonies and Plantations where it ſhall be found neceſſary; and that the Reſidue of ſuch Duties ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; and ſhall be there reſerved, to be from Time to Time diſpoſed of by Parliament towards defraying the neceſſary Expences of defending, protecting, and ſecuring, the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That his Majeſty and his Succeſſors ſhall be, and are hereby, impowered, from Time to Time, by any Warrant or Warrants under his or their Royal Sign Manual or Sign Manuals, counterſigned by the High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, to cauſe ſuch Monies to be applied, out of the Produce of the Duties granted by this Act, as his Majeſty, or his Succeſſors, ſhall think proper or neceſſary, for defraying the Charges of the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and the Support of the Civil Government, within all or any of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations.

'VI. And whereas the allowing a Drawback of all the Duties of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation, from 'this Kingdom, of Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, the Growth of the Britiſh Dominions in America, may be a 'Means of encouraging the Growth of Coffee and Cocoa in the ſaid Dominions;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twentieth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, upon the Exportation of any Coffee or Cocoa Nuts, of the Growth or Produce of any Britiſh Colony, or Plantation in America, from this Kingdom as Merchandize, the whole Duties of Cuſtoms, payable upon the Importation of ſuch Coffee or Cocoa Nuts, ſhall be drawn back and repaid; in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of ſuch Coffee or Cocoa Nuts, was, could, or might be paid, before the paſſing of this Act; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Drawback ſhall be allowed for any China Earthen Ware ſold, after the paſſing of this Act, at the Sale of the United Company of Merchants Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, which ſhall be entered for Exportation from Great Britain to any Part of America; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any China Earthen Ware ſold, after the paſſing of this Act, at the Sale of the ſaid United Company, ſhall be entered for Exportation to any Part of America, as China Earthen Ware that had been ſold at the Sale of the ſaid Company before that Time; or, if any China Earthen Ware ſhall be entered for Exportation to any Parts beyond the Seas, other than to ſome Part of America, in order to obtain any Drawback thereon, and the ſaid China Earthen Ware ſhall nevertheleſs be carried to any Part of America, and landed there, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; that then, in each and every ſuch Caſe, the Drawback ſhall be forfeited; and the Merchant or other Perſon making ſuch Entry, and the Maſter or Perſon taking the Charge of the Ship or Veſſel on board which the ſaid Goods ſhall be loaden for Exportation, ſhall forfeit Double the Amount of the Drawback paid, or to be paid, for the ſame, and alſo Treble the Value of the ſaid Goods; one Moiety to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moiety to ſuch Officer of the Cuſtoms as ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be proſecuted, ſued for, and recovered, in ſuch Manner and Form, and by the ſame Rules and Regulations, as other Penalties inflicted for Offences againſt the Laws relating to the Cuſtoms may be proſecuted, ſued for, and recovered, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force.

IX. And, for the more effectual preventing the clandeſtine Running of Goods in the Britiſh Dominions in America, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twentieth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the Maſter or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of every Ship or Veſſel arriving in any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America ſhall, before he proceeds with his Veſſel to the Place of unlading, come directly to the Cuſtom-houſe for the Port or Diſtrict where he arrives, and make a juſt and true Entry, upon Oath, before the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms there, of the Burthen, Contents, and Lading, of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with the particular Marks, Numbers, Qualities, and Contents of every Parcel of Goods therein laden, to the beſt of his Knowledge; alſo where and in what Port ſhe took in her Lading; of what Country built; how manned; who was Maſter during the Voyage, and who are Owners thereof; and whether any, and what Goods, during the Courſe of ſuch Voyage, had or had not been diſcharged out of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and where: And the Maſter or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of every Ship or Veſſel, going out from any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, before he ſhall take in, or ſuffer to be taken into or laden on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, to be exported, ſhall, in like Manner, enter and report Outwards ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with her Name and Burthen, of what Country built, and how manned, with the Names of the Maſter and Owners thereof, and to what Port or Place he intends to paſs or ſail: And before he ſhall depart with ſuch Ship or Veſſel out of any ſuch Colony or Plantation, he ſhall alſo bring and deliver unto the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port or Place where he ſhall lade, a Content in Writing, under his Hand, of the Name of every Merchant, or other Perſon who ſhall have laden, or put on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, any Goods or Merchandize, together with the Marks and Numbers of ſuch Goods or Merchandize: And ſuch Maſter or Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, either coming into, or going out of, any Britiſh Colony or Plantation as aforeſaid, whether ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be laden or in Ballaſt, or otherwiſe, ſhall likewiſe publickly, in the open Cuſtom-houſe, to the beſt of his Knowledge, anſwer upon Oath to ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms for ſuch Port or Place, concerning ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Deſtination of her Voyage, or concerning any Goods or Merchandize that ſhall or may be laden on board her, upon Forfeiture of one hundred Pounds Sterling Money of Great Britain, for each and every Default or Neglect; to be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and divided, in the ſame Manner and Form, by the ſame Rules and Regulations in all Reſpects, as other pecuniary Penalties, for Offences againſt the Laws relating to the Cuſtoms or Trade of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, may, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, be proſecuted, ſued for, recovered, and divided.

'X. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and ſeveral other Acts now in Force, it is lawful for any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, authorized by Writ of Aſſiſtants under the Seal of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, to take a Conſtable, Headborough, or other Publick Officer inhabiting near unto the Place, and in the Day-time to enter and go into any Houſe, Shop, Cellar, Warehouſe, or Room or other Place, and, in caſe of Reſiſtance, to break open Doors, Cheſts, Trunks, and other Package there, to ſeize, and from thence to bring, any Kind of Goods or Merchandize whatſoever prohibited or uncuſtomed, and to put and ſecure the ſame in his Majeſty's Storehouſe next to the Place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made: And whereas by an Act made in the ſeventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in the Plantation Trade, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the Officers for collecting and managing his Majeſty's Revenue, and inſpecting the Plantation Trade, in America, ſhall have the ſame Powers and Authorities to enter Houſes or Warehouſes, to ſearch for and ſeize Goods prohibited to be imported or exported into or out of any of the ſaid Plantations, or for which any Duties are payable, or ought to have been paid; and that the like Aſſiſtance ſhall be given to the ſaid Officers in the Execution of their Office, as, by the ſaid recited Act of the fourteenth Year of King Charles the Second, is provided for the Officers in England: But no Authority being expreſsly given by the ſaid Act, made in the ſeventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, to any particular Court to grant ſuch Writs of Aſſiſtants for the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Plantations,' 14 Car. 2. c. 11. 7 & 8. Will. 3. c. 22.

'tions, it is doubted whether ſuch Officers can legally enter Houſes and other Places on Land, to ſearch for 'and ſeize Goods, in the Manner directed by the ſaid recited Acts:' To obviate which Doubts for the future, and in order to carry the Intention of the ſaid recited Acts into effectual Execution, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twentieth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſuch Writs of Aſſiſtants, to authoriſe and impower the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms to enter and go into any Houſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, or other Place, in the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, to ſearch for and ſeize prohibited or uncuſtomed Goods, in the Manner directed by the ſaid recited Acts, ſhall and may be granted by the ſaid Superior, or Supreme Court of Juſtice having Juriſdiction within ſuch Colony or Plantation reſpectively.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced, either in Great Britain or America, againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants: And if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as Defendants have in other Caſes by Law.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act for diſcontinuing the Duties on Logwood exported; for taking off the Duties on Succus Liquoritiæ imported, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; for explaining ſuch Parts of two Acts made in the tenth and twelfth Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, as relate to certain Duties on Silks, printed, painted, or ſtained, in Great Britain; for granting a Duty upon the Exportation of ſuch Rice as ſhall have been imported Duty-free, in purſuance of an Act made in this Seſſion of Parliament; and for more effectually preventing the Wear of Foreign Lace and Needle-work which are prohibited to be imported into this Kingdom.

'WHEREAS the diſcontinuing the Duty payable upon the Exportation of Logwood from this 'Kingdom, may be a Means of encouraging the Importation thereof;' May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twentieth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the Duty now payable upon Logwood, exported from this Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Duties upon Exportation of Logwood provided, &c.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That due Entries ſhall be made at the Cuſtom-houſe of all ſuch Logwood upon which the Duty is taken off by this Act, in the ſame Manner and Form, expreſſing the Quantities and Qualities thereof, as was uſed and practiſed before the making of this Act; and ſuch Logwood ſhall be ſhipped Outwards in the Preſence of the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe; and the Exportation thereof ſhall be in Britiſh built Ships or Veſſels, navigated according to Law; and on Failure of the ſaid Conditions and Directions, or any of them, the ſaid Logwood ſhall be liable to the ſame Duty as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'III. And whereas Succus Liquoritiæ is rated, in the Book of Rates made in the twelfth Year of the 'Reign of King Charles the Second, at one Shilling per Pound Weight; according to which Value, the 'Duties now payable upon Succus Liquoritiæ, imported into this Kingdom, amount to ſeven Pounds 'two Shillings and ſix Pence for every hundred Weight thereof: And whereas it has been found, by Ex-'perience, that the ſaid Duties are too high; which has induced many Perſons to import clandeſtinely great 'Quantities of ſuch Succus Liquoritiæ, to the Prejudice of the Revenue and the fair Trader:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twentieth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſeveral Duties payable upon the Importation of Succus Liquoritiæ ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid; and, in lieu thereof, there ſhall be paid and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for every hundred Weight Avoirdupois of Succus Liquoritiæ which, from and after the ſaid twentieth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſhall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of thirty Shillings.

Duty on Succus Liquoritiæ.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duty by this Act granted ſhall be paid down in ready Money, without any Diſcount or Allowance; and ſhall not be afterwards drawn back or repaid upon the Exportation of the ſame Goods; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duties upon Succus Liquoritiæ hereby determined, or any of them, might have been raiſed, levied, recovered, and paid, if the ſame, or any of them, had continued.

V. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duties to ariſe upon the Importation of Succus Liquoritiæ purſuant to this Act (the neceſſary Charges of Management excepted) ſhall be appropriated and applied, as near as may be, to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as the preſent Duties upon Drugs, rated by the Book of Rates made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, are applicable, or ought to be applied.

'VI. And whereas by an Act paſſed in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for laying ſeveral Duties upon all Sope and Paper made in Great Britain, *or imported into the ſame; and upon Chequered and Striped Linens imported; and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, painted, or ſtained; and upon ſeveral Kinds of ſtampt Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and upon certain printed Papers, Pamphlets, and Advertiſements; for raiſing the Sum of one million eight hundred thouſand Pounds, by Way of a Lottery, towards her Majeſty's Supply; and for licenſing an additional Number of Hackney Chairs; and for charging certain Stocks of Cards and Dice; and for better ſecuring her Majeſty's Duties to ariſe in the Office of Stamp Duties by Licences for Marriages, and otherwiſe; and for Relief of Perſons who have not claimed their Lottery Tickets in due Time, or have loſt Exchequer Bills or Lottery Tickets; And whereas the permitting Foreign Lace made of Silk or Thread, and Foreign Needle-work, to 'be worn or uſed in Great Britain, after the ſame has been ſeized and condemned, gives the unfair Dealer 'in thoſe Commodities Opportunity to ſecure from Seizures great Quantities thereof, which are clan-'deſtinely imported:' Now, to prevent a Practice ſo very prejudicial to the Publick Revenue, and the Manufacturers of ſuch Goods in this Kingdom, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſeventh Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Foreign Lace made of Silk or Thread, or Foreign Needle-work, which ſhall have been, or ſhall be ſeized and condemned in Great Britain, for any Cauſe of Forfeiture, ſhall be ſold or delivered out of any Cuſtom-houſe Warehouſe wherein the ſame ſhall be ſecured, otherwiſe than on Condition to be exported under the like Securities, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed by Law, for the due Exportation of Eaſt India Goods prohibited to be worn or uſed in Great Britain; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Foreign Lace, &c. ſeized and condemned may be ſold, &c. but for Exportation.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in any ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared; or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff; the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for regulating the Proceedings of certain Public Companies and Corporations carrying on Trade or Dealings with Joint Stocks, in reſpect to the declaring of Dividends; and for further regulating the Qualification of Members for voting in their reſpective General Courts.

'WHEREAS by virtue of divers Acts of Parliament, and of Royal Charters founded thereupon, certain Publick Companies or Corporations have been inſtituted for the Purpoſe of carrying on 'particular Trades or Dealings with Joint Stocks; and the Management of the Affairs of ſuch Companies has been veſted in their General Courts, compoſed of the Members at large of ſuch Companies 'reſpectively; in which General Courts every Member of each reſpective Company, poſſeſſed of ſuch 'Share in the Stock of the Company as in and by the ſaid Acts of Parliament and Charters is limited 'with regard to each of the ſaid Companies reſpectively, is qualified and intitled to give a Vote or Votes: 'And whereas of late Years a moſt unfair and miſchievous Practice has been introduced of ſplitting large 'Quantities of Stock, and making ſeparate and temporary Conveyances of the Parts thereof, for the Purpoſe of multiplying or making occaſional Votes immediately before the Time of declaring a Dividend, 'of chuſing Directors, or of deciding any other important Queſtion; which Practice is ſubverſive of 'every Principle upon which the Eſtabliſhment of ſuch General Courts is founded, and, if ſuffered to 'become general, would leave the permanent Intereſt of ſuch Companies liable at all Times to be ſacrificed 'to the partial and intereſted Views of a few, and thoſe perhaps temporary Proprietors:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Member of any of the ſaid Publick Companies or Corporations, inſtituted for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed qualified to vote, or be admitted to give any Vote or Votes, in any General Court of any ſuch Company, in reſpect of any Stock transferred to him, her, or them, after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, until he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have been poſſeſſed of ſuch Stock ſix Calendar Months; unleſs ſuch Stock ſhall have been acquired or ſhall have come by Bequeſt, or by Marriage, or by Succeſſion to an Inteſtate's Eſtate, or by the Cuſtom of the City of London, or by any Deed of Settlement after the Death of any Perſon who ſhall have been intitled for Life to the Dividends of ſuch Stock.

Members diſqualified from voting in a General Court who were not poſſeſſed of Stock ſix Months; except, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral and reſpective Oaths and Affirmations which are at preſent, either by virtue of any Act of Parliament, or by any Charter of any of the ſaid Companies, required to be adminiſtered to, or taken by the Members intitled to vote in the General Courts of the ſaid Companies reſpectively, at or before giving their Votes, ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, be altered in ſuch Manner, as to extend to, and compromiſe the further Qualification required by this Act, in reſpect of the Continuance of the Poſſeſſion of ſuch Stock as aforeſaid; and that the ſaid Oaths and Affirmations, ſo altered as aforeſaid, ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, be ſeverally and reſpectively adminiſtered to, and taken by the Members of ſuch Companies, in the Place of thoſe heretofore required to be adminiſtered and taken.

Oaths to be taken.

III. And foraſmuch as no Part of the Buſineſs tranſacted by the General Courts of the ſaid Companies can be of more Importance to the general and laſting Intereſt of the Companies themſelves, or to the Preſervation ſervation of Publick Credit, ſo cloſely connected with that Intereſt, than what concerns the fixing, from Time to Time, of the Dividends to be made out of the Profits and Produce of their Joint Stocks among the ſeveral Proprietors having Shares therein: And foraſmuch as the Proviſions hitherto made have not been found ſufficient to prevent many great and dangerous Irregularities being practiſed in relation to the making of ſudden and unwarrantable Alterations in the Rates of ſuch Dividends: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the tenth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Declaration of a Dividend ſhall be made by any General Court of any of the ſaid Companies, other than one of the Half-yearly or Quarterly General Courts, at the Diſtance of five Calendar Months at the leaſt from the laſt preceding Declaration of a Dividend; and that no Declaration of more than one Half-yearly Dividend ſhall be made by one General Court; and that no Queſtion upon any Propoſition for increaſing the Rate of the Dividend, ſhall be decided otherwiſe than by Ballot, to be taken at the Diſtance of three entire Days, at the leaſt, from the Adjournment, or Breaking up of the General Court, in which ſuch Queſtion ſhall have been propoſed.

No Declaration of a Dividend, but at Half yearly or Quarterly General Courts, at five Months Diſtance, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; of which Notice ſhall be judicially taken by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Publick Act.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act for regulating certain Proceedings of the General Courts of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

'WHEREAS it muſt, at all Times, be of the utmoſt Importance to the Intereſt and Welfare of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, that the Power of declaring Dividends upon the Stock of the ſaid Company, veſted in their General Courts, ſhould be duly exerciſed; and that no Determination ſhould ever be made or take place in reſpect of any ſuch Dividend, without a full and fair Opportunity given to the Proprietors at large to exerciſe the Right of taking ſuch Part in every ſuch Determination as they are intitled to by Law: And whereas it is at this Time become peculiarly neceſſary to ſecure, at all Events, as well the permanent Intereſt of the ſaid Company, as the State of Credit both Private and Publick, from the Miſchiefs which muſt enſue from an improper and improvident Increaſe of the Dividends of the ſaid Company; which cannot be effectually done without the Interpoſition of Parliament:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Dividend ſhall be made by the ſaid Company, for or in reſpect of any Time ſubſequent to the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, otherwiſe than in purſuance of a Vote or Reſolution paſſed by way of Balloting in a General Court of the ſaid Company, which ſhall have been ſummoned for the Purpoſe of declaring a Dividend; and of the Meeting of which General Court for ſuch Purpoſe ſeven Days Notice at the leaſt ſhall have been given in Writing, fixed upon the Royal Exchange in London.

No Dividend to be made, but in purſuance of a Vote, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any General Court of the ſaid Company, at any Time between the eighth Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and the Beginning of the next Seſſion of Parliament, to declare or reſolve upon any Increaſe of Dividend beyond the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, being the Rate at which the Dividend for the Half Year, ending the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, is made payable.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Balloting upon any Queſtion propoſed in any General Court of the ſaid Company, relative either to the Declaration of a Dividend, or to any other Matter whatſoever, ſhall be begun within a leſs Space of Time than eight Hours after the Adjournment, or Breaking up, of the General Court in which it ſhall have been determined that ſuch Queſtion ſhould be decided by Balloting; and that in no Caſe the Balloting ſhall be begun at a later Hour of the Day than Twelve of the Clock at Noon, nor cloſed at an earlier Hour than Six of the Clock in the Afternoon.

nor Balloting ſooner than eight Hours after breaking up of the Court, &c. For the Regulation of Perſons employed in the Company's Service, ſee 10 Geo. 3. c. 47. § 3. and Index, Tit. East India Company.

CAP. L.

An Act for amending certain Laws relating to the Revenue of the Poſt Office; and for granting Rates of Poſtage for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets between Great Britain and the Iſle of Man, and within that Iſland.

'WHEREAS it is of the utmoſt Importance to the Trade and Commerce of theſe Kingdoms, that all Letters, Packets, Bank Notes, Bills of Exchange, and other Things, may be ſent and conveyed by the Poſt with the greateſt Safety and Security; and it having been found neceſſary, that ſome further Regulations and Proviſions ſhould be made for that Purpoſe:' May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Officers or others, who ſhall ſecrete, &c. any Letter, &c. containing any Note, for Payment of Money; or ſhall ſteal, &c. Death.

by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Deputy, Clerk, Agent, Letter-carrier, Poſt-boy, or Rider, or any other Officer or Perſon whatſoever, employed, or to be hereafter employed, in receiving, ſtamping, ſorting, charging, carrying, conveying, or delivering, Letters or Packets, or in any other Buſineſs relating to the Poſt Office, ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſecrete, embezzle, or deſtroy, any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, Bag, or Mail of Letters, which he, ſhe, or they, ſhall and may be reſpectively intruſted with, or which ſhall have come to his, her, or their Hands or Poſſeſſion, containing any Bank Note, Bank Poſt Bill, Bill of Exchange, Exchequer Bill, South Sea or Eaſt India Bond, Dividend Warrant of the Bank, South Sea, Eaſt India, or any other Company, Society, or Corporation, Navy or Victualling or Tranſport Bill, Ordnance Debenture, Seaman's Ticket, State Lottery Ticket or Certificate, Bank Receipt for Payment on any Loan, Note of Aſſignment of Stock in the Funds, Letter of Attorney for receiving Annuities or Dividends, or for ſelling Stock in the Funds, or belonging to any Company, Society, or Corporation, American Provincial Bill of Credit, Goldſmith's or Banker's Letter of Credit or Note for or relating to the Payment of Money, or other Bond or Warrant, Draught, Bill, or Promiſſory Note whatſoever, for the Payment of Money; or ſhall ſteal and take out of any Letter or Packet that ſhall come to his, her, or their Hands or Poſſeſſion, any ſuch Bank Note, Bank Poſt Bill, Bill of Exchange, Exchequer Bill, South Sea or Eaſt India Bond, Dividend Warrant of the Bank, South Sea, Eaſt India, or any other Company, Society, or Corporation, Navy or Victualling or Tranſport Bill, Ordnance Debenture, Seaman's Ticket, State Lottery Ticket or Certificate, Bank Receipt for Payment on any Loan, Note of Aſſignment of Stock in the Funds, Letter of Attorney for receiving Annuities or Dividends, or for ſelling Stock in the Funds, or belonging to any Company, Society, or Corporation, American Provincial Bill of Credit, Goldſmith's or Banker's Letter of Credit or Note for or relating to the Payment of Money, or other Bond or Warrant, Draught, Bill, or Promiſſory Note whatſoever, for the Payment of Money; every ſuch Offender or Offenders, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, ſhall be deemed guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

Perſons who ſhall rob the Mail, &c. Death.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall rob any Mail or Mails, in which Letters are ſent or conveyed by the Poſt, of any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, Bag or Mail of Letters; or ſhall ſteal and take from or out of any ſuch Mail or Mails, or from or out of any Bag or Bags of Letters, ſent or conveyed by the Poſt, or from or out of any Poſt Office, or Houſe or Place for the Receipt or Delivery of Letters or Packets ſent or to be ſent by the Poſt, any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets; although ſuch Robbery, Stealing, or Taking, ſhall not appear, or be proved, to be a Taking from the Perſon, or upon the King's Highway, or to be a Robbery committed in any Dwelling-houſe, or any Coach-houſe, Stable, Barn, or any Out-houſe belonging to a Dwelling-houſe; and although it ſhould not appear that any Perſon or Perſons were put in Fear by ſuch Robbery, Stealing, or Taking; yet ſuch Offender or Offenders, being thereof convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall nevertheleſs reſpectively be deemed guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Officers, or others, who ſhall deſtroy any Letter, &c. guilty of Felony.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Deputy, Clerk, Agent, Letter-carrier, Officer, or other Perſon whatſoever, employed or hereafter to be employed in any Buſineſs relating to the Poſt Office, ſhall take and receive into his, her, or their Hands or Poſſeſſion any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, to be forwarded by the Poſt, and receive any Sum or Sums of Money therewith for the Poſtage thereof, ſhall, after the ſaid firſt Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, burn or otherwiſe deſtroy any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, by him, her, or them, ſo taken in or received; or if any ſuch Deputy, Clerk, Agent, Letter-carrier, Officer, or other Perſon whatſoever, ſo employed, or hereafter to be ſo employed, ſhall advance the Rate or Rates of Poſtage upon any Letter or Letters, Packet or Packets, ſent by the Poſt, and ſhall ſecrete, and not duly account for, the Money by him, her, or them, received for ſuch advanced Poſtage; every ſuch Offender or Offenders, being thereof convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed guilty of Felony.

'IV. And whereas it hath been found neceſſary, for the Convenience and Improvement of Trade and 'Commerce, and for the more ſafe and ſpeedy Conveyance of Letters and Packets between Great Britain 'and the Iſle of Man, to eſtabliſh a Packet-boat between the Port of Whitehaven in the County of Cum- 'berland, and the Port of Douglas in the ſaid Iſle of Man;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid,

A Packet Boat between Whitehaven and the Port of Douglas.

That from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty's Poſt-maſter General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto ſufficiently authoriſed, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Poſt and Conveyance of all and every the Letters and Packets that ſhall be carried or conveyed by Packet-boats to or from the Port of Whitehaven aforeſaid, or any other convenient Port in the Kingdom of Great Britain, from or to the Port of Douglas aforeſaid, or any other convenient Port in the ſaid Iſle of Man (over and above all other Rates payable for ſuch Letters or Packets) according to the Rates and Sums hereafter-mentioned (the ſame being rated either by the Letter, or by the Ounce), that is to ſay,

The Rates.

For every Single Letter, two Pence.
For every Double Letter, four Pence.
For every Treble Letter, ſix Pence.
And for every Ounce, eight Pence.

And ſo in proportion for every Packet of Deeds, Writs, and other Things.

V. And

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty's Poſt-maſter General to eſtabliſh Poſt Offices and Poſt Roads within the ſaid Iſle of Man, wherever it ſhall appear to him to be neceſſary and convenient for the Benefit of Trade and Correſpondence ſo to do; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Poſt-maſter General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto ſufficiently authoriſed, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Inland Port or Conveyance of all Letters or Packets ſent or conveyed by the Poſt within the ſaid Iſle, ſuch Rates of Poſtage, in proportion to the Number of Miles or Stages ſuch Letters and Packets are carried or conveyed by the Poſt, as now are reſpectively ſettled, eſtabliſhed, and aſcertained, to be paid for the Inland Port or Conveyance of Letters and Packets within that Part of Great Britain called England.

Convenient Poſt Offices, and Poſt Roads, to be eſtabliſhed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all and every the Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Diſabilities, Penalties, and Methods for the Recovery of the ſame, and all other Matters and Things contained in an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, 'An Act for eſtabliſhing a General Poſt Office for all her Majeſty's Dominions, and for ſettling 'a Weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War, and other her Majeſty's Occa-'ſions,' (and not repealed or altered by any ſubſequent Law); as alſo an Act made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, 'An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in the 'Publick Revenues of Exciſe, Cuſtoms, Stamp Duties, Poſt Office, and Houſe Money,' ſo far as the ſaid Act relates to the Poſt Office; as alſo in an Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Removal 'of Tobacco by Land or Water, and for the Eaſe of the fair Trader; and for aſcertaining the Rates pay-'able for the Poſtage of certain Letters; and for amending and explaining the Laws relating to the Sale of 'Spirituous Liquors by Retail;' ſo far as the ſaid Act relates to the Poſt Office; as alſoin an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent moſt gracious Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for preventing 'Frauds and Abuſes in relation to the ſending and receiving Letters and Packets free from the Duty of 'Poſtage;' as alſo in an Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act to alter 'certain Rates of Poſtage; and to amend, explain, and enlarge, ſeveral Proviſions in an Act made in the 'ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Poſt Office;' and alſo in this preſent Act, or in any other Act relating to the Poſt Office, ſhall extend, and be deemed and conſtrued to extend, to the ſaid Iſle of Man, and to all his Majeſty's Subjects within the ſaid Iſle, as fully and effectually, in every reſpect, as if the ſaid Iſle, and his Majeſty's Subjects therein, had been expreſsly included in the ſaid ſeveral Acts, or in any of them.

An Act for further continuing an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual, in his Majeſty's Dominions in America, an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. EXP.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned; for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than one Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain.

18 Geo. 2. c. 26. 21 Geo. 2. c. 14.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for repealing the preſent Inland Duty of four Shillings per Pound Weight upon all Tea ſold in Great Britain, and for granting to his Majeſty certain other Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for better ſecuring the Duty upon Tea, and other Duties of Exciſe; and for purſuing Offenders out of one County into another; an Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, was impoſed and charged upon all Tea to be ſold in Great Britain; and alſo a further Duty of twenty-five Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the groſs Price at which ſuch Teas ſhould be ſold at the publick Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and proportionably for a greater or leſſer Sum; which Duties were to commence from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, over and above all Cuſtoms, Subſidies, and Duties, payable to his Majeſty for the ſame, upon Importation thereof; to be paid in Manner as in the ſaid Act is directed: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-firſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, Tea was allowed to be exported from this Kingdom to Ireland, and his Majeſty's Plantations in America, without Payment of the ſaid Inland Duties: And whereas the taking off the ſaid Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon Black and Singlo Teas, granted by the ſaid Act, and the allowing, upon the Exportation of all Teas which ſhall be exported to Ireland and his Majeſty's Plantations in America, the whole of the Duty paid upon the Importation thereof into this Kingdom, appear to be the moſt probable and expedient Means of extending the Conſumption of Teas legally imported within this Kingdom, and of increaſing the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and to his Majeſty's Plantations in America, which are now chiefly furniſhed by Foreigners in a Courſe of illicit Trade: And whereas the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies are willing and deſirous to indemnify the Publick, in ſuch Manner as is hereinafter provided, with reſpect to any Diminution of the Revenue which ſhall or may happen from this Experiment;' We, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, do therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for and during the Space of five Years, to be computed from the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſaid Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon Teas, ſhall not be paid for or in reſpect of any Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Teas, commonly called Black Teas, or any Teas known by the Denomination of Singlo Teas, which ſhall be cleared for Conſumption within Great Britain, out of Warehouſes of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors; but that all ſuch Teas ſo to be cleared, whether the ſame have been already, or ſhall be hereafter, ſold by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall be and are hereby freed and diſcharged, during the ſaid Term, from the ſaid Inland Duty.

The Iſland Duty diſcontinued for five Years, upon Black Teas, &c. and the Cuſtoms payable on Importation, to be drawn back upon all Teas exported to Ireland, or America.

II. And

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and during the like Space of five Years, to be computed from the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas exported from this Kingdom as Merchandize to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, the whole Duties of Cuſtoms payable upon the Importation of ſuch Teas; which Drawback or Allowance, with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to Ireland, ſhall be made to the Exporter in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance is now payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of foreign Goods to Ireland; and with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, the ſaid Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon Foreign Goods exported to Foreign Parts, was, could, or might be made before the paſſing of this Act (except in ſuch Caſes as are otherwiſe provided for by this Act).

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Drawback allowed by this Act ſhall not be paid or allowed for any Teas which ſhall not be exported directly from the Warehouſe or Warehouſes wherein the ſame ſhall be lodged, purſuant to the Directions of an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt.

Purſuant Act 10 Geo. 1.

IV. And, for making good any Diminution which may happen in the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe by the Diſcontinuance of the ſaid Duty, and the Allowance of the ſaid Drawback, during the Term aforeſaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on or before the firſt Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and on or before the firſt Day of September in each of the four ſucceeding Years, a true and exact Account ſhall be taken, ſtated, and made up, by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, of the Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms for and in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors; and alſo of the Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe upon Teas cleared out of the Warehouſes belonging to the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, within the Year, ending the fifth Day of July immediately preceding the taking, ſtating, and making up ſuch Account; and that a Sum, which ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms paid upon the Importation of Teas which were exported to Ireland and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for five Years preceding the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſhall be deducted from the total of the Net Produce, ſo ſtated, of the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe in the ſaid Account, for the Year ending the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and for each of the ſaid four ſucceeding Years reſpectively: And if, after ſuch Deduction ſhall have been made, the remaining Sum ſhall not amount to ſuch a Sum as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms for and in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company; and alſo to the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe upon Teas cleared out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, on an Average for five Years preceding the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, from Time to Time, as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, within forty Days after a Copy of ſuch yearly Account reſpectively ſhall have been delivered to their Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Secretary, Caſhier, or Accomptant General, ſhall advance and pay, for every ſuch Year reſpectively, into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, for his Majeſty's Uſe, ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall, with the Monies remaining in ſuch reſpective annual Account after the Deductions aforeſaid ſhall have been made, amount to ſuch a Sum as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon Teas, on the ſaid Average of five Years preceding the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; ſo as the Money to be paid by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall not, in any one of the ſaid five Years, exceed ſuch a Sum as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Amount of the ſaid Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon Teas cleared from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, for Conſumption within Great Britain; and alſo to the annual Net Amount of the Duties of Cuſtoms paid on the Importation of Teas which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for five Years preceding the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven.

And if, upon an annual State of the Account, there ſhall appear any Diminution in the Revenues; the Company is to make good the Deficiency.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, ſhall make Failure in any of the Payments hereby directed, required, or appointed to be made into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in the Manner, or on or before the reſpective Times herein before limited or appointed for that Purpoſe; that then, from Time to Time, as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the Money, whereof ſuch Failure in Payment ſhall be made, ſhall and may be recovered to his Majeſty's Uſe, by Action of Debt, or upon the Caſe, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance; in which Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, it ſhall be lawful to declare, that the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, are indebted to his Majeſty the Monies of which they ſhall have made Default in Payment, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the ſame, which ſhall be ſufficient; and in or upon ſuch Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, there ſhall be further recovered to his Majeſty's Uſe, againſt the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, Damages, after the Rate of twelve Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the reſpective Monies ſo unpaid, contrary to this Act, together with Full Coſts of Suit; and the ſaid United Company, and their Succeſſors, and all their Stock, Funds, and all other their Eſtate and Property whatſoever and whereſoever, ſhall be, and are hereby made ſubject and liable to the Payment of ſuch Monies, Damages, and Coſts.

The Monies to be applied as the preſent Duties.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies which ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be applied to ſuch Uſes and Purpoſes, and in ſuch Proportions, as the preſent Duties on Teas are now made applicable.

Clauſe in 31 Geo. 2. c. 14. repealed.

'VII. And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for permitting Tea to be exported to Ireland, and his Majeſty's Plantations in America, without paying 'the Inland Duties charged thereupon by an Act of the eighteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and for 'enlarging the Time for ſome of the Payments to be made on the Subſcription of ſix millions three hundred thouſand 'Pounds, by virtue of an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament; it is enacted, That from and after the firſt Day 'of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-eight, no Tea ſhould be exported to the Kingdom of Ire'land, or to any of his Majeſty's Plantations in America, in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package whatſoever, 'other than that in which it was originally imported into Great Britain, nor in any leſs Quantities than in 'the intire Lot or Lots in which the ſame was ſold at the Sale of the ſaid United Company, under the 'Penalty of the Forfeiture of ſuch Tea, and the Package containing the ſame: And whereas the pro'hibiting the Exportation of Tea in any leſs Quantity than one intire Lot, has been very inconve'nient to Merchants and Traders, and tends to diſcourage the Exportation of Tea to Ireland, and the 'ſaid Colonies;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſaid recited Clauſe ſhall be, and is hereby, repealed.

No Tea to be exported to Ireland or America, but in the original Package; nor in a leſs Quantity, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, no Tea ſhall be exported to the Kingdom of Ireland, or to any of his Majeſty's Plantations in America, in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package whatſoever, other than that in which it was originally imported into Great Britain; nor in any leſs Quantity than the whole and intire Quantity contained in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package, in which the ſame was ſold at the Publick Sale of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies; under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of ſuch Tea, and the Package containing the ſame, which ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer of the Cuſtoms; and ſuch Forfeiture ſhall be recovered and applied in ſuch and the ſame Manner, as any of the Penalties or Forfeitures mentioned in the ſaid Act, made in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, are hereby directed to be recovered and applied; and all Tea exported under the Authority of this Act is hereby freed and diſcharged from the Payment of the Inland Duties of Exciſe, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Rules and Regulations, as are mentioned, appointed, and preſcribed by the ſaid Act, in relation to Tea exported by virtue thereof.

Repealed by 8 Geo. 3. c. 25.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all Teas which ſhall be ſeized and condemned for being illegally imported, or for any other Cauſe, ſhall not be ſold for Conſumption within this Kingdom, but ſhall be exported to Ireland, or to the Britiſh Colonies in America; and that no ſuch Teas, after the Sale thereof, ſhall be delivered out of any Warehouſe belonging to his Majeſty, otherwiſe than for Exportation as aforeſaid; or be exported in any Package containing a leſs Quantity than fifty Pounds Weight; which Exportation ſhall be made in like Manner, and under the ſame Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, except in reſpect to the Allowance of any Drawback, as are by this Act preſcribed, appointed, and inflicted, in relation to the Exportation of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company; and upon the like Bond and Security as is required by the ſaid Act made in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, to be approved of by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms of Exciſe in England for the Time being, or any three of them reſpectively, or by ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall reſpectively appoint for that Purpoſe.

General Iſſue.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Proſecution, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, upon Demurrer, or otherwiſe; then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LVII.

See Chap. 2. § 49.

An Act for eſtabliſhing an Agreement for the Payment of the Annual Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds, for a limited Time, by the Eaſt India Company, in reſpect of the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies.

'WHEREAS the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies have propoſed that a temporary Agreement ſhould be made in relation to the territorial Acquiſitions and 'Revenues lately obtained there; and have thereupon offered to pay, for the Benefit of the Publick, 'during the Term of ſuch Agreement, the yearly Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds, by half-yearly 'Payments: And whereas it may be for the Benefit of the Publick, and the ſaid Company, that a tem'porary Agreement, for the Space of two Years, ſhould be made in regard of the ſaid territorial Acquiſitions 'and Revenues:' Now we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and their Succeſſors, ſhall advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, for his Majeſty's Uſe, the Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, for and during the Term of two Years, to be computed from the firſt Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, by Half-yearly Payments of two hundred thouſand Pounds each; which Half-yearly Payments of two hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall become due on the firſt Day of Auguſt, and the firſt Day of February, in each Year; and ſhall be made on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March next enſuing ſuch firſt Day of Auguſt, and on the twenty-ninth Day of September next enſuing ſuch firſt Day of February reſpectively, in each Year; the firſt of which Half-yearly Payments ſhall become due on the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and be made on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight; and in caſe the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, ſhall make Failure in any of the ſaid Payments hereby appointed to be made into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, on or before the reſpective Days or Times herein before limited; that then, from Time to Time, as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the Money, whereof ſuch Failure in Payment ſhall be made, ſhall and may be recovered to his Majeſty's Uſe, by Action of Debt, or upon the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance; in which Acton, Bill, Suit, or Information, it ſhall be lawful to declare, That the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, are indebted to his Majeſty the Monies of which they ſhall have made Default in Payment, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the ſame, which ſhall be ſufficient; and in or upon ſuch Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, there ſhall be further recovered, to his Majeſty's Uſe, againſt the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or their Succeſſors, Damages, after the Rate of fifteen Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the reſpective Monies ſo unpaid, contrary to this Act, together with full coſts of Suit; and the ſaid United Company, and their Succeſſors, and all their Stock, Funds, and all other their Eſtates and Property whatſoever and whereſoever, ſhall be, and are hereby made ſubject and liable to the Payment of ſuch Monies, Damages, and Coſts.

II. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the ſaid territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies, ſhall remain in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid United Company, and their Succeſſors, during the ſaid Term of two Years, to be computed from the ſaid firſt Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid United Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall be diſpoſſeſſed by any foreign Power of any Part of the ſaid territorial Acquiſitions or Revenues, at any Time or Times before the Expiration of the ſaid Term of two Years, to be computed from the firſt Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, and as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the Payment of the ſaid annual Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds, for or in reſpect of the Time or Times during which the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall remain ſo diſpoſſeſſed, ſhall be reduced in ſuch Proportion to the whole of the ſaid annual Sum as the net Income and Profits of the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, of which the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall have been ſo diſpoſſeſſed, ſhall have borne to the whole of the net Income and Profits of all the ſaid territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, upon the Average of the Year preceding their being ſo diſpoſſeſſed; and if it ſhall happen that any Payment or Payments ſhall have been made, for or in reſpect of any Time or Times during which the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall have been ſo diſpoſſeſſed as aforeſaid, ſuch proportional Part of the Monies as ſhall have been ſo paid for or in reſpect thereof, or ſo much of ſuch proportional Part of the ſaid Monies as ſhall not have been appropriated in Manner herein after mentioned, ſhall be repaid and refunded at the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer to the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors; and, in lieu of the Money which ſhall have been ſo appropriated, a Sum equal thereto ſhall be paid to the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, out of the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund; which Payment is hereby charged upon the ſaid Fund, and ſhall be made thereout, after paying, or reſerving ſufficient to pay, all previous Charges thereupon; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Monies which ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be there reſerved to be diſpoſed of and appropriated by Parliament.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties on certain foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom; and for eſtabliſhing a Fund for the encouraging of the raiſing and dreſſing of Hemp and Flax.

This Fund is appropriated by 10 Geo. 3. c. 40.

'WHEREAS the Conſumption of Linens within Great Britain, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, is greatly increaſed: And whereas the eſtabliſhing a proper Fund for the Encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing of Hemp and Flax, would be a great Advantage to the Linen Manufactures within this Kingdom; therefore we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, do give and grant to your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, ſuch additional Duties on Foreign Linens to be imported into Great Britain, as are herein after men'tioned;' and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral additional Rates and Duties following; that is to ſay, Additional Rates and Duties.

For every Ell of Foreign Linen, commonly called Packing Canvas, Spruce Elbing, or Queenſborough Canvas, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Farthing.

And for every Ell of Foreign Linen, commonly called Dutch Barras, and Heſſian Canvas, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Halfpenny.

And after thoſe Rates for any greater or leſs Quantity of ſuch Goods reſpectively, over and above all other Duties impoſed thereon by any former Act or Acts of Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, all Foreign Lawns, imported into Great Britain, ſhall be rated and entered as Sileſia Lawns, and ſhall pay Duty accordingly; and that from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty ſeven, there ſhall alſo be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid,

For every Yard of Foreign Lawn bleached in Holland, commonly called Holland-whited Lawn, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny.

And after that Rate for any greater or leſs Quantity, over and above all other Duties impoſed thereon by any former Act or Acts of Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duties, granted by this Act, ſhall be paid down in ready Money, without any Diſcount or Allowance; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed and appointed for raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying, the former Duties upon the like Goods imported into this Kingdom, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, reſpectively relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Duty to be repaid on Exportation, if in three Years.

IV. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Goods or Merchandizes that have paid the Duties hereby granted ſhall, at any Time or Times, be again exported by any Merchant or Merchants within three Years from the Importation thereof, the Duty by this Act granted, and which ſhall have been actually paid for ſuch Goods and Merchandizes, ſhall, without Delay or Reward, be repaid unto ſuch Merchant or Merchants who ſhall export the ſame; under the ſame Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed and directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament with reſpect to any former Drawback upon ſuch Goods.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Money ariſing by the ſeveral Rates and Duties herein before granted (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, recovering, and paying the ſame) ſhall, from Time to Time, be reſpectively paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenue; and that a Sum not exceeding fifteen thouſand Pounds per Annum, ariſing from the ſaid Duties, ſhall be kept apart in the ſaid Receipt, as a Fund for the Encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom, in ſuch Way and Manner as Parliament ſhall hereafter direct; and that the Remainder of the ſaid ſeveral Duties ſhall be reſerved in the ſaid Receipt for the future Diſpoſition of Parliament.

CAP. LIX.

An Act for reſtraining and prohibiting the Governor, Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, of the Province of New York, until Proviſion ſhall have been made for furniſhing the King's Troops with all the Neceſſaries required by Law, from paſſing or aſſenting to any Act of Aſſembly, Vote, or Reſolution, for any other Purpoſe.

CAP. V.

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Publick Highways of this Kingdom; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned. See 13 Geo. 3. c. 78. 84.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Publick Highways of this Kingdom; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; it is, among other Things, enacted and declared, That no Waggon, having the Wheels bound with Streaks or Tire of a leſs Breadth than two Inches and a Half, when worn, or being ſet and faſtened on with Roſe-headed Nails, ſhall go or be drawn with more than three Horſes; and that every Owner or Driver of any ſuch Waggon ſhall forfeit and loſe all ſuch Horſes above the Number Three, with all Gears, Bridles, Halters, and Accoutrements, to the ſole Uſe and Benefit of any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize or diſtrain the ſame; with a Proviſo next after the ſaid Clauſe, containing particular Reſtrictions as therein mentioned: And whereas great Inconveniencies have ariſen, and may ariſe, from the ſaid Clauſe, which require an immediate Remedy;' therefore, for preventing thereof for the future, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That as well the ſaid Clauſe as the ſaid Proviſo, and every Thing therein reſpectively contained, ſhall be, and the ſame is and are hereby repealed and made void to all Intents and Purpoſes.

II. Provided

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in the ſaid recited Act contained concerning the Number of Horſes, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Carts, Waggons, or other Carriages employed only in carrying any one Stone, Block of Marble, Cable Rope, Piece of Metal, or Timber, or to ſuch Ammunition or Artillery as ſhall be for his Majeſty's Service.

Act 14 and 15 Hen. 8. c. 6. and 26 Hen. 8. c. 7. which were repealed by the recited Act of the laſt Seſſion are revived, and to be in full Force.

'III. And whereas in and by the ſaid Act, an Act paſſed in the fourteenth and fifteenth of King Henry 'the Eighth, for altering Highways in the Weld of Kent; and an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſixth Year of 'the ſaid King, intituled, A Bill for the Highways in the County of Suſſex, are repealed: And whereas 'great Benefits have ariſen to the Highways of the ſaid Counties of Kent and Suſſex, from the Exerciſe of 'the Powers given by the ſaid Acts laſt mentioned;' therefore be it hereby further enacted, That the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby revived, and ſhall be and remain in full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in the ſaid recited Act or this Act contained, touching the making and returning Liſts of qualified Perſons to be Surveyors of the Highways, and the Appointment of ſuch Surveyors, nor the Repeal of Part of an Act made in the Third Year of King William and Queen Mary relating to ſuch Surveyors, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued, deemed, or taken to extend to the City of Briſtol; but that the ſeveral Acts of Parliament which have been paſſed previous to the ſaid Act of laſt Seſſion relative to Surveyors of the Highways, and to cleanſing, paving, lighting, and regulating the Streets and other Places within the ſaid City, ſhall remain in full Force, and be executed in as full and ample Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the ſame might or ought to have been if neither the ſaid Act of laſt Seſſion, nor this Act, had ever been made; and the competent Number of qualified Perſons, of which a Liſt is directed by the ſaid Act of the Third of King William and Queen Mary to be returned for each Pariſh to the Juſtices at their Special Seſſions, in order for the Appointment of Surveyors, is hereby declared, ſo far as concerns the City of Briſtol, ſhall be Ten at the leaſt; and that all Appointments of ſuch Surveyors that have been made within the ſaid City by virtue of the ſaid Act of laſt Seſſion, ſhall from henceforth be void.

An Act to indemnify ſuch Perſons as have omitted to qualify themſelves for Offices and Employments within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing further Time for that Purpoſe; and to indemnify Members, and Officers in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whoſe Admiſſions have been omitted to be ſtamped according to Law, or, having been ſtamped, have been loſt or miſlaid, and for allowing them Time to provide Admiſſions duly ſtamped. CAP. XIII.

An Act to explain and amend ſo much of an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty for diſbanding the Army, and other neceſſary Occaſions, as relates to the Number of Troops to be kept upon the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty for diſbanding the Army, and other neceſſary Occaſions; it was enacted, That immediately, from and after the twenty-ſixth Day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-nine, all the Regiments, Troops, and Companies, Officers, and Soldiers, within the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhould be diſbanded, except ſuch Regiments, Troops, and Companies, conſiſting only of his Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, not exceeding twelve thouſand Perſons, Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers included, as, before the tenth Day of April, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-nine, ſhould be particularly expreſſed by Proclamation under the Great Seal of Ireland, in the Manner therein directed: And whereas the Publick Service of theſe Kingdoms doth require, that ſome Part of the Troops, kept on the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, ſhould be employed towards the neceſſary Defence of his Majeſty's Garriſons and Plantations Abroad: And whereas it may be expedient that a Number of Troops, not leſs than twelve thouſand Men, Commiſſioned and Non-commiſſioned Officers included, ſhould be kept within the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and for the better Defence of the ſame, excluſive of ſuch Regiments on that Eſtabliſhment as are or ſhall be employed in his Majeſty's ſaid Garriſons and Plantations;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to raiſe and keep up, on the ſaid Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, any Number of Troops, conſiſting only of his Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, not exceeding fifteen thouſand two hundred and thirty-five Men in the Whole, in Time of Peace; any Thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. 10 W. 3.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for providing proper Accommodations for his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Great Seſſions in Wales, during the Time of holding ſuch Seſſions.

'WHEREAS certain Accommodations are provided for his Majeſty's Juſtices of Aſſize upon their Circuits in England, by the Sheriffs of the reſpective Counties, who are allowed the Expences thereby occaſioned in their Bills of Cravings in each Year: And whereas it is proper that the like Accommodations ſhould be provided for his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Great Seſſions in the Principality of Wales, during their reſpective Seſſions, by the Sheriffs there; and that ſuch Sheriffs ſhould be reimburſed the Expences of providing ſuch Accommodations out of the Land Revenues of the Crown ariſing within the ſaid Principality, in Manner herein after mentioned; but ſome Doubts having ariſen, whether, ſince the Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Support of his Majeſty's Houſehold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, any Part of the ſaid Revenues can be applied for the ſaid Purpoſe without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Sheriffs of the ſeveral Counties in Wales ſhall, from henceforth, in each of their reſpective Counties, provide neceſſary Lodging and other Accommodations for his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Great Seſſions, during the Time of each reſpective Seſſion, in like Manner as has been uſually provided by the Sheriffs within the ſeveral Counties in England, for the Juſtices of Aſſize there; and that his Majeſty may, by any Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, counterſigned by the High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, authoriſe, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act made in the Firſt Year of his Majeſty's Reign, the Auditor for the Time being of the Land Revenues of the Crown ariſing within the Principality of Wales, to allow and paſs all or any of ſuch Charges as ſhall, from Time to Time, be made by the reſpective Sheriffs of the Counties within the ſaid Principality, in the Accounts by them to be delivered into the Office of the ſaid Auditor, of Expences incurred by them reſpectively in providing neceſſary Accommodations for his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Great Seſſions of Wales, during their Seſſions; and to direct that Certificates ſhall be delivered by the ſaid Auditor to the ſaid Sheriffs of the Sums ſo allowed and paſſed in their Accounts reſpectively; and alſo to authoriſe, during the aforeſaid Term, the Receiver or Receivers General of the ſaid Revenues to pay the Sums ſo, from Time to Time, certified upon the Production and Delivery to him or them of ſuch reſpective Certificates, without any Fee, Deduction, or Reward whatſoever, to be paid by the Sheriff either to ſuch Auditor or Receiver. 1 Geo. 3. c. 1.

II. Pro-

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby enacted, That no greater or larger Sum ſhall be allowed paſſed, certified, and paid, than the Sum of Ten Pounds for or in reſpect of ſuch Accommodations in any one County, during or upon Account of any one ſuch Seſſion.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to amend an Act made in the ſeventh Year of King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, An Act for regulating the Journeymen Taylors within the Weekly Bills of Mortality.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, An Act for regulating the Journeymen Taylors within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; Power is given to the Juſtices of the Peace, at their General Quarter Seſſions, within the Limits in the ſaid Act mentioned, from Time to Time, upon Application being made to them for that Purpoſe, to take into Conſideration the Plenty or Scarcity of the Times, and other Circumſtances, and thereupon to alter and regulate the Wages and other Allowances, directed by the ſaid Act to be paid and made to, and the Hours for Work of, Journeymen Taylors and Servants retained or employed in the Art or Myſtery of a Taylor, within their reſpective Juriſdictions; and alſo to puniſh all Perſons not complying with the Terms of the ſaid Act, or of ſuch Rules and Regulations, in Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas, by virtue of the Power aforeſaid, the Juſtices of the Peace, at their General Quarter Seſſions, within the City of London and County of Middleſex reſpectively, have, from Time to Time, made Orders, Rules, and Regulations, with reſpect to the Hours of Working, and the Wages and Allowances to be paid and made to Journeymen Taylors, and others, as aforeſaid; but Doubts and Difficulties having ariſen, touching the Proſecution of Perſons offending againſt the ſaid Act, or againſt the ſaid Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and many ſubtle Devices having been practiſed in order to evade the ſaid Rules, Orders, and Regulations, the due Execution of the ſaid Act hath been greatly obſtructed: And whereas it is neceſſary that the ſaid Act ſhould in ſome other Reſpects be explained and amended: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, the Hours of Work in the Day for Servants or Journeymen, to be employed in the Buſineſs of a Taylor within the City of London, and five Miles thereof, ſhall be from ſix of the Clock in the Morning until ſeven of the Clock in the Evening, with an Interval of one Hour only for Refreſhment; and that there ſhall be paid to every ſuch Servant or Journeyman to be employed as aforeſaid for his Work, during the Hours aforeſaid, the Wages or Allowances following; that is to ſay, Any Sum not exceeding two Shillings and ſeven Pence Halfpenny per Diem, except during the Space of one Calendar Month from the Publication of any Order for a General Mourning by the Earl Marſhal, in the London Gazette, and during that Space, any Sum not exceeding five Shillings and one Penny Halfpenny.

7 Geo. 1. ſt. 1. c. 13.

Hours and Price for Working limited within a certain Diſtrict.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Maſter Taylor, or other Perſon profeſſing, uſing, or exerciſing, the Art or Myſtery of a Taylor, within the City of London, or within five Miles thereof, ſhall, after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, give, allow, or pay, or cauſe, permit, or ſuffer to be given, allowed, or paid, directly or indirectly, in Money, or otherwiſe, to any Servant or Journeyman in the Buſineſs of a Taylor, any more or greater Wages and Allowances, than the Wages or Allowances aforeſaid, or ſuch other Wages and Allowances as ſhall hereafter from Time to Time be ordered and appointed by virtue and in purſuance of this Act; or if any Servant, Journeyman, or other Perſon, uſing and following the ſaid Buſineſs of a Taylor, within the Limits aforeſaid; that is to ſay, Within the City of London, or within five Miles thereof, ſhall have, receive, accept of, or take, in any Manner, directly or indirectly, by himſelf, or by any other Perſon to his Uſe, any more or greater Wages or Allowances than as aforeſaid, in Money, or otherwiſe; every Perſon ſo offending, in any or either of the ſaid Caſes, and being thereof convicted before any two Juſtices of the Peace for the County, City, Liberty, Town, Borough, or Franchiſe, wherein the Offence ſhall have been committed, either by Confeſſion of the Party, or upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes (which Oaths the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter) upon any Information made, or Proſecution commenced before any ſuch two Juſtices within their reſpective Juriſdictions, at any Time within three Months after the committing of ſuch Offence, ſhall be committed to the Houſe of Correction for the County or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of ſuch Juſtices, there to be kept to hard Labour, or to the Common Gaol, for any Time not exceeding two Months, nor leſs than fourteen Days, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices.

Penalty on acting contrary to the above Limitation.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any two Juſtices of the Peace within the Limits aforeſaid, and they are hereby required, on Information upon Oath made before them, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, that there is Reaſon to ſuſpect that any Perſon or Perſons uſing, exerciſing, or following, the Buſineſs of a Maſter Taylor, or Journeyman Taylor, within the Limits aforeſaid, hath given, paid, allowed, or received greater Wages or Allowances than as aforeſaid, at the Requeſt of ſuch Informant, to iſſue their Summons in Writing, ſigned by any ſuch two Juſtices, requiring any Clerk, Foreman, Apprentice, Servant, or other Perſon or Perſons employed or retained by ſuch Perſon ſo ſuſpected to have offended, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, whoſe Attendance ſuch Informant ſhall think neceſſary, for the Purpoſe of giving Evidence in the Premiſes, to attend ſuch Juſtices, or ſome other two Juſtices acting for ſuch County or Place, at a Time and Place in ſuch Summons to be ſpecified, to teſtify concerning the Premiſes; and if any ſuch Perſon ſo ſummoned ſhall not attend, and Proof ſhall be made of the Service of ſuch Summons, either perſonally, or by leaving the ſame at Juſtices impowered to call Witneſſes before them on Suſpicion that the above Regulation is broke through.

the laſt or uſual Place of Abode of ſuch Perſon, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch two Juſtices, or any other two Juſtices of the Peace acting for ſuch County or Place, and they are hereby required (unleſs a reaſonable Excuſe be made for ſuch Non-attendance, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices) to iſſue their Warrant under their Hands and Seals, for the apprehending and bringing him or her before them, or ſome other two or more Juſtices of the Peace acting for ſuch County or Place, to be examined touching the Premiſes in the ſaid Information contained; and if any ſuch Perſon ſo attending, or being brought before ſuch Juſtices, ſhall refuſe to be examined, or give their Teſtimony touching the Premiſes in ſuch Information contained, ſuch Perſon ſhall by the ſaid Juſtices be committed to the Houſe of Correction, there to remain until he or ſhe ſhall ſubmit to be examined and to give Teſtimony as aforeſaid.

Quarter Seſſions in London to make Regulations.

IV. And whereas, under the Proviſions of the ſaid Act made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the Firſt, it may happen that one and the ſame Rate of Wages and Allowances to Journeymen Taylors, may not be appointed and eſtabliſhed within the City of London and Weſtminſter, and Weekly Bills of Mortality, which would be highly inconvenient and prejudicial to the Publick; now to prevent ſuch Inconvenience, and to the End that one juſt and reaſonable Rate of ſuch Wages and Allowances may be eſtabliſhed within the City of London, and five Miles therefrom, in future, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Alterations as the Exigencies of the Times may require: Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Recorder of the City of London for the Time being, at their General Quarter Seſſions, or General Seſſions of the Peace aſſembled, and they are hereby authorized and required, from Time to Time, upon Application being made to them for that Purpoſe, to alter, regulate, order, and appoint, the Wages and Allowances to be paid or made to Journeymen Taylors and Servants retained or employed, or to be retained or employed, in the Art or Myſtery of a Taylor, in the making up Mens and Womens Work within the City of London, or within five Miles thereof, and the Hours of Work; and ſhall and may, within the Space of fourteen Days next after the making every ſuch Order, cauſe the ſame to be printed, publiſhed, and made known, in ſuch Manner as to them ſhall ſeem meet, at the reaſonable Expence of the Perſon or Perſons applying for the ſame; and from and after Publication thereof, all Taylors, and their Journeymen and Servants, within the Limits aforeſaid, are hereby ſtrictly required to obſerve the ſame, the Proviſions of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh of King GEORGE the Firſt to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

V. Provided always, That advertiſing ſuch Orders of Seſſions three Times in any two Daily Newſpapers publiſhed in London or Weſtminſter, ſhall for the Purpoſes of this Act be deemed and allowed to be ſufficient Notice and Publication thereof.

Act not to extend to Taylors Foremen, or working over Hours.

VI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to fix, controul, or regulate, the Wages or Allowances or Hours of Work, of Servants in the ſaid Buſineſs of a Taylor, bona fide, retained and employed as Foremen; or to hinder the paying or receiving further or other Wages or Allowances (not exceeding Sixpence by the Hour in Times of General Mourning, and three Pence by the Hour at any other Time or Times), which ſhall be agreed upon for working before or after the Hours of Work limited or appointed, or to be limited or appointed as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Overwork be not at any one Time leſs than one Hour, and be actually and bona fide done and performed by ſuch Journeyman or Servant; and ſo as ſuch Retainer or Employment, and ſuch Agreement or Payment, be not made in Fraud of, or to elude, the Regulations herein before provided with reſpect to Wages, Allowances, and Hours of Working, ſettled and aſcertained, or to be ſettled and aſcertained as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Maſters employing Men out of the Limits to evade this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, if any Maſter Taylor, or other Perſon profeſſing, uſing, or exerciſing, the Art or Myſtery of a Taylor, reſiding or inhabiting within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall, directly or indirectly, in any Manner whatſoever retain or employ any Servant, Journeyman, or other Perſon, uſing or following the Buſineſs of a Taylor, in or about the making up Men's or Women's Work out of, or beyond, the Limits aforeſaid, with Intent or Deſign to elude or evade this Act, and ſhall give, allow, or pay, or cauſe to be given, allowed, or paid, directly or indirectly, to ſuch Servant or Journeyman, any more or greater Wages or Allowances than the Wages or Allowances ſettled and aſcertained, or to be ſettled and aſcertained as aforeſaid; every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be ſued for by Action of Debt, to be brought in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, of Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and wherein the ordinary Coſts of the Suit ſhall be paid; one Moiety of which ſaid Forfeiture, when recovered, ſhall belong and be paid to the King's Majeſty, and his Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Appeal.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon convicted before any two Juſtices of the Peace as before mentioned, to appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace aſſembled at the next General Quarter Seſſions, or General Seſſions, to be held for the County, City, or Place, wherein ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, giving immediate Notice of ſuch Appeal, and finding ſufficient Security to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices for being perſonally preſent at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions, or General Seſſions, and for proſecuting the ſaid Appeal with Effect, and abiding the Judgment of the Court; and ſuch Juſtices in ſuch General Quarter Seſſions or General Seſſions, ſhall finally hear and determine the Matter, and ſhall have Power to award reaſonable Coſts to either Party, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt; and if ſuch Conviction ſhall be affirmed at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions, or General Seſſions, ſuch Appellant ſhall be committed to Priſon for the Time ſpecified in the ſaid Conviction, and until Payment of the Coſts ſo to be awarded.

IX. Provided

IX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Action ſhall be brought againſt any Juſtice of the Peace, Conſtable, Headborough, or other Officer, or againſt any other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, for any Matter or Thing whatſoever done or committed under, by virtue, or in the Execution of this Act, unleſs ſuch Action ſhall be brought within ſix Calendar Months next after the doing or committing of ſuch Matter or Thing. Limitation of Actions.

X. Provided alſo, That if any Action or Suit ſhall hereafter be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done under, by virtue, or in the Execution of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or forbear further Proſecution, or if Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover his, her, or their Full Coſts, for which he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have like Remedy as in Caſes where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants. General Iſſue. Full Coſts.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be taken and allowed to be a Public Act in all Courts within this Kingdom of Great Britain; and all Judges and Juſtices of the Peace are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Publick Act.

C. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to revive ſo much of the ſaid Act made in the twenty-ſecond and twenty-third Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, or of an Act made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, as relates to the paving and cleanſing the Streets in the ſaid City of London, and to the preventing of Nuiſances and Obſtructions within the ſame; or ſo much of an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, as relates to the paving the ſaid Streets; or to revive the ſaid Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, or any of the Powers, Proviſions, Clauſes, and Matters, therein reſpectively contained; or to revive ſo much of an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, as relates to the repairing and relaying ſuch Pavement in the ſaid City as ſhall be damaged by the breaking up of the ſame to amend and relay any Water Pipes; but the ſame ſhall remain, and they are hereby declared to be reſpectively repealed and made void.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for the more eaſy and effectual Recovery of the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by the Acts of Parliament relating to the Trade or Revenues of the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America.

4 Geo. 3. c. 15.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for granting certain Duties in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America; for continuing, amending, and making perpetual, an Act paſſed in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and encouraging the Trade of his Majeſty's Sugar Colonies in America; for applying the Produce of ſuch Duties, and of the Duties to ariſe by virtue of the ſaid Act, towards defraying the Expences of defending, protecting, and ſecuring, the ſaid Colonies and Plantations; for explaining an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade; and for altering and diſallowing ſeveral Drawbacks on Exports, from this Kingdom, and more effectually preventing the clandeſtine Conveyance of Goods to and from the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, and improving and ſecuring the Trade between the ſame and Great Britain; it was enacted and declared, That all the Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by that or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, relating to the Trade and Revenues of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, which ſhould be incurred there, ſhould and might be proſecuted, ſued for, and recovered, in any Court of Record or in any Court of Admiralty, in the ſaid Colonies or Plantations where ſuch Offence ſhould be committed, or in any Court of Vice-Admiralty which might or ſhould be appointed over all America; which Court of Admiralty, or Vice-Admiralty, were thereby reſpectively authoriſed and required to proceed, hear, and determine the ſame, at the Election of the Informer or Proſecutor: And whereas Proſecutions and Suits for Recovery of Forfeitures and Penalties, inflicted by 'any

'any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Trade or Revenues of the ſaid Colonies or Plant'ations, in one Court only of Vice-Admiralty over all America, may, in many Caſes, by reaſon of the
'Diſtance of the Places where the Cauſe of ſuch Suits and Proſecutions ſhall ariſe from the Place where ſuch
'Court is or ſhall be eſtabliſhed, be attended with great Inconvenience: May it therefore pleaſe your
'Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, all Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Trade of Revenues of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, may be proſecuted, ſued for, and recovered, in any Court of Vice-Admiralty appointed, or to be appointed, and which ſhall have Juriſdiction within the Colony, Plantation, or Place, where the Cauſe of ſuch Proſecution, or Suit ſhall have ariſen.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Proſecution or Suit ſhall be commenced and determined for any Penalty or Forfeiture inflicted by any ſuch Act or Acts of Parliament in any Court of Admiralty in the reſpective Colony or Plantation where the Offence ſhall be committed, either Party who ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by ſuch Determination may appeal, from ſuch Determination, to any Court of Vice-Admiralty appointed, or to be appointed, and which ſhall have Juriſdiction within ſuch Colony, Plantation, or Place; which Court of Vice-Admiralty is hereby authoriſed and required to proceed, hear, and determine, all ſuch Suits, Proſecutions, and Appeals; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to repeal ſo much of an Act made in the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty, as affects the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, with reſpect to the Leakage of Wines imported into this Kingdom from the ſaid Iſlands under certain Reſtrictions and Regulations; and for continuing an Act made in the thirty-third Year of his late Majeſty, for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain.

'WHEREAS by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four; and for preventing in certain Caſes, the obtaining of Allowances in reſpect of the Leakage of Wines imported into this Kingdom; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Tickets, Receipts, Annuity Orders, and other Orders, loſt, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed; it is enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four, no Merchant ſhall be allowed twelve per Centum, or have any Allowance for Leakage upon any Wine imported into this Kingdom, unleſs ſuch Wine be imported directly from the Country or Place of the Growth of the ſaid Wine, or the uſual Port or Place of its firſt ſhipping (except as therein excepted:) And whereas it hath been found that great Loſs and Detriment hath accrued to the Inhabitants of the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, by reaſon of ſuch Reſtriction: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, the ſaid Clauſe, ſo far as the ſame affects the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, with regard to the Allowance on Leakage of Wines imported from the ſaid Iſlands into this Kingdom, ſhall be repealed. 4 Geo. 3. c. 13.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be intitled to any Allowance on Wines imported into this Kingdom from the ſaid Iſlands, unleſs Certificate, on Oath, made before the Magiſtrates of the Royal Courts, or any three of them, ſhall be produced before the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port where ſuch Wines ſhall be landed in Great Britain, which Oath is to be taken by the Shipper of the Wines at the Iſlands aforeſaid, or either of them, certifying the Name of the Veſſel in which ſuch Wines are ſhipped, the Name of the Maſter or Commander thereof, and the Number and Quality of Caſks ſo ſhipped, with the Marks thereon, and that ſuch Wines have received no Mixture ſince their landing at the ſaid Iſlands or either of them, except ſuch Mixture only as is uſual and neceſſary for clearing and forcing ſuch Wines, and that ſuch Wines have been imported into the ſaid Iſlands or one of them, in Britiſh Bottoms only, unleſs in Time of actual War; and the ſaid Wines are, at the Time of ſhipping at the Iſlands aforeſaid, or either of them, the Property of Britiſh Subjects only.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Wines from ſuch Countries where Britiſh Conſuls reſide, ſhall be entitled to any Allowance for Leakage on Wines imported into this Kingdom from either of the ſaid Iſlands, unleſs a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the Britiſh Conſul reſiding in the Country where ſuch Wines ſhall be firſt ſhipped, ſhall have been produced at the Time of the Importation into the ſaid Iſlands, or either of them, before the Royal Courts there, and ſhall have been regiſtered in the ſame, teſtifying that ſuch Wines were ſhipped for the ſaid Iſlands, or one of them, in Britiſh Bottoms, unleſs in Time of actual War, and that the ſame are the Property of Britiſh Subjects only, ſpecifying the Name of the Veſſel in which ſuch Wines were ſhipped, and the Name of the Maſter or Commander thereof, and alſo the Quantity of ſuch Wines; which Certificate, indorſed by the Magiſtrates of the Royal Courts, or any three of them, ſhall be tranſmitted to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms, at the Port where ſuch Wines ſhall be landed in this Kingdom.

IV. Provided always, That in caſe ſuch Wines ſhall be imported from the ſaid Iſlands, or either of them into this Kingdom, in different Parcels, the ſaid Certificate ſhall accompany the firſt Parcel of ſuch Wines ſo imported; and with regard to the Remainder of ſuch Quantities to be imported in any ſubſequent Parcel or Parcels, the ſame ſhall be certified by the Shipper of ſuch Wines, upon Oath made before the Royal Court of the Iſland from whence ſuch Wine ſhall be imported, teſtifying the ſame to be Part of the Wine contained in the ſaid Certificate from the Britiſh Conſul, and declaring what Quantities and Parcels of the ſame have been ſhipped, in what Veſſels, and to what Ports, with the Quantity of the ſaid different Parcels ſo ſhipped amount to.

33 Geo. 2. c. 17.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act to continue an Act made 'in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better En- 'couragement of the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain,' which was to continue in Force until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, to the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Further continued to 29 Sept. 1774.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to permit the Exportation of certain Quantities of Malt belonging to certain Merchants in the County of Norfolk, and which were made for Exportation between the fifteenth of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſix, and the paſſing the Act of the laſt Seſſion for prohibiting the Exportation of Malt. EXP.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for reducing the Duties on Foul Salt to be uſed for Manure; for altering the Stamp-Duties on certain Policies of Aſſurance; for amending ſo much of an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, as relates to the Allowance of the Duties of Cuſtoms, and exempting from the Duties of Exciſe ſuch Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations in America, as ſhall be exported from this Kingdom; for better ſecuring the Exciſe Duties upon Foreign Liquors imported; for repealing a Clauſe in an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, prohibiting the Sale of condemned Tea for Home Conſumption; for amending ſuch Parts of two Acts made in the ſixth and ſeventh Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as relate to the depoſiting, in the Warehouſes belonging to the Cuſtom-houſe at London, Foreign Wrought Silks and Velvets, and Cambricks, and French Lawns upon the Seizure thereof.

'WHEREAS all White Salt, the Product or Manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion 'of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, is, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, charged and 'chargeable with the Payment of three Shillings and four Pence a Buſhel Duty, at the Rate of fifty-ſix 'Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and no more, to be paid, or ſecured to be paid, by the Makers or Pro-'prietors thereof, before the ſame can be removed from the Salt Works where the ſame is made: And 'whereas, in the manufacturing ſuch White Salt, conſiderable Quantities of Foul Salt, called by the ſeveral 'Names of Grey or Screw Salt, Salt Scale, Sand Scale, or Cruſtings, are neceſſarily produced, which 'cannot be applied to the curing of Proviſions, nor can the ſame be removed from the ſaid Salt Works as 'the Laws now ſtand, without the Payment of the ſaid Duty of three Shillings and four Pence a Buſhel, 'which is conſiderably more than the Value thereof; and it is apprehended that the ſaid Foul Salt may be a 'uſeful Manure, and very beneficial in Agriculture, in caſe the ſame were charged and chargeable with 'only a ſmall Duty: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, all Grey or Screw Salt, Salt Scale, Sand Scale, and Cruſtings, or other Foul Salt whatſoever, already produced, or hereafter to be produced, at any of the ſaid Salt Works, ſhall be charged and chargeable with the Payment of a Duty of four Pence a Buſhel only, at the Rate of fifty-ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, to be paid in ready Money without any Allowance for Diſcount on prompt Payment, or Allowance for Waſte of Salt carried Coaſtwiſe, by the Makers or Proprietors thereof, before the ſame ſhall be removed from the Salt Works where the ſame has been, or hereafter ſhall be, produced or made, which ſaid Duty ſhall be under the Care and Direction of the Commiſſioners for the Receipt, Management, and Government of the Duties on Salt, appointed, or to be appointed by his Majeſty, and of the Officers for the ſaid Duties on Salt for the Time being, in the ſame Manner as the Duties on Salt now are managed, levied, collected, or received; and ſhall be paid and applied in ſuch Manner as the Duties now payable on ſuch Foul Salt are paid and applied.

Foul Salt at the Salt Works are chargeable with a Duty of 4d. per Buſhel, only.

Notice to be given before Delivery of any such Salt; and Entry to be made, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, no ſuch Foul Salt ſhall be delivered by the Maker or Proprietor from any Salt Work or Works without Notice firſt given to the Officer appointed for that Purpoſe; nor ſhall any Carrier or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, remove, carry, or convey, any ſuch Foul Salt without due Entry of the ſame, and Payment of the Duties hereby impoſed thereon, or without a Warrant or Permit for carrying the ſame, under ſuch Pains and Penalties as are mentioned and contained in the Acts of Parliament relating to Salt, or any of them; to be levied, recovered, and diſtributed, by ſuch Ways and Means, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as the Duties on Salt were thereby appointed to be levied, recovered, and diſtributed.

60l. Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after ſuch Foul Salt has been removed from any Salt Work or Works, uſe, employ, or conſume the ſame for any other Purpoſes whatſoever than for the manuring of Land as aforeſaid; he, ſhe, or they, for every Offence, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ſixty Pounds; one third Part thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the Remainder thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame; which ſaid laſt mentioned Penalty and Forfeiture ſhall be recovered and levied in ſuch Manner and Form, and with ſuch Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Forfeiture, or Penalty, is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

7 Geo. 3. c. 44.

'IV. And whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Policies of Aſſurance; and for reducing the Allowance to be made in reſpect of the Prompt Payment of the Stamp Duties on Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other Exciſeable Liquors; and for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs; after reciting that by an Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Admiſſions into Corporations or Companies; and for further ſecuring and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain; it was, among other Things, enacted, That from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-five, if the Properties of more than one Perſon in any Ship, Cargo, or both, or of more than a particular Number of Perſons in General Partnerſhip, or of more than one Body Politic or Corporate, to a greater Amount in the Whole than the Sum of one hundred Pounds, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, be aſſured on the ſame Policy, ſuch Policy ſhould be void, and the Premium paid thereon remain the Property of the Aſſurer; with a Proviſo, that it ſhould and might be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, by one Policy ſtamped with five Stamps of five Shillings each; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding: And after reciting, that ſuch Part of the ſaid Act as before recited, had been found very inconvenient to Merchants, Traders, and others, reſiding out of the Kingdom, and injurious to the commercial Dealings thereof; it was enacted (among other Things), That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, it ſhould and might be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to the Amount of any Sum, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, by a Policy ſtamped with a Stamp of five Shillings; and that it ſhould and might be lawful to aſſure, or cauſe to be aſſured, the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever, in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to the Amount of any Sum whatſoever, by one Policy ſtamped with two Stamps of five Shillings each; and that every Policy ſo ſtamped, ſhould be good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act of the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or any former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding; with a Proviſo, that if any Riſque or Adventure, diſtinct from the Riſque or Adventure mentioned in the original Policy, and upon which any further Premium ſhould be given, ſhould be, by any Writing or Declaration not duly ſtamped, added to any ſuch original Policy, ſuch additional Aſſurance ſhould be void, and the Premium paid thereon ſhould remain the Property of the Aſſurer; and it was thereby further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhould be ſued or proſecuted under and by virtue of the ſaid Act, for the aſſuring the Properties of any Number of Perſons whatſoever in any Ship, Cargo, or both, to a greater Amount than the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, by a Policy ſtamped with a Stamp of five Shillings only; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Proof, as to the Amount or Value ſo aſſured, ſhould lie on the Perſon or Perſons that ſhould be ſo ſued or proſecuted, and not on the Perſon or Perſons who ſhould ſue or proſecute: And whereas a Doubt has ariſen, whether the Property of a ſingle Perſon, to any Amount, required more than a Stamp of five Shillings;' therefore be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, all Policies of Aſſurance by which the Property of one Perſon, or of a particular Number of Perſons in one general Partnerſhip, or of one Body Politick or Corporate, in any Ship or Cargo, or both, ſhall be aſſured to the Amount of more than one thouſand Pounds, ſhall be ſtamped with two Five Shilling Stamps; and that every ſuch Policy which ſhall not be ſo ſtamped, ſhall be void, and the Premium paid thereon ſhall remain the Property of the Aſſurer.

All Policies whereby 1000l. is aſſured, to have two 5s. Stamps, &c.

Perſons ſued are to prove the Amount.

V. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued or proſecuted under and by virtue of this Act, for aſſuring the Property of one Perſon, or of a particular Number of Perſons in one general Partnerſhip, or of one Body Politick or Corporate, in any Ship or Cargo, or both, to a greater Amount than the Sum of one Thouſand Pounds, by a Policy ſtamped with a Stamp of five Shillings only; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Proof, as to the Amount or Value ſo aſſured, ſhall lie on the Perſon or Perſons that ſhall be ſo ſued or proſecuted, and not on the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue or proſecute.

VI. Provided

And any additional Assurance is to be stamped.

VI. Provided always, That if any Risque or Adventure, distinct from the Risque or Adventure mentioned in the original Policy, and upon which any further Premium shall be given, shall be, by any Writing or Declaration not duly stamped, added to any such original Policy, such additional Assurance shall be void, and the Premium paid thereon shall remain the Property of the Assurer.

33 Geo. 2. c. 28.

'VII. And whereas by an Act made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, King 'George the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Exportation of Rum and Spirits of the Growth, Pro- 'duce and Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations from this Kingdom; and of British Spirits made from 'Melasses; it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That, upon the Exportation of Rum or Spirits of the 'Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations in America, from this Kingdom as 'Merchandize, there shall be an Allowance of all the Duties of Custom, payable upon the Importation 'of such Rums or Spirits, and that the same shall be freed and discharged from all Duties of Excise in such 'Manner as therein is directed, but by the said Act it is further enacted and required, That all such Rum 'or Spirits so to be exported, shall be Proof Spirits, and that the same shall be certified by the proper Of- 'ficers to be Proof Spirits, before the Bonds given, for securing and paying the Duties of Excise upon the 'Importation of such Rum or Spirits, can be delivered up: And whereas great Part of the Rum or Spirits of 'the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations imported into this Kingdom for 'Exportation, as Merchandize, are not Proof Spirits; and by Reason thereof, and of the said Restriction 'in the before-recited Act, the Proprietor of the said Rum or Spirits cannot, upon the Exportation thereof, 'obtain the Drawback of the Customs, or be freed and discharged from the said Duties of Excise; whereby 'the good End proposed by the said recited Act will be in great Measure, if not totally, frustrated;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, so much of the said recited Act as requires such Rum or Spirits so to be exported to be Proof Spirits, and to be certified so to be, shall be, and is hereby repealed and made null and void; and that from thenceforth, upon Exportation of Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations, from this Kingdom as Merchandize, under the Rules, Restrictions, and Regulations, by the said recited Act established and referred to (and not hereby repealed) there shall be an Allowance or Drawback of all the Duties of Customs payable upon the Importation thereof, and such Rum or Spirits shall be freed and discharged from all Duties of Excise, though the same shall not be Proof Spirits; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

32 Geo. 2. c. 36.

'VIII. And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George 'the Second, intituled, An Act for continuing certain Laws therein mentioned, relating to British Sail Cloth, and 'to the Duties payable on Foreign Sail Cloth; and to the Allowance upon the Exportation of British-made Gun- 'powder; and to the Encouragement of the Trade of the Sugar Colonies in America; and to the Landing of 'Rum or Spirits of the British Sugar Plantations before the Duties of Excise are paid thereon; and for regu- 'lating the Payment of the Duties on Foreign Exciseable Liquors; and for the Relief of Thomas Wharton, with 'regard to the Drawback on certain East India Callicoes; and for rendering more commodious the new Passage 'leading from Charing Cross; it was enacted, amongst other Things, That from and after the fifth Day of 'July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, the Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, of 'any Kind of Foreign Liquors liable to the Duties of Excise, within thirty Days next after the Master 'or Purser for that Voyage of the Ship or Vessel wherein the said Foreign Exciseable Liquors, or any of 'them, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall have, or ought to have made 'a just and true Entry or Report, upon Oath, of the Burthen, Contents, and Loading of such Ship or 'Vessel, in pursuance of the Direction of the Statute made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the 'Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in his 'Majesty's Customs, shall make due Entry with the Officer or Collector appointed for the Excise, in the 'Port or Place where such Foreign Exciseable Liquors shall be imported, of all such Foreign Excise- 'able Liquors on board such Ship or Vessel belonging to such Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or 'Importers; and shall then, or before, satisfy and pay the Duties of Excise due and payable for and in re- 'spect of the said Foreign Exciseable Liquors, and land the same, on Pain to forfeit for every Neglect or 'Refusal to make due Entry or Payment, or to land the same according to the Directions of this Act, all 'such Foreign Exciseable Liquors, with the Casks and Package wherein the same shall be contained on 'board such Ship or Vessel belonging to such Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, of the 'same, so neglecting or refusing, which shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Excise; 'and that all Seizures to be made in pursuance of the said Act shall be applied (the necessary Charges for 'the Recovery thereof being first deducted) one Moiety to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs 'and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Seizer or Prosecutor: And whereas since the passing the 'said Act, it frequently happens that Foreign Liquors liable to the Duties of Excise are imported into 'this Kingdom, and duly reported; but the Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, or the Per- 'sons to whom consigned, under Pretence that the said Foreign Liquors are much under Proof, or for other 'Pretences, neglect or refuse to make due Entry or Payment, or to land the same, according to the Di- 'rections of the said Act, and the same become forfeited: And whereas the said Foreign Liquors when 'condemned are sold Duty free, whereby the Value of the Moiety of the said Forfeiture, which by the 'said Act is given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, is much less than the Duty that would have 'arisen had the same Foreign Liquors been duly landed as they ought to have been; whereby many 'Persons are tempted to commit great Frauds and Abuses to the Prejudice of his Majesty's Revenue, and 'of the fair Traders:' For Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, the respective Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland shall, after Condemnation, cause all such Foreign Liquors, liable, to the

he Duties of Exciſe, which ſhall be ſeized for Neglect or Refuſal to make due Entry or Payment, or anding the ſame within the thirty Days, according to the Directions of the ſaid Act, to be publickly ſold to the beſt Bidder, at ſuch Places as the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners ſhall think proper, for and towards ſatisfying the Duties chargeable on imported Foreign Liquors liable to the Duties of Exciſe; and the Overplus (if any be) to be applied to and for the Benefit of the Officer ſeizing the ſame: And in caſe the ſaid Foreign Liquors, ſo to be ſold as aforeſaid, ſhall not be of Value ſufficient to ſatisfy, or ſhall barely ſatisfy, the Whole of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe; then, and in ſuch Caſes, the Officer making ſuch Seizure ſhall be rewarded in ſuch Manner as the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners ſhall think proper, ſuch Reward not exceeding two Shillings per Gallon, to be in lieu of all other Allowances; any Law, Statute, or Proviſion to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

'IX. And whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned; for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than one Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain; it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That all Teas which ſhall be ſeized and condemned for being illegally imported, or for any other Cauſe, ſhall not be ſold for Conſumption within this Kingdom, but ſhall be exported to Ireland, or to the Britiſh Colonies in America, under certain Reſtrictions in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas the Conſumption of ſuch Teas in this Kingdom will greatly reduce the Price and Value thereof, and thereby diſcourage the Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe from making Seizures of ſuch Tea, and proſecuting the ſame to Condemnation, which will promote the illicit Importation and Smuggling of Tea into this Kingdom, and be very prejudicial to the public Revenue and the fair Trader;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſuch Part of the ſaid recited Act as prohibits the Selling for Conſumption within this Kingdom ſuch ſeized and condemned Teas, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be, repealed.

'X. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to prohibit the Importation of Foreign Wrought Silks and Velvets, for a limited Time; and for preventing unlawful Combinations of Workmen employed in the Silk Manufacture: it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That forthwith after the Seizure of any ſuch Foreign Wrought Silks or Velvets, or other Works made thereof, or as ſoon after as conveniently may be, the ſame ſhall be ſent to, and depoſited in, one of the King's Warehouſes belonging to the Cuſtom-houſe at London: And whereas by another Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend and enforce the Acts of the eighteenth, twenty-firſt, and thirty-ſecond Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, for the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Importation and Wearing of Cambricks and French Lawns; it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That forthwith after the Seizure of any ſuch Cambricks or French Lawns, or as ſoon after as conveniently may be, the ſame ſhall be ſent to, and depoſited in, one of the King's Warehouſes belonging to the Cuſtom-houſe at London: And whereas the ſending all ſuch Goods to London, immediately after Seizure, when ſeized at an Out-port of this Kingdom, is attended with great Inconvenience to the Officers making ſuch Seizures, as well as to the Owners and Proprietors of ſuch Goods, who live at remote Diſtances from London:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, all ſuch Wrought Silks and Velvets, and other Works made thereof, and all Cambricks and French Lawns, which have been ſeized in Great Britain, for any Cauſe of Forfeiture, ſhall and may remain in any Cuſtom-houſe Warehouſe where they are or were depoſited; and all ſuch as ſhall be ſeized after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, ſhall be carried to, and depoſited in the next Cuſtom-houſe, and ſhall remain there until the ſame ſhall be legally condemned, unleſs the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for England or Scotland reſpectively ſhall judge it neceſſary and expedient to direct ſuch Goods to be removed ſooner from thence: And after ſuch Goods ſhall be condemned in due Courſe of Law, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners to cauſe ſuch Goods to be marked or ſtamped in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think proper, and brought to any of the King's Warehouſes belonging to the Cuſtom-houſes at London or Edinburgh reſpectively, to be there ſold for Exportation in the Manner directed by the ſaid Acts of Parliament herein before recited reſpectively relating thereto; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants: And if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared; or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law.

An Act for repealing ſo much of an Act made in the ſeventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to encourage the bringing Plate into the Mint to be coined, and for the further remedying the ill State of the Coin of the Kingdom, as reſtrains any Perſon keeping an Inn, Tavern, Alehouſe, or Victualling-houſe, or ſelling Wine, Ale, Beer, or any other Liquors, by Retail, from publickly uſing any wrought or manufactured Plate, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof, except Spoons; and for putting an End to Proſecutions commenced for Offences againſt ſuch Part of the ſaid Act.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the ſeventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to encourage the bringing Plate into the Mint to be coined, and for the further remedying the ill State of the Coin of the Kingdom, it was enacted, That from and after the fourth Day of May, which ſhould be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-ſix, no Perſon keeping any Inn, Tavern, Alehouſe, or Victualling-houſe, or ſelling Wine, Ale, Beer, or any other Liquors, by Retail, ſhould publickly uſe, or expoſe to be uſed, in ſuch his or her Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof (except Spoons) under the Penalty of forfeiting the ſame, or the full Value thereof, together with full Coſts of Suit, to him, her, or them, who ſhould ſue for the ſame: And whereas the ſaid Reſtriction hath been found very inconvenient, and is productive of many frivolous and vexatious Suits, and is alſo detrimental to the Revenue: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſo much of the ſaid Act as reſtrains any Perſon keeping any Inn, Tavern, Alehouſe, or Victualling-houſe, or ſelling Wine, Ale, Beer, or any other Liquors, by Retail, from publickly uſing, or expoſing to be uſed, in ſuch his or her Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof, ſhall be and is hereby repealed and made void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, againſt whom any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, hath been brought in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, for any Penalty incurred by reaſon of the ſaid Act of King WILLIAM the Third, for having publickly uſed, or expoſed to be uſed, in his, her, or their Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof, ſhall be, and is and are hereby indemnified, freed, and diſcharged, from and againſt all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred for or by reaſon of having publickly uſed, or expoſed to be uſed, in his, her, or their Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof; any Thing in the ſaid Act of King WILLIAM the Third contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

III. Provided always, That all Coſts incurred in proſecuting and carrying on any ſuch Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, ſhall be borne and diſcharged by the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom any ſuch Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, hath been brought.

IV. Provided alſo, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to indemnify any Perſon againſt whom final Judgment ſhall have been given in any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, for any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred by reaſon of the ſaid Act of King WILLIAM the Third, for having publickly uſed, or expoſed to be uſed, in his, her, or their Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Action, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be brought, carried on, or proſecuted, againſt any Perſon or Perſons hereby meant or intended to be indemnified, freed, and diſcharged, from and againſt all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by reaſon of the ſaid Act of King WILLIAM the Third, for or on account of having publickly uſed, or expoſed to be uſed, in his, her, or their Houſe, any wrought or manufactured Plate whatſoever, or any Utenſil or Veſſel thereof, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may plead the General Iſſue; and, upon their Defence, give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act made in the Twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the general Quiet of the Subjects againſt all Pretences of Concealment whatſoever.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made and paſſed in the Twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the general Quiet of the Subjects againſt all Pretences of Concealment whatſoever; and thereby the Right and Title of the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in and to all Manors, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, and Hereditaments (except Liberties and Franchiſes), were limited to ſixty Years next before the Beginning of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament; and other Proviſions and Regulations were therein made, for ſecuring to all his Majeſty's Subjects the free and quiet Enjoyment of all Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, which they, or thoſe under whom they claimed, reſpectively had, held, or enjoyed, or whereof they had taken the Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, or Profits, for the Space of ſixty Years next before the Beginning of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Act is now, by Efflux of Time, become ineffectual to anſwer the good End and Purpoſe of ſecuring the general Quiet of the Subject againſt all Pretences of Concealment whatſoever:' Wherefore be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Aſſent and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the King's Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, ſhall not at any Time hereafter, ſue, impeach, queſtion, or implead, any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, for or in any wiſe concerning any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments whatſoever (other than Liberties or Franchiſes), or for or in any wiſe concerning the Revenues, Iſſues, or Profits thereof, or make any Title, Claim, Challenge, or Demand, of, in, or to the ſame, or any of them, by reaſon of any Right or Title which hath not firſt accrued and grown, or which ſhall not hereafter firſt accrue and grow, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing, of every ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding, as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof; or that the ſame have or ſhall have been duly in charge to his Majeſty, or ſome of his Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, Heirs, or Succeſſors, or have or ſhall have ſtood inſuper of Record within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years: And that all and every Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and all claiming by, from, or under them, or any of them, for and according to their and every of their ſeveral Eſtates and Intereſts which they have, or claim to have, or ſhall or may have or claim to have, in the ſame reſpectively, ſhall, at all Times hereafter, quietly and freely have, hold, and enjoy, againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, claiming by any Title which hath not firſt accrued or grown, or which ſhall not hereafter firſt accrue or grow, within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years, all and ſingular Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, and Hereditaments whatſoever (except Liberties and Franchiſes), which he or they, or his or their, or any of their Anceſtors or Predeceſſors, or thoſe from, by, or under whom they do or ſhall claim, have or ſhall have held or enjoyed, or taken the Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, or Profits thereof, by the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of every ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof; unleſs his Majeſty, or ſome of his Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, Heirs or Succeſſors, or ſome other Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, by, from, or under whom his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, any Thing hath or lawfully claimeth, or ſhall have or lawfully claim, in the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments, by Force of any Right or Title, have been or ſhall have been anſwered, by virtue of any ſuch Right or Title, the Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, or other Profits thereof, within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years; or that the ſame have or ſhall have been duly in Charge, or ſtood inſuper of Record as aforeſaid, within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years: And furthermore that all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and all claiming or to claim by, from, or under them, or any of them, for and according to their and every of their ſeveral Eſtates and Intereſts which they have or claim, or ſhall or may have or claim, reſpectively, ſhall, for ever hereafter, quietly and freely have, hold, and enjoy, all ſuch Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, and Hereditaments (except Liberties and Franchiſes), as they now have, claim, or enjoy, or hereafter ſhall or may have, claim, or enjoy, whereof his Majeſty, his Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, or whereof his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, or he or they by, from, or under whom his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, any Thing hath or lawfully claimetn, or ſhall have or lawfully claim, or ſome of them, by Force of ſome Right or Title to the ſame, have not or ſhall not have been anſwered, by virtue of ſuch Right or Title, the Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, or Profits thereof, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of every ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, Act 21 Jac. 1. c. 2.

The Crown diſabled to implead for any Manors, &c. where the Right hath not, or ſhall not firſt accrue and grow within 60 Years next before, &c.

Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof, nor the ſame have been nor ſhall have been duly in Charge, or ſtood inſuper of Record as aforeſaid, within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years, againſt all and every Perſon and Perſons, their Heirs and Aſſigns, having, claiming, or pretending to have, or who ſhall or may have, claim, or pretend to have any Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim, or Demand whatſoever, of, in, or to the ſame, by Force or Colour of any Letters Patents or Grants, upon Suggeſtion of Concealment or wrongful detaining, or not being in Charge, or defective Titles, or by, from, or under, any Patentees or Grantees, or any Letters Patents or Grants, upon Suggeſtion of Concealment or wrongful detaining, or not being in Charge, or defective Titles, of or for which ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, and Hereditaments, or any of them, no Verdict, Judgment, Decree, Judicial Order upon Hearing, or Sentence of any Court now ſtanding in Force, hath been had or given, or any ſuch Verdict, Judgment, Decree, Judicial Order upon Hearing, or Sentence of Court, ſhall hereafter be had or given, in any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, for or in the Name of the King's Majeſty, or any of his Anceſtors, Progenitors, Predeceſſors, Heirs, or Succeſſors, or for any of the ſaid Patentees or Grantees, or for their or any of their Heirs, or Aſſigns, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of every ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof as aforeſaid.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where the Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, or Profits of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, or Hereditaments, are or ſhall be in Charge, by, to, or with any Auditor or Auditors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Revenue, ſuch Rents, Revenues, Iſſues, and Profits, ſhall be held, deemed, and taken to be duly in Charge within the Meaning and Intent of this Act; any Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to bar, impeach, or hinder his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, of, for, or from, any Manors, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments, whereof any Reverſion or Remainder now is in his Majeſty, for or concerning the ſaid Reverſion or Remainder; nor of, for or from any Reverſion or Remainder, or Poſſibility of Reverſion or Remainder, in any of his Majeſty's Progenitors, or Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, which by the Expiration, End, or other Determination of any limited Eſtate of Fee-ſimple, or of any Fee-tail or other particular Eſtate, hath or ought to have firſt fallen or become in Poſſeſſion, or which ſhall or may or ought hereafter firſt to fall or come in Poſſeſſion, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding, as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof; nor of, for, or from any Right or Title firſt accrued or grown to his Majeſty, or any of his Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, or which ſhall firſt accrue or grow to his Majeſty, or any of his Heirs, or Succeſſors, of, in, or to, any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments, at any Time or Times within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit of Proceeding as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof, and not before.

Limitation of the Act with reſpect to Grants from the Crown of any limited Eſtate, &c.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by Authority of this preſent Parliament, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments, mentioned to be granted or conveyed by any of his Majeſty's Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, or by any other under whom his Majeſty claimeth, to any Perſon or Perſons, of any limited Eſtate in Fee-ſimple, or of any Eſtate in Tail, or other particular Eſtate, which ſeveral Eſtates (if the ſame had been good and effectual in Law), have or ought to have firſt fallen or become in Poſſeſſion, or will or ought firſt to fall or come in Poſſeſſion, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing, of any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof as aforeſaid; nor to any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, or Hereditaments, mentioned to be granted or conveyed by any of his Majeſty's Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, or by any other under whom his Majeſty claimeth, to any Perſon or Perſons in Fee-tail, or other particular Eſtate, whereof the Reverſion or Inheritance (if ſuch Eſtate Tail, or other particular Eſtate, had been good and effectual in Law), ſhould have been and continued in his Majeſty, or any of his Progenitors, Predeceſſors, or Anceſtors, or ſhould or ought hereafter to be and continue in his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, at any Time within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding, as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof as aforeſaid.

The ſaid Manors, &c. to be holden of the Crown upon the uſual Tenures.

V. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That all and ſingular the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſhall at all Times hereafter be holden of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and of other Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, by the ſame Tenures, Services, Fee-farms, Chief Rents, Heriots, and other Duties, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the ſame ſhould or ought of right to have been holden, if the Eſtates, Rights, and Intereſts, eſtabliſhed and made ſure by this preſent Act, had been, before the making of this Act, firm, good, and effectual in law.

General Reſervation of Rights.

VI. Saving to every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors (other than his moſt Excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and other than all Patentees or Grantees of Concealments, Concealments, or defective Titles, and all and every Perſon or Perſons claiming from, by, or under them, or any of them, for or in reſpect or by reaſon of any ſuch Patents or Grants of Concealments, or defective Titles), all ſuch Rights, Title, Intereſt, Eſtate, Rents, Commons, Cuſtoms, Duties, Profits, and other Claims and Demands whatſoever, in, to, or out of the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, or Hereditaments, as they or any of them had or ought to have had before the making of this Act; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That where any Fee Farm Rent, or other Rent or Rents, have been or ſhall be anſwered and actually paid to the King's Majeſty, or to any his Predeceſſors, Heirs, or Succeſſors, within the Space of ſixty Years next before an Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceeding, ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof, out of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of which Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the Eſtates, Rights, or Intereſts being defective, are eſtabliſhed, and made ſure by this preſent Act, that the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall from henceforth for ever have, hold, and enjoy the ſaid Rents, and Arrearages thereof, in ſuch Manner and Form, and as fully and amply, as the ſame are or were enjoyed at any Time within the ſaid Space of ſixty Years.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be prejudicial to the Right, Title, or Claim, of any Perſon or Perſons in or to any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by virtue of, or under any Grant or Grants, Letters Patent or Letters Patents, from any of his Majeſty's Progenitors, Anceſtors, or Predeceſſors, or by virtue of or under any Grant or Grants, Letters Patent or Letters Patents, from his Majeſty, made or paſſed before the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine; ſo as ſuch Right, Title, or Claim, be proſecuted with Effect by Bill, Plaint, Information, or other Suit, or Proceeding, in ſome of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, within the Space of one Year from the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be prejudicial to any Right, Title, or Claim, which his Majeſty now hath to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Manor of Eaſt Greenwich, in the County of Kent; or to any Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Precinct, Diſtrict, or Liberty, commonly called The Savoy, in the County of Middleſex; or to any the Manors, Meſſuages, Advowſons, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Appurtenances, being the Eſtate and Poſſeſſion of the late Hoſpital of the Savoy, or of the Maſter and Chaplains of the ſaid Hoſpital; ſo as ſuch Right, Title, or Claim be proſecuted with Effect by Bill, Plaint, Information, or other Suit or Proceeding, in ſome of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, within the Space of two Years from the firſt Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That no putting in Charge, nor ſtanding inſuper, nor taking or anſwering the Farm Rents, Revenues, or Profits of any of the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by Force, Colour, or Pretext of any Letters Patent or Grants of Concealments, or defective Titles, or of Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, out of Charge, or by Force, Colour, or Pretext, of any Inquiſitions, Preſentments, by or by reaſon of any Commiſſion or other Authority to find out Concealments, defective Titles, or Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments out of Charge, ſhall be deemed, conſtrued, or taken to be a putting in Charge, ſtanding inſuper, or taking or anſwering the Farm Rents, Revenues, or Profits by or to his Majeſty, or any of his Progenitors or Predeceſſors, Heirs or Succeſſors; unleſs thereupon ſuch Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, have been or ſhall be, upon ſome Information or Suit, on the Behalf of his Majeſty, or ſome of his Progenitors or Predeceſſors, Heirs or Succeſſors, upon a lawful Verdict given or to be given, or Demurrer in Law adjudged, or upon a Hearing, ordered or decreed for his Majeſty, or ſome of his Progenitors or Predeceſſors, Heirs or Succeſſors, or ſome of them, within the Space of ſixty Years next before the filing, iſſuing, or commencing of every ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Commiſſion, or other Suit or Proceedings as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be filed, iſſued, or commenced, for recovering the ſame, or in reſpect thereof as aforeſaid.

CAP. XX.

An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace in their General Quarter Sessions of their respective Counties and Divisions to repair the Shire Halls, County Halls, or other Buildings, wherein the Assizes or Grand Sessions are usually held.

'WHEREAS Doubts have arisen in several Counties within the Kingdom of England and Principality of Wales, whether there be any lawful Authority for the repairing Shire Halls, or other 'Buildings usually made use of for the holding the Assizes or Grand Sessions within such Counties: For 'the clearing such Doubts, and for making Provision for repairing the same whenever it shall be necessary, 'May it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in their respective General or Quarter Sessions, or the greater Part of them then and there assembled, within the Limits of their Commissions, upon Presentment of the Grand Jury at the Assizes or Great Sessions, or General Gaol Delivery held for the said County at their Shire Hall, or other Building usually made use of for the holding the Assizes or Great Sessions within such County, of the ill State and Condition of any such Shire Hall, or other Building, and the Necessity of repairing the same, to order and direct, in pursuance of such Presentment, such Shire Hall, or other Building, to be repaired in such Manner as they in their Discretions shall think fit; and shall assess and rate all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be laid out and expended in repairing the same upon the several Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes, Rapes, Cities, Towns, Parishes, Townships, Wards, or other Divisions of the said County; and to cause and direct the same to be collected, levied, and paid, and the same shall be collected, levied, and paid in the same Manner, and by and to the same Officers and other Persons, and under the same Conditions, Terms, Limitations, Restrictions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, as other County Rates are ordered and directed to be assessed, rated, collected, levied and paid, in and by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying County Rates;' and in and by a Clause in an Act passed in the thirteenth Year of the said King, intituled, 'An Act to continue several 'Laws therein mentioned for punishing such Persons as shall wilfully and maliciously pull down or de'stroy Turnpikes; for repairing Highways or Locks, or other Works erected by Authority of Parlia'ment for making Rivers navigable; for preventing Exactions of the Occupiers of Locks and Weirs upon 'the River Thames Westward, and for ascertaining the Rates of Water Carriage upon the said River; 'for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests; and for better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesty's 'Subjects to and from the East Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesty's Subjects 'trading thither under foreign Commissions; and for limiting the Time for suing forth Writs of Certiorari 'upon Proceedings before Justices of the Peace, and for regulating the Time and Manner of applying 'for the same; for the better and more speedy Execution of Process within particular Franchises or Liber'ties; and for extending the Powers and Authorities of Justices of Peace of Counties, touching County 'Rates, to the Justices of the Peace of such Liberties and Franchises as have Commissions of the Peace within 'themselves.'

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Cases where any Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building usually made use of for the holding the Assizes or Great Sessions, hath for Time out of Mind been repaired at the Expence of any particular Person or Persons, Riding or Ridings, Division or Divisions, Part or Parts, of any County or Shire, the same shall for ever hereafter be repaired at the Expence of the Inhabitants of such Riding or Ridings, Division or Divisions, Part or Parts, as they have heretofore been; and the Sum and Sums of Money to be laid out in repairing the same shall be assessed, rated on, and collected, levied and paid, by such Division or Divisions, Part or Parts of such County, in the Manner in this Act herein before directed.

III. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That if there should be Occasion for any sudden Repairs which will not cost more than the Sum of thirty Pounds, it shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace of ſuch County, Diviſion, Riding, or Place, after having viewed the ſame, and an Eſtimate of able Workmen made of the Expence thereof, to order the ſame to be repaired, and the Money to be raiſed upon the County, in the ſame Manner as it is by this Act appointed to be raiſed after a Preſentment of the Grand Jury.

IV. Provided, and be it further enacted, That all Cities, Corporations, Rapes, Wapentakes, Boroughs, Towns, Ports, Pariſhes, Townſhips, or other Places, or Diviſions, or Perſon or Perſons, which are now bound and obliged by Law and ancient Uſage to repair any ſuch Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Buildings for the holding the Aſſizes or Great Seſſions, or to furniſh the ſame with Benches, Tables, Rails, or other Fixtures, and to keep the ſame in Repair, ſhall for ever hereafter be bound and obliged to repair the ſame, and to furniſh the ſame with Benches, Tables, Rails, and other Fixtures, and to keep the ſame in repair; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit, or Information, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for what he or they ſhall do in purſuance or in execution of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſued in any Court whatſoever ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, Not guilty, and upon any Iſſue joined may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, the Defendants ſhall recover their Treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy as in any Caſe when Coſts by the Law are given to Defendants.

CAP. XXI.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for making perpetual an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Money.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty;

1 Geo. 3. c. 16. 'WHEREAS an Act was made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Money, whereby the Duties and Laws therein mentioned or referred to were continued for the Term of seven Years, to commence from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following: And whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled,

5 Geo. 3. c. 1, 2. An Act for further continuing certain Laws to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, and also the Extraction of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat and Wheat Flour: for further allowing the Importation of Wheat and Wheat Flour, Barley, Barley Meal, and Pulse, free of Duty, into this Kingdom, from any Part of Europe; and for allowing the Importation of Oats and Oat-meal, Rye and Rye-meal, into this Kingdom, for a limited Time, free of Duty; and also for continuing such other Laws as will expire before the Beginning of the next Session of Parliament; the said Act made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign was continued until the End of this present Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign should be made perpetual: We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Money, and all the Clauses, Powers, Provisions, Directions, Rules, and Articles, therein contained, shall be, and are hereby, made perpetual: and shall continue in force, and be carried into Execution, as fully and effectually as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, and as if there had not been any Limitation of Time whatsoever expressed in the said Act for the Determination thereof, or of any Matter therein contained.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to continue certain Laws therein mentioned, for granting, for a limited Time, a Liberty to carry Rice from his Majesty's Provinces of South and North Carolina and Georgia, directly to any Part of America to the southward of the said Provinces, subject to the like Duty as is now paid on the Exportation of Rice from the said Colonies to Places in Europe situate to the southward of Cape Finisterre.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws herein after mentioned, which have been found useful and beneficial, and which are near expiring, should be continued: May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

4 Geo. 3. c. 27. assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for granting, for a limited Time, a Liberty to carry Rice from his Majesty's Provinces of South Carolina and Georgia, directly to any Part of America to the Southward of the said Provinces, subject to the like Duty as is now paid on the Exportation of Rice from the said Colonies to Places in Europe situate to the Southward of Cape Finisterre;' and also a Clause in an Act made

5 Geo. 3. c. 45. in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's American Dominions; for repealing the Inland Duty on Coffee, imposed by an Act made in the thirty-second Year of his late Majesty King George the Second; and for granting an Inland Duty on all Coffee imported (except Coffee of the Growth of the British Dominions in America); for altering the Bounties and Drawbacks upon Sugars exported; for repealing Part of an Act made in the twenty-third Year of his said late Majesty, whereby Bar Iron made in the said Dominions was prohibited to be exported from Great Britain, or carried Coastwise; and for regulating the Fees of Officers of the Customs in the said Dominions;' which gave Liberty to carry Rice from North Carolina, in the same Manner, and under the like Entries, Securities, Restrictions, Regulations, Limitations, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures as were enacted by the said Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, with respect to carrying Rice to the Southward of South Carolina and Georgia; which have Continuance for five Years from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be, and the same are hereby continued from the Expiration thereof for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Continued for the further Term of 5 Years.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to permit the Inhabitants of Jerſey and Guernſey to export directly from thence to Newfoundland, or the Britiſh Colonies in America, Goods neceſſary for the Fiſhery, under certain Reſtrictions; and to import from thence non-enumerated Goods (except Rum) and to land the ſame in the ſaid Iſlands.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That no Commodity of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Europe, ſhall be imported into any Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, to his Majeſty belonging, or which ſhall hereafter belong unto, or be in the Poſſeſſion of, his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa, or America, (except as therein is excepted) but what ſhall be bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and ſhipped in England or Wales, or the Town of Berkwick upon Tweed, under the Penalties in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms is impowered to ſtop any Britiſh Ship or Veſſel arriving from any Part of Europe, which ſhall be diſcovered within two Leagues of the Shore of any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and to ſeize and take from thence, as forfeited, any Goods (except ſuch as in the ſaid Act are mentioned) for which the Maſter or other Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall not produce a Cocket or Clearance from the Collector or proper Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, certifying that the ſaid Goods were laden on board the ſaid Ship or Veſſel in ſome Part of Great Britain: And whereas the Fiſhing Trade carried on by the Inhabitants of Jerſey and Guernſey at Newfoundland, and other of the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in North America, is highly beneficial to this Kingdom, in the employing great Numbers of Seamen and Ships, and in the Uſe and Conſumption of great Quantities of Britiſh Manufactures; and it is therefore expedient, for the Encouragement of that Trade, to permit the ſaid Inhabitants of Jerſey and Guernſey to export directly from thence ſuch Articles as are neceſſary for their carrying on the ſaid Fiſhery: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted:' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Iſlands of Jerſey or Guernſey, to ſhip and lade in the ſaid Iſlands, and to tranſport directly from thence to Newfoundland, or to any other of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, where the Fiſhery is now or ſhall hereafter be carried on, on board any Ship or Veſſel which may lawfully trade there, any Sort of Craft, Food, Victuals, Clothing, or other Goods, fit and neceſſary for the Fiſhery in thoſe Parts, or for the Uſe and Support of the Mariners or other Perſons employed on board the Veſſels, or on Shore, in carrying on the ſaid Fiſhery there; ſuch Craft, Clothing, or other Goods, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain, or of the ſaid Iſlands of Jerſey or Guernſey, and ſuch Food or Victuals being of the Growth or Produce either of Great Britain, Ireland, or the ſaid Iſlands of Jerſey or Guernſey; any Thing in the ſaid Acts, or any Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

15 Car. 2. c. 7.

4 Geo. 3.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter or other Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall produce, to the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms in the Colony or Plantation where he ſhall arrive, a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, that Oath had been made by the Shipper of ſuch Goods before the Magiſtrates of the Royal Courts in Jerſey or Guernſey, reſpectively, or any three of them, that the Goods and Victuals ſo ſhipped on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel are of ſuch Growth, Product, or Manufacture, as aforeſaid; which Certificate ſhall alſo be atteſted by the Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Iſland reſpectively, who ſhall certify, that the ſaid Oath was taken in his Preſence; and on Failure of producing ſuch Certificate as herein before directed, ſuch Craft, Food, Victuals, Cloathing, or other Goods, found on board any Ship or Veſſel, and the Veſſel importing the ſame, ſhall be liable to be ſeized and forfeited in the ſame Manner as they would have been ſubject and liable if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'III. And whereas by an Act made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations granted by ſeveral Acts of Parliament; and alſo the Duties impoſed by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament upon certain Eaſt India Goods exported from Great Britain, and for granting other Duties inſtead thereof; and for encouraging, regulating, and ſecuring ſeveral Branches of the Trade of this Kingdom, and the Britiſh Dominions in America; it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That Bond and Security, in the Penalties in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, ſhall be given to the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at any Port or Place in any of the Britiſh American Colonies or Plantations, with one Surety beſides the Maſter of every Ship or Veſſel that ſhall lade or take on board there any non-enumerated Goods, with Condition that ſuch Goods ſhall not be landed at any Part of Europe to the Northward of Cape Finiſterre, except in Great Britain; which Exception was, by an Act made in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign, extended to Ireland: And whereas it is reaſonable to extend the like Exception to the Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any non-enumerated Goods, except Rum, laden as aforeſaid in any Britiſh American Colony or Plantation, may be landed in the ſaid Iſlands of Jerſey or Guernſey;

6 Geo. 3. c. 52.

7 Geo. 3. c. 28.

Guernſey; and that the ſaid Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and all the Regulations therein contained, ſo far as the ſame relates to the Bond and Security for landing ſuch non-enumerated Goods in Great Britain, ſhall extend, and be conſtrued to extend, to the ſaid Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey alſo, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes as if the ſaid Iſlands had been excepted and named in the ſaid Act; and that any Bond which may have been or ſhall be entered into in purſuance of the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, ſhall and may be cancelled and diſcharged by the Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Magiſtrates of the Royal Courts of Jerſey or Guernſey reſpectively, or any three of them, and the principal Officer of the Cuſtoms in ſuch Iſland reſpectively, teſtifying the landing ſuch Goods there, in the ſame Manner as if the ſaid Goods had been landed in Great Britain or Ireland; any Thing in the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for the more effectual Puniſhment of ſuch Perſons as ſhall demoliſh or pull down, burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy or ſpoil, any Mill or Mills; and for preventing the deſtroying or damaging of Engines for draining Collieries and Mines; or Bridges, Waggon Ways, or other Things uſed in conveying Coals, Lead, Tin, or other Minerals, from Mines; or Fences for incloſing Lands in purſuance of Acts of Parliament.

1 Geo. 1. St. 2. c. 5.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for preventing Tumults and riotous Aſſemblies, and for the more ſpeedy and effectual puniſhing the Rioters, it is, among other Things, enacted, That if any Perſons unlawfully, riotouſly, and tumultuouſly aſſembled together, to the Diſturbance of the Publick Peace, ſhall unlawfully and with Force demoliſh or pull down, or begin to demoliſh or pull down, any Church or Chapel, or any Building for religious Worſhip, certified and regiſtered according to the Statute made in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for exempting their Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects diſſenting from the Church of England from the Penalties of certain Laws, or any Dwelling-houſe, Barn, Stable, or other Out-houſe; that then every ſuch demoliſhing or pulling down, or beginning to demoliſh or pull down, ſhall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and the Offenders therein ſhall be adjudged Felons, and ſhall ſuffer death as in the Caſes of Felony without Benefit of Clergy: And whereas ſome Doubts have ariſen whether the ſaid Act extends to the pulling down and demoliſhing of Mills: Therefore, for remedying the Miſchiefs which may enſue therefrom, and for the more effectual Puniſhment of ſuch Offenders,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons unlawfully, riotouſly, and tumultuouſly aſſembled together, to the Diſturbance of the Publick Peace, ſhall, at any Time after the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, unlawfully, and with Force, demoliſh or pull down, or begin to demoliſh or pull down, any Wind Saw Mill, or other Wind Mill, or any Water Mill, or other Mill which ſhall have been or ſhall be erected, or any of the Works thereto reſpectively belonging; that then every ſuch demoliſhing or pulling down, or beginning to demoliſh or pull down, ſhall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein ſhall be adjudged Felons, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in caſe of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

'II. And whereas no effectual Proviſion hath heretofore been made for preventing the Burning of Mills;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, wilfully or maliciouſly burn or ſet fire to, any Wind Saw Mill, or other Wind Mill, or any Water Mill, or other Mill; ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being lawfully convicted thereof, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in caſe of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

The wilfully deſtroying or damaging Engines for draining other Mines, &c.

III. And, for more effectually preventing the deſtroying of Engines for draining Collieries, Coal Mines, and other Mines, and Bridges and Waggon Ways uſed in conveying Coals, Lead, and other Minerals from thence; and alſo Fences made or to be made for incloſing Lands by virtue of Acts of Parliament; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time after the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, wilfully or maliciouſly ſet fire to, burn, demoliſh, pull down, or otherwiſe deſtroy or damage, any Fire Engine or other Engine erected, or to be erected, for draining Water from Collieries or Coal Mines; or for drawing Coals out of the ſame; or for draining Water from any Mine of Lead, Tin, Copper, or other Mineral; or any Bridge, Waggon Way, or Trunk erected, or to be erected, for conveying Coals from any Colliery or Coal Mine, or Staith for depoſiting the ſame; or any Bridge or Waggon Way erected, or to be erected for conveying Lead, Tin, Copper, or other Mineral, from any ſuch Mine; or any Fence or Fences that are or ſhall be erected, ſet up, provided, or made, for dividing or incloſing any Common Waſte or other Lands or Grounds, in purſuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament; every ſuch Perſon, being lawfully convicted of any or either of the ſaid ſeveral Offences, or of cauſing or procuring the ſame to be done, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall be ſubject to the like Pains and Penalties as in Caſes of Felony; and the Court by or before whom ſuch Perſon ſhall be tried, ſhall have Power and Authority to tranſport ſuch Felon for the Term of ſeven Years, in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be tranſported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

IV. Pro-

IV. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be proſecuted by virtue of this Act for any Offence or Offences committed contrary to the ſame, unleſs ſuch Proſecution be commenced within eighteen Months after the Offence committed.

Tranſportation for ſeven Years. Limitation of Proſecutions for the ſaid Offences.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for repealing ſo much of an Act paſſed in the tenth Year of her late Majeſty Queen ANNE as relates to the Harbour Moorings of the Royal Navy; and for the more effectual Preſervation of ſuch Harbour Moorings; and Puniſhment of Perſons guilty of ſtealing or embezzling his Majeſty's Naval Stores; or of Forgery or Perjury in relation to Seamen's Wages.

'WHEREAS the Proviſions by an Act of Parliament of the tenth Year of her late Majeſty Queen 'ANNE, for the preſerving her Majeſty's Harbour Moorings, have been found inſufficient for pre-'ſerving the Harbour Moorings belonging to his Majeſty, and for ſecuring the Ships and Veſſels of the 'Royal Navy from being liable to be damaged by Merchant Ships or Veſſels:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of the ſaid Act, as relates to the preſerving her ſaid late Majeſty's Harbour Moorings, ſhall be, and is hereby declared to be, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, if any Merchant Ship, or other Ship or Veſſel other than and except his Majeſty's Ships of War, or Ships or Veſſels belonging to his Majeſty's Royal Navy, or employed in his Majeſty's Service, ſhall ſtop or faſten to any of his Majeſty's Moorings, or fix themſelves to any of his Majeſty's Ships or Hulks, or ride or moor with their own Anchors, ſo as in any Manner, or with any Wind, to be liable to bear againſt any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, or other Veſſels; the Captain, Maſter, Commander, or Perſon, then on board, and having the Care or Command of ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds for each and every Tide ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel ſhall ſtay and remain at the ſaid Moorings, or ride or moor with its own Anchor, ſo as in any Manner or with any Wind, to bear againſt any of his Majeſty's ſaid Ships or Hulks; unleſs it ſhall appear that ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel was neceſſitated ſo to do by Want of Tide, Streſs of Weather, or other unavoidable Accident; one Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall be applied to the Uſe of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, and the other Moiety thereof to the Uſe of him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, with full Coſts of Suit; wherein no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, Injunction, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Veſſels not in the Government Service, forfeit 10l. each Tide; unleſs neceſſitated ſo to do.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon on board commanding any ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel ſhall, and he is hereby required, upon an Order given to him in Writing by any one or more Officer or Officers belonging to any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, Docks, or Yards, to unlooſe from the ſaid Moorings, and remove ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel, in caſe it ſhall be then moored, with its own Anchors, ſo as effectually to prevent the ſame from riding, or being in any Manner, or with any Wind, liable to bear againſt any of his Majeſty's ſaid Ships or Hulks; and upon Neglect or Refuſal of ſuch Officer to comply with any ſuch Order or Orders for the Space of twenty-four Hours next after ſuch Order or Orders ſhall be ſo given, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch Officer or Officers of any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, Docks, or Yards, to unlooſe, or cauſe ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel to be unlooſed, as aforeſaid, and to remove, or cauſe the ſame to be removed, ſo as effectually to prevent the ſame from riding, or being in any Manner, or with any Wind, liable to bear againſt his Majeſty's ſaid Ships or Hulks.

Merchant Ships may be unlooſed, &c.

IV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That every ſuch Officer or Officers of his Majeſty's Ships of War, Docks, or Yards aforeſaid, ſhall be, and he and they is and are hereby indemnified for what he or they ſhall ſo do, or cauſe to be done, in purſuance of this Act.

V. And, for the more ſpeedy and effectual bringing to Juſtice Perſons who ſhall falſely aſſume the Names or Characters of Officers or Seamen, or other Perſons; or ſhall forge or counterfeit, or cauſe to be forged or counterfeited, any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Aſſignment, laſt Will, or other Authority to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowance, due to any Officer, Seaman, or other Officer, in, or who has been, or ſhall be in, his Majeſty's Service; or ſhall utter or publiſh the ſame as true; or who ſhall be guilty of ſtealing or embezzling his Majeſty's Naval Stores; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Treaſurer, Comptroller, Surveyor, Clerk of the Acts, or any Commiſſioner of the Navy for the Time being, and they are hereby reſpectively authorized and impowered, from Time to Time, in all Places whatſoever, to do, perform, exerciſe, and execute the Office and Duty of a Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, in cauſing any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall, at any Time or Times, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, be charged with forging or counterfeiting, or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Aſſignment, laſt Will, or other Power or Authority; or with uttering or publiſhing the ſame as true, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowance, due to any Officer, Seaman, or other Perſon, who is or has been, or ſhall hereafter be, in the Service of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; or with taking, or procuring falſe Oaths to be taken, for any of the Purpoſes aforeſaid; or to obtain a Probate of any Will, or Letters of Adminiſtration, in order to receive ſuch Wages, Pay, or other Allowance; or with ſtealing or embezzling of any Naval Stores, the Property of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, to be apprehended, committed, and proſecuted, for the ſame; and all Conſtables, Headboroughs, Keepers of Gaols and Priſons and all other Officers whatſoever, ſhall, and they are hereby reſpectively required, from Time to Time, diligently to execute, perform, and obey, all ſuch Warrant and Warrants as ſhall be made, directed, iſſued, or given to them, or any of them, by any one or more of the Perſons aforeſaid, touching any of the Matters and Things herein before contained.

Penalty of uttering any forged Letter of Attorney, &c. to obtain any Wages, &c. Perjury as well as Forgery is a capital Offence, by 31 Geo. 2. c. 10. ſ. 24.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall, after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, utter or publiſh as true, any falſe, forged, or counterfeited Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Aſſignment, laſt Will, or any other Power or Authority whatſoever, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, due or ſuppoſed to be due to any Officer or Seaman, or other Perſon, who has really ſerved or was ſuppoſed to have ſerved, or who ſhall hereafter ſerve or be ſuppoſed to have ſerved, on board of any Ship or Veſſel of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, with Intent to defraud any Perſon, knowing the ſame to be falſe, forged, or counterfeited, then every ſuch Perſon, being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be deemed guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for the eſtabliſhing and well-governing an Hoſpital for the Reception, Maintenance, and Employment of Penitent Proſtitutes; and for extinguiſhing the Right of Common of and in certain Lands in Saint George's Fields, in the County of Surrey.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for paving, cleanſing, lighting, and watching, the High Streets and Lanes in the Pariſh of Saint Nicholas, within the City of Rocheſter, and Pariſh of Strood, in the County of Kent; and for making a Road through Star Lane, acroſs certain Fields adjoining thereto, to Chatham Hill, in the ſaid County.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum of Money to be raiſed by a Lottery. EXP.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund; and for applying a certain Sum therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Seſſion of Parliament. EXP.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act for diſcontinuing, upon the Exportation of Iron imported in Foreign Ships, the Drawback of ſuch Part of the Duties payable thereon as exceeds the Duties payable upon Iron imported in Britiſh Ships; to prohibit the Exportation of Pig and Bar Iron, and certain Naval Stores, unleſs the Pre-emption thereof be offered to the Commiſſioners of the Navy; to repeal ſo much of an Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, as diſcontinued the Drawback upon Foreign Rough Hemp exported; for providing a Compenſation to the Clerks in the Offices of the Principal Secretaries of State, for the Advantages ſuch Clerks enjoyed before the Commencement of an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in relation to the ſending and receiving Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Poſtage; and to explain and amend the ſaid Act.

'WHEREAS the Duties payable upon Iron imported into Great Britain in Foreign built Ships navigated by Foreigners, exceed the Duties that are payable for ſuch Iron when imported in Britiſh built Veſſels navigated by Britiſh Subjects; but the Whole of ſuch additional Duty paid by the Importers of Iron in Foreign built Ships being drawn back and repaid upon the Exportation thereof, is an Encouragement to the Importation of Iron in Foreign built Ships navigated by Foreigners, and may tend to the Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom: For Remedy whereof, May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, ſuch Part of the Duties which have been or ſhall be paid upon Iron imported in in Foreign built Ships navigated by Foreigners, as exceeds the Duties which would have been payable upon ſuch Iron, if the ſame had been imported in Britiſh built Ships navigated by Britiſh Subjects ſhall not be drawn back or repaid upon the Exportation of ſuch Iron from this Kingdom; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'II. And whereas by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, Pig and Bar Iron made in his Majeſty's Colonies in 'America, may be imported directly from thence, under certain Reſtrictions, into any Port of Great Bri- 'tain, Duty-free; and for the better Supply of his Majeſty's Royal Navy with Naval Stores, various 'Bounties or Premiums are allowed upon the Importation of Maſts, Yards, Bowſprits, Tar, Pitch, 'Turpentine, Hemp, and Rough and Undreſſed Flax, into this Kingdom: And whereas, the good Pur- 'poſes intended by thoſe Acts are in ſome Meaſure defeated by the Re-exportation of ſuch Goods into 'Foreign Parts; and it is proper that further Proviſion ſhould be made for the Supply of Naval Stores 'for the Publick Uſe:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, the Pre-emption or Refuſal of all Pig and Bar Iron, Maſts, Yards, Bowſprits, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Hemp, Rough and Undreſſed Flax, and Tow, ſhall be offered and tendered to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, eight Days before any ſuch Goods ſhall be exported, or entered for Exportation, by Way of Merchandize, to Foreign Parts from the Port of London, and twenty Days before any ſuch Goods ſhall be exported, or entered for Exportation, by way of Merchandize, to Foreign Parts from any other Port or Place in this Kingdom; and if, within the ſaid Times reſpectively after ſuch Tender, the ſaid Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy ſhall not contract or bargain for the ſame, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall give a Certificate of ſuch Tender and Refuſal under their Hands (without Fee or Reward) to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods; and upon his or their producing and delivering up ſuch Certificate to the Collector and Comptroller or other principal Officer of the Cuſtoms, at any Port of this Kingdom, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods to export the ſame from thence, in the ſame Manner, and under the ſame Rules and Regulations, as they might have been lawfully exported if this Act had not been made.

Pig and Bar Iron, and certain Naval Stores, prohibited to be exported, unleſs the Pre-emption be offered to the Commiſſioners of the Navy;

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Pig or Bar Iron, Maſts, Yards, Bowſprits, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Hemp, Rough and Undreſſed Flax, or Tow, ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty nine, be exported from this Kingdom to Foreign Parts, or entered outwards, or laden on board any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported, or ſhall be put on board any Boat or Veſſel, in order to be ſhipt for Exportation by way of Merchandize, without being firſt tendered to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, as before directed; or before their Certificate of ſuch Tender and Refuſal ſhall be produced and delivered up to the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Exportation, ſuch Goods ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and if the ſaid Goods ſhall be exported before any Diſcovery thereof ſo that they cannot be ſeized, in ſuch caſe the Owner or Exporter of ſuch Goods ſhall forfeit the Value thereof, to be eſtimated and computed according to the beſt Price that each Article then bears at London; which Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and divided, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by the ſame Rules and Regulations as other Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by the Laws relative to the Revenue of Cuſtoms may be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and divided.

may be ſeized; and if that can't be done, the Exporter forfeits the Value.

'IV. And whereas by an Act made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An 'Act for allowing a Bounty on the Exportation of Britiſh made Cordage; and for diſcontinuing the Drawback 'upon Foreign Rough Hemp exported; it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the Drawback, which 'by any Act or Acts of Parliament is allowed and made payable upon the Exportation of Foreign Rough 'Hemp from this Kingdom, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable: And whereas the 'allowing the ſaid Drawback, under certain Reſtrictions, may encourage the Importation of Foreign Rough 'Hemp into this Kingdom, for the better Supply of his Majeſty's Royal Navy therewith:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, the ſaid Clauſe in the before recited Act of the ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, diſcontinuing the ſaid Drawback upon the Exportation of Foreign Rough Hemp from this Kingdom, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be, repealed.

6 Geo. 3. c. 45.

The recited Clauſe repealed.

'V. And whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for preventing 'Frauds and Abuſes in relation to the ſending and receiving of Letters and Packets free from the Duty of 'Poſtage; the Clerks in the Offices of his Majeſty Principal Secretaries of State are deprived of the Privi- 'leges of ſending and receiving their Letters free from the Duty of Poſtage, which had been uninterruptedly 'enjoyed ever ſince the Eſtabliſhment of the Poſt Office; and that the Privilege of Franking News Papers, 'reſerved to them by the ſaid Act, is by the Regulations therein contained rendered of very little Advantage 'to them, and is likely ſoon to be entirely loſt, by reaſon of the great Expence they are put to for Poſt 'Letters, and from the Methods by which News Papers are now diſperſed into the Country: As a Recom- 'pence therefore for the Loſs of ſuch Privileges, and as a Compenſation for the Advantages heretofore 'ariſing therefrom;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be and is hereby charged upon the Revenues ariſing in the General Letter Office or Poſt Office, or Office of Poſt Maſter General, the Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds per Annum, which ſhall be payable thereout to his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, in equal Proportions, to be diſtributed by ſuch reſpective Secretaries of State among the Clerks in their Offices; which ſaid annual Sum ſhall be made in Quarterly 1500 l. per Annum to be paid out of the Revenues of the General Poſt-Office, to the Clerks in the Offices of the Principal Secretaries of State.

Quarterly Payments, to be computed from the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine; and that the Paymaſter or Receiver of the Revenues of the General Letter Office or Poſt Office, or Office of Poſt Maſter General for the Time being, ſhall, upon any Warrant or Warrants under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, counterſigned by any three or more of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or by the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, make ſuch Quarterly Payments to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by ſuch Secretaries of State for the Time being to receive their reſpective Proportions of the ſaid annual Sum; ſuch Perſon or Perſons producing and delivering to ſuch Paymaſter or Receiver a Receipt or Receipts under the Hands of ſuch Secretaries of State; and which Receipt or Receipts ſhall be a full Acquittance and Diſcharge to ſuch Paymaſter or Receiver for the Payment of the Sum or Sums mentioned therein.

'VI. And whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in relation to the ſending and receiving of Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Poſtage, it is provided, That nothing therein contained ſhould extend to charge with the Duty of Poſtage any printed Votes or Proceedings in Parliament, or printed News Papers, being ſent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides, which ſhould be ſigned on the Outſide thereof by the Hand of any Member of Parliament, in ſuch Manner as had been theretofore practiſed, or which ſhould be directed to any Member of Parliament, at any Place whereof he ſhould have given Notice in Writing to the Poſtmaſter General, or to his Deputy at Edinburgh or Dublin reſpectively; but that all ſuch Votes, Proceedings, and News Papers, ſo ſent and ſigned, or directed as aforeſaid, ſhould be received free of the Duty of Poſtage: And whereas Doubts have ariſen with reſpect to the Duration of the Time allowed by the ſaid Act for the Conveyance of ſuch Votes, Proceedings, and News Papers, free from the Duties of Poſtage;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it is the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Act, that ſuch Votes, Proceedings, and News Papers, ſo ſent and directed as aforeſaid, ſhould be conveyed free from the Duty of Poſtage during ſuch Times only as are allowed and limited in the preceding Part of the ſaid Act for the Conveyance, free of Poſtage, of Letters and Packets not exceeding the Weight of two Ounces, ſent from or to any Member of either of the two Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain or Ireland reſpectively, in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid Act is particularly expreſſed; that is to ſay, during the Sitting of any Seſſion of Parliament, or within forty Days before or forty Days after any Summons or Prorogation thereof.

The Time limited to the Seſſion of Parliament, or within forty Days before or 40 Days after.

'VII. And whereas by a Clauſe in an Act of the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to alter certain Rates of Poſtage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge, ſeveral Proviſions in an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen ANNE, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Poſt Office, the Clerks of the Parliaments and the Clerk of the Houſe of Commons are impowered to ſend and receive Letters free of Poſtage: And whereas the Privilege of ſending and receiving Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Poſtage is not by the ſaid Act extended to the Clerk Aſſiſtant, and the Reading Clerk of the Houſe of Peers, and the Clerk Aſſiſtant of the Houſe of Commons of Great Britain, and the Chief Clerk without Doors (who receives the Fees and pays them to the Officers of the ſaid Houſe reſpectively for the Time being; who by virtue of their reſpective Offices and Employments neceſſarily ſend and receive many Letters relating to the Publick Concerns of theſe Kingdoms;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Clerk Aſſiſtant and the ſaid Reading Clerk of the Houſe of Peers; and alſo the ſaid Clerk Aſſiſtant and the ſaid Chief Clerk without Doors of the Houſe of Commons of Great Britain for the Time being, ſhall and may reſpectively ſend and receive Letters free from the Duty of Poſtage, in the ſame Manner and under ſuch Reſtrictions as any Member of either of the two Houſes of Parliament of Great Britain now ſend and receive the ſame, in purſuance of an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in relation to the ſending and receiving of Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Poſtage.'

5 Geo. 3. c. 25. reſpecting the Poſt Office.

The Clerk Aſſiſtant and Reading Clerk of the Houſe of Peers; and the Clerk Aſſiſtant and Chief Clerk without Doors of the Houſe of Commons; may ſend and receive Letters Duty free.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Overſeer of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, or other Perſon authoriſed or intruſted by them, or any of them, to make Payments to or for the Uſe of the Poor within ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place reſpectively, ſhall wilfully and knowingly, at any Time from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June next, make any ſuch Payments in any baſe or counterfeit Money, or in any other than lawful Money of Great Britain; that then, upon Complaint thereof made to any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, wherein ſuch Payment ſhall be ſo made as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Juſtice, and he is hereby required, to ſummon the Churchwarden, Overſeer, or other Perſon charged with ſuch Offence, and in a ſummary Way, upon his or their Nonappearance or Confeſſion, or upon Proof of ſuch Offence upon Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby authoriſed to adminiſter) to adjudge the Party ſo offending to forfeit and pay for each Offence a Sum not leſs than ten Shillings, nor more than twenty Shillings; and to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender; rendering the Overplus, if any, to the Owner, after the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale ſhall be deducted; which Sum ſhall be applied for the Uſe of any Poor Perſon or Perſons of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place reſpectively, in ſuch Manner as the Juſtice of Peace, who ſhall adjudge ſuch Forfeiture, ſhall direct or appoint.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for further encouraging the Growth and Culture of Raw Silk in his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America.

'WHEREAS the giving further Encouragement to the Growth and Culture of Raw Silk in his 'Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America, will be a great Advantage to the Trade of the 'ſaid Colonies, and tend to the further Improvement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy,

Premiums allowed on the Importation into the Port of London, of Raw Silk of the Growth of the Britiſh Colonies in America.

all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall import, or cauſe to be imported into the Port of London, directly from the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in any Ship or Veſſel, Ships or Veſſels, that may lawfully trade to his Majeſty's Plantations, manned as by Law is required, any Raw Silk of the Growth or Product of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, ſhall have and enjoy, as a Reward or Premium for ſuch Importation, the following Sums (that is to ſay) for every hundred Pounds Value of ſuch Raw Silk, to be aſcertained as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of twenty-five Pounds, and ſo in Proportion for any Quantity of greater or leſſer Value, from the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, to the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven; for every hundred Pounds Value of ſuch Raw Silk, the Sum of twenty Pounds, and ſo in Proportion for any Quantity of greater or leſſer Value, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, to the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four; and for every hundred Pounds Value of ſuch Raw Silk, the Sum of fifteen Pounds, and ſo in Proportion for any Quantity of greater or leſſer Value, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, to the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one; under ſuch Regulations as are herein after mentioned: To be paid upon Demand to the Importer of ſuch Raw Silk by the Receiver General of the Cuſtoms, the Collector or other proper Officer of the Port of London, out of the Cuſtoms.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in order to intitle the Importer and Importers of Raw Silk to the Premium granted by this Act, every Merchant or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever who ſhall, after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, load any Raw Silk on board any Ship or Veſſel in any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, ſhall, before the clearing out of the Ship or Veſſel from thence, make Proof on Oath before the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms and Naval Officer at the Port or Place where ſuch Raw Silk ſhall be put on board, or any two of them, that the Raw Silk which he, ſhe, or they, hath or have ſhipped on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel (expreſſing the Quantity thereof), is bona fide of the Growth and Culture of ſome or one of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and ſpecifying the Colony or Colonies, Plantation or Plantations reſpectively, of which it is the Growth; which Oath the ſaid Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms and Naval Officer, or any two of them, are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter without Fee or Reward; and the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon, taking Charge of the Ship or Veſſel, on board which ſuch Raw Silk ſhall be loaded, ſhall alſo bring with him a Certificate or Certificates from ſuch Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms and Naval Officer, or any two of them as aforeſaid under their Hands and Seals of Office (which Certificate or Certificates ſuch Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms and Naval Officer, are hereby required and directed to grant without Fee or Reward) expreſſing the Marks, Number, Tale, and Weight, of the Raw Silk in each Bale, Parcel, or other Package whatſoever, ſo ſhipped or loaded on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel; with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of the Exporter or Exporters thereof from the ſaid Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of ſuch other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have ſworn the Goods therein mentioned to have been of the Growth and Culture of the ſaid Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame are conſigned in the Port of London; which Certificate or Certificates the ſaid Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon, taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall, on his Arrival in the ſaid Port of London, deliver to the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port at or before the Entry of the ſaid Raw Silk; and at the ſame Time ſhall make Oath before any one of them the ſaid Collector, Comptroller, or Chief Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms (who are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter the ſame without Fee or Reward), that the ſaid Bales and Parcels, and Goods contained in ſuch Certificate, are the ſame Bales and Parcels, and Goods, as were taken on board in the ſaid Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America.

200l. Penalty on entering Foreign Raw Silk, under the Denomination of that on the Britiſh American Growth, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, make, or cauſe to be made, an Entry or Entries of any Foreign Raw Silk under the Name or Deſcription of Raw Silk of the Growth or Culture of any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America; or ſhall mix, or cauſe to be mixed, any Foreign Raw Silk with Raw Silk of the Growth or Culture of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, with Intent to receive any Premium or Bounty by this Act granted; every Perſon or Perſons ſo making, or cauſing to be made, ſuch Entry or Entries, or mixing, or cauſing ſuch Mixture or Mixtures to be made, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds for every ſuch Offence, and all ſuch Foreign Raw Silk; and, in caſe of any Mixture, the Quantity ſo mixed both of Foreign and Britiſh Plantation Culture or Growth, or the Value thereof, together with the Bales or other Packages containing the ſame, ſhall be forfeited; and ſhall and may be ſeiſed and proſecuted, or the Value thereof be ſued for, by any Officer or Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, as herein after mentioned.

Bales to be opened.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on the Importation of any Raw Silk into the Port of London from his Majeſty's Plantations in America, under the Regulations aforementioned, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or their Officers, and they are hereby required to examine the ſaid Raw Silk, by opening each Bale or Package, and ſhifting the ſame in ſuch Manner as to ſee the whole Contents; and to fix and aſcertain, according to the beſt of their Judgment and Diſcretion, the true and real Value thereof, according to the Price Raw Silk then bears at Market.

Certificate of the Valuation to be ſigned, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the ſaid Valuation ſhall have been ſo made by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, or their Officers (which they are hereby required to do within within the Space of ten Days after the landing of ſuch Raw Silk) a Certificate of ſuch Valuation ſhall be ſigned by the proper Officer; upon producing which Certificate to the Receiver General of the Cuſtoms, Collector, or other proper Officer of the Port of London, ſuch Officer ſhall be and is hereby required forthwith to pay the Premium, by this Act directed, to the Importer or Owner of ſuch Raw Silk.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Diſpute or Difference ſhall ariſe between the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, or their Officers, and the Importer or Owner of ſuch Raw Silk, touching the Valuation thereof, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby required to call two or more Perſons well ſkilled in that Commodity, who ſhall declare upon Oath, if thereunto required, their Opinion as to the real and true Value of ſuch Raw Silk, according to the Price it would then bear at Market; which Valuation or Award of the ſaid two Perſons ſhall be final; and the Perſon intitled to ſuch Premium or Bounty, ſhall receive the ſame according to ſuch Valuation, to be certified as aforeſaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Raw Silk of the Growth or Product of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America ſhall be exported from Great Britain, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſons exporting the ſame ſhall, before the Entry thereof, pay unto the Collector of the Cuſtoms of the Port where the ſame ſhall be exported, or to the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms there, the full Sum which is allowed as a Premium by this Act on all ſuch Raw Silk as he intends to export, over and above any Duty the ſame is now by Law ſubject to pay at Exportation by any former Act of Parliament. Premium is to be repaid on Exportation, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon, his, her, or their Agent or Agents, Aſſignee or Aſſignees, ſhall be found fraudulently to export or load on board any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported, ſuch Raw Silk, without paying ſuch Premium to the Chief Officer or Collector of the Cuſtoms as aforeſaid; ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall forfeit and loſe all ſuch Raw Silk, and Double the Value thereof.

IX. Provided always, That if any Doubt or Diſpute ſhall ariſe whether the Raw Silk, or any Part thereof, ſo to be exported, is of the Growth or Produce of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or of Foreign Growth or Produce, the Onus probandi ſhall lie on the Owner thereof, or the Perſon claiming the Bounty, and not on the Informer or Proſecutor; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Collector or Comptroller of the Cuſtoms, or Naval Officer, ſhall make any falſe Certificate; or if any Merchant, Trader, Factor, or other Perſon, ſhall make any falſe Oath with regard to the Growth of ſuch Raw Silk; or if any Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel ſhall make any falſe Oath concerning the Certificate or Package of ſuch Raw Silk; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall counterfeit any ſuch Certificate as is herein before directed to be made, in order to obtain any Premium hereby granted; all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, ſo offending in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And if any ſuch Perſon, ſo offending, ſhall be a Collector, Comptroller, or Naval Officer, or any other Officer of the Cuſtoms, he ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe his Office, and be incapable of ſerving his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors. 200l. Penalty on making a falſe Certificate, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act inflicted, ſhall and may be proſecuted, determined, and recovered, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in any of the Courts of Admiralty in his Majeſty's Plantations in America reſpectively, where ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall be incurred; wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed. Recovery of the Penalties and Forfeitures, XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed ſhall, if incurred in Great Britain, be applied, one Moiety to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame; and all ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures as ſhall be incurred in his Majeſty's Plantations in America ſhall be applied, one Third Part thereof to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, one Third Part to the Uſe of the Governor of the Plantation where the Forfeiture ſhall be incurred, and the remaining Third Part to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame. and Application thereof.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, every ſuch Action or Suit, if in Great Britain, ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed; and if in the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, within eighteen Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff; the Defendant or Defendants ſhall and may recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law. Limitation of Actions. General Iſſue. Treble Coſts. See farther Index, Tit. Silk.

CAP.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to permit the free Importation of certain Raw Hides and Skins from Ireland and the Britiſh Plantations in America, for a limited Time; and for taking off the Duties upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed in this Kingdom, and for granting another Duty in lieu thereof; for indemnifying all Perſons with reſpect to adviſing or executing any of his Majeſty's Orders of Council prohibiting the Importation of Raw Hides, Horns, and Hoofs, of infected Cattle; and to authoriſe the Prohibition of the Importation of ſuch Hides, Horns, and Hoofs, for the future.

'WHEREAS the allowing, for a limited Time, the free Importation of certain Species of Raw Hides and Skins from Ireland and the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and the Reduction of the Duties upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed in this Kingdom, may tend to the Eaſe of the Public, by reducing the Price, and encouraging the Manufacture of Leather in this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, no Subſidy, Cuſtom, Duty, or other Impoſition whatſoever ſhall be demanded, collected, received, or taken, for or upon any raw or undreſſed Hides of Steers, Cows, or any other Cattle of what Kind ſoever (except of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings); nor for or upon any Calves Skins or Goat Skins, raw or undreſſed, which ſhall be imported into this Kingdom from Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, for the Space of five Years from the ſaid firſt Day of June, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That due Entry ſhall be made of all ſuch Hides and Skins, at the Cuſtom-houſe belonging to the Port into which the ſame ſhall be imported, in ſuch Manner and Form as were uſed and practiſed before the making of this Act; and ſuch Hides and Skins ſhall be landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe; and if any Perſon or Perſons, upon the Importation of ſuch Hides or Skins, ſhall not obſerve and perform the ſaid Rules and Regulations herein before mentioned, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be liable to and pay ſuch and the ſame Duties as ſuch Hides and Skins would have been ſubject and liable to if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The former Duties upon Seal Skins repealed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, the Rates and Duties payable by virtue of any former Act or Acts of Parliament upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed within this Kingdom, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, in lieu of the ſaid Duties by this Act repealed, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be raiſed, collected, levied, and paid, unto and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, for and upon all Seal Skins which ſhall be tanned or tawed within this Kingdom, a Rate or Duty of one Penny Halfpenny per Pound Weight, Averdupois, of ſuch Seal Skins; and after that Rate for a greater or leſs Quantity.

V. And, for the better aſcertaining, charging, collecting, raiſing, levying, and ſecuring, the ſaid Rate or Duty by this Act impoſed, and preventing Frauds therein, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Rate or Duty by this Act made payable upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be under the Receipt and Management of the Commiſſioners and Officers of his Majeſty's Revenues of Exciſe in England for the Time being; and the Rate or Duty by this Act made payable upon Seal Skins tanned or tawed in Scotland, ſhall be under the Receipt and Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland for the Time being.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Rate and Duty by this Act impoſed or chargeable for and upon Seal Skins aforeſaid, ſhall and may from Time to Time be aſcertained, raiſed, received, levied, recovered, and ſecured, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, and by the ſame or different Stamps and Marks, and under ſuch Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Powers of adjudging the ſaid Duty, and adjudging and mitigating the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures, or any of them, and other Powers, and to ſuch Rules and Directions, and in ſuch Methods, Manner, and Form, as the reſpective Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, Made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, granted by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, 'An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dreſſed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for proſecuting the War, and other her Majeſty's moſt neceſſary Occaſions,' are by that Act, or any Law or Statute thereby referred unto, or by any Law or Statute relating to the Duties of Exciſe upon Hides and Skins, preſcribed, appointed, or enacted, to be aſcertained, raiſed, received, levied, ſecured, or recovered; and that the Act laſt mentioned, and all the Clauſes, Pains of Death, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters, and Things, therein contained, or thereby referred unto, or contained in any other Law or Statute relating to the Duties upon Hides and Skins, for the raiſing, receiving, levying, recovering, ſecuring, paying, or accounting for, the Duties thereby granted or therein mentioned, or any

Arrearages of the ſame, or any way relating to the ſame Duties, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, by ſuch Act or Acts chargeable, be applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for raiſing, receiving, levying, recovering, ſecuring, paying, and accounting for, the Duty upon Seal Skins by this Act granted, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if they were particularly and at large repeated in the Body of this preſent Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Monies ariſing by and in reſpect of the Rate and Duty hereby granted and impoſed (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted) ſhall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, ſeparate and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenue; and are hereby appropriated, and ſhall be iſſued and applied to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Regulations, as the Monies ariſing by the Rates and Duties hereby repealed are, by any Law or Laws now in being, appropriated unto, and directed to be iſſued and applied.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Drawback of one Penny per Pound Weight Averdupois ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June, be allowed upon the Exportation of Seal Skins tanned or tawed in this Kingdom, in lieu of any other Drawback; and the ſaid Skins ſhall be exported, and the ſaid Drawback allowed and paid, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and under the ſame Regulations and Reſtrictions, as any other Hides and Skins are exported, and the Drawback thereupon is allowed and paid. Drawback.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, from Time to Time, as often as he or they ſhall find it neceſſary ſo to do, by his or their Royal Proclamation, to be iſſued by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, or by his or their Order in Council, to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, to prohibit generally, or from any particular Country or Countries, the Importation of any Hides or Skins, Horns, or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beaſt, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, for ſuch Time or Times to be therein mentioned, and under ſuch Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, by the Advice aforeſaid, ſhall judge moſt expedient and effectual to prevent any contagious Diſtemper from being brought into theſe Kingdoms; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding. His Majeſty impowered to prohibit the Importation of foreign Hides or Skins.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action ſhall at any Time be brought againſt any Perſon for any Matter or Thing which he or ſhe ſhall do, or cauſe to be done, by virtue or in Execution of this Act, in every ſuch Caſe the Defendant or Defendants in every ſuch Action may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence on any Trial or Trials to be hereafter had in ſuch Action; and that if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Action ſhall diſcontinue ſuch Action, or become Nonſuit, or if Judgment ſhall be given againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action, the Defendant or Defendants in every ſuch Action ſhall recover his, her, or their Treble Coſts of Suit. General Iſſue. Treble Coſts.

CAP. XL.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, for one Year, beginning the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for better ſecuring the Duties of Cuſtoms upon certain Goods removed from the Out Ports and other Places to London; for regulating the Fees of the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the Province of Senegambia in Africa; for allowing to the Receivers-general of the Duties on Offices and Employments in Scotland, a proper Compenſation for their Trouble and Expences; for the better Preſervation of Hollies, Thorns, and Quickſets, in Foreſts, Chaſes, and private Grounds, and of Trees and Underwoods in Foreſts, and Chaſes; and for authorizing the Exportation of a limited Quantity of an inferior Sort of Barley, called Bigg, from the Port of Kirkwall in the Iſlands of Orkney.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuſes in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, in order to prevent the clandeſtine Importation and Running of Foreign Goods, it is provided and enacted, that no Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, ſhall be removed in any Ship or Veſſel by Sea from any one Port, Creek, or Member in this Kingdom, to be landed at any other Place of this Realm, without a Sufferance or Warrant and other Coaſt Diſpatch firſt had and obtained from the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; which Regulations have been found uſeful and neceſſary Checks againſt Frauds in his Majeſty's Revenues: And whereas, to defeat the good Purpoſes intended by thoſe Acts of Parliament, great Quantities of Foreign Goods, which are liable to high Duties upon the Importation, are clandeſtinely run on Shore at ſeveral of the Out Ports of this Kingdom, and are afterwards removed from thence by Land Carriage into London, and other Parts adjacent thereto, to the great Prejudice of the Publick Revenue and 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11.

'the fair Trader:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, no Foreign Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair Hats or Bonnets exceeding in Number one Dozen; no Foreign Platting or other Foreign Manufacture of Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, proper for making of Hats or Bonnets, exceeding in Quantity one Pound Weight Avoirdupois; no Succus Liquoritiæ, commonly called Spaniſh Juice, of Foreign Produce or Manufacture, exceeding in Quantity twenty Pounds Weight; no Foreign Snuff, exceeding in Quantity ten Pounds Weight; no Nanquin Cloth, Muſlin, Foreign Callico, or Foreign Dimity, exceeding in Quantity one entire Piece; and no China Earthen Ware, exceeding in Number twelve Pieces, if the ſame ſhall have been imported or ſeized at any Out Port in Great Britain, ſhall be brought, removed, or carried, either by Land or by Water, from any Out Port or other Place whatſoever in Great Britain, into the Port of London, or the Members thereof, or to any Place whatſoever within the Diſtance of twenty Miles from the Royal Exchange of London, without a Certificate from the Collector or other proper Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, at the Port or Place where ſuch Goods were imported or ſeized, certifying that the Duties payable upon the Importation of ſuch Goods have been duly paid and ſatisfied, or that the ſaid Goods have been before compounded for or condemned; which Facts ſhall be verified by the Oath of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, referring to the Times when, and the Place where, ſuch Goods were entered, condemned, or compounded for; and if ſuch Goods ſhall have been imported or ſeized within the Port of London, and ſent from thence to any Out Port for Sale, they ſhall not be removed as aforeſaid from any Out Port into the Port of London, or the Members thereof, or to any Place whatſoever within the Diſtance of twenty Miles from the Royal Exchange of London, without a Certificate from the Collector or other proper Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, at or neareſt to the Port or Place from whence ſuch Goods are intended to be removed, certifying that the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Goods hath made Oath before him that the ſaid Goods, and every Part thereof had been ſent to ſuch Owner or Proprietor from London, for Sale, in the lawful Way of Trade, referring to the Time when, with the Name and Reſidence of the Perſon from whom, ſuch Goods were ſent; and that ſuch Owner or Proprietor verily believed the Duties payable upon the Importation of ſuch Goods had been duly paid and ſatisfied, or that the ſaid Goods had been before compounded for or condemned; and the ſaid reſpective Certificates ſhall expreſs the Quantity and Quality of the ſaid Goods, with the Marks of the Package thereof, to what Places and to whom the ſame are conſigned, and by what Carriage the ſame are intended to be removed; and if the ſaid Goods are removed by Land, the ſaid Certificate ſhall alſo expreſs and limit the Time for which the ſame ſhall continue in Force.

No Foreign Baſt, or Straw Hats, &c. may be removed from the Out Ports to London, &c.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Oaths and Certificates herein before required ſhall be adminiſtered and granted by the Collector or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms in the Manner before directed, without Fee or Reward: And if any ſuch Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair Hats or Bonnets, Platting or other Manufacture of Baſt, Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, Succus Liquoritiæ, Snuff, Nanquin Cloth, Muſlin, Callico, Dimity, or China Earthen Ware, ſhall be removed as aforeſaid, or ſhall be found removing, from any ſuch Out Port or Place, in order or with an Intent to be carried into the Port of London, or any Member thereof, or to any Place whatſoever within the Diſtance of twenty Miles from the Royal Exchange of London, without ſuch Certificate; or if the ſame ſhall not agree in all Reſpects therewith; the Goods, together with the Package thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized and proſecuted by any Officer or Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and after Condemnation diſpoſed of and divided in ſuch Manner as the like Goods may, for any other Cauſe of Forfeiture, be ſeized, proſecuted, diſpoſed of, and divided, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing herein before contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair Hats or Bonnets, Platting or other Manufacture of Baſt, Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, Succus Liquoritiæ, Snuff, Nanquin Cloth, Muſlin, Callico, Dimity, or China Earthen Ware, which ſhall have been, bona fide, bought in a publick and fair Way of Trade in the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or Liberties thereof; and which ſhall be removed or removing, by any Perſon or Perſons, for his, her, or their own neceſſary Uſe or Wear, and ſhall not be intended to be ſold or expoſed to Sale.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair Hats or Bonnets, Platting or other Manufacture of Baſt, Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, Succus Liquoritiæ, Snuff, Nanquin Cloth, Muſlin, Callico, Dimity, or China Earthen Ware, ſhall be ſeized or ſtopped, for being removed or for being found removing as aforeſaid without ſuch Certificate; and any Doubt or Diſpute ſhall ariſe whether ſuch Goods have or have not been removed, or are or are not removing, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Proof thereof ſhall lie on the Owner or Claimer of ſuch Goods, and not upon the Officer who ſhall ſeize or ſtop ſuch Goods.

Proof to lie on the Claimant.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall falſely make Oath to any of the Facts herein before required to be ſworn, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſuffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Perſons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall counterfeit, raſe, or falſify any Certificate required or directed by this Act, or ſhall knowingly or willingly make uſe of any Certificate, ſo counterfeited, raſed, altered, or falſified, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform and and ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

VI. And, in order to prevent any Diſputes which may hereafter ariſe concerning ſuch Fees as the Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and other Officers of the Cuſtoms in the Province of Senegambia in Africa, may be intitled to, for making Entries or other Buſineſs done by them in the Execution of their Employments, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That until ſuch Time as the ſame ſhall be otherwiſe ſettled by Authority of Parliament, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector and other Officers to demand and receive, take and enjoy, ſuch Fees as have been received by the like Officers in the Iſland of Barbadoes on or before the Firſt Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; provided that the Fees ſo taken are not contrary to the expreſs Direction of any Act of Parliament made in Great Britain; and that the ſaid Officers in Senegambia ſhall, upon the Refuſal of Payment of ſuch Fees, have and be intitled to the ſame Remedy for the Recovery thereof, as has been heretofore allowed to any Collector or other Officer of the Cuſtoms in any of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations; any Law, Bye-law, or other Act of Council or Aſſembly, made in the ſaid Province of Senegambia to the contrary notwithſtanding; and, in all Caſes whatſoever, every Governor or Commanding Officer in the ſaid Province is hereby directed to be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Officers in the due Execution of their Offices: And if any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms of Senegambia ſhall exact, require, or receive any other or greater Fees than ſuch as are herein allowed to be taken, he ſhall, for the firſt Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; one Moiety of which Penalty ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved thereby, who ſhall ſue for the ſame in the proper Court of Senegambia; and for the ſecond Offence he ſhall forfeit his Place, and be for ever after incapable of executing any Office or Employment in the Cuſtoms.

Collector and other Officers of Senegambia authoriſed to take the ſame Fees as the like Officers in Barbadoes.

'VII. And whereas by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund; for applying certain 'Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-five; for further 'appropriating the Supplies granted in this Seſſion of Parliament; for allowing to the Receivers-general of the 'Duties on Offices and Employments in Scotland a Reward for their Trouble; and for allowing further Time 'to ſuch Perſons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to At-'tornies and Solicitors; it was recited, that by an Act made in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late 'Majeſty King George the Second, certain Duties were laid upon Offices and Employments, and the 'Monies thereby ariſing, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, were directed to be paid at Edin-'burgh to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer of Great 'Britain for the Time being, ſhould conſtitute and appoint to be Receiver-general or Receivers thereof, 'for his Majeſty's Uſe; but no Proviſion had been made, or Authority given, for allowing any Com-'penſation, or granting any Reward, to ſuch Receiver or Receivers, for his or their Trouble in the re-'ceiving the ſaid Monies, and in the paying and accounting for the ſame: And it was therefore enacted, 'That it ſhould and might be lawful to and for ſuch Receiver or Receivers to retain, out of the Monies 'which had been and ſhould be paid into his or their Hands in purſuance of the ſaid Act, ſuch Sum, as 'a Compenſation or Reward for his or their Trouble, as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors ſhould 'appoint, not exceeding three Pence in the Pound: And whereas the ſaid Allowance of three pence 'in the Pound is little more than ſufficient to defray the Expence of an Agent in London, to receive 'and negotiate the Bills by which the Monies ariſing from the aforeſaid Duty are remitted from Edin-'burgh, and to pay the ſame into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and alſo to defray ſuch other 'ſmall contingent Expences as muſt neceſſarily attend the raiſing and collecting thereof; whereby the 'Intention of the before recited Act is fruſtrated, and the ſaid Receiver or Receivers hath or have a very 'inadequate Proviſion or Reward for his or their own Service in raiſing and collecting the ſaid Duties:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Receiver or Receivers of the ſaid Duty to retain, out of the Monies that have been and ſhall be paid into his or their Hands in purſuance of the before-mentioned Act of the thirty-firſt Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, over and above the Allowance of three Pence in the Pound granted by the before recited Act of the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, ſuch farther Sum as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by his or their Warrant or Warrants, counterſigned by the High Treaſurer, or any three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, ſhall appoint, not exceeding one hundred Pounds per Annum, as a Compenſation or Reward for his or their Trouble.

5 Geo. 3. c. 40.

Additional Allowance of 100l. per Ann. made to the Receivers-general of the Duties on Officers and Employments in Scotland.

'VIII. And whereas by an Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for the better Preſervation of Roots, Shrubs, and Plants, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That 'all and every Perſon and Perſons who, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand 'ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſix, ſhould go into the Woods, Underwoods, or Wood Grounds, of any 'of His Majeſty's Subjects, not being the lawful Owner or Owners thereof, and ſhould there cut, lop, 'top, or ſpoil, ſplit down or damage, or otherwiſe deſtroy any Kind of Wood or Underwood, Poles, 'Sticks of Wood, Green Stubs, or Young Trees, or carry or convey away the ſame; or ſhould 'have in his, her, or their Cuſtody, any Kind of Wood, Underwood, Poles, Sticks of Wood, Green 'Stubs, or young Trees, and ſhould not give a ſatisfactory Account how he, ſhe, or they came by the 'ſame, and ſhould be thereof convicted before any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, 'on the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſhould, for the firſt Offence, forfeit and 'pay immediately on Conviction, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings, together with the 'Charges previous to, and attending ſuch Conviction, to be aſcertained by the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices who 'ſhould convict the Offender or Offenders; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhould commit any of the Of'fences aforeſaid a ſecond Time, and ſhould be thereof again convicted in Manner aforeſaid, he, ſhe, 'or they ſhould forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, together with the 'Charges previous to, and attending ſuch Conviction, to be aſcertained as aforeſaid; and if any Perſon or 'Perſons ſhould commit any of the Offences aforeſaid a third Time, that then, ſuch Perſon and Per-'ſons, being duly convicted thereof according to Law, ſhould be deemed and adjudged an incorrigible 'Rogue or Rogues, and ſhould be puniſhed as ſuch: And whereas great Deſtruction hath of late been 'made of Hollies, Thorns, and Quickſets, growing upon his Majeſty's Foreſts and Chaces within this 'Kingdom, to the great Prejudice of his Majeſty's Deer, and other Game therein; and alſo of Hollies, 'Thorns, and Quickſets, growing in the Woods and Wood Grounds of his Majeſty's Subjects, For 'the better preventing ſuch evil Practices and Abuſes for the future,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and all and every the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Puniſhments thereby inflicted, and all other Proviſions, Clauſes, Matters, and Things relating thereto, ſhall extend, and be deemed, taken, and conſtrued to extend, and ſhall be applied and put in Execution, in relation to all his Majeſty's Foreſts and Chaces within this Realm; and to all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall, without legal Right or Authority, by Night or Day, cut down, deſtroy, take, carry, or convey away any Hollies, Thorns, or Quickſets growing or being upon any of his Majeſty's ſaid Foreſts or Chaces, or within the Woods or Wood Grounds of any of his Majeſty's Subjects; or who ſhall have in his, her, or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any ſuch Hollies, Thorns, or Quickſets, and ſhall not give a ſatisfactory Account how he, ſhe, or they came by the ſame, and ſhall be thereof convicted before any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace in the Manner preſcribed and directed by the ſaid Act; and ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices is or are hereby authoriſed to adminiſter Oaths, and proceed in the like Manner for the Conviction and Puniſhment of every Offender in the Premiſes, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes as if the ſeveral Proviſions in the ſaid Act had been herein particularly repeated and applied to the Offences herein before ſpecified.

The recited Clauſe, &c. extended.

Conviction to be certified to the Seſſions.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Conviction and Convictions of all and every Offender and Offenders againſt this Act, ſhall be certified by the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, before whom the ſame ſhall be made, to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be filed amongſt the Records of the ſaid Seſſions; and that ſuch Conviction ſhall be fairly written on Parchment or Paper in the following Form of Words (as the Caſe ſhall happen), or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect; that is to ſay,

CAP. XLII.

An Act for explaining, amending, and continuing an Act made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being, relating to the Raiſing and Training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England.

'WHEREAS a well regulated Militia is of the utmoſt Importance to the internal Defence of this 'Country: And whereas the Laws now in Force for the training and regulating the Militia, which 'are by Experience found to be uſeful and beneficial, are near expiring:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act paſſed in the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and 'reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the Raiſing and Train-'ing the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England,' or ſo much of the ſaid Act as is now in Force, and not herein or hereby repealed; and alſo an Act paſſed in the fourth Year of the ſaid Reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain and amend an Act paſſed in the ſecond Year of the Reign of 'his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſe-'veral Laws now in being, relating to the Raiſing and Training the Militia within that Part of Great 'Britain called England,' or ſo much of the ſaid Act as is now in Force, and not herein or hereby repealed; and perpetual.

'II. And whereas the Qualifications of Deputy Lieutenants and Officers ſerving in the Militia, directed 'and required in and by the Act of the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign hath been found
'inconvenient and detrimental to the Service, by rendering it difficult to obtain a ſufficient Number of 'Deputy Lieutenants to act in the Execution of the Laws relating to the Militia, and of Subaltern Of'ficers to the ſeveral Corps of Militia now raiſed: And whereas it would be of great Advantage to that 'Service, if the Qualifications required by the ſaid Act for Deputy Lieutenants and Subaltern Officers 'were leſſened, and the Qualifications required for the Superior Officers were increaſed, ſo as thereby
'to give to the Publick, on the Whole, a greater Security;' be it therefore enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid Act of the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, as requires and directs the Qualification of Deputy Lieutenants and Officers ſerving in the Militia, and the Regiſter of ſuch Qualifications, and the ſeveral Matters and Things relating thereto, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed. Repeal of ſo much of 2 Geo. 3. as reſpects the Qualification of Lieutenants and Officers, and the Regiſter of their Qualifications.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, each Perſon ſo to be appointed a Deputy Lieutenant, ſhall be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed, either in Law or Equity, for his own Uſe and Benefit, in Poſſeſſion of a Freehold, Copyhold, or Cuſtomary Eſtate, for Life, or for ſome greater Eſtate, or of an Eſtate for ſome long Term of Years, determinable on one or more Life or Lives, in Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, of the yearly Value of two hundred Pounds; or ſhall be Heir Apparent of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, in like Manner ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of four hundred Pounds: And each Perſon ſo to be appointed a Colonel, ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſ- Qualification, upon the preſent Eſtabliſhment, of a Deputy Lieutenant, ſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of one thouſand Pounds; or ſhall be Heir Appa- Colonel, rent of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of two thouſand Pounds: And each Perſon ſo to be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel, ſhall Lieutenant Colonel, be, in like Manner, ſeiſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of ſix hundred Pounds; or ſhall be Heir Apparent of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of one thouſand two hundred Pounds: And each Perſon ſo to be ap- Major, or Captain, pointed a Major, or a Captain, ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of two hundred Pounds; or ſhall be Heir Apparent of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of four hundred Pounds; or ſhall be a younger Son of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, or, at the Time of his Death, was, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of ſix hundred Pounds:
And that each Perſon ſo to be appointed Lieutenant, ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a Lieutenant, like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of fifty Pounds; or ſhall be poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone to the Amount of one thouſand Pounds, or ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together to the Amount or Value of two thouſand Pounds; or ſhall be Son of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, or, at the Time of his Death, was, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of one hundred Pounds; or who ſhall be, or who, at the Time of his Death, was poſ-ſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone to the Amount of two thouſand Pounds, or ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together to the Amount or Value of three thouſand Pounds: And that each Perſon ſo to be appointed an Enſign, ſhall be, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, and Enſign, of the yearly Value of twenty Pounds; or ſhall be poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone to the Amount of five hundred Pounds, or ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together to the Amount or Value of one thouſand Pounds; or ſhall be Son of ſome Perſon who ſhall be, or, at the Time of his Death, was, in like Manner, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of fifty Pounds; or who ſhall be, or who, at the Time of his Death, was poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone to the Amount of one thouſand Pounds, or ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together to the Amount or Value of one thouſand five hundred Pounds; one Moiety of which ſaid Eſtates, required as Qualifications for each Deputy Lieutenant, Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major and Captain reſpectively, ſhall be ſituate or ariſing within ſuch reſpective County, Riding, or Diviſion, in which he ſhall be appointed to ſerve.

Qualifications equivalent to an Eſtate of 100 l. per Ann. and ſo in proportion.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, for the Purpoſes of the reſpective Qualifications required by this Act, the immediate Reverſion or Remainder of and in Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which are leaſed for one Life, or for two or three Lives, or for any Term of Years determinable upon the Death of one Life, or of two or three Lives, on reſerved Rents, and which are, to the Leſſee or Leſſees, of the clear yearly Value of three hundred Pounds, ſhall be deemed equal to an Eſtate herein before deſcribed as a Qualification of the yearly Value of one hundred Pounds, and ſo in Proportion, be the ſaid Qualification of a greater or leſs Degree.

Other equivalent Qualifications for Deputy Lieutenants and Officers.

V. And be it enacted, That a Perſon poſſeſſed, either in Law or Equity, for his own Uſe and Benefit, in Poſſeſſion of an Eſtate for a certain Term, originally granted for twenty Years or more, of an annual Value, over and above all Rents and Charges payable out of, or in reſpect of the ſame, equal to the Value of ſuch an Eſtate as is required for the Qualification of a Deputy Lieutenant and Commiſſion Officer of the Militia reſpectively, and ſituate as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and is hereby deemed and declared to be duly and ſufficiently qualified to act and ſerve under ſuch reſpective Commiſſion.

IX. And be it enacted, That in all Cities or Towns which are Counties within themſelves, and have heretofore been empowered, by Law or ancient Uſage, to raiſe and train a ſeparate Militia within their ſeveral Precincts and Liberties, and which are united with, and made Part of any County or Counties for the Purpoſes of raiſing the Militia only; his Majeſty's Lieutenant of ſuch Cities or Towns, or where there is no Lieutenant appointed by his Majeſty, the Chief Magiſtrate of ſuch City or Town ſhall appoint five or more Deputy Lieutenants (if ſo many Perſons qualified as is herein after expreſſed can therein be found) and ſhall alſo appoint Officers of the Militia, whoſe Number and Rank ſhall be proportionable to the Number of Militia Men which ſuch City or Town ſhall raiſe as their Quota, towards the Militia of the County to which ſuch City or Town is united for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; the Qualification of which Officers, reſpectively ſhall be as is herein after mentioned; and all Powers and Proviſions made by this Act, with reſpect to Counties at large, and the Militia thereof, and the regiſtering the Qualifications of Deputy Lieutenants, and Officers, ſhall take place and be in Force with reſpect to the ſaid Cities and Towns, and the Militia thereof, and the regiſtering the ſaid Qualifications: And the Value of the reſpective Qualification of the Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia of ſuch Cities or Towns ſhall be as follows: Every Deputy Lieutenant ſhall be ſeized or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of one hundred and fifty Pounds; or ſhall be poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone, or ſeized or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together to the Amount or Value of three thouſand Pounds: And every Field Officer ſhall reſpectively be ſeized or poſſeſſed of a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of three hundred Pounds; or ſhall be poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate alone, or ſeized or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together, to the Amount or Value of five thouſand Pounds: And the Qualification of a Captain ſhall be a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of one hundred and fifty Pounds, in Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Perſonal Eſtate alone, or ſeized or poſſeſſed of Real and Perſonal Eſtate together, to the Amount or Value of two thouſand five hundred Pounds: And the Qualification of a Lieutenant ſhall be a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of thirty Pounds, in Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Perſonal Eſtate alone, to the Amount or Value of ſeven hundred and fifty Pounds: And the Qualification of an Enſign ſhall be a like Eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly Value of twenty Pounds, in Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Perſonal Eſtate alone, to the Amount or Value of four hundred Pounds: One Half of all which Real Eſtates reſpectively (except thoſe for the Qualification of Lieutenants and Enſigns) ſhall be ſituate or ariſing within ſuch City or Town, or within the County at large to which ſuch City or Town is united for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

Adjutants, though appointed Lieutenants or Enſigns, excepted out of the general Qualification.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained in reſpect to the Qualification of Lieutenants and Enſigns of the Militia ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to ſuch Perſon as ſhall be appointed an Adjutant of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, and ſhall alſo be appointed a Lieutenant or Enſign in ſuch Regiment or Battalion; but that it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty's Lieutenant, in and for any County or Place, to give to ſuch Perſon appointed an Adjutant, a Commiſſion of a Lieutenant, or an Enſign, although ſuch Perſon hath not the Qualification for ſuch Commiſſion as is herein directed and required.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the ſeveral Qualifications herein above directed, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Perſon who is now actually ſerving as an Officer in the Militia of this Kingdom; but that every ſuch Perſon, being duly qualified, as in and by the former Laws relating to the Militia is directed and required, ſhall and may continue to ſerve in the Militia of this Kingdom, in ſuch Rank only in which he now ſerves, although not qualified as herein before is directed.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Qualifications above directed to enable any Perſon to be a Deputy Lieutenant, Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, or Lieutenant, ſhall not extend to ſuch Commiſſions as ſhall be granted by his Majeſty's Conſtable of the Tower, or Lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets.

act as such, until he shall have left with the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, or Place, in and for which he shall be so appointed, his Qualifications in Writing, signed by himself; and such Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to enter the same upon a Roll to be kept for that Purpose; and shall, in the Month of January in every Year, transmit to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a compleat Account of the Qualifications so left or to be left with him; and the said Secretaries of State, receiving such Accounts, shall cause Copies thereof to be annually laid before both Houses of Parliament: And every Deputy Lieutenant and Commission Officer, not having already taken and subscribed the Oaths, and made, repeated, and subscribed the Declaration as required by the former Acts relating to the Militia, shall, at some General Quarter-sessions, or in one of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, within six Months after he shall have accepted his Commission, take the Oaths in and by an Act

1 Geo. 1. c. 13. passed in the first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the First, intituled, 'An Act for the further 'Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the 'late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales,

6 Geo. 3. c. 5. 'and his open and secret Abettors;' and also the Oath in and by an Act passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for altering the Oath of Abjuration and the Assurance: 'and for amending so much of an Act of the seventh Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An 'Act for the Improvement, and the Union of the two Kingdoms, as, after the Time therein limited, requires 'the Delivery of certain Lists or Copies therein mentioned to Persons indicted of High Treason or Misprision of Treason,' appointed to be taken; and shall also make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration in the said Act of the First of King George the First, directed to be made, repeated, and subscribed, by all Officers Civil and Military.

2 Col. Penalty on acting, not being qualified, &c.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall execute any of the Powers hereby conferred on Deputy Lieutenants, Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, or Majors, not being qualified as aforesaid; or shall not deliver in such Qualification, and take the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration aforesaid, as is herein before required; every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And if any of the Persons shall execute any of the Powers hereby conferred on Captains, Lieutenants, or Ensigns (not being qualified as aforesaid), and shall not deliver in such Qualification, and take the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration aforesaid, as is herein before required, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; such several Penalties to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Wager of Law, or Protection, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; one Moiety whereof shall go to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same, and the other Moiety to the Uses herein after directed.

XV. And be it enacted, That in every Action, Suit, or Information, brought against any Person for acting as Deputy Lieutenant, Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, Lieutenant, or Ensign, not being qualified as herein before is directed, the Proof of his Qualification shall lie upon the Person against whom the same is brought.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to restrain his Majesty's Lieutenant of any County, Riding, Division, or Place, from appointing any Peer of this Realm, or Heir Apparent of any such Peer, to be a Deputy Lieutenant, or a Commission Officer in the Militia, within the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein such Peer, or Heir Apparent of such Peer, shall respectively have some Place of Residence; or to oblige any Peer of this Realm, or Heir Apparent of such Peer (so appointed a Deputy Lieutenant or Commission Officer respectively) to leave with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place, for which he shall be appointed, any Qualification in Writing as aforesaid; but it shall be lawful for every Peer of this Realm, or Heir Apparent of such Peer so appointed, and taking the Oaths, and making, repeating, and subscribing the Declaration aforesaid, to act as a Deputy Lieutenant or Commission Officer respectively, although he shall not be seized or possessed of any such Estate in Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as is required by this Act.

52 Geo. 3. c. 20. XVII. 'And whereas by an Act made in the Second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the several Laws now in being, relating 'to the Raising and Training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England, it is enacted, 'That in all Counties and Places where the Militia shall not have been raised in pursuance of the former Act 'relating thereto, and where it should not be raised in pursuance of the said Act, the Sum of five Pounds 'should be annually paid in lieu of every Private Man to be raised within the same; and that the Justices of the Peace, at the General Quarter-sessions, should rate and assess on such County or Place the 'said Sum of five Pounds per Man, and levy and collect the same in the same Manner, in all Respects, 'as the County Rates are, by an Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George 'the Second, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to be raised, assessed, collected, levied, paid, and 'accounted for; and that the said Rates and Sums so raised, collected, and levied, should be paid 'by the Treasurer of such County to the Receiver-general thereof, whose Receipt should be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment: And whereas by several other Acts relating to the Militia, passed 'in the fourth, fifth, and sixth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, divers Provisions are made, and 'Powers and Directions are given, for raising the said Sum of five Pounds per Man, within all such 'Counties and Places wherein the Militia had not been raised, or should not be raised, and for enforcing 'the Payment thereof: And whereas, notwithstanding the Directions contained in the said several Acts, 'several of the Counties within that Part of Great Britain called England, have neither raised any Militia, nor paid the said five Pounds per Man per Annum, according to the Directions of the said several

'Acts,

'Acts, whereby they avoid contributing to the Support of Government with ſuch Counties as have raiſed 'and trained the Militia in compliance with the Directions of the ſaid Act: And whereas it is juſt and 'reaſonable, that all his Majeſty's Subjects ſhould contribute equally to the Support of his Majeſty's 'Government, and the Defence of theſe Kingdoms:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of the ſaid ſeveral in Part recited Acts as relates to the raiſing of the ſaid Sum and Sums of five Pounds per Man, within all ſuch Counties and Places wherein the Militia hath not been raiſed, or ſhould not be raiſed, and to the enforcing the Payment thereof, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed.

Repeal of ſo much as relates to raiſing 5l. per Man, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or three Deputy Lieutenants, for every County or Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, where the Militia has been or ſhall be raiſed, ſhall yearly, and every Year, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of December, certify to the Clerk of the Peace of every County or Place reſpectively, that the Militia of ſuch County or Place hath been raiſed, and when and at what Time the ſame was firſt raiſed, the Names, Number, and Rank of Officers, and the Number of Private Men of the Militia in the Year when ſuch Certificate is made, and the reſpective Times of ſuch Militia been trained and exerciſed in the Year in which ſuch Certificate is made; which Certificate ſhall, by the Clerk of the Peace who ſhall receive the ſame, be delivered to the Juſtices of the Peace at their General Quarter-ſeſſions to be held next after the Twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, on the Day on which ſuch Seſſions ſhall be opened, and ſhall file the ſame amongſt the Records of ſuch Seſſions, ſo that the true State of the Militia in each County may appear.

Where Militia raiſed, a yearly Return thereof to be certified, &c.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every County and Place wherein no ſuch Certificate from his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or three Deputy Lieutenants, ſhall be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace as aforeſaid, That the Clerk of the Peace of every ſuch County or Place ſhall, and is hereby required, at the General Quarter-ſeſſions of the Peace to be held next after the twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, to certify, under his Hand and Seal, to the Juſtices of the Peace ſo aſſembled at their ſaid General Quarter-ſeſſions, on the Day ſuch Seſſion ſhall be opened, that he hath not received from his Majeſty's Lieutenant of the ſaid County or Place, or any three Deputy Lieutenants thereof, any ſuch Certificate as is herein before directed to be by them made; and ſuch Clerk of the Peace is hereby directed to file ſuch Certificate amongſt the Records of ſuch Seſſions.

XX. And be it enacted, That in all Counties and Places where the Militia ſhall not be raiſed, the Sum of five Pounds ſhall be annually paid, for and in lieu of every Private Militia Man directed to be raiſed within the ſame; and that in every County and Place where no ſuch Certificate ſhall be made by his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or three Deputy Lieutenants, in Manner herein before directed, and the ſame ſhall be certified by the Clerk of the Peace as aforeſaid, the Juſtices of the Peace of every ſuch County or Place ſhall, and they are hereby required, at their ſaid General Quarter-ſeſſions of the Peace to be held next after the twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, to rate and aſſeſs the Sum of five Pounds per Man upon ſuch County or Place, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and according to ſuch and the ſame Proportions upon every Town, Pariſh, and Place within each reſpective County and Place, and to be levied, collected, received, and paid, and to be accounted for in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Means, with ſuch Powers of Diſtreſs, and other Remedies for enforcing the Collection and Payment thereof, and for puniſhing all Perſons whoſe Duty it ſhall be to collect or account for the ſame, and ſhall make Default therein, as the County Rates have been uſually, or may, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for the eaſy aſſeſſing, collecting, and levying of County Rates,' or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, be aſſeſſed, collected, received, levied, paid, and accounted for within the ſaid County.

Where Militia not raiſed, 5l. per Man is to be annually paid in lieu thereof, &c.

XXI. Provided always, That every Perſon, being duly qualified according to the Directions of this Act, who ſhall have ſerved as an Officer in any Corps of Militia raiſed within the Kingdom for the Space of four Years; or who ſhall be actually ſerving as an Officer in any Corps of Militia; or who ſhall offer himſelf, by Writing under his Hand, in Manner as in and by the ſaid in Part recited Act of the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty is directed and required, to ſerve as an Officer in the Militia of any County, Riding, or Place where the Militia hath not been raiſed, or ſhall not be raiſed, and ſhall be ready and willing to ſerve, when required, in any Rank for which he is duly qualified, ſhall not be liable to pay any Part or Share of ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, for raiſing the Sum of five Pounds per Man, herein above directed to be raiſed; nor ſhall ſuch Perſon, or any of his Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereſoever ſituated, be aſſeſſed or charged thereto; and the Deficiency thereby occaſioned, in raiſing the whole Amount of ſuch Sum or Sums of five Pounds per Man on ſuch County, Riding, or Place, as is hereby directed and required to be raiſed, ſhall, in ſuch Caſe, be allowed to ſuch County, Riding, or Place, by deducting the Amount of the Sums which otherwiſe would have been charged and aſſeſſed on ſuch Perſon or Perſons having ſerved, or ſerving, or offering to ſerve as aforeſaid, or on his or their Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, from the groſs Amount of the Sum or Sums of five Pounds per Man herein before directed to be raiſed on ſuch County, Riding, or Place which ſhall not have raiſed the Militia, or which ſhall not continue to raiſe the Militia, purſuant to the Acts in this Caſe made and provided.

Officers who have ſerved four Years, &c.

exempted from paying towards the ſaid Rate.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall claim to have the Benefit of ſuch Exemption from ſuch Rate and Aſſeſſment as aforeſaid, ſhall file a Certificate, as herein after is mentioned, of ſuch Service, or of his having offered to ſerve, as the Caſe may be, with the Clerk of the Peace for the County or Place wherein ſuch Perſon ſhall claim to have ſuch Exemption; and ſhall alſo deliver in to ſuch Clerk of the Peace, from Time to Time as may be neceſſary, a Roll or Liſt, ſigned by ſuch Perſon claiming ſuch Exemption, of his Tenants and Farmers, and the Places of their Abode:

Which Certificate, and Roll or Liſt, every ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall, and he is hereby required forthwith to file amongſt the Records of Seſſion; and whenever any Rate or Aſſeſſment is or ſhall be ordered to be raiſed, levied, or collected within any County or Place for the Purpoſes of raiſing the Sum of five Pounds per Man, as by this Act is directed, ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall, and is hereby required to certify to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers, and High Conſtables of every ſuch County or Place, the Names of all ſuch Perſons who ſhall have ſo filed ſuch Certificates, and claimed ſuch Exemption, and the Names of their Tenants and Farmers ſo inſerted in ſuch Roll or Liſt; and ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, and High Conſtables, is and are hereby required to tranſmit ſuch Certificate, and Roll or Liſt, to the Petty Conſtable of each Townſhip or Place wherein the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of ſuch Perſon claiming to be exempted, are ſituate and lay; in order that ſuch Perſon or Perſons as are intitled thereto, and his and their Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſhall not be aſſeſſed or charged to ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment.

Certificates of Service to be delivered to Officers, &c.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every Lieutenant of any County or Place ſhall, and he is hereby required to give, without Delay, unto every Perſon who ſhall have ſerved as an Officer in the Militia for the Term of four Years, or who ſhall be actually ſerving as an Officer in any Corps of Militia, and who ſhall requeſt the ſame, a Certificate thereof, as the Caſe may be, and as many Certificates as ſuch Perſon may deſire, in order to exempt him and his Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments as aforeſaid; and every ſuch Lieutenant, or every Juſtice of the Peace, Chief Magiſtrate, and other Perſon or Perſons, to whom any Perſon or Perſons ſo qualified as aforeſaid, ſhall offer as aforeſaid to ſerve as an Officer in the Militia, ſhall, and he and they are hereby required to give, without Delay, in like Manner, a Certificate thereof, or as many Certificates thereof as ſhall be requiſite for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

XXIV. Provided alſo, That the Rates or Aſſeſſments which ſhall be made in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be made, aſſeſſed, levied, collected, received, and paid, ſeparately and diſtinctly from all the other Rates aſſeſſed and raiſed upon and within the ſaid County; any Thing in the ſaid Act made in the twelfth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

How the Parochial Rates made on this Occaſion are to be levied, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral and reſpective Parochial Officers, or other Perſons who ſhall pay, or be liable to pay the Rates or Aſſeſſments which ſhall be made and rated for the Purpoſes of this Act, upon any Pariſh, Town, and Place, and alſo all ſuch Parochial Officers and Perſons, upon whom any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be levied, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, after Notice ſhall be given of the Amount of the Rate or Aſſeſſment upon ſuch Town, Pariſh, or Place, either before the Payment thereof by ſuch Parochial Officers or Perſons, or after the ſame ſhall have been actually paid by, or levied upon ſuch Officers or Perſons, rate and levy ſuch Monies by a ſeparate and diſtinct Rate and Aſſeſſment upon every ſuch reſpective Town, Pariſh, or Place, in ſuch Manner and Proportion, and with ſuch Powers for Recovery thereof, as any other County Rate may be aſſeſſed or levied; and that every Tenant or Occupier of any Houſe, Land, Tythe, Tenement or Hereditament, who ſhall pay any Rate or Aſſeſſment to be made in purſuance of this Act by ſuch reſpective Parochial Officers or Perſons, within any ſuch Towns, Pariſhes, or Places, upon whom any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be levied, ſhall and may deduct the ſame out of his or her Rent, and ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged for ſo much Money as ſuch Rates or Aſſeſſments ſhall, from Time to Time, amount unto, as fully and effectually, as if ſuch Money had been actually paid to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Rent is or ſhall be payable; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons is and are hereby required to allow, from Time to Time, ſuch Deductions, upon Receipt of the Reſidue of the Rent.

XXVI. Provided always, That nothing herein before contained ſhall vacate any Covenant or Agreement between Landlord and Tenant; and that no Landlord of any Eſtate which ſhall not be let at a Rack-rent, ſhall be obliged or compellable to allow to any Tenant any Money which he or ſhe ſhall pay toward any Rate which ſhall be made in purſuance of this Act.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Caſes where a certain Number of Private Militia Men are directed to be raiſed for any County, together with any City or Town being a County of itſelf, and the Militia has not been, or ſhall not be raiſed for ſuch County, and City or Town; the Payment of the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man, upon the whole Number of Private Militia Men ſo directed to be raiſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be divided and apportioned between ſuch County and ſuch City or Town being a County of itſelf, in ſuch Proportion as the reſpective Quota's paid to the Land-tax by the ſaid County, and by the ſaid City and Town being a County of itſelf, bear to each other; unleſs the Apportionment of the ſaid Number of Private Militia Men ſhall actually have been made in purſuance of the Liſts directed to be returned by the ſaid former Acts, or by this preſent Act; in which Caſe the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man ſhall be borne by ſuch County, and by ſuch City or Town being a County of itſelf, in ſuch Proportion as the reſpective Number of Men ſo apportioned to be raiſed by ſuch County, and by ſuch City or Town, bear to each other.

XXVIII. 'And whereas there are ſeveral Cities, Towns, and Places, in many Counties and Ridings, 'which do not contribute to the Payment of the ſaid Rate called The County Rate; by reaſon whereof 'Doubts may ariſe, whether ſuch Cities, Towns, and Places can be legally rated or aſſeſſed towards the 'Payment of the ſaid Sum and Sums of five Pounds per Man, in purſuance of the Directions of this Act: 'And whereas it is juſt and reaſonable that all ſuch Cities, Towns, and Places ſhould bear an equal Share 'and Proportion of five Pounds per Man with each County, Riding, or Diviſion, within which ſuch Cities, 'Towns and Places may happen to lie:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all Caſes where the Militia has not been raiſed, or ſhall not at any Time hereafter be raiſed for any County, Riding, or Diviſion, within which any City, Town, or Place ſhall not be rated to the ſaid Rate called The County Rate, the Payment of the the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man upon the whole Number of Private Militia Men directed to be raiſed within every County or Place, ſhall be divided and apportioned between each reſpective County, Riding, or Diviſion, and each ſuch reſpective City, Town, and Place, within the ſame, as ſhall not contribute to the ſaid Rate called The County Rate, in ſuch Proportion as the reſpective Quota's paid to the Land Tax by each reſpective County, Riding, or Diviſion, and by each ſuch reſpective City, Town, and Place, bear to each other; and the reſpective Sum and Sums ſo aſcertained and apportioned, ſhall be raiſed by a ſeparate Rate and Aſſeſſment, to be made within each ſuch reſpective Town and Place, in like Manner as the Rates for the Relief of the Poor are made; to be levied and collected within each ſuch reſpective City, Town, and Place, not rated to the Rate called The County Rate, by ſuch Ways and Means, and with ſuch Powers and Regulations for levying, collecting, and keeping the ſame diſtinct, as are preſcribed in this Act for ſuch reſpective County or Place; and the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of each ſuch reſpective City, Town, and Place, ſhall, from Time to Time, pay over the ſame to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of every County or Place within which any ſuch City, Town, and Place, as aforeſaid, lies; in order that the ſaid Treaſurer or Treaſurers may pay over the ſame to the Receiver-General of the ſaid County or Place, together with the Proportion of the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man directed to be raiſed, levied, and paid, within each County or Place by this Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in ſuch Cities, Towns, and Places, as are Counties of themſelves, and yet have no ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment as is called The County Rate, nor any Powers or Directions for raiſing, levying, or collecting the Proportion of the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man, to be raiſed by the County to which the ſaid Cities, Towns, or Places are united for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; the Directions herein before given for raiſing, levying, and collecting the Proportion, and the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man, within ſuch Cities, Towns, and Places, as do not contribute to the County Rate, ſhall be purſued and followed in all ſuch Cities, Towns, or Places, as are Counties of themſelves.

Towns lying in two Counties, &c.

XXX. 'And whereas in ſome Parts of the Kingdom there are Towns which lie in Two Counties; and 'Doubts may ariſe, whether ſuch Towns are obliged to pay to both Counties the Sum of five Pounds in 'lieu of every Private Militia Man which ſhall not be raiſed by ſuch Counties;' be it therefore enacted, That where any Town lies in two Counties, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Town to contribute their Quota, for and in lieu of raiſing the Militia, for that County only where the Church of the ſaid Town is ſituate; and the Deficiencies of the Rate, which the ſaid Town would have paid, ſhall be made up by the County in general, and not by the Diviſion or Hundred where the ſaid Town is ſituated.

Juſtices, at Midſummer Seſſions, to iſſue an Order for certifying to the Michaelmas Seſſion the reſpective Quota of each Pariſh, &c.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Sum or Sums of Money which ought to be paid by any ſuch City, Town, or Place, not rated to the County Rate as aforeſaid, ſhall not be paid to the Treaſurer of the reſpective County or Place before the firſt Day of June in every Year, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; the Juſtices of the Peace for ſuch County or Place in which ſuch City, Town, or Place doth lie, ſhall, and they are hereby required at their next Midſummer Quarter-Seſſions, to iſſue out an Order to the Overſeers of the Poor of each reſpective Pariſh or Place within ſuch City, Town, and Place, not rated to the County Rate as aforeſaid, requiring ſuch Overſeers to certify and return to the ſaid Juſtices at the next Michaelmas Quarter-Seſſions, the ſeveral Quota's that each Pariſh or Place (within ſuch City, Town, or Place, not paying to the County Rates as aforeſaid) pays to the Land-tax for that Year; and ſuch Overſeers of the Poor are hereby required to make ſuch Certificate and Return accordingly; and upon ſuch Certificate and Return being made, the ſaid Juſtices, ſo aſſembled at their Michaelmas Quarter-Seſſions, are hereby authorized and required (by their Warrant, directed to any Conſtable or Tythingman within ſuch reſpective Pariſhes and Places) to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of any Churchwarden or Churchwardens, or any Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor, of each and every Pariſh or Place within ſuch City, Town, or Place, not paying to the County Rate as aforeſaid, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels, after ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, together with the reaſonable Charges attending ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied; and ſuch Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor ſhall be reimburſed the Sum and Sums of Money ſo levied on them reſpectively, by the ſame Ways and Means as Overſeers of the Poor are reimburſed the Money by them expended for the Relief of the Poor by any Law now in being.

XXXII. Provided nevertheleſs, That if the Militia ſhall be raiſed in the Manner appointed by virtue of this Act, in all or any of the ſaid Counties and Places, ſuch reſpective Counties and Places ſhall, during the Time the Militia are ſo raiſed, be exonerated, freed, and diſcharged from the Payment of the ſaid Sums; and the Aſſeſſments to be made in reſpect thereof ſhall, during ſuch Time, be ſuſpended; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Where Penalty has been aſſeſſed, Money is to be paid over forthwith.

XXXIII. And it is hereby enacted, That in every County and Place wherein the Sum of five Pounds per Man ſhall have been aſſeſſed and raiſed in Manner as is herein before directed, the Juſtices of the Peace of every ſuch County and Place ſhall, without Delay, cauſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money to be paid to the Receiver-General of the Land-tax for ſuch County and Place, in Manner as herein after is directed and required; which ſaid Sum or Sums of five Pounds per Man, when paid as herein after is directed and required, ſhall be, and is hereby declared to be, in full Diſcharge for the Neglect and Failure, for not having raiſed and trained the Militia for ſuch County or Place for the Year then next preceding.

Treaſurers to pay over the Monies to Receivers General, &c.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted, That the Treaſurer or Treaſurers for each ſuch reſpective County or Place, who ſhall receive the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man, ſhall, and is and are hereby required to pay the ſame to the Receiver-General of the Land-tax for ſuch County or Place, within one Calendar Month after he or they ſhall receive the ſame; and the reſpective Receivers-General of the Land-tax of each ſuch County or Place, to whom ſuch Money ſhall be paid, ſhall give a Receipt for the ſame to the Perſon paying ſuch Money, whoſe Receipt ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge for ſuch Payment; and ſhall, within ten Days after the Receipt of ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, certify ſuch Receipt to the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being; and ſhall forthwith pay the ſame into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, and diſtinguiſh, upon every ſuch Payment, the Monies received by virtue of this Act; and the Monies ſo paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer ſhall be kept ſeparate and apart from all other Monies, to be accounted for yearly, and every Year, to Parliament, and to be applied and diſpoſed of as Parliament ſhall direct.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fee or Gratuity whatſoever ſhall be given or paid, for or upon Account of any Warrant which ſhall be made out for any Sum of Money which ſhall be paid into his Majeſty's Exchequer, or iſſued in relation to or in purſuance of this Act.

Receivers General to be allowed 2 d. in the Pound.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, are hereby authoriſed to allow to the ſaid Receiver-General for ſuch County and Place reſpectively, in England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, upon the clearing of his Accounts, a Salary for his Pains and Trouble, in receiving and paying in the Monies required to be received and paid by this Act, not exceeding two Pence in the Pound for ſo much Money as he ſhall pay into the Exchequer in purſuance of this Act.

Treaſurers 1 d.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of every County or Place, as a Recompence and Reward for his and their Pains and Trouble in collecting and receiving the Sums charged upon each Pariſh or Place in each reſpective County and Place by virtue of this Act, and for giving Receipts to the Perſon or Perſons of whom they receive the ſame, and for paying the ſame to his Majeſty's Receiver-General, as herein before is directed, upon Collection of the whole Sum appointed to be collected by them, and Payment thereof, as aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed the Sum of one Penny in the Pound; which Sum every ſuch Treaſurer and Treaſurers is and are hereby impowered to detain, out of the Monies received by him, before Payment thereof to the Receiver-General as aforeſaid: And that every High Conſtable, as a Recompence for his Trouble and Pains in ſending out Warrants and doing his Duty therein, ſhall be allowed and paid, by ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, the Sum of one Penny in the Pound; and that every Petty Conſtable, Churchwarden, Overſeer of the Poor, or other Perſon employed in collecting the ſaid Sum or Sums hereby directed to be raiſed, on Payment to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of each County or Place of the whole Sum directed by them to be raiſed within each of their reſpective Diviſions or Places, ſhall be allowed and paid by ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers the like Sum of one Penny in the Pound, as a Reward for their Diligence, Pains, and Trouble.

Treaſurers to be reimburſed Monies, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of any County, Riding, or Diviſion, ſhall, at any Time, be in Advance in the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money to the Receiver-General of ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion; the Juſtices of the Peace for ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion, at their next General Quarter-Seſſions to be holden after any ſuch Payment, ſhall, and they are hereby required to aſſeſs, and cauſe to be levied, a ſufficient Sum of Money to reimburſe ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers all ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as he or they ſhall have ſo paid; to be aſſeſſed, collected, and levied, in the ſame Manner as other County Rates are directed to be aſſeſſed, collected, and levied.

XXXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace for ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion, at their ſaid General Quarter-Seſſions, ſhall, and are hereby impowered to aſſeſs and levy, in Manner as is herein before directed, on every City, Town, and Place, which is not contributory to, or doth not pay to, the County Rates of ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion reſpectively, ſuch Proportion of the Money ſo paid by ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, as is herein before directed and required to be raiſed and paid by ſuch City, Town, and Place.

Clerks of the Peace to tranſmit yearly ſigned Copies of the Certificates, &c.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Clerks of the Peace of each reſpective County or Place ſhall, and they are hereby required, within fourteen Days next after the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace to be held after the twenty-fifth Day of December yearly, to tranſmit to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, and alſo to the Receiver-General of the Land-tax for ſuch County or Place, a Copy, ſigned by ſuch Clerk of the Peace, of every Certificate which ſhall have been delivered in purſuance of this Act; and in caſe no ſuch Certificate ſhall have been delivered in, then ſuch Clerks of the Peace ſhall certify to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and alſo to ſuch Receiver-General, that no ſuch Certificate from his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or any three Deputy-Lieutenants, hath been received by him, and that he hath certified the ſame to the Juſtices of ſuch General Quarter-Seſſions, and thereon required ſuch Juſtices to proceed according to the Directions of this Act; and ſhall alſo certify what Proceedings have been had at ſuch General Quarter-Seſſions, in relation to the aſſeſſing and raiſing the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man where the Militia ſhall not have been raiſed; and in caſe the Juſtices of the Peace, at ſuch General Quarter-Seſſions, ſhall omit, neglect, or refuſe, proceeding according to the Directions of this Act, to raiſe the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man in every County, Riding, or Place, where the Militia ſhall not have been raiſed in the Year preceding, then ſuch Clerks of the Peace of every ſuch reſpective County or Place ſhall, and they are hereby required, within fourteen Days next after ſuch General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, to certify to the Solicitor of the Treaſury, the Omiſſion, Neglect, or Refuſal (as the Caſe may be) of ſuch Juſtices to obey the Orders and Directions of this Act, and the Names of the Juſtices of the Peace who ſhall be preſent at ſuch Seſſions; and the Solicitor of the Treaſury aforeſaid is hereby directed and required, on Receipt of ſuch Certificate, forthwith to proceed by ſuch legal Ways and Means as may be requiſite, moſt effectual, and expeditious, to compel the Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch County or Place, ſo omitting, neglecting, or refuſing to proceed according to the Directions of this Act, to raiſe raiſe the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man in ſuch County or Place making Default in raiſing the Militia as aforeſaid, and to enforce the Payment thereof, and due Obedience to this Act.

Where Penalty ſhall not be duly paid into the Exchequer, &c. the ſame is to be certified to the Clerk of the Peace;

XLI. And, for the better executing this Act, be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man, to be paid as aforeſaid in ſuch Counties and Places where the Militia ſhall not be raiſed, ſhall not be levied, collected, and paid, into his Majeſty's Exchequer, in Manner as herein before directed; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe, neglect, or omit, to pay his or their Proportion thereof, or to perform his or their Duty therein, for raiſing and Payment of the ſame; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every Treaſurer, High Conſtable, and Petty Conſtable, or other Perſon, to whom any ſuch Default of Payment, Refuſal, Neglect, or Omiſſion, ſhall be made, ſhall, and he is hereby required, within fourteen Days after ſuch Default of Payment, Refuſal, Neglect, or Omiſſion, to him or them made, to certify the ſame in Writing, ſigned by him or them reſpectively, with the Reaſon or Cauſe thereof, unto the Clerk of the Peace of every ſuch County or Place wherein the ſame ſhall happen; and then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall, and he is hereby required, within fourteen Days after, to certify the ſame to the Solicitor of the Treaſury; and, in Failure thereof, every ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or the Courts of Great Seſſion in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and ſhall alſo forfeit his Office, and ſhall be rendered incapable of having, receiving, or holding any Office of Truſt, Civil or Military, under the Government; and the Solicitor of the Treaſury, on the Receipt of ſuch Certificate, is hereby directed and required forthwith to proceed, by all ſuch legal Ways and Means as may be requiſite and moſt effectual, to compel the Payment of ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, and alſo to compel ſuch Perſons as ſhall ſo refuſe, neglect, or omit, to perform his or their Duty as aforeſaid, to act in obedience to, and in purſuance of, the Direction of this Act, and to carry the ſame into full and compleat Execution.

XLII. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace ſhall refuſe or neglect to receive, deliver, file, make, record, or tranſmit ſuch Certificates, as aforeſaid, or any of them, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every ſuch Clerk of the Peace, ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to any Perſon who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or the Courts of Great Seſſions in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and ſhall alſo forfeit his Office, and ſhall be rendered incapable of having, receiving, or holding, any Office of Truſt, Civil or Military, under the Government.

XLIII. And it is enacted, That if any Receiver General, or Treaſurer, ſhall wilfully omit, neglect, or refuſe to do any ſuch Act or Acts as are required to be done by him or them for the better and more effectual carrying this Act into Execution; every ſuch Receiver General or Treaſurer, ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to any Perſon who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or the Courts of Great Seſſions in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Petty Conſtable 20 l.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if any Chief Conſtable ſhall wilfully omit, neglect, or refuſe, to do any ſuch Act or Acts as are required to be done by him for the better and more effectual carrying this Act into Execution, every ſuch Chief Conſtable, ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay to any Perſon who will inform and ſue for the ſame, the Sum of fifty Pounds; and every Petty Conſtable and other Perſon who ſhall in like Manner offend, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, in like Manner forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds; to be recovered and levied in Manner herein after mentioned and directed.

Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures.

XLV. And be it enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act impoſed, the Manner of Recovery whereof is not in this Act particularly provided for, ſhall, on Proof upon Oath of Offence before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, to the Offender upon whom ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall have been made; and where the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer ſuch Diſtreſs, ſuch Juſtice is hereby required to commit ſuch Offender to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where the Offence ſhall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months.

Solicitor of the Treaſury.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the Solicitor to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, ſhall, and he is hereby directed and required, with all due Diligence, to proſecute with Effect all ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, Receivers General, Treaſurers, and other Perſons, who ſhall omit, neglect, or refuſe to perform their Duty, as aforeſaid, to carry this Act into Execution; and to raiſe the ſaid Sum of five Pounds per Man in every ſuch County or Place where the Militia ſhall not have been raiſed, or ſhall not continue to be raiſed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and cauſe the ſame to be paid into his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, as herein before directed and required: And if the Solicitor to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, ſhall wilfully omit, neglect, or refuſe to proceed againſt ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, Receivers General, Treaſurers, or other Perſons, or ſhall wilfully delay to proceed, or ſhall not not proſecute with all due Diligence and Expedition; then ſuch Solicitor of the Treaſury ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to any Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or the Courts of Great Seſſions in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and ſhall alſo forfeit his Office, and ſhall be rendered incapable of having, receiving, or holding, ſuch Office for the future, or any other Place or Office of Truſt, Civil or Military, under the Government.

Where Militia has not been raiſed, an Annual Meeting is to be held, &c.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That in all Counties, Ridings, and Places, where the Militia has not been raiſed, his Majeſty's Lieutenant for every ſuch County and Place, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants; and on the Removal, or, in the Abſence of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, ſhall meet at ſome City or principal Town of the County or Place for which they ſhall be commiſſioned, on the ſecond Tueſday in March in every Year; and if there ſhould happen to be no ſuch Meeting on that Day, then his Majeſty's ſaid Lieutenant, or, on his Death or Removal, or in his Abſence, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, as may be neceſſary and requiſite for carrying this Act into Execution, or any of the Purpoſes hereof, ſummon, or cauſe to be ſummoned, a General Meeting, to be holden at the ſame City or principal Town on a Day to be fixed by ſuch Summons; of which Day and Place Notice ſhall be given in ſome Weekly Paper uſually circulated (if any ſuch there be) within the ſame County or Place, ſeven days at leaſt before the holding of ſuch Meeting.

Perſons ſerving in the Regulars, offering to ſerve and be inrolled as Subſtitutes, &c. forfeit 10 l.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon actually ſerving in any of his Majeſty's Regular Forces, ſhall offer himſelf to ſerve, and be inrolled as a Subſtitute in any Regiment or Battalion of Militia; or if any Perſon actually inrolled and ſerving in any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, ſhall offer himſelf to ſerve, and be inrolled as a Subſtitute in any other Regiment or Battalion of Militia; then every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, or Proof thereof upon Oath before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, forfeit and pay, to any Perſon who will inform or ſue for the ſame, the Sum of ten Pounds; to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, to the Offender upon whom ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall have been made; and where the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer ſuch Diſtreſs, ſuch Juſtice is hereby required to commit ſuch Offender to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where the Offence ſhall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall in any wiſe extend to annul, or make void, any Thing already done in purſuance of the former Acts, relating to the Militia Forces, or any of them; or to prevent the compleating any Proceedings already commenced in purſuance of the ſaid Acts.

Limitation of Actions.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Suit or Suits, Action or Actions, ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and ſhall be laid in the County where ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, did ariſe, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Suit or Suits, Action or Actions, to be brought, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence: And if the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Suit or Suits, Action or Actions; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his or their Suit or Suits, Action or Actions, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared; or if upon Demurrer, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes to recover Coſts by Law.

General Iſſue.

(a) For the Juriſdiction of the Houſe of Commons in the Trial of Controverted Elections, ſee Mr. Douglas's Introd. to his Caſes on that Subject, ſec. 1. a very uſeful and correct Publication.—The above, Act 10 Geo. 3. c. 16. was imagined and accompliſhed by Mr. Grenville, though he did not live to enjoy the juſt Applauſe, which has on that Account been laviſhed on his Memory.—The Act paſſed A. D. 1770, and he died on the 13th of November of that Year.—This Act was originally limited to ſeven Years—but four Cauſes having been tried under it, the Juſtice of the Deciſions (ſo different from former Examples) rendered it almoſt the Idol of the Public; and in 1774, a Bill was brought into the Houſe of Commons, and paſſed into a Law, which made it perpetual. 14 Geo. 3. c. 15.

'lemnities which are eſtabliſhed by Law in other Trials; and is attended with many other Inconveni-'encies: For Remedy thereof,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That after the End of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, whenever a Petition, complaining of an undue Election or Return of a Member or Members to ſerve in Parliament, ſhall be preſented to the Houſe of Commons, a Day and Hour ſhall by the ſaid Houſe be appointed for taking the ſame into Conſideration; and Notice thereof in Writing ſhall be forthwith given, by the Speaker, to the Petitioners and the Sitting Members, or their reſpective Agents, accompanied with an Order to them to attend the Houſe, at the Time appointed, by themſelves, their Counſel, or Agents.

On Complaint of undue Election, &c. a preciſe Time to be fixed for conſidering thereof.

II. Provided always, That no ſuch Petition ſhall be taken into Conſideration within fourteen Days after the Appointment of the Committee of Privileges.

III. Provided alſo, That the Houſe may alter the Day and Hour ſo appointed for taking ſuch Petition into Conſideration, and appoint ſome ſubſequent Day and Hour for the ſame, as Occaſion ſhall require; giving to the reſpective Parties the like Notice of ſuch Alteration, and Order to attend on the ſaid ſubſequent Day and Hour, as aforeſaid.

Houſe may alter the Time.

IV. And be it further enacted, That at the Time appointed for taking ſuch Petition into Conſideration, and previous to the reading the Order of the Day for that Purpoſe, the Serjeant at Arms ſhall be directed to go with the Mace to the Places adjacent, and require the immediate Attendance of the Members on the Buſineſs of the Houſe; and that after his Return the Houſe ſhall be counted, and if there be leſs than one hundred Members preſent, the Order for taking ſuch Petition into Conſideration ſhall be immediately adjourned to a particular Hour on the following Day (Sunday and Chriſtmas Day always excepted); and the Houſe ſhall then adjourn to the ſaid Day; and the Proceedings of all Committees, ſubſequent to ſuch Notice from the ſaid Serjeant, ſhall be void: And, on the ſaid following Day, the Houſe ſhall proceed in the ſame Manner; and ſo, from Day to Day, till there be an Attendance of one hundred Members at the Reading the Order of the Day, to take ſuch Petition into Conſideration.

Serjeant at Arms, before the Reading of the Order of the Day, to require the Attendance of the Members.

V. And be it further enacted, That if after ſummoning the Members, and counting the Houſe as aforeſaid, one hundred Members ſhall be found to be preſent; the Petitioners by themſelves, their Counſel, or Agents, and the Counſel or Agents of the Sitting Members, ſhall be ordered to attend at the Bar; and then the Door of the Houſe ſhall be locked, and no Member ſhall be ſuffered to enter into or depart from the Houſe, until the Petitioners, their Counſel or Agents, and the Counſel or Agents for the Sitting Members, ſhall be directed to withdraw as herein after is mentioned: And when the Door ſhall be locked as aforeſaid, the Order of the Day ſhall be read, and the Names of all the Members of the Houſe, written or printed on diſtinct Pieces of Parchment or Paper, being all as near as may be of equal Size, and rolled up in the ſame Manner, ſhall be put in equal Numbers into ſix Boxes or Glaſſes, to be placed on the Table for that Purpoſe, and ſhall there be ſhaken together; and then the Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant attending the Houſe ſhall publickly draw out of the ſaid ſix Boxes or Glaſſes alternately the ſaid Pieces of Parchment or Paper, and deliver the ſame to the Speaker, to be by him read to the Houſe; and ſo ſhall continue to do, until forty-nine Names of the Members then preſent be drawn.

On Preſence of 100, Petitioners, &c to be ordered to the Bar.

Names of the Members to be put into ſix Boxes or Glaſſes, to be drawn alternately, till 49 be drawn.

VI. Provided always, That if the Name of any Member who ſhall have given his Vote at the Election ſo complained of as aforeſaid, or who ſhall be a Petitioner complaining of an undue Election or Return, or againſt whoſe Return a Petition ſhall be then depending, or whoſe Return ſhall not have been brought in fourteen Days, ſhall be drawn; his Name ſhall be ſet aſide, with the Names of thoſe who are abſent from the Houſe.

Voting Members at the Election, or Complainants, to be ſet aſide.

VII. Provided alſo, That if the Name of any Member of ſixty Years of Age or upwards be drawn, he ſhall be excuſed from ſerving on the Select Committee, to be appointed as herein after is mentioned, if he require it, and verify the Cauſe of ſuch Requiſition upon Oath.

All above ſixty, &c. excuſed.

VIII. Provided alſo, That if the Name of any Member who has ſerved in ſuch Select Committee during the ſame Seſſion be drawn, he ſhall, if he requires it, be excuſed from ſerving again in any ſuch Select Committee, unleſs the Houſe ſhall, before the Day appointed for taking the ſaid Petition into Conſideration, have reſolved, that the Number of Members who have not ſerved on ſuch Select Committee, in the ſame Seſſion, is inſufficient to fulfil the Purpoſes of this Act, reſpecting the Choice of ſuch Select Committee.

IX. Provided always, That no Member who, after having been appointed to ſerve in any ſuch Select Committee, ſhall, on Account of Inability or Accident, have been excuſed from attending the ſame throughout, ſhall be deemed to have ſerved on any ſuch Select Committee.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any other Member ſhall offer and verify upon Oath any other Excuſe, the Subſtance of the Allegations ſo verified upon Oath ſhall be taken down by the ſaid Clerk, in order that the ſame may be afterwards entered on the Journals, and the Opinion of the Houſe ſhall be taken thereon; and if the Houſe ſhall reſolve that the ſaid Member is unable to ſerve, or cannot without great and manifeſt Detriment ſerve in ſuch Select Committee, he alſo ſhall be excuſed from ſuch Service.

XI. And be it further enacted, That inſtead of the Members ſo ſet aſide and excuſed, the Names of other Members ſhall be drawn; who may, in like Manner, be ſet aſide or excuſed, and others drawn to ſupply their Places, until the whole Number of forty-nine Members, not liable to be ſo ſet aſide or excuſed, ſhall be complete; and the Petitioners or their Agents ſhall then name One, and the Sitting Members, or their Agents, another, from among the Members then preſent, whoſe Names ſhall not have been drawn, to be added to thoſe who ſhall have been ſo choſen by Lot.

Inſtead of whom, others to be drawn, &c.

XII. Provided always, That either of the Members ſo nominated ſhall or may be ſet aſide, for any of the ſame Cauſes as thoſe choſen by Lot; or ſhall, if he requires it, be excuſed from ſerving on the ſaid Select Com-

Committee; and the Party who nominated the Member ſo ſet aſide or excuſed, ſhall nominate another in his Stead, and ſo continue to do as often as the Caſe ſhall happen, until his Nominee is admitted.

Door to be opened, and Houſe may proceed on other Buſineſs. Liſts of the 49 to be then given to the Petioners, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That as ſoon as the ſaid forty-nine Members ſhall have been ſo choſen by Lot, and the two Members to be added thereunto ſhall have been ſo nominated as aforeſaid, the Door of the Houſe ſhall be opened, and the Houſe may proceed upon any other Buſineſs; and Liſts of the forty-nine Members ſo choſen by Lot ſhall then be given to the Petitioners, their Counſel or Agents, and the Counſel or Agents for the Sitting Members, who ſhall immediately withdraw, together with the Clerk appointed to attend the ſaid Select Committee; and the ſaid Petitioners and Sitting Members, their Counſel or Agents, beginning on the Part of the Petitioners, ſhall alternately ſtrike off one of the ſaid forty-nine Members, until the ſaid Number ſhall be reduced to thirteen; and the ſaid Clerk, within one Hour at fartheſt from the Time of the Parties withdrawing from the Houſe, ſhall deliver in to the Houſe the Names of the thirteen Members then remaining; and the ſaid thirteen Members, together with the two Members nominated as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſworn at the Table, well and truly to try the Matter of the Petition referred to them, and a true Judgment to give according to the Evidence; and ſhall be a Select Committee to try and determine the Merits of the Return or Election appointed by the Houſe to be that Day taken into Conſideration; and the Houſe ſhall order the ſaid Select Committee to meet at a certain Time to be fixed by the Houſe, which Time ſhall be within twenty-four Hours of the Appointment of the ſaid Select Committee, unleſs a Sunday or Chriſtmas Day ſhall intervene; and the Place of their Meeting and Sitting ſhall be ſome convenient Room or Place adjacent to the Houſe of Commons or Court of Requeſts, properly prepared for that Purpoſe.

Number reduced to 13; and they, with the Nominees, ſhall be ſworn a Select Committee.

XIV. Provided always, That on the Parties withdrawing as aforeſaid, the Houſe ſhall continue ſitting; and the ſaid fifty-one Members, ſo choſen and nominated, ſhall not depart the Houſe, till the Time for the Meeting of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall be fixed.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if upon the drawing out the Name of any Member by Lot as aforeſaid, the ſaid Petitioners or Sitting Members, or their Agents, ſhall declare, that ſuch Member is intended to be one of the two Nominees to be nominated by them reſpectively, and if ſuch Member ſhall conſent to ſuch Nomination, the Name of ſuch Member ſo drawn by Lot ſhall be ſet aſide, and, unleſs objected to as aforeſaid, he ſhall ſerve as ſuch Nominee, and the Name of another Member ſhall be drawn to ſupply his Place, to complete the Number of forty-nine Members to be drawn by Lot; and if the ſaid Petitioners or Sitting Members, or their Agents, ſhall not reſpectively nominate a Member then preſent, who ſhall be admitted according to the Directions of this Act, then the Want of ſuch Nomination ſhall be ſupplied, by drawing out, inſtead thereof, the Name of one or two Members, as the Caſe ſhall require; who ſhall be drawn by Lot in the like Manner, and ſubject to the like Objections and Excuſes, as the other forty-nine Members already drawn by Lot, and ſhall be added to the Liſts of the ſaid forty-nine Members, and ſhall be liable to be ſtruck off in the ſame Manner; leaving always the Number of fifteen Members in the Whole, and no more, as a Select Committee for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

Clerk to put the Names of the Members drawn into a Box or Parcel; Speaker to ſeal the ſame, &c.

XVI. And, for the greater Diſpatch and Certainty in the Proceeding herein before deſcribed, be it further enacted, That the Names of all the Members ſo written and rolled up as herein before directed, ſhall, previous to the Day appointed for taking any ſuch Petition into Conſideration, be prepared by the ſaid Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant, and by him put into a Box or Parcel in the Preſence of the Speaker, together with an Atteſtation, ſigned by theſaid Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant, purporting, that the Names of all the Members were by him put therein the Day of in the Year which ſaid Box or Parcel the Speaker ſhall ſeal with his own Seal; and to the Outſide thereof ſhall annex an Atteſtation ſigned by himſelf, purporting, that the ſaid Box or Parcel was on the Day of in the Year made up in his Preſence, in the Manner directed by this Act; and that as ſoon as the Parties ſhall be withdrawn as aforeſaid, and before the Houſe ſhall enter on any other Buſineſs, any Member may require, that the Names of all the Members, which remain undrawn, ſhall be drawn and read aloud by the ſaid Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant.

Chairman to be elected out of Members choſen by Lot.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Select Committee ſhall, on their Meeting, elect a Chairman from among ſuch of the Members thereof as ſhall have been choſen by Lot: And if, in the Election of a Chairman, there be an equal Number of Voices, the Member whoſe Name was firſt drawn in the Houſe ſhall have a caſting Voice; ſo likewiſe, in caſe there ſhould ever be Occaſion for electing a new Chairman, on the Death or neceſſary Abſence of the Chairman firſt elected.

Select Committee impowered, &c. Houſe thereupon to confirm, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Select Committee ſhall have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers, and Records; and ſhall examine all the Witneſſes who come before them upon Oath; and ſhall try the Merits of the Return, or Election, or both; and ſhall determine, by a Majority of Voices of the ſaid Select Committee, whether the Petitioners or the Sitting Members, or either of them, be duly returned or elected, or whether the election be void; which Determination ſhall be final between the Parties to all Intents and Purpoſes: And the Houſe, on being informed thereof by the Chairman of the ſaid Select Committee, ſhall order the ſame to be entered in their Journals, and give the neceſſary Directions for confirming or altering the Return, or for the iſſuing a new Writ for a new Election, or for carrying the ſaid Determination into Execution as the Caſe may require.

Select Committee not to adjourn, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Select Committee ſhall ſit every Day (Sunday and Chriſtmas Day only excepted) and ſhall never adjourn for a longer Time than twenty-four Hours, unleſs a Sunday or Chriſtmas Day intervene, without Leave firſt obtained from the Houſe, upon Motion, and ſpecial Cauſe aſſigned for a longer Adjournment; and in caſe the Houſe ſhall be ſitting at the Time to which the ſaid Select Committee is adjourned, then the Buſineſs of the Houſe ſhall be ſtayed, and a Motion ſhall be made for a further Adjournment, for any Time to be fixed by the Houſe, not exceeding twenty-four Hours, unleſs a Sunday or Chriſtmas Day intervene.

XX. And be it further enacted, That where the Time preſcribed by this Act for the Meeting, Sitting, or Adjournment of the ſaid Select Committee, ſhall, by the Intervention of a Sunday or Chriſtmas Day, exceed twenty-four Hours, ſuch Meeting, Sitting, or Adjournment ſhall be within twenty-four Hours from the Time of appointing or fixing the ſame, excluſive of ſuch Sunday or Chriſtmas Day.

Select Committee-man not to abſent, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Member of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall be allowed to abſent himſelf from the ſame, without Leave obtained from the Houſe, or an Excuſe allowed by the Houſe, at the next Sitting thereof, on ſpecial Cauſe ſhewn and verified upon Oath; and the ſaid Select Committee ſhall never ſit, until all the Members to whom ſuch Leave has not been granted, nor Excuſe allowed, are met; and in caſe they ſhall not all meet within one Hour after the Time to which the ſaid Select Committee ſhall have been adjourned, a farther Adjournment ſhall be made in the Manner as before directed, and reported, with the Cauſe thereof, to the Houſe.

Chairman to report Abſentees, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Chairman of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall, at the next Meeting of the Houſe, always report the Name of every Member thereof, who ſhall have been abſent therefrom without ſuch Leave or Excuſe as aforeſaid; and ſuch Member ſhall be directed to attend the Houſe at the next Sitting thereof, and ſhall then be ordered to be taken into the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending the Houſe, for ſuch Neglect of his Duty, and otherwiſe puniſhed or cenſured at the Diſcretion of the Houſe; unleſs it ſhall appear to the Houſe, by Facts ſpecially ſtated and verified upon Oath, that ſuch Member was, by a ſudden Accident, or by Neceſſity, prevented from attending the ſaid Select Committee.

If 13 do not attend, Committee to adjourn;

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if more than two Members of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall on any Account be abſent therefrom, the ſaid Select Committee ſhall adjourn in the Manner herein before directed; and ſo, from Time to Time, until thirteen Members are aſſembled.

if leſs for three Days, then to be diſſolved and another choſen; and paſt Proceedings to be void.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Number of Members able to attend the ſaid Select Committee ſhall, by Death or otherwiſe, be unavoidably reduced to leſs than thirteen, and ſhall ſo continue for the Space of three Sitting Days, the ſaid Select Committee ſhall be diſſolved, and another choſen to try and determine the Matter of ſuch Petition in Manner aforeſaid; and all the Proceedings of the ſaid former Select Committee ſhall be void and of no Effect.

Reſolutions may be reported, and the Houſe may make Order thereon.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Select Committee ſhall come to any Reſolution other than the Determination above mentioned, they ſhall, if they think proper, report the ſame to the Houſe for their Opinion, at the ſame Time that the Chairman of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall inform the Houſe of ſuch Determination; and the Houſe may confirm or diſagree with ſuch Reſolution, and make ſuch Orders thereon, as to them ſhall ſeem proper.

XXVI. Provided always, That if any Perſon ſummoned by the ſaid Select Committee, ſhall diſobey ſuch Summons; or if any Witneſs before ſuch Select Committee ſhall prevaricate, or ſhall otherwiſe miſbehave in giving, or refuſing to give Evidence; the Chairman of the ſaid Select Committee, by their Direction, may at any Time, during the Courſe of their Proceedings, report the ſame to the Houſe, for the Interpoſition of their Authority or Cenſure, as the Caſe ſhall require.

When Committee chuſe to deliberate, Room to be cleared.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the ſaid Select Committeee ſhall think it neceſſary to deliberate amongſt themſelves, upon any Queſtion which ſhall ariſe in the Courſe of the Trial, or upon the Determination thereof, or upon any Reſolution concerning the Matter of the Petition referred to them as aforeſaid; as ſoon as the ſaid Select Committee ſhall have heard the Evidence and Counſel on both Sides relative thereunto, the Room or Place wherein they ſhall ſit ſhall be cleared, if they ſhall think proper, while the Members of the ſaid Select Committee conſider thereof; and all ſuch Queſtions, as well as ſuch Determination and all other Reſolutions, ſhall be by a Majority of Voices; and if the Voices ſhall be equal, the Chairman ſhall have a caſting Voice.

XXVIII. Provided always, That no ſuch Determination as aforeſaid ſhall be made, nor any Queſtion be propoſed, unleſs thirteeen Members ſhall be preſent; and no Member ſhall have a Vote on ſuch Determination, or any other Queſtion or Reſolution, who has not attended during every Sitting of the ſaid Select Committee.

Oath.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Oaths by this Act directed to be taken in the Houſe, ſhall be adminiſtered by the ſaid Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant, in the ſame Manner as the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy are adminiſtered in the Houſe of Commons; and that the Oaths by this Act directed to be taken before the ſaid Select Committee, ſhall be adminiſtered by the Clerk attending the ſaid ſelect Committee; and that all Perſons who ſhall be guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury in any Evidence which they ſhall give before the Houſe, or the ſaid Select Committee, in conſequence of the Oath which they ſhall have taken by the Direction of this Act, ſhall, on Conviction thereof, incur and ſuffer the like Pains and Penalties to which any other Perſon, convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury, is liable by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Penalties on Perjury extended thereto.

Made perpetual by 14 Geo. 3. c. 15. And ſee farther, Index, Tit. Parliament.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in Force ſeven Years, and till the End of the Seſſion of Parliament next after the Expiration of the ſaid ſeven Years, and no longer.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to repeal ſo much of an Act made in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting certain Duties in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America; for allowing a Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation, from this Kingdom, of Coffee and Cocoa Nuts of the Produce of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations; for diſcontinuing the Drawbacks payable on China Earthen-ware exported to America; and for more effectually preventing the clandeſtine Running of Goods in the ſaid Colonies and Plantations; as relates to the Duties upon Glaſs, Red-lead, White-lead, Painters Colours, Paper, Paſte-boards, Mill-boards, and Scale-boards, of the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, imported into any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America; and alſo to the diſcontinuing the Drawbacks payable on China Earthen-ware, exported to America; and for regulating the Exportation thereof.

7 Geo. 3. c. 46.

'WHEREAS in and by an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting certain Duties in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America; for allowing a Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation, from this Kingdom, of Coffee and Cocoa Nuts of the Produce of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations; for diſcontinuing the Drawbacks payable on China Earthen-ware imported to America; and for more effectually preventing the clandeſtine Running of Goods in the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That there ſhould be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, certain Duties upon Glaſs, Red-lead, White-lead, Painters Colours, and upon the ſeveral Sorts of Paper therein mentioned; as alſo upon all Paſte-board, Mill-board, and Scale-board, which ſhould be imported into any Colony or Plantation in America, under the Dominion of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors: And whereas the ſaid Duties, in ſo far as they affect the Produce and Manufacture of Great Britain, do in their Nature tend to the Prejudice and Diſcouragement thereof, and are therefore contrary to the true Principles of Commerce:' May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, ſo much of the ſaid before-recited Act as relates to the Duties thereby granted upon the reſpective Goods herein before mentioned, ſuch Goods being of the Produce and Manufacture of Great Britain, ſhall, in reſpect of all ſuch of the ſaid Goods as are of the Produce and Manufacture of Great Britain, be, and the ſame is hereby repealed and made void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

7 Geo. 3.

'II. And whereas, in and by the ſaid before-recited Act, it was alſo further enacted, that no Drawback ſhall be allowed for any China Earthen-ware, ſold after the paſſing of that Act at the Sale of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, which ſhall be entered for Exportation from Great Britain to any Part of America: And whereas the allowing the ſaid Drawback, under certain Reſtrictions, may encourage and ſecure the immediate Trade of this Kingdom with the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the ſaid Clauſe in the before-recited Act of the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign, diſcontinuing the ſaid Drawback payable upon China Earthen-ware exported to America, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed and made void.

From Dec. 1, 1770, no Drawback allowed on China exported, unleſs packed in the Preſence of a proper Officer of the Cuſtoms.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of December no Drawback ſhall be paid or allowed for any China Earthen-ware, exported or entered for Exportation from this Kingdom, to any Place whatſoever, unleſs the ſame ſhall be packed up in the Preſence of a proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe, in ſome Warehouſe belonging to the United Company of Merchants trading to the Eaſt Indies wherein the ſame ſhall have been lodged at Importation, and ſhall be ſent to be exported directly from ſuch Warehouſe, under the Seal and Care of ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for preventing the Stealing of Dogs.

'WHEREAS the Practice of ſtealing Dogs hath of late Years greatly increaſed: For Remedy whereof, May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, if any Perſon ſhall ſteal any Dog or Dogs, of any Kind or Sort whatſoever, from the Owner or Owners thereof, or from any Perſon or Perſons intruſted by the Owner or Owners thereof with ſuch Dog or Dogs; or ſhall ſell, buy, receive, harbour, detain, or keep any Dog or Dogs of any Kind or Sort whatſoever, knowing the ſame to have been ſtolen as aforeſaid, ſaid, every ſuch Perſon, upon being convicted thereof upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, or by his or her own Confeſſion, before any two or more Juſtices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, ſhall, for the firſt Offence, forfeit and pay ſuch Sum of Money, not exceeding thirty Pounds, nor leſs than twenty Pounds, as to ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſeem meet, together with the Charges previous to, and attending ſuch Conviction, to be aſcertained by ſuch Juſtice before whom ſuch Offender ſhall be convicted: And in caſe ſuch Penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid, ſuch Juſtices ſhall commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding twelve Calendar Months, nor leſs than ſix Calendar Months, or until the Penalty and Charges ſhall be paid: And if any Perſon, having been convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall afterwards be guilty of the like Offence, and ſhall be thereof convicted in like Manner as aforeſaid; every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay ſuch Sum of Money, not exceeding fifty Pounds, nor leſs than thirty Pounds, as to ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſeem meet, together with the Charges previous to, and attending ſuch Conviction, to be aſcertained by ſuch Juſtices before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be ſo convicted: Which ſaid Penalties, or any of them, when recovered, ſhall be paid, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed; and, upon Nonpayment thereof, ſuch Juſtices ſhall commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding eighteen Months, nor leſs than twelve Months, or until the Penalty and Charges ſhall be paid; and ſuch Juſtices ſhall alſo order the ſaid Offender to be publickly whipped, within three Days after ſuch Commitment, in the Town wherein ſuch Gaol or Houſe of Correction ſhall be, between the Hours of twelve and one of the Clock.

First Offence to forfeit not leſs than 20l. &c.

Subſequent Offence, to forfeit not leſs than 30l. &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace in or for any County, Riding, Diviſion or Place, upon Information to him or them made for that Purpoſe, to grant a Warrant or Warrants to ſearch for any Dog or Dogs ſtolen as aforeſaid, and in caſe any ſuch Dog or Dogs, or the Skin or Skins of ſuch Dog or Dogs, ſhall upon ſuch Search be found, to take and reſtore every ſuch Dog or Dogs, or ſuch Skin or Skins, to the Owner thereof; and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any ſuch Dog or Dogs, Skin or Skins, ſhall be ſo found (in caſe it ſhall appear that ſuch Perſon was privy to ſuch Dog or Dogs having been ſtolen as aforeſaid, or that ſuch Skin or Skins was the Skin or Skins of any Dog or Dogs ſtolen as aforeſaid) ſhall reſpectively be ſubject and liable to the like Penalties and Puniſhments as Perſons convicted of ſtealing any Dog or Dogs, are herein before made ſubject and liable to.

Juſtices to grant Warrants, &c.

III. And for the more eaſy and ſpeedy Conviction of Offenders againſt this Act, be it further enacted, That all Juſtices of the Peace, before whom any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall and may cauſe the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the ſame Effect, as the Caſe ſhall happen; videlicet, Juſtices may cauſe to be drawn up the following.

Form of Conviction.

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord A. B. is convicted before us of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of (ſpecifying the Offence, and the Time and Place when and where the ſame was committed, as the Caſe ſhall be)

'Given under our Hands and Seals, the Day and Year aforeſaid.'

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall think himſelf or herſelf aggrieved by any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Seſſion of the Peace to be held for the County or Place wherein the Cauſe of Complaint ſhall ariſe, and within four Days after the Cauſe of ſuch Complaint ſhall have ariſen; ſuch Appellant giving, or cauſing to be given, fourteen Days Notice at leaſt, in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring ſuch Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the Perſons whoſe Acts are complained againſt; and, within two Days after ſuch Notice, entering into a Recognizance before ſome Juſtice of the Peace for ſuch County or Place, with two ſufficient Sureties, conditioned to try ſuch Appeal, and abide the Order of, and to pay ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded by, the Juſtices at ſuch Quarter-Seſſion: And the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch Seſſion, upon due Proof of ſuch Notice being given as aforeſaid, and of the entering into ſuch Recognizance, ſhall hear and finally determine the Cauſes and Matters of ſuch Appeal in a ſummary Way, and award ſuch Coſts to the Parties appealing, or appealed againſt, as they the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think proper; and the Determination of ſuch Quarter-Seſſions ſhall be final, binding, and concluſive, to all Intents and Purpoſes; and no Order made concerning any of the Matters aforeſaid, or any other Proceedings to be had, touching the Conviction or Convictions of any Offender againſt this Act, ſhall be quaſhed for want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Proceſs whatſoever, into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

CXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed (the Manner of levying and recovering whereof is not hereby otherwiſe particularly directed) ſhall be levied and recovered by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County of Middleſex, or City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, as the Caſe may be (which Warrant ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowered and required to grant upon the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties, or upon the Information of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes upon Oath) and the Informer is hereby rendered a credible Witneſs (which Oaths ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter); and the Penalties and Forfeitures, when recovered, after rendering the Overplus (if any be) upon Demand to the Party or Parties whoſe Goods and Chattels ſhall be ſo diſtrained and ſold, and the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted, ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, and ſhall be applied to and for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Informer deemed a credible Witneſs.

Commiſſioners may reward Informers.

CXXV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any Meeting to be held in purſuance of this Act, to order their Treaſurer or Treaſurers for the Time being, to pay ſuch Part of the ſaid Penalties to the Informer as they ſhall judge reaſonable, not exceeding one Half thereof.

Diſtreſs not to be deemed unlawful for want of Form; nor Party to be deemed a Treſpaſſer, ab initio, for ſubſequent Irregularity.

CXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Diſtreſs itſelf ſhall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the ſame be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers on account of any Default or Want of Form in any Proceedings relating thereto; nor ſhall the Party or Parties be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers ab initio, on account of any Irregularity which ſhall be afterwards done by the Party or Parties diſtraining; but the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved by ſuch Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the ſpecial Damage in lieu of any Action on the Caſe.

Plaintiff not to recover, if Tender of Amends hath been made.

CXXVII. Provided always, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall recover in any Action, or for any ſuch Irregularity, Treſpaſs, or other Proceedings, if Tender of ſufficient Amends ſhall be made by or on the Behalf of the Party or Parties who ſhall have committed, or cauſed to be committed, every or any ſuch Irregularity, Treſpaſs or wrongful Proceeding before ſuch Action brought; and in caſe no ſuch Tender ſhall have been made, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any Action, by Leave of the Court where ſuch Action ſhall depend, at any Time before joined, to pay into the Court ſuch Sum of Money as he or they ſhall ſee fit; whereupon ſuch Proceedings, or Order and Judgment ſhall be had, made, or given in and by ſuch Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

Perſons aggrieved, may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

CXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall think himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves aggrieved by any Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, or any other Matter or Thing done, or directed to be done, in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall apply for Relief to the Commiſſioners for putting this Act in Execution, at any Meeting to be held within one Month next after Demand made of ſuch Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, or next after any ſuch Matter or Thing done and committed by or by Order of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authoriſed and impowered (if they ſhall think ſuch Perſon or Perſons aggrieved) to give ſuch Relief in the Premiſes as to them ſhall ſeem neceſſary; and if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not be ſatisfied with the Determination of ſuch Commiſſioners, he, ſhe, or they ſhall be obliged to pay ſuch Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, and to comply with ſuch Order of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and then ſhall and may appeal to the Quarter Seſſion of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid County of Middleſex, or City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, as the Caſe ſhall be, within three Months next after ſuch Determination of the ſaid Commiſſioners; ſuch Appellant firſt giving, or cauſing to be given, twenty-one Days Notice at the leaſt, in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring ſuch Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the Clerk or Treaſurer to ſuch Commiſſioners, and within two Days next after ſuch Notice, entering into Recognizance before ſuch Juſtice of the Peace for ſuch County, or City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, with two ſufficient Sureties, conditioned to try ſuch Appeal, and to abide the Order thereof, and to pay ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded by the Juſtices at ſuch Quarter-Seſſions; and the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch Quarter-Seſſions, upon due Proof of ſuch Notice being given as aforeſaid, and of the entering into ſuch Recognizance, ſhall hear and determine the Cauſes and Matters of ſuch Appeal in a ſummary Way, and award ſuch Coſts to the Parties appealing or appealed againſt, as they the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think proper; and the Determination of ſuch Juſtices, at their Quarter Seſſions, ſhall be final, binding, and be concluſive.

Proceedings not to be quaſhed for want of Form, nor removeable by Certiorari.

CXXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, nor any Proceeding to be had touching the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders againſt this Act, or any Order made, or any other Matter or Thing to be done or tranſacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, ſhall be vacated or quaſhed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Proceſs whatſoever, into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Limitation of Actions.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, until twenty-one Days Notice ſhall be thereof given in Writing to the Clerk or Treaſurer to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or after ſufficient Satisfaction or Tender thereof hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed for which ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits ſhall be ſo brought; and all ſuch Actions or Suit ſhall be laid and tried in the County of Middleſex, or City and Liberty of Weſtminſter reſpectively, and not in any other County, City, or Place; and that the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action or Actions, Suit and Suits, and every of them, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial or Trials which ſhall be had thereupon; and that the Matter or Thing for or on which ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits ſhall be brought, was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſaid Matter or Thing ſhall appear to have been ſo done, or if it ſhall appear that ſuch Action or Suit was brought before twenty-one Days Notice thereof given as aforeſaid, or that ſufficient Satisfaction was made or tendered as aforeſaid; or if any ſuch Action or Suit ſhall not be commenced within the Time before for that Purpoſe limited, or ſhall be laid in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid; then the Jury or Juries ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants therein; and if a Verdict ſhall be found for ſuch Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, ſhall become nonſuited, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance of ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits; or if, upon a Demurrer or Demurrers in ſuch Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants therein, then, and in either of the Caſes aforeſaid, ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, and ſhall have ſuch Remedies for recovering the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants may have for his, her, or their Coſts, in other Caſes by Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

Publick Act.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be allowed in all Courts whatſoever, as a Publick Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

An Act for rendering more effectual ſeveral Acts for providing a publick Reward for diſcovering the Longitude at Sea; for improving the Lunar Tables conſtructed by the late Profeſſor Mayer; and for encouraging Diſcoveries and Improvements uſeful to Navigation.

Rep. in part, by 14 Geo. 3. c. 60.

'WHEREAS by ſeveral Acts made in twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in the fourteenth and twenty-ſixth Years of the Reign of King George the Second, and in the ſecond and fifth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſeveral Sums of Money were granted towards making Experiments of Propoſals for diſcovering the Longitude at Sea; towards granting certain Rewards to the Perſons in the ſaid Acts mentioned, towards improving the Lunar Tables conſtructed by Tobias Mayer, deceaſed, late Profeſſor at Goetengen in Germany; and towards making Diſcoveries and Improvements uſeful to Navigation; to be applied and paid in ſuch Manner, and to ſuch Perſons, as the Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of the Longitude at Sea ſhould by virtue of the Powers veſted in them by the ſeveral Acts before mentioned, think neceſſary and direct: And whereas, by reaſon of the ſeveral Payments made by the Treaſurer of the Navy to ſeveral Perſons, purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Acts, the ſaid ſeveral Sums by the ſaid Acts granted are nearly expended: And whereas, as well from the Experiments which have already been made in purſuance of the Powers veſted in the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, as from other Diſcoveries and Improvements uſeful to Navigation which have already been made, there is great Reaſon to expect, that by continuing to encourage ingenious Perſons to invent and make further Improvements and Experiments in order to diſcover the ſaid Longitude, ſuch Diſcoveries may at length be produced as will effectually anſwer that End, and thereby greatly contribute to the Advantage of the Trade and Honour of this Kingdom: Therefore, for enabling the ſaid Commiſſioners to cauſe ſuch further Experiments to be made as they ſhall think proper for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and for promoting further Diſcoveries and Improvements uſeful to Navigation;' May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Commiſſioners conſtituted by the ſaid ſeveral Acts before mentioned for the Diſcovery of the Longitude at Sea, and for examining, trying, and judging of all Propoſals, Experiments, and Improvements relating to the ſame, or any five or more of them, ſhall have full Power to hear and receive any Propoſal or Propoſals that have been, or that ſhall hereafter be made to them for diſcovering the ſaid Longitude at Sea; or for improving the ſaid Lunar Tables; or for making any other Diſcovery or Diſcoveries, Improvement or Improvements, uſeful to Navigation; and in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall be ſo far ſatisfied of the Probability of any ſuch Propoſal, as to think it proper to make Experiment thereof, or of the Utility of ſuch Diſcovery or Improvement, as to think the ſame deſerving of Reward, they ſhall certify the ſame under their Hands and Seals to the Commiſſioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Names of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be the Author or Authors of ſuch Propoſal or Propoſals, or who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery or Diſcoveries, Improvement or Improvements; and, upon producing ſuch Certificate, the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Navy are hereby authoriſed and required to make out a Bill or Bills for any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of five thouſand Pounds, as the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of the ſaid Longitude, or any five or more of them, ſhall think neceſſary for making any Experiments, or for giving any Reward or Rewards, Sum or Sums of Money, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall improve the ſaid Lunar Tables, or ſhall make any Diſcovery or Diſcoveries, Improvement or Improvements, uſeful to Navigation, in purſuance of this Act, or any of the ſaid Acts herein before mentioned, payable by the Treaſurer of the Navy; which Sum or Sums of Money the Treaſurer of the Navy for the Time being is hereby authoriſed and required to pay immediately to the Perſon or Perſons mentioned in the ſaid Certificate or Certificates, out of any Money that ſhall be in his the ſaid Treaſurer's Hands unapplied for the Uſe of the Navy.

II. Provided always, That if any ſuch Reward or Sum of Money ſhall exceed the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, then, and in that Caſe, the ſame ſhall be certified under the Hands and Seals of the major Part of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of the ſaid Longitude.

'II. And whereas by an Act paſſed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually ſecuring and encouraging the Trade of his Majeſty's American Dominions; for 'repealing the Inland Duty on Coffee, impoſed by an Act made in the thirty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty 'King George the Second; and for granting an Inland Duty on all Coffee imported (except Coffee of the Growth 'of the Britiſh Dominions in America); for altering the Bounties and Drawbacks upon Sugars exported; for 'repealing Part of an Act made in the twenty-third Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, whereby Bar Iron, made in 'the ſaid Dominions, was prohibited to be exported from Great Britain, or carried Coaſtwiſe; and for regulat- 'ing the Fees of the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Dominions; in order to prevent any Diſputes concern- 'ing what Fees the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America 'may be intitled to for making Entries or other Buſineſs done by them in the Execution of their Employ- 'ments, it is enacted, That until ſuch Time as the ſame ſhall be otherwiſe ſettled by the Authority of Parlia- 'ment, it ſhall and may be lawful for all and every Collector, and other Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms 'in any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, to demand and receive ſuch Fees as they and their Prede- 'ceſſors were intitled to demand and receive, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September, one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four, provided the Fees ſo taken are not contrary to the expreſs Di- 'rection of any Act of Parliament made in Great Britain; any Law, Bye-law, or other Act of Aſſembly, 'made in the ſaid Plantations, to the contrary notwithſtanding: And whereas there have lately ariſen, in 'ſome of the Ports of America, Diſputes whether the Officers of the Cuſtoms were intitled to demand and 'receive ſuch Fees as were uſually taken by them and their Predeceſſors before the ſaid twenty-ninth Day 'of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four; and the Naval Officers not having been in- 'cluded in the ſaid recited Act, Diſputes have ariſen concerning the Fees of ſome of the ſaid Naval Officers;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, for and during the Term of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, unleſs the ſame ſhall be ſooner ſettled by the Authority of Parliament, every Collector, Comptroller, and other Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and every Naval Officer in the ſaid Britiſh Colonies, ſhall be deemed to be intitled to, and ſhall and may lawfully demand and receive ſuch Fees, as they and their Predeceſſors reſpectively were and had been generally and uſually accuſtomed to demand, take, and receive, before the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four; and ſhall have like Remedy for the ſame according to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid recited Act; any Law, Bye-law, or other Act of Aſſembly made in ſaid Plantations, to the contrary notwithſtanding: And if any ſuch Collector, Comptroller, or other Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or Naval Officer in America, ſhall exact, require, or receive any greater or other Fees than ſuch as are herein before allowed to be taken, he ſhall, for the firſt Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; one Moiety of which Penalty ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved thereby, who ſhall ſue for the ſame in the proper Court in ſuch Colony or Plantation; and for the ſecond Offence, he ſhall forfeit his Place or Office, and be for ever after incapable of executing any Office or Employment in the Cuſtoms or Navy.

Officers of the Cuſtoms, and Naval Officers in the Britiſh Colonies, may for 2 Years, demand ſuch Fees as were uſually paid before 29 Sept. 1764.

Penalty on exacting greater Fees.

Application thereof.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for continuing the Bounties on Britiſh and Iriſh Linens exported; for further diſcontinuing the Duties on the Importation of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; and for granting a Bounty on the Exportation of Britiſh checqued and ſtriped Linens, and upon Britiſh and Iriſh Diapers, Huckabacks, Sheeting, and other Linen of above a certain Breadth.

29 Geo. 2. c. 15.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of his late Majeſty King GEORGE 'the Second, intituled, An Act for granting a Bounty upon certain Species of Britiſh and Iriſh Linens 'exported, and taking off the Duties on the Importation of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax, it is en- 'acted, That there ſhall be given and paid, without any Fee, Reward, or Deduction whatſoever, a Bounty 'for every Yard of Britiſh or Iriſh Linens made of Hemp or Flax, and of the Breadth of twenty-five 'Inches or more, under the Value of five Pence per Yard, the Sum of one Halfpenny; and of the Value 'of five Pence per Yard, and under the Value of ſix Pence per Yard, the Sum of one Penny; and of the 'Value of ſix Pence per Yard, and not exceeding the Value of eighteen Pence per Yard, the Sum of one 'Penny Halfpenny; which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred 'and fifty-ſix, and within the Term of fifteen Years, to commence from the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of 'June, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be exported 'out of Great Britain to Africa, America, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, the Iſland of Minorca, or to the Eaſt 'Indies: And it is further enacted, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, no Subſidy, 'Cuſtom, Rate, Duty, or other Impoſition whatſoever, ſhould be demanded, collected, received, or taken 'upon any Raw or Brown Linen Yarn made of Flax, and known by the Names of Dutch Yarn, and French 'Yarn, and of Spruce or Muſcovia Yarn, or any other Foreign Raw or Brown Linen Yarns made of Flax, 'which ſhall be imported into this Kingdom; but that all ſuch Linen Yarns ſhall and may be imported 'Duty-free for the Space of fifteen Years from the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, or at any Time

'thereafter

'thereafter before the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; any former Law, Statute, or Act or Acts 'of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding: And whereas the Manufacture of Linen would be ſtill 'further improved, and the Exportation thereof to Foreign Parts be preſerved and conſiderably increaſed, 'if the Bounties by the ſaid Act granted, and herein before recited, were continued, and the Duties on 'the Importation of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax taken off for a further Term of Years, and 'if a Bounty was allowed on the Exportation of all Britiſh checked and ſtriped Linen of a certain Value: 'May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act of the twenty-ninth of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for granting a Bounty 'upon certain Species of Britiſh and Iriſh Linens exported; and taking off the Duties on the Importation 'of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax, and the Bounties thereby allowed; and the taking off the 'Duties on the Importation of the Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax;' ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby continued, under all the Clauſes, Conditions, and Limitations of the ſaid Act, until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, except in ſo far as the ſame are altered and extended by this preſent Act in Manner as herein after mentioned; any Thing in the herein before recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be given and paid, without any Fee, Reward, or Deduction whatſoever, a Bounty for every Yard of Britiſh checked or ſtriped Linen of the Breadth of twenty-five Inches or more, and not exceeding one Shilling and ſix Pence and not under ſeven Pence in Value per Yard, the Sum of one Halfpenny, which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and within the Term of ſeven Years to commence from the ſaid twenty fourth Day of June laſt mentioned, and from thence to continue to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament immediately following the Expiration of the ſaid additional Term of ſeven Years, ſhall be exported out of Great Britain to Africa, America, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, the Iſland of Minorca, or the Eaſt Indies; in the ſame Manner, and under the like Proviſions, Conditions, and Limitations, as the herein before recited Bounties were allowed by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ninth Year of his late Majeſty, and continued under this preſent Act.

Bounty on certain Britiſh checked or ſtriped Linens exported.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if, upon View and Examination by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms it ſhall appear, that all or any Piece or Pieces of checked and ſtriped Linen, which ſhall be entered for Exportation as intitled to the Bounty hereby granted, is or are of a greater Value than one Shilling and ſix Pence per Yard; then, and in ſuch Caſe and Caſes reſpectively, it ſhall be in the Power of the Officers of the Cuſtoms to take the ſaid checked and ſtriped Linen, on paying to the Exporter or Seller the Value of one Penny per Yard over and above the eſtimated Value thereof; in the ſame Manner, and ſubject to the like Diſpoſitions and Conditions, as by the ſaid before recited Act are provided in the Caſe of Linen entered for Exportation as intitled to the Bounty, which, on View and Examination, ſhall appear to the Officers to be of greater Value than one Shilling and ſix Pence per Yard.

Linen of above 1s. 6d. per Yard, entered as intitled to Bounty, Cuſtom Officer may take the ſame.

'IV. And whereas Diapers, Huckabacks, Sheeting, and other Species of Linen, upwards of one 'Yard Engliſh in Breadth, though of no finer or better Fabrick or Quality than Linen of an ordinary 'Breadth which are intitled to the Bounty by the ſaid Act granted, are not intitled to the ſaid Bounty if 'above the Value of eighteen Pence per Yard: And whereas it would be of greater Benefit to the Manu-'facture of Diapers, Huckabacks, Sheeting, and other Species of Linen aforeſaid, that a Bounty be grant-'ed by the ſquare Yard upon the Exportation of the ſame to any of the Places mentioned in the ſaid re-'cited Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and upon every ſquare Yard of the Species of Goods aforeſaid, being of the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, and not exceeding one Shilling and ſix Pence the Square Yard in Value a Bounty of one Penny Halfpenny upon every ſuch Square Yard, and ſo in Proportion for any Quantity exceeding a Square Yard, ſhall be allowed upon the Exportation thereof reſpectively, for ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, and under and ſubject to the like Conditions, Reſtrictions, and Limitations, as are preſcribed by the ſaid recited Act of the twenty-ninth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, and continued by this preſent Act.

A Bounty of 1d. 2q. per Square Yard allowed upon Exportation of Diaper, &c. not exceeding 1s. 6d. per Yard in Value. See farther Index, Tit. Linen.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for regiſtering the Prices at which Corn is ſold in the ſeveral Counties of Great Britain, and the Quantity exported and imported.

'WHEREAS a Regiſter of the Prices at which Corn is ſold in the ſeveral Counties of Great Bri-'tain, will be of publick and general Advantage: May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be en-'acted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of the Peace for each County, Riding, Diviſion, and Stewartry within Great Britain, ſhall, and they are hereby required, at their General or Quarter-ſeſſions to be held next after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, and ſo in every ſucceeding Year during the Continuance of this Act, at their General or Quarter-ſeſſions to be held next after the twenty-ninth Day of September, to order and direct Returns to be made weekly of the Prices of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Oats, and Beans, from ſuch and ſo many Market-towns within ſuch reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, and Stewartries, as they ſhall think proper, not being leſs than two, nor more than ſix

CAP. XL.

An Act for appropriating a Fund, eſtabliſhed by an Act made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties on certain foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom, and for eſtabliſhing a Fund for the encouraging of the Raiſing and Dreſſing of Hemp and Flax.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties on certain Foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom, and for eſtabliſhing a Fund for the encouraging of the Raiſing and Dreſſing of Hemp and Flax, it is enacted, That a Sum not exceeding fifteen thouſand Pounds per Annum, ariſing from the Duties by the ſaid Act granted, ſhall be kept apart in the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, as a Fund for the Encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom, in ſuch Way and Manner as Parliament ſhould thereafter direct: And whereas ſuch Direction is now become requiſite for anſwering the ſalutary Purpoſes of the ſaid Act: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, by his or their Royal Sign Manual for that Purpoſe, and counterſigned by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, to direct, order, limit, and appoint, the Diſtribution and Payment of the Sum of eight thouſand Pounds per Annum, from the Commencement of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh of his preſent Majeſty, and annually afterwards, or of eight fifteenth Parts of the Sum and Sums of Money which have already grown due and been kept apart, and ſhall hereafter grow due and be kept apart, for the Encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom, purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh of his preſent Majeſty, and every Matter and Thing neceſſary for the Appropriation thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid herein before recited Act, in ſuch Ways and Manner, and in and by ſuch Shares, Proportions, and Diviſions, and under ſuch Conditions, Reſtrictions, and Limitations, as to his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, ſhall from Time to Time as aforeſaid, appear to be moſt uſeful and effectual for the Encouragement of the raiſing and dreſſing Hemp and Flax within that Part of Great Britain called England.

7 Geo. 3. c. 58.

His Majeſty impowered to direct the Diſtribution of 8000l. per Annum, &c. for encouraging the raiſing and dreſſing of Hemp and Flax, purſuant to the Directions of 7 Geo. 3.

'II. And whereas, purſuant to Powers given by an Act paſſed in the thirteenth Year of his Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for encouraging and promoting Fiſheries, and other Manufactures and Improvements, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, his Majeſty has already, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept in Scotland in place of the Great Seal thereof, appointed, named, and authoriſed certain Perſons to be Truſtees and Commiſſioners for managing and directing the Application of the ſeveral Funds and Sums of Money in the ſaid Act provided and appropriated for the Improvement and Encouragement of Fiſhery and Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland: And whereas it will be of great public Benefit that ſo much of the ſaid Fund ſet apart for the Encouragement of the raiſing and dreſſing of Hemp and Flax, as ſhall be allotted for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhould likewiſe be put under the Management and Direction of the ſaid Truſtees and Commiſſioners, and other Perſons after mentioned:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury now being, and the High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury of his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors for the Time being, ſhall, and they are hereby impowered and required to iſſue their Warrants and Orders to the proper Perſons, for making Payment of ſeven thouſand Pounds per Annum, from the Commencement of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh of his preſent Majeſty, and annually afterwards, or of ſeven fifteenth Parts of the Sum and Sums of Money which have already grown due and been kept apart, and ſhall hereafter grow due and be kept apart in the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, for the Encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh of his preſent Majeſty, as the ſame ſhall ſeverally become due, unto the Receiver General of the Crown Rents and Caſualties in Scotland, without Fee or Reward, to be by him anſwered and iſſued in like Manner, without Fee or Reward, to and by the Order of the Commiſſioners and Truſtees for encouraging and promoting Fiſhings, Manufactures, and Improvements, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and other Perſons after named in Manner as herein after mentioned.

13 Geo. 1. c. 32.

Treaſury to iſſue Warrants for paying 7000l. annually, &c.

purſuant to Act 7 Geo. 3. to the Receiver General of the Crown Rents and Caſualties in Scotland, towards encouraging Fiſheries, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame Plan or Method, Rules, and Regulations, whereby the Funds appropriated for the Improvement of Fiſheries and Manufactures by the ſaid Act of the thirteenth of George the Firſt are ordered to be applied, laid out, and diſtributed, ſhall take place and be followed in the Application, laying out, and Diſtribution of the Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be iſſued under the Authority of this preſent Act, to and for the Encouragement of the raiſing Hemp and Flax in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, under the Direction and Management of the ſaid to be followed in the Diſtribution of Money iſſued under this Act.

ſaid Truſtees and Commiſſioners, in the ſame Manner, and as effectually, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Proviſions, Rules, Regulations, Matters, and Things, in the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, reſpecting the Plan, Rules, and Regulations aforeſaid, were repeated, and applied in this preſent Act to the Application, laying out, and Diſtribution of the ſaid Sum and Sums of Money allotted for the Encouragement of the raiſing and dreſſing of Hemp and Flax in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to enable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Receſs of Parliament.

[Rep. by 24 Geo. 3. Seſſ. 2. c. 26. See 15 Geo. 3. c. 36. which is alſo in Part repealed by 24 Geo. 3.]

CAP. XLII.

An Act to indemnify ſuch Perſons in Great Britain and Ireland, as have omitted to qualify themſelves for Offices and Employments within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing further Time for that Purpoſe; for allowing further Time for regiſtering and inrolling Agreements entered into for encloſing Commons, for the Purpoſe of planting and preſerving Trees for Timber or Underwood; and for indemnifying Perſons who have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for repealing the Duties upon Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair Hats and Bonnets, and upon certain Materials for making the ſame, imported into this Kingdom; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Importation of ſuch Goods.

7 Geo. 3. c. 20.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties upon Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair Hats and Bonnets, and upon certain Materials for making the ſame, imported into this Kingdom, a new Duty of ſix Shillings was laid upon every Dozen of Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair Hats and Bonnets; and a new Duty of ſix Shillings was alſo laid upon every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Platting, or other Manufacture of Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, to be uſed in or proper for making of Hats or Bonnets, to be imported into this Kingdom, over and above all other Duties impoſed thereon: And whereas, ſince the laying of the ſaid new Duties, great Quantities of the ſaid Goods have been clandeſtinely and fraudulently imported and run into this Kingdom, to the Diminution of the Public Revenue, and the Diſcouragement of the Fair Traders: And whereas Baſt or Straw Hats are rated in the Book of Rates referred to by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of King CHARLES the Second, and Plat, called Bermudas Plat, for Hats, and Shavings for Hats, are alſo rated in the additional Book of Rates referred to by an Act of the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt; but the other Articles herein before enumerated, not being rated in either of the ſaid Books of Rates, or by any other Act of Parliament, the Duties granted by former Acts upon ſuch unrated Articles, are payable according to the Value ſworn to, or affirmed by, the Importers; which by Experience has been found to be very unequal, from the various Values fixed by the Importers on the ſame Species of Goods: Now, for Remedy thereof, and to put the Trade upon a more equal Foot, May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the ſaid new Duties impoſed by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign as aforeſaid, and all other Rates and Duties now payable by virtue of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, upon Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair Hats or Bonnets, and upon Platting, or other Manufactures of Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair, to be uſed in or proper for making of Hats or Bonnets imported into this Kingdom, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer paid or payable for the ſame.

The Duties here mentioned repealed;

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in lieu of the ſaid former Rates and Duties repealed by this Act, all Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, and Horſehair Hats and Bonnets, which, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, ſhall be imported or brought into this Kingdom, ſhall be rated to and pay the Old Subſidy granted by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, according to the Rates and Values of twelve Shillings and ſix Pence for every Dozen, each Hat or Bonnet not exceeding twenty-two Inches in Diameter; and one Pound five Shillings for every Dozen of ſuch Hats or Bonnets as ſhall exceed twenty-two Inches in Diameter each; and all Platting, or other Manufactures of Baſt or Straw, Chip, and Old Subſidy to be paid according to Rates following.

Chip, Cane, or Horſehair, to be uſed in or proper for making of Hats or Bonnets, which, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, ſhall be ſo imported or brought into this Kingdom, ſhall be rated to, and pay the ſaid Old Subſidy, according to the Rate and Value of ſix Shillings and eight Pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois; and after thoſe Rates, for any greater or leſs Quantity of ſuch Goods reſpectively.

Goods herein before enumerated,

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any of the ſaid Goods herein before enumerated were, before the making this Act, ſubject or liable to the Payment of the further Subſidy, One Third Subſidy, Two Thirds Subſidy, the additional Impoſt, the additional Duty on French Goods, the Subſidy one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſeven, or any of them, according to the reſpective Values ſet thereupon for the ſaid Old Subſidy, or in proportion thereto; the ſame ſhall, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, be paid proportionably, according to the particular Rate or Value herein before reſpectively ſet thereon for the Old Subſidy, and not according to any former Rate or Value; any Thing in any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

to pay proportionably according to Rates herein before ſet thereon for Old Subſidy.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Subſidies, Impoſitions, and Duties, upon the ſaid Goods herein before mentioned, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and applied, in ſuch Manner and Form, and by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Diſcounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as are mentioned and expreſſed in the ſeveral Acts of Parliament which granted or continued the ſame reſpectively: And all Powers, Penalties, Proviſions, Articles, and Clauſes, therein contained, ſhall continue in full Force and Effect, and ſhall be applied, practiſed, and executed, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, paying, and applying, the ſaid reſpective Subſidies, Impoſitions, and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this preſent Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Clauſes, Matters and Things, had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Duties, &c. to be raiſed, &c. as directed by the Acts which granted the ſame; and the Powers and Penalties of the ſaid Acts extended to this Act.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch of the Goods herein before enumerated, as ſhall be now remaining in any Warehouſe under the King's Locks, where the ſaid Goods were lodged immediately upon landing, in purſuance of the Proviſo for that Purpoſe in the before recited Act made in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Duties and Regulations herein before mentioned, in the ſame Manner as if the ſaid Goods had been imported after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy; and upon the Owner or Proprietor making a Poſt Entry for ſuch Goods, and paying, within the Space of three Months from the Commencement of this Act, into the Hands of the Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the Port where ſuch Goods ſhall be ſecured, ſo much Money as, together with the Duties before paid upon the Importation of ſuch Goods, will be equal to the Duties impoſed by this Act thereon, the ſaid Goods ſhall and may be delivered up to him or them to be diſpoſed of as by Law they may; but in caſe ſuch Entry ſhall not be made, and the Duties paid as aforeſaid, within the ſaid Space of three Months from and after the Commencement of this Act, then it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any four or more of them, to cauſe the ſaid Goods to be brought to any Warehouſe belonging to his Majeſty, and publickly ſold by Auction to the beſt Advantage; and after deducting the Charges of ſuch Sale, to apply the Produce thereof to the Cuſtoms and Duties herein before mentioned; and the Overplus, if any, to be paid to the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Goods; any Thing in the before recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Straw and Chip Hats, &c. not to be brought into any other Port but the Port of London, nor there, leſs than 75 Dozen of Hats or Bonnets, or 224lb. Weight of Platting, &c.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, no Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſehair Hats or Bonnets, or any Platting or other Manufactures herein before mentioned to be uſed in or proper for making of ſuch Hats or Bonnets, ſhall be imported or brought into any Part of Great Britain, except into the Port of London only, upon any Pretence whatſoever; nor ſhall any ſuch Goods be imported or brought into the Port of London, unleſs the ſame ſhall be packed in Bales or Tubs, each of which Bales or Tubs ſhall contain ſeventy-five Dozen of ſuch Hats or Bonnets, or two hundred and twenty-four Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of ſuch Platting or other Manufactures at the leaſt reſpectively; and in caſe any ſuch Goods ſhall be imported or brought into any other Port or Place within this Kingdom, except in the Port of London, or ſhall be found on board any Ship or Veſſel coming or arriving from any Foreign Parts, either at Anchor, or hovering within the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, or within two Leagues of the Shore, or ſhall be diſcovered to have been within the Limits of any ſuch Port, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, unleſs in caſe of unavoidable Neceſſity and Diſtreſs of Weather, of which Neceſſity and Diſtreſs, the Maſter, Purſer, or other Perſon, having or taking the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall give Notice to, and make Proof of, before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of ſuch Port as aforeſaid, immediately after the Arrival of ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port; or if any ſuch Goods ſhall be imported or brought into the Port of London, in any other Form or Manner, or in any leſs Quantity or Package than is herein before mentioned and allowed; in each and every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Goods ſo imported, or found on board any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with the Package containing the ſame Goods, or the Value thereof, ſhall be forfeited, whether Bulk ſhall then have been broken or not; and the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo imported or found as aforeſaid, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, ſhall alſo be forfeited and loſt, provided ſuch Ship or Veſſel doth not exceed the Burthen of fifty Tons; and ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Goods, ſhall and on Forfeiture thereof, together with the Package, and alſo of the Ship, &c. if not exceeding fifty Tons Burthen; to be prosecuted and divided as directed by 3 Geo. 3.

may be seized and prosecuted by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and, after Condemnation, disposed of and divided in the same Manner as other forfeited Goods, and Ships or Vessels not exceeding fifty Tons Burthen, are directed to be seized, prosecuted, disposed of, and divided by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the further Improvement of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs; and for the Encouragement of Officers making 'Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandestine Running of Goods into any Part of his Majesty's 'Dominions.'

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise; then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Treble Costs.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act for more effectually preventing Traders in Excisеable Commodities from using false Weights and Scales; and for explaining and amending several Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs.

'WHEREAS several Traders, subject to the Survey of the Officers appointed by the Commissioners 'of Excise, are severally required by the Laws concerning the Duties under the Management of the 'said Commissioners, to keep just and sufficient Scales and Weights, at the Place or Places where they carry 'on their respective Trades, to be used in taking the Account of the Stocks of such Traders: And whereas, 'the Penalties in those Laws provided, have by Experience been found ineffectual, and not sufficient to re-'strain the using false Weights and Scales, in regard the Duties of one Weighing oftentimes amount to 'more than the Forfeiture incurred; whereby some ill-disposed Persons have been encouraged to make use 'of false, unjust, and insufficient Scales and Weights, to the great Diminution of the Revenue, and to the 'Discouragement of the fair Trader: For Remedy whereof, May it please your Majesty, that it may be "enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if at any Time after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy, any Trader, subject to the Survey of any Officer of Excise, and required by the Laws concerning the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise to keep sufficient and just Scales and Weights, shall in the weighing his, her, or their Stock or Stocks, make use of, or cause, or procure, or suffer to be used, any false, unjust, or insufficient Scales or Weights, to the Intent to defraud his Majesty of the Duties by the said Laws respectively granted; that then, and in every such Case, the Party or Parties offending, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

Trader using false Weights and Scales in weighing his Stock, forfeits 100 l.

II. Provided always, That such Offender who shall be prosecuted for the Penalty by this Act given, shall not be again prosecuted for the same Offence by any former Act; and that such Offender who shall be prosecuted for the Penalty given by any former Act, shall not be prosecuted again for the same Offence by virtue of this present Act, or any Thing herein contained.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalties by this Act imposed shall and may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated by any such Ways and Means and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by any of the Laws of Excise may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated; and that one Moiety of such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety for the Use of such Person or Persons that shall inform or sue for the same.

7 Geo. 3. c. 44.

'IV. And whereas, by a Clause contained in an Act passed in the seventh Year of his present Majesty's 'Reign, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Policies of Assurance; and for reducing the 'Allowance to be made in respect to the prompt Payment of the Stamp Duties on Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, 'and other Exciseable Liquors; and for explaining and amending several Acts of Parliament relating to 'Hackney Coaches and Chairs; it was enacted, that every Jobb-coach licensed at the Head Office of 'Excise in London, which should be driven or let to hire on private Contract within the Cities of London 'and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, for any Time longer 'than one Month, without having the Excise Number or Mark fixed under the Foot-board of every such 'Coach, the same should be deemed and adjudged a Coach driven or let to Hire, contrary to the Act 'therein before mentioned, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen ANNE; and the Person so let-'ting or driving for Hire as aforesaid, is made liable to the like Penalty, as any Person or Persons who 'should drive or let to Hire by the Hour, Day, or otherwise, any Hackney Coach or Coach-horses, 'within the Places therein mentioned, without Leave or Licence from the Commissioners for regulating and 'licensing Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, were then by Law liable unto: And whereas many Inconvenien-

'cies

'cies may ariſe from putting the ſaid Clauſe ſtrictly into Execution;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the ſaid Clauſe ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed. Clauſe in recited Act repealed.

'V. And whereas, by another Clauſe contained in the ſaid Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his preſent 'Majeſty's Reign, it is enacted, That in every Caſe where any Perſon, for any of the Offences mentioned 'in any Law relating to the licenſing and regulating of Hackney-coaches and Chairs, ſhall be liable to be 'committed to Priſon, it ſhould and might be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of 'them, either to commit ſuch Offender to Priſon in Manner and for the Time therein preſcribed, or, by 'Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit ſuch Offender to his Majeſty's Work-houſe of Bride-'well in London, or ſome other Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time, at the 'Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, not exceeding one Month; and alſo to receive the Correction of 'the ſaid Houſe, if the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſo think fit to order: And whereas a Doubt has ariſen 'whether the ſaid Commiſſioners have a Power, under the ſaid recited Clauſe, to commit Offenders to 'Bridewell, or any other Houſe of Correction, immediately upon ſuch Offenders being convicted before 'them; which Power would be very beneficial in many Inſtances to the Publick:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, in all Caſes where they may now, by Law, commit any Offender convicted before them to Bridewell or any other Houſe of Correction, to commit ſuch Offender, for ſuch Offence whereof he ſhall be ſo convicted before them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, immediately to his Majeſty's ſaid Work-houſe of Bridewell in London, or ſome other Houſe of Correction; there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, not exceeding one Month, and alſo to receive the Correction of the ſaid Houſe, if the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſo think fit to order. Commiſſioners may commit Offenders immediately to Bridewell in London, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, every Perſon licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, to carry or let for Hire a Hackney-chair, who ſhall neglect or refuſe (being duly ſummoned for that Purpoſe) to appear from Time to Time before the ſaid Commiſſioners in Perſon, or by his or her Renter, upon any Complaint made, without ſome reaſonable Excuſe to be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings; and if any ſuch Perſon licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, together with his or her Renter, before the ſaid Commiſſioners upon the third Summons, without ſuch reaſonable Excuſe as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, to hear and determine the ſaid Complaint, notwithſtanding the Abſence of the Party offending, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, and to impoſe upon ſuch licenſed Perſon or Renter the Penalty or Forfeiture due to ſuch Offence. Licenſed Perſon refuſing to appear upon Summons, forfeits 10s.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Offences mentioned in, and intended to be provided againſt by the ſaid recited Act, or by this preſent Act, ſhall and may be heard and determined, and all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties thereby inflicted, ſhall and may be recovered and levied, not only by his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for regulating and licenſing Hackney-coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, but alſo by any Juſtice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magiſtrate of the County, City, or Place, where ſuch Offence or Offences ſhall be committed, by ſuch Ways and Means as the Penalties and Forfeitures in the ſaid Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen ANNE, are directed to be levied and recovered. Commiſſioners or Juſtices may determine Offences, and inflict Puniſhments as directed by Act 9 Annæ.

'VIII. And whereas great Neglect or Default hath been made in tranſmitting, to the Receiver General of 'the Revenue ariſing by Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, his Majeſty's Part of the Penalties which have been 'levied by Juſtices of the Peace, or other Magiſtrates, in purſuance of the ſeveral Acts and Bye-Laws 'made, relating to Hackney-coaches and Chairs:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, his Majeſty's Part of all Penalties which ſhall be levied by any Juſtice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magiſtrate, in purſuance of this or any other Act, or any of the Bye-laws made relating to Hackney-coaches and Chairs, ſhall from Time to Time be tranſmitted by him or them to the Receiver-General of the ſaid Revenues ariſing by Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, and alſo a Certificate thereof to the ſaid Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating the ſame, within ten days after the levying any ſuch Penalty or Penalties, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of ten Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that will inform, or ſue forth for the ſame.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance, and by the Authority of this Act: And if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall diſcontinue his or their Action or Actions, or be nonſuited, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them upon Demurrer or otherwiſe; then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. as directed by Act 9 Annæ. General Iſſue. Treble Coſts.

An Act for better regulating Perſons employed in the Service of the Eaſt-India Company, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George 'the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majeſty's Subjects from trading to the 'Eaſt Indies under Foreign Commiſſions, and for encouraging and further ſecuring the lawful Trade thereto; 'and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Iſle of Thanet; it was amongſt other Things 'enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful to and for his Majeſty's Attorney-General for the Time being, 'at the relation of the ſaid Company, or by his own Authority, to exhibit a Bill or Bills of Complaint in 'his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, againſt any Perſon or Perſons trading, dealing, trafficking, or adven-'turing, at any Time from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'twenty-one, in, to, or from the Eaſt Indies, or Places therein before mentioned, contrary to Law; or 'againſt any Perſon or Perſons concerned as Agent, Factor, or Copartner with ſuch illegal Traders; for 'diſcovering of ſuch their trading, dealing, trafficking, and adventuring, and for Recovery of ſuch Duties 'and Damages as are therein and herein after mentioned; waving or diſclaiming, in every ſuch Bill, all the 'Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred by ſuch Perſon or Perſons for the Matters in ſuch Bill or Bills con-'tained; and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhould anſwer the ſaid Bill or Bills, and not plead or demur to the 'Diſcovery thereby ſought; and pay to his Majeſty the Cuſtoms and Duties of the Goods and Merchan-'dizes ariſing, produced, or purchaſed by the ſaid unlawful Trade, Traffick, or Adventuring; and ſhould 'anſwer and pay to the ſaid Company for the ſame thirty Pounds per Centum according to the Value thereof 'in England: And whereas the ſaid Sum of thirty Pounds per Centum ſo enacted to be paid to the ſaid 'United Company, as and for Damages on account of ſuch illicit Trade as aforeſaid, hath been found in-'adequate and inſufficient for preventing the ſaid illicit Trade, and for making good to the ſaid Company 'the Damage they have ſuſtained thereby: Now, for the more effectually preventing ſuch illicit Trade, 'and for making a better Compenſation or Recompence to the ſaid United Company, by way of Da-'mages, for any Loſs or Prejudice they may ſuſtain by the illicit Practices aforeſaid,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, all and every Perſon or Perſons, Adventurer or Adventurers, proſecuting or concerned in ſuch illicit Trade, Traffick, and Dealings as aforeſaid, ſhall, over and beſides the Duties and Cuſtoms by Law payable to his Majeſty, forfeit and pay to the ſaid United Company the Sum of one hundred Pounds per Centum, according to the Value, in England, of the Goods, Merchandizes, and Effects, ſo illicitly traded, trafficked, or dealt in, inſtead and in lieu of the ſaid Sum of thirty Pounds per Centum, mentioned in the ſaid Act: which ſaid Sum of one hundred Pounds per Centum, ſhall and is hereby directed to be ſued for and recovered in ſuch and the like Manner, as in and by the ſaid recited Act, made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Firſt, is preſcribed and enacted with reſpect to the ſaid Sum of thirty Pounds per Centum; any Thing therein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons concerned in illicit Trade to pay to Eaſt India Company 100 l. per Cent. ad Valorem, over and above the Duties, inſtead of former Penalty; to be recovered as by Act 7 Geo. 1.

'II. And whereas ſundry Captains and other Officers and Mariners of Ships, in the Service of the ſaid 'United Company, bound to India, do oftentimes in a clandeſtine Manner carry and tranſport to the 'Eaſt Indies aforeſaid great Quantities of Artillery, Ordnance, Muſquets, Fire Arms, Ammunition, and 'Warlike Stores, and there ſell and diſpoſe thereof to the Natives, and alſo to Powers in thoſe Parts at War 'or in Enmity with the ſaid United Company, or to other Perſons through whoſe Hands the ſame do or 'may come to the Uſe of ſuch Powers; to the great Injury of the Publick, as well as of the ſaid United 'Company and their Poſſeſſions and Trade in India: Therefore, to the End that ſuch evil Practices may 'for the future be remedied and prevented,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Officer and Officers, Mariners, or other Perſon or Perſons, in the Service of the ſaid United Com-

Perſons in the Service of Eaſt India Company tranſporting any Warlike Stores, &c. may be proſecuted in the Court of King's Bench, and be liable to Corporal Puniſhment or Fine.

pany, who ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, carry, tranſport, or ſend, or cauſe to be carried, tranſported, or ſent to the Eaſt Indies aforeſaid, or ſhall put or cauſe to be put on board any Ship in the Service of the ſaid United Company trading to the Eaſt Indies, any Artillery, Ordnance, Muſquets, Fire Arms, Ammunition, or Warlike Stores of any Kind whatſoever, or ſhall knowingly aid or aſſiſt therein, without the Licence or Authority of the ſaid United Company, with Intention or for the Purpoſe of tranſporting, ſelling, trafficking, bartering, exchanging, or otherwiſe uttering or diſpoſing of the ſame in the Eaſt Indies, or within the Limits of the ſaid United Company's Trade; ſhall, in every ſuch Caſe, be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of a high Crime and Miſdemeanor, and as ſuch ſhall and may be proſecuted for the ſame in his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending being convicted, ſhall be liable to ſuch corporal Puniſhment or Fine as the ſaid Court ſhall think fit.

'III. And whereas by one other Act of Parliament paſſed in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent 7 Geo. 3. c. 49.
'Majeſty, intituled, An Act for regulating certain Proceedings of the General Courts of the United Company 'of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, it was enacted, That no Dividend ſhould be made by 'the ſaid Company, for or in reſpect of any Time ſubſequent to the twenty-fourth Day of June one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, otherwiſe than in purſuance of a Vote or Reſolution, paſſed by 'way of Balloting, in a General Court of the ſaid Company, which ſhall have been ſummoned for the 'Purpoſe of declaring a Dividend, and of the Meeting of which General Court for ſuch Purpoſe, ſeven 'Days Notice at the leaſt ſhall have been given in Writing, fixed upon the Royal Exchange in London; and 'it was thereby further enacted, That no Balloting upon any Queſtion propoſed in any General Court of 'the ſaid Company, relative to any Matter whatſoever, ſhould be begun within a leſs Space of Time than 'eight Hours after the Adjournment or Breaking-up of the General Court in which it ſhall have been de-'termined that ſuch Queſtion ſhould be decided by Balloting: And whereas the Balloting for every Dividend 'of the ſaid Company, as preſcribed by the laſt recited Act, would be attended with much Inconvenience 'and Delay, in Caſes where no Alteration in the Rate of the ſaid Company's Dividend is made or intended 'to be made: And whereas the Time or Space of eight Hours thereby alſo preſcribed for taking ſuch 'Balloting in queſtion, and not relative to the Declaration of a Dividend, is not ſufficient to give the 'Proprietors at large of the ſaid Company's Stock a full and fair Opportunity to exerciſe their Right of 'taking ſuch Part in every ſuch Determination as they are intitled to by Law:' Therefore, for preventing the aforeſaid Inconve niencies for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, when any Half Yearly or other Dividend of the ſaid Company ſhall be voted and declared by a General Court of Proprietors, not varying or differing from the Rate of the ſaid Company's Dividend for the laſt preceding Half Year, that then and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall not be neceſſary for the ſaid General Court of the ſaid Company to proceed to a Ballot reſpecting ſuch Dividends; but that a Declaration from the Chairman for the Time being of the ſaid Company of the voting and agreeing of the General Court of Proprietors to ſuch Dividend, ſhall be a ſufficient Notice and Authority for declaring and making ſuch Dividend; and that from and after the paſſing of this Act, no Balloting upon any Queſtion propoſed in any General Court of the ſaid Company, relative to any Matter whatſoever, ſhall be begun within a leſs Space of Time than twenty-four Hours after the Adjournment or Breaking-up of the General Court in which it ſhall have been determined that ſuch Queſtion ſhould be decided by Balloting; any Thing in the ſaid laſt recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

When a Dividend ſhall be voted and declared not differing from the Rate for preceding Half Year, a Declaration from the Chairman of ſuch Vote, ſufficient Notice, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever employed by or in the Service of the ſaid United Company, in any Civil or Military Station, Office, or Capacity whatſoever, in the Eaſt Indies, or deriving or claiming any Power, Authority, or Juriſdiction, by or from the ſaid United Company, ſhall, after the paſſing of this Act, be guilty of oppreſſing any of his Majeſty's Subjects beyond the Seas within their reſpective Juriſdictions; or, in the Exerciſe of any ſuch Station, Office, Employment, Power, or Authority derived or claimed by, from, or under the ſaid United Company, or ſhall be guilty of any other Crime or Offence; ſuch Oppreſſions, Crimes, and Offences, ſhall and may be enquired of, heard, and determined, in his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench in England; and ſuch Puniſhments ſhall be inflicted on ſuch Offenders, as are uſually inflicted for Offences of the like Nature committed in that Part of Great Britain called England; and that the ſame, and all other Offences committed againſt this Act, may be alledged to be committed, and may be laid, enquired of, and tried in the County of Middleſex.

Company's Servants in the Eaſt Indies may be tried in the Court of King's Bench, and puniſhed as if Offence committed in England.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Actions, or Suits, brought againſt the ſaid United Company, their Agents, or Servants, or any Perſon deriving Authority under the ſaid Company, for any Thing by him or them done in ſuch Capacity, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in any ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence.

General Iſſue.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; of which Notice ſhall be judicially taken, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Publick Act.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Defendant or Defendants, or his or their Attorney, ſhall deliver to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every ſuch Action, or his or their Attorney, a Notice in Writing, ſigned by the Defendant or Defendants, or his or their Attorney, of the Subſtance of the Defence or Defences which he or they intend to rely upon, ſix Days before the Trial of ſuch Action, in caſe the ſame is to be tried in London or Middleſex; and eight Days before the Trial thereof, in caſe the ſame is to be

Defendant to deliver to Plaintiff a Notice of the Subſtance of his Defence, and ſhall not give Evidence of

See farther Index, Tit. East India Company.

be tried in any other County; and the Defendant or Defendants ſhall not, by virtue of this Act, be permitted, at the Trial of any ſuch Action, to give Evidence of any Matters not contained in ſuch Notice.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for making the Receiving of ſtolen Jewels, and Gold and Silver Plate, in the Caſe of Burglary and Highway Robbery, more penal.

'WHEREAS the Facility with which ſtolen Jewels, and Gold and Silver Plate, are diſpoſed of, 'is one principal Cauſe of the frequent Commiſſion of Burglaries and Highway Robberies; and 'the preſent Laws againſt the receiving of ſtolen Goods, are found inſufficient to deter Perſons from that 'Practice: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon, who from and after the firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, ſhall buy or receive any ſtolen Jewel or Jewels, or any ſtolen Gold or Silver Plate, Watch or Watches, knowing the ſame to have been ſtolen, ſhall, in all Caſes where ſuch Jewel or Jewels, or Gold or Silver Plate, ſhall have been feloniouſly ſtolen, accompanied with a Burglary actually committed in the ſtealing the ſame, or ſhall have been feloniouſly taken by a Robbery on the Highway, ſhall be triable as well before Conviction of the principal Felon in ſuch Felony and Burglary or Robbery, whether he ſhall be in or out of Cuſtody, as after his Conviction: And if any Perſon, ſo buying or receiving ſuch Jewel or Jewels, or Gold or Silver Plate, ſhall be convicted thereof, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and be tranſported to ſome of his Majeſty's Plantations in America for the Space of fourteen Years, according to the Laws in Force for Tranſportation of Felons.

Perſons receiving Jewels, &c. knowing them to be ſtolen, triable as well before as after Conviction of principal Felons; and on Conviction to be tranſported for 14 Years.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act for continuing and amending ſeveral Acts for preventing Abuſes in making Bricks and Tiles.

See 17 Geo. 2. c. 42.

'WHEREAS the Laws herein after mentioned have been found to be very uſeful and beneficial, 'and are near expiring: May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, 'An Act to 'prevent Abuſes in the making of Bricks and Tiles, and to aſcertain the Dimenſions thereof, and to pre-'vent all unlawful Combinations amongſt any Brickmakers or Tilemakers within fifteen Miles of the City 'of London, in order to advance or enhance the Price of Bricks or Tiles;' and an Act made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act to explain and amend an 'Act made in the twelfth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent Abuſes in the making of Bricks and Tiles, and aſcertain the Dimenſions thereof, and to prevent all unlawful Combinations amongſt any Bricklayers or Tilemakers, within fifteen Miles of the City of London, in order to advance or enhance the Price of Bricks or Tiles; and an Act made in the third Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act 'for amending the Acts therein mentioned relating to the making of Bricks;' and alſo ſo much of an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for reviving ſeveral Acts 'for preventing Abuſes in making Bricks and Tiles; and for indemnifying Juſtices of the Peace, and others, 'who have acted under the ſaid Acts; and for indemnifying Perſons who have omitted to make and file 'Affidavits; and for allowing further Time for paying Duties omitted to be paid upon Contracts with 'Clerks and Apprentices; for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, Certificates, 'Receipts, Annuity Orders, and other Orders, loſt, burnt, or deſtroyed; and for repaying to Joſeph Glover 'and John Gill the Duty by them paid on a Cargo of Wheat, and for allowing the ſame to be landed for 'Home Conſumption; and for preventing Pariſh Poor being paid in baſe or counterfeit Coin;' as relates to Bricks and Tiles, which were to have Continuance to the End of this Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, to the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

3 Geo. 2. and ſo much of Act 9 Geo. 3. c. 37. as relate to Bricks and Tiles, further continued to 29 Sept. 1773, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Clay which ſhall be dug or deſigned for making any Bricks for Sale, in any Place or Places within the Kingdom of England, ſhall be turned at leaſt once between the firſt Day of February and the Time of beginning to make ſuch Bricks; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall make any Bricks of any Clay which ſhall not be turned once within the ſaid Time, he or they ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every thouſand of Bricks ſo made; to be levied, recovered, and applied, in ſuch Manner as other Penalties and Forfeitures are directed to be recovered, levied, and applied by the ſaid former Acts, or this preſent Act.

Clay for making Bricks for Sale, to be turned once between 1 Feb. and Time of making.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons within the ſaid City of London, and Limits aforeſaid, to dig or cauſe to be dug, at any Time in the Year, Brick-earth for the making of Bricks, provided ſuch Earth is turned once before the ſame is made into Bricks; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act of the twelfth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Perſons in London, &c. to dig Brick-earth at any Time, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Size of the Sieves or Screens for ſifting or ſcreening Sea Coal Aſhes to be mixed with Brick-earth, in the making of Bricks, ſhall not exceed one Quarter of an Inch between the Maſhes of ſuch Sieve or Screen; any Thing in the ſaid recited Acts, or any of them, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Sieves not to exceed a Quarter of an Inch between the Maſhes.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, to uſe Cinders (commonly called Breeze) only in the burning of Bricks in Clamps; any Thing in the ſaid Act of the third Year of his late Majeſty to the contrary notwithſtanding. Breeze to be uſed only in burning Bricks in Clamps.

VI. 'And whereas the Dimenſions of Bricks preſcribed in and by the ſaid recited Acts, have been found 'inconvenient within the City of London, and Liberties and Suburbs thereof;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to make and burn Bricks within the ſaid City and Limits, which, when burnt, ſhall not be leſs than eight inches and an half long, nor leſs than four Inches broad, nor leſs than two Inches and an Half thick: and that no Penalty ſhall be incurred for or in reſpect of Bricks of the ſaid Dimenſions; any Thing in the ſaid recited Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding. Bricks 8 Inches and an Half long, 4 broad, and two and an Half thick, exempted from Penalty.

VII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to alter the Dimenſions of Bricks preſcribed in the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of George the Firſt, which ſhall be made within any Part of England beyond the ſaid Diſtance of fifteen Miles of the ſaid City of London.

VIII. 'And whereas the Method of recovering the Penalties and Forfeitures impoſed in and by the ſaid 'Acts has been found inconvenient;' be it enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, all Penalties and Forfeitures by the ſaid Acts inflicted or authoriſed to be impoſed, ſhall and may, upon Proof of the Offences reſpectively, and Conviction before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, wherein the Offence ſhall be committed; which Juſtice is hereby authoriſed and impowered to hear and determine the ſame, either by the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties, or by the Oath of one Witneſs, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice (which Warrant or Warrants ſuch Juſtice is hereby authorized and required to grant for thoſe Purpoſes, and to adminiſter ſuch Oath gratis) and the Overplus, after ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale are recovered and deducted, ſhall be returned on Demand to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels; and all ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Pariſh wherein the Offender or Offenders ſhall live; and in caſe ſufficient Diſtreſs ſhall not be found, or ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtice, and he is hereby authoriſed and required by Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe ſuch Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place where the Matter ſhall ariſe, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months, unleſs ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and all reaſonable Charges, ſhall be ſooner paid and ſatisfied. Penalties may be levied by Diſtreſs, &c.

IX. And, for the more eaſy and ſpeedy Conviction of Offenders againſt this or any of the ſaid Acts, be it further enacted, That all and every the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, before whom any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this or any of the ſaid Acts, ſhall and may cauſe the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any Form of Words to the ſame Effect, as the Caſe ſhall happen, videlicet: Conviction.

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord
'A. B. is convicted before me C. D. one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the 'Peace for the County or Place of (ſpecifying the Offence, and Time and Place when and 'where the ſame was committed, as the Caſe ſhall be).

'Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day and Year aforeſaid.'

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Penalty inflicted by the ſaid former Acts or this Act, in reſpect of the Dimenſions of Bricks, ſhall be recovered, unleſs the Information ſhall be laid within the Space of one Month next after the Sale or Delivery of ſuch Bricks in reſpect of which ſuch Penalty ſhall be incurred, nor ſhall any Perſon be liable to more than one Penalty for any one Offence. Information to be laid within a Month after Sale, &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall think him, her, or themſelves aggrieved by any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may, within the Space of four Calendar Months after the Cauſe of Complaint ſhall have ariſen, appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at any General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion or Place, wherein the Cauſe of Complaint ſhall ariſe; ſuch Appellant firſt giving, or cauſing to be given, twenty-one entire Days Notice at the leaſt in Writing of his or her Intention to bring ſuch Appeal, Appeal.

and of the Cauſe or Matter thereof, to the Perſon or Perſons whoſe Acts are complained againſt, and within eight Days after ſuch Notice, entering into a Recognizance before ſome Juſtice of the Peace for the reſpective County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, with two ſufficient Sureties, conditioned to try ſuch Appeal at, and abide the Order of, and pay ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded by the Juſtices at ſuch Quarter Seſſions: And the ſaid Juſtices at their ſaid Seſſions, upon due Proof of ſuch Notice being given as aforeſaid, and of the entering into ſuch Recognizance, ſhall proceed in and hear, and finally determine the Cauſes and Matters of ſuch Appeals in a ſummary Way, and award ſuch Coſts to the Party appealing or appealed againſt, as they the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think proper; and the Determination of ſuch Quarter Seſſions ſhall be binding and concluſive to all Intents and Purpoſes; and no Order made concerning any of the Matters aforeſaid, or any other Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction or Convictions of any Offender againſt this or any of the ſaid Acts, ſhall be quaſhed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or any other Writ or Proceſs whatſoever into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

No Certiorari.

See farther Index, Tit. Bricks and Tiles.

CAP. L.

An Act for the further preventing Delays of Juſtice by reaſon of Privilege of Parliament.

'WHEREAS the ſeveral Laws heretofore made for reſtraining the Privilege of Parliament, with reſpect to Actions or Suits commenced and proſecuted at any Time from and immediately after the Diſſolution or Prorogation of any Parliament, until a new Parliament ſhould meet, or the ſame be re-aſſembled; and from and immediately after an Adjournment of both Houſes of Parliament for above the Space of fourteen Days, until both Houſes ſhould meet or aſſemble; are inſufficient to obviate the Inconveniencies ariſing from the Delay of Suits by reaſon of Privilege of Parliament; whereby the Parties often loſe the Benefit of ſeveral Terms; For the preventing all Delays the King or his Subjects may receive in proſecuting their ſeveral Rights, Titles, Debts, Dues, Demands, or Suits, for which they have Cauſe;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, any Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may, at any Time, commence and proſecute any Action or Suit in any Court of Record, or Court of Equity, or of Admiralty, and in all Cauſes Matrimonial and Teſtamentary, in any Court having Cognizance of Cauſes Matrimonial and Teſtamentary, againſt any Peer or Lord of Parliament of Great Britain, or againſt any of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons of Great Britain for the Time being, or againſt their or any of their menial or any other Servants, or any other Perſon intitled to the Privilege of Parliament of Great Britain; and no ſuch Action, Suit, or any other Proceſs or Proceeding thereupon, ſhall at any Time be impeached, ſtayed, or delayed, by or under Colour or Pretence of any Privilege of Parliament.

Suits may be proſecuted againſt Peers, and Members of the Houſe of Commons, and their Servants, &c.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend to ſubject the Perſon of any of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, or the Commiſſioners of Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons of Great Britain, for the Time being, to be arreſted or impriſoned upon any ſuch Suit or Proceedings.

III. 'And whereas the Proceſs by Diſtringas is dilatory and expenſive: For Remedy thereof,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Court out of which the Writ proceeds, may order the Iſſues levied from Time to Time to be ſold, and the Money ariſing thereby to be applied to pay ſuch Coſts to the Plaintiff, as the ſaid Court ſhall think juſt, under all the Circumſtances, to order; and the Surplus to be retained until the Defendant ſhall have appeared, or other Purpoſe of the Writ be anſwered.

Iſſues to be ſold &c.

IV. Provided always, when the Purpoſe of the Writ is anſwered, that then the ſaid Iſſues ſhall be returned: or, if ſold, what ſhall remain of the Money ariſing by ſuch Sale, ſhall be repaid to the Party diſtrained upon.

V. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Obedience may be enforced to any Rule of his Majeſty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, againſt any Perſon intitled to Privilege of Parliament, by Diſtreſs infinite, in caſe any Perſon or Perſons intitled to the Benefit of ſuch Rule ſhall chuſe to proceed in that Way.

VI. 'And whereas an Act was made in the twelfth and thirteenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for preventing any Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, the ſaid Act, and alſo this Act, ſhall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

CAP. LI.

An Act to encourage the Improvement of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, held under Settlements of ſtrict Entail.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and eighty-five, intituled, Act concerning Tallies, all his Majeſty's Subjects are impowerered to tallie their Lands and Eſtates in Scotland with ſuch Proviſions and Conditions as they ſhall think fit, and with ſuch irritant and reſolutive Clauſes as to them ſhall ſeem proper; and which Tallies, when completed and

'published in the Manner directed by the said Act, are declared to be real and effectual against Purchasers, 'Creditors, and others whatsoever: And whereas many Tallies of Lands and Estates in Scotland, made 'as well before as after passing the said Act, do contain Clauses limiting the Heirs of Entail from granting 'Tickets or Leases of a longer Endurance than their own Lives, for a small Number of Years only, where- 'by the Cultivation of Land in that Part of this Kingdom is greatly obstructed, and much Mischief arises to 'the Publick; and which must daily increase, so long as the Law allowing such Entail subsists, if some 'Remedy be not provided: Wherefore, to prevent a Mischief and Inconveniency so hurtful to the Publick,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to every Proprietor of an entailed Estate within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to grant Tacks or Leases of all or any Part or Parts thereof, for any Number of Years not exceeding fourteen Years from the Term of Whitsunday next after the Date thereof, and for the Life of one Person to be named in such Tacks or Leases, and in being at the Time of making thereof; or for the Lives of two Persons to be named therein, and in being at the Time of making the same, and the Life of the Survivor of them; or for any Number of Years, not exceeding thirty-one Years from the Term aforesaid.

II. Provided always, That every such Lease for two Lives shall contain a Clause obliging the Tenant or Tenants to fence and inclose, in a sufficient and lasting Manner, all the Lands so leased within the Space of thirty Years, and two third Parts thereof within the Space of twenty Years, and one third Part thereof within the Space of ten Years, if the said Lease shall continue for such respective Terms; and that every such Lease for any Term of Years exceeding nineteen Years, shall contain a Clause, obliging the Tenant or Tenants to fence and inclose in like Manner all the Lands so leased during the Continuance of such Term, and two third Parts thereof before the Expiration of two third Parts of such Term, and one third part thereof before the Expiration of one third Part of such Term.

III. And provided also, That every such Lease for two Lives, or for any Term of Years exceeding nineteen Years, shall contain a Clause obliging the Tenant or Tenants to keep and preserve the Fences, when made, in good and sufficient Repair during the Lease, and to leave them so at the Expiration thereof; and that no Inclosures which shall be made, shall comprehend more than forty Acres in one Field; excepting where the Lands consist of Hills or other Grounds incapable or improper by their Nature for Culture by the Plough; in which Case, the Inclosures may be made of such Extent as the Nature of the Ground shall require.

'IV. And whereas the building of Villages and Houses upon entailed Estates may in many Cases be 'beneficial to the Publick, and might often be undertaken and executed, if Heirs of Entail were impowered 'to encourage the same, by granting long Leases of Lands for the Purpose of Building;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be, and it is hereby declared to be, in the Power of every Proprietor of an entailed Estate, to grant Leases of Land for the Purpose of Building, for any Number of Years not exceeding ninety-nine Years.

V. Provided always, That not more than five Acres shall be granted to any one Person, either in his own Name, or to any other Person or Persons in Trust for him; and that every such Lease shall contain a Condition that the Lease shall be void, and the same is hereby declared void, if one Dwelling-house at least, not under the Value of ten Pounds Sterling, shall not be built within the Space of ten Years from the Date of the Lease, for each One Half Acre of Ground comprehended in the Lease; and that the said Houses shall be kept in good, tenantable, and sufficient Repair; and that the Lease shall be void whenever there shall be a less Number of Dwelling-houses than one, of the Value aforesaid, to each one Half Acre of Ground, kept in such Repair as aforesaid, standing upon the Ground so leased.

VI. Provided also, That the Power of Leasing hereby given shall not in any Case extend to, or be understood to comprehend, a Power of Leasing, or Setting in Tack, the Manor-place, Office-houses, Gardens, Orchards, or Inclosures adjacent to the Manor-place, which have usually been in the natural Possession of the Proprietor, or have not been usually let for a longer Term than seven Years, when the Heir in Possession was of lawful Age; and that no Lease of Lands shall be granted, under the Authority of this Act, for the Purpose of building Villages or Houses within three hundred Yards of the Manor-place in the natural Possession of the Proprietor.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Leases made or to be granted under the Authority of this Act, shall be made or granted for a Rent not under the Rent payable by the last Lease or Sett, and without Grassum Fine or Foregift, or any Benefit whatsoever, directly or indirectly, reserved or accruing to the Granter, except the Rent payable by the Lease; and that no such Lease shall be granted till after the End or other Determination of any former Lease of the same Premises; or that such Lease, if granted for a Time certain, shall be within one Year of being determined; and that all Leases otherwise granted shall be void and null.

VIII. And be it provided and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Taillie shall, either expresly or by Implication, contain Powers of Leasing more ample than are hereby given; the Heirs of Entail in Possession shall be at Liberty to exercise all such Powers, in the same Manner as if this Act had never been made.

'IX. And whereas it may be highly beneficial to the Publick, if Proprietors of entailed Estates were 'encouraged to lay out Money in inclosing, planting, or draining, or in erecting Farm-houses, and Offices 'or Out-buildings for the same, upon their entailed Lands and Heritages: And whereas such Proprietors 'may be induced and encouraged so to do, if they, their Executors and Assigns, were secured in recovering

'a reaſonable Satisfaction, for the Money expended in making ſuch Improvements, from the ſucceding 'Heirs of Entail;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate who lays out Money in incloſing, planting, or draining, or in erecting Farm-houſes, an- Offices or Out-buildings for the ſame, for the Improvement of his Lands and Heritages, ſhall be a Creditor to the ſucceeding Heirs of Entail for three fourth Parts of the Money laid out in making the ſaid Improvements

X. Provided always, That the Sum or Sums of Money laid out upon ſuch Improvements by any one Heir of Entail during his or her Poſſeſſion, ſhall not, in any Caſe whatever, be effectual to conſtitute a Claim againſt the ſucceeding Heir of Entail, for more than four Years free Rent of the ſaid entailed Eſtate, after Deduction of all publick Burdens, Life Rents, and Intereſts of Debts, which may affect the ſaid Eſtate as the ſame ſhall happen to be at the firſt Term of Whitſunday after the Death of the Heir who expended the Money claimed.

XI. Provided alſo, That every Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who intends to lay out Money on ſuch Improvements, ſhall, three Months at leaſt before he begins to execute the ſame, give Notice in Writing to the Heir of Entail next intitled to ſucceed to the ſaid Eſtate after the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Proprietor, if within Great Britain or Ireland, and if the Heir next intitled to ſucceed is not within Great Britain or Ireland, ſhall give Notice in Writing to the neareſt Male Relation by his Father of lawful Age, or to his known Factor or Attorney, of ſuch his Intention, ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the Kind of Improvement intended, and the Farms or Parts of the Eſtate upon which the Improvements are intended to be made; and ſhall lodge a Copy thereof with the Sheriff or Steward Clerk of the County wherein the Lands lie.

XII. Provided likewiſe, That the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who lays out Money in making Improvements upon his entailed Eſtate, with an Intent of being a Creditor to the ſucceeding Heirs of Entail in the Manner above expreſſed, ſhall annually, during the making ſuch Improvements, within the Space of four Months after the Term of Martinmas, lodge with the Sheriff or Steward Clerk of the County within which the Lands and Heritages improved are ſituated, an Account of the Money expended by him in ſuch Improvement during twelve Months preceding that Term of Martinmas, ſubſcribed by him, with the Vouchers by which the Account is to be ſupported when Payment ſhall be demanded or ſued for.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That when a Sum equal to four Years Free Rent ſhall have been laid out, in Manner above mentioned, by one or more Heir or Heirs of Entail, and ſhall remain a ſubſiſting Charge againſt the ſucceeding Heirs; it ſhall not be lawful for any ſubſequent Heir or Heirs to lay out any more Money under the Authority of this Act, for any of the Improvements aforementioned.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Sheriff or Steward Clerks, with whom the Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice ſhall be lodged, ſhall, within the Space of one Month thereafter, record them in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, and return them when called for; and ſhall make the Book patent to all Perſons deſirous to ſee the ſame; and ſhall give certified Copies or Extracts of all Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice recorded, they receiving for their Trouble the uſual Fees for recording Writings and giving out Extracts, and ſix Pence Sterling from each Perſon who ſhall have Inſpection of the Book wherein the Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice ſhall be recorded.

XV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor or Executors, Aſſignee or Aſſigns, or other Perſon or Perſons, having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof may after the Expiration of one Year from the Death of the Heir who expended the Money, require the Heir next ſucceeding to the Eſtate, to pay ſuch Part thereof as is due by the Authority of this Act, with the legal Intereſt, from the Term at which the ſucceeding Heir's Right to the Rents of the Eſtate did commence, upon receiving a proper Diſcharge and Aſſignment of the ſaid Claim; and if the Money is not paid within three Months of ſuch Requiſition, it ſhall then be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons having Right, to inſtitute an Action in the Court of Seſſion againſt the Heir then in Poſſeſſion, for compelling him to pay the Money, and Intereſt thereof; and upon obtaining a Decree, he, ſhe, or they ſhall be at Liberty to uſe every Kind of Diligence or Execution, authoriſed by the Law of Scotland in recovering Payment of Debts, excepting Adjudication againſt the entailed Eſtate improved; and in all Queſtions of Competition for the Rents of the entailed Eſtate, the Perſon or Perſons who have ſued for and obtained a Decree under the Authority of this Act, or the Perſon or Perſons having Right to ſuch Decree, ſhall be preferred to the other Creditors of the Heir of Entail who has ſucceeded to the Eſtate.

XVI. Provided always, That when any Heir in Poſſeſſion is ſued for the Money due on account of Improvements made upon an entailed Eſtate, under the Authority of this Act, he ſhall be diſcharged in all Caſes from ſuch Suit, upon his aſſigning and effectually conveying to the Creditor or Creditors one third Part of the clear Rents of the entailed Eſtate, during his Life, or until the Money ſo due ſhall thereby be paid off and diſcharged.

'XVII. And whereas it may happen that the Heir of Entail, who next ſucceeds the Proprietor who ex- 'pended the Money in the Improvement of the entailed Eſtate, may die, before the Money due by him on 'account of Improvements made upon the Eſtate is paid, by which the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of 'the Money due may be embarraſſed in recovering Payment:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due, may either ſue the Heirs and Succeſſors of the ſaid next Heir of Entail in any other than the entailed Eſtate, or the Heir of Entail next ſucceeding to him, or both, and uſe every Kind of Diligence or Execution, authoriſed by the Law of Scotland in the recovering Payment of Debts, againſt them and their Eſtates, excepting Adjudication againſt the entailed Eſtate, until the Money due is fully ſatisfied and paid; and the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due ſhall, in any Competition for the Rents of the entailed Eſtates, be preferred to the perſonal Creditors of the Heir of Entail in Poſſeſſion; and the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due, in like Manner ſhall be intitled to ſue every ſucceeding Heir of Entail, until the Money is ſatisfied and paid; and ſhall have the ſame Preference to the Rents of the entailed Eſtate in Competition, with the Creditors of ſuch Heirs of Entail.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Heir who next ſucceeds in the entailed Eſtate to the Proprietor who expended the Money, under the Authority of this Act, in making Improvements upon the Eſtate, and the Heirs and Succeſſors of ſuch Heir, ſhall be bound to relieve all ſubſequent Heirs of all or ſuch Parts of the Debt, incurred by the Improvement of the Eſtate under the Authority of this Act, as ſhall be paid by them, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which have come to the Uſe of ſuch firſt ſucceeding Heir, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; and when the third Part of the Rents which have come to the Uſe of the firſt ſucceeding Heir, or to his Heirs or Executors, are exhauſted, then the next ſucceeding Heir, and his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall, in like Manner be bound to relieve all ſubſequent Heirs, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which have come to their Uſe; and Relief ſhall in like Manner be competent to every ſucceeding Heir who ſhall pay, againſt the Heirs and Succeſſors of the preceding Heir.

XIX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the Heirs and Succeſſors of an Heir of Entail, in any other than the entailed Eſtate, are ſued for the Money due on account of Improvements made upon an entailed Eſtate under the Authority of this Act, they ſhall be diſcharged in all Caſes from ſuch Suits, upon making Payment of one third Part of the Rents of the entailed Eſtate which have come to the Uſe of ſuch Heir of Entail, or to the Uſe of his ſaid Heirs or Succeſſors.

'XX. And whereas Inconveniencies and Confuſion might ariſe from the Executor, Aſſignee, or other 'Perſon or Perſons having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an en-'tailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof, their not timeouſly requiring the Heir next ſucceeding in the 'Eſtate to what they are intitled to receive by Authority of this Act, and ſuing ſuch Heir to compel him 'to pay, if Payment is not made:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor, Aſſignee, or other Perſon or Perſons having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof, ſhall be obliged, within the Space of two Years after the Death of the Proprietor who expended the Money, to require Payment from the ſucceeding Heir; and within the Space of ſix Months after the Elapſe of the ſaid two Years to inſtitute an Action, if the Money is not paid, in the Court of Seſſion; and to proceed without Delay in recovering a Decree for the Sum due, and doing exact Diligence for recovering Payment thereof, or at leaſt to the Amount of one third Part of the free Rents of the Eſtate which ſhall have become due to ſuch ſucceeding Heir.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor, Aſſignee, or other Perſon or Perſons, having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who ſhall neglect to require the next or any other ſucceeding Heir or Heirs to pay, and ſhall allow ſuch ſucceeding Heir or Heirs to die without recovering Payment from him or them to the Amount of one third Part at leaſt, of the Rents that ſhall have become due to ſuch Heir or Heirs, ſhall ceaſe to be Creditor to the ſubſequent ſucceeding Heir or Heirs reſpectively, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which ſhall have become due to the Heir or Heirs ſo deceaſing as aforeſaid; and ſhall be intitled to recover Payment of his Claim to the Extent of ſuch third Part of the Rents, from the Executors or Heirs only of the firſt or any other ſucceeding Heir or Heirs, in any other Eſtate than the entailed Eſtate; and ſhall be intitled to recover Payment of the Surplus of his Claim, if any be, and no more, from the ſubſequent ſucceeding Heir or Heirs reſpectively.

'XXII. And whereas it may happen that the Heir, who next ſucceeds to the Proprietor who expended 'Money in making Improvements upon an entailed Eſtate, may pay all or Part of the Money due on 'account of ſuch Improvements, and may not live ſo long as to be indemnified by the third Part of the 'Rents which ſhall come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Heir who firſt ſucceeds in the entailed Eſtate to the Proprietor who expended the Money, does pay all or Part of the Money due on account of the Improvements made, and ſhall not live long enough to be indemnified of what he pays by one third Part of the Rents that ſhall come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; it ſhall be competent to his Executors or Aſſigns to ſue the ſucceeding Heir of Entail for Relief of ſuch Part of the Money as ſhall not be repaid by the third Part of the Rents which have come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; and Relief ſhall in like Manner be competent to the Executors or Aſſigns of every Heir of Entail who pays more than is repaid by the third Part of the Rents which have come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs and Executors.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Money expended in making Improvements upon an entailed Eſtate, for which a Decree ſhall be obtained in the Court of Seſſion, ſhall be made uſe of as a Ground of Debt for adjudging the Eſtate upon which the Improvements have been made; and if any Decree of Adjudication ſhall be obtained againſt the entailed Eſtate for ſuch Debts, every ſuch Decree ſhall and is hereby declared to be void.

XXIV. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Heir of Entail who ſhall ſucceed to an entailed Eſtate upon which Improvements have been made, ſhall have Right to a Claim of Debt ariſing from the making of ſuch Improvements as next of Kin, or by the Will or Settlements of the Heir of Entail who-

'a reaſonable Satisfaction, for the Money expended in making ſuch Improvements, from the ſucceeding 'Heirs of Entail;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate who lays out Money in incloſing, planting, or draining, or in erecting Farm-houſes, an- Offices or Out-buildings for the ſame, for the Improvement of his Lands and Heritages, ſhall be a Creditor to the ſucceeding Heirs of Entail for three fourth Parts of the Money laid out in making the ſaid Improvements

X. Provided always, That the Sum or Sums of Money laid out upon ſuch Improvements by any one Heir of Entail during his or her Poſſeſſion, ſhall not, in any Caſe whatever, be effectual to conſtitute a Claim againſt the ſucceeding Heir of Entail, for more than four Years free Rent of the ſaid entailed Eſtate, after Deduction of all publick Burdens, Life Rents, and Intereſts of Debts, which may affect the ſaid Eſtate as the ſame ſhall happen to be at the firſt Term of Whitſunday after the Death of the Heir who expended the Money claimed.

XI. Provided alſo, That every Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who intends to lay out Money on ſuch Improvements, ſhall, three Months at leaſt before he begins to execute the ſame, give Notice in Writing to the Heir of Entail next intitled to ſucceed to the ſaid Eſtate after the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Proprietor, if within Great Britain or Ireland, and if the Heir next intitled to ſucceed is not within Great Britain or Ireland, ſhall give Notice in Writing to the neareſt Male Relation by his Father of lawful Age, or to his known Factor or Attorney, of ſuch his Intention, ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the Kind of Improvement intended, and the Farms or Parts of the Eſtate upon which the Improvements are intended to be made; and ſhall lodge a Copy thereof with the Sheriff or Steward Clerk of the County wherein the Lands lie.

XII. Provided likewiſe, That the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who lays out Money in making Improvements upon his entailed Eſtate, with an Intent of being a Creditor to the ſucceeding Heirs of Entail in the Manner above expreſſed, ſhall annually, during the making ſuch Improvements, within the Space of four Months after the Term of Martinmas, lodge with the Sheriff or Steward Clerk of the County within which the Lands and Heritages improved are ſituated, an Account of the Money expended by him in ſuch Improvement during twelve Months preceding that Term of Martinmas, ſubſcribed by him, with the Vouchers by which the Account is to be ſupported when Payment ſhall be demanded or ſued for.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That when a Sum equal to four Years Free Rent ſhall have been laid out, in Manner above mentioned, by one or more Heir or Heirs of Entail, and ſhall remain a ſubſiſting Charge againſt the ſucceeding Heirs; it ſhall not be lawful for any ſubſequent Heir or Heirs to lay out any more Money under the Authority of this Act, for any of the Improvements aforementioned.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Sheriff or Steward Clerks, with whom the Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice ſhall be lodged, ſhall, within the Space of one Month thereafter, record them in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, and return them when called for; and ſhall make the Book patent to all Perſons deſirous to ſee the ſame; and ſhall give certified Copies or Extracts of all Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice recorded, they receiving for their Trouble the uſual Fees for recording Writings and giving out Extracts, and ſix Pence Sterling from each Perſon who ſhall have Inſpection of the Book wherein the Accounts, Vouchers, and Copies of Notice ſhall be recorded.

XV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor or Executors, Aſſignee or Aſſigns, or other Perſon or Perſons, having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof may after the Expiration of one Year from the Death of the Heir who expended the Money, require the Heir next ſucceeding to the Eſtate, to pay ſuch Part thereof as is due by the Authority of this Act, with the legal Intereſt, from the Term at which the ſucceeding Heir's Right to the Rents of the Eſtate did commence, upon receiving a proper Diſcharge and Aſſignment of the ſaid Claim; and if the Money is not paid within three Months of ſuch Requiſition, it ſhall then be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons having Right, to inſtitute an Action in the Court of Seſſion againſt the Heir then in Poſſeſſion, for compelling him to pay the Money, and Intereſt thereof; and upon obtaining a Decree, he, ſhe, or they ſhall be at Liberty to uſe every Kind of Diligence or Execution, authoriſed by the Law of Scotland in recovering Payment of Debts, excepting Adjudication againſt the entailed Eſtate improved; and in all Queſtions of Competition for the Rents of the entailed Eſtate, the Perſon or Perſons who have ſued for and obtained a Decree under the Authority of this Act, or the Perſon or Perſons having Right to ſuch Decree, ſhall be preferred to the other Creditors of the Heir of Entail who has ſucceeded to the Eſtate.

XVI. Provided always, That when any Heir in Poſſeſſion is ſued for the Money due on account of Improvements made upon an entailed Eſtate, under the Authority of this Act, he ſhall be diſcharged in all Caſes from ſuch Suit, upon his aſſigning and effectually conveying to the Creditor or Creditors one third Part of the clear Rents of the entailed Eſtate, during his Life, or until the Money ſo due ſhall thereby be paid off and diſcharged.

'XVII. And whereas it may happen that the Heir of Entail, who next ſucceeds the Proprietor who ex- 'pended the Money in the Improvement of the entailed Eſtate, may die, before the Money due by him on 'account of Improvements made upon the Eſtate is paid, by which the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of 'the Money due may be embarraſſed in recovering Payment:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due, may either ſue the Heirs and Succeſſors of the ſaid next Heir of Entail in any other than the entailed Eſtate, or the Heir of Entail next ſucceeding to him, or both, and uſe every Kind of Diligence or Execution, authoriſed by the Law of Scotland in the recovering Payment of Debts, againſt them and their Eſtates, excepting Adjudication againſt the entailed Eſtate, until the Money due is fully ſatisfied and paid; and the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due ſhall, in any Competition for the Rents of the entailed Eſtates, be preferred to the perſonal Creditors of the Heir of Entail in Poſſeſſion; and the Perſon or Perſons in the Right of the Money due, in like Manner ſhall be intitled to ſue every ſucceeding Heir of Entail, until the Money is ſatisfied and paid; and ſhall have the ſame Preference to the Rents of the entailed Eſtate in Competition, with the Creditors of ſuch Heirs of Entail.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Heir who next ſucceeds in the entailed Eſtate to the Proprietor who expended the Money, under the Authority of this Act, in making Improvements upon the Eſtate, and the Heirs and Succeſſors of ſuch Heir, ſhall be bound to relieve all ſubſequent Heirs of all or ſuch Parts of the Debt, incurred by the Improvement of the Eſtate under the Authority of this Act, as ſhall be paid by them, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which have come to the Uſe of ſuch firſt ſucceeding Heir, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; and when the third Part of the Rents which have come to the Uſe of the firſt ſucceeding Heir, or to his Heirs or Executors, are exhauſted, then the next ſucceeding Heir, and his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall, in like Manner be bound to relieve all ſubſequent Heirs, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which have come to their Uſe; and Relief ſhall in like Manner be competent to every ſucceeding Heir who ſhall pay, againſt the Heirs and Succeſſors of the preceding Heir.

XIX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the Heirs and Succeſſors of an Heir of Entail, in any other than the entailed Eſtate, are ſued for the Money due on account of Improvements made upon an entailed Eſtate under the Authority of this Act, they ſhall be diſcharged in all Caſes from ſuch Suits, upon making Payment of one third Part of the Rents of the entailed Eſtate which have come to the Uſe of ſuch Heir of Entail, or to the Uſe of his ſaid Heirs or Succeſſors.

'XX. And whereas Inconveniencies and Confuſion might ariſe from the Executor, Aſſignee, or other 'Perſon or Perſons having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an en-'tailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof, their not timeouſly requiring the Heir next ſucceeding in the 'Eſtate to what they are intitled to receive by Authority of this Act, and ſuing ſuch Heir to compel him 'to pay, if Payment is not made:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor, Aſſignee, or other Perſon or Perſons having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate in the Improvement thereof, ſhall be obliged, within the Space of two Years after the Death of the Proprietor who expended the Money, to require Payment from the ſucceeding Heir; and within the Space of ſix Months after the Elapſe of the ſaid two Years to inſtitute an Action, if the Money is not paid, in the Court of Seſſion; and to proceed without Delay in recovering a Decree for the Sum due, and doing exact Diligence for recovering Payment thereof, or at leaſt to the Amount of one third Part of the free Rents of the Eſtate which ſhall have become due to ſuch ſucceeding Heir.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor, Aſſignee, or other Perſon or Perſons, having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, who ſhall neglect to require the next or any other ſucceeding Heir or Heirs to pay, and ſhall allow ſuch ſucceeding Heir or Heirs to die without recovering Payment from him or them to the Amount of one third Part at leaſt, of the Rents that ſhall have become due to ſuch Heir or Heirs, ſhall ceaſe to be Creditor to the ſubſequent ſucceeding Heir or Heirs reſpectively, to the Extent of one third Part of the Rents which ſhall have become due to the Heir or Heirs ſo deceaſing as aforeſaid; and ſhall be intitled to recover Payment of his Claim to the Extent of ſuch third Part of the Rents, from the Executors or Heirs only of the firſt or any other ſucceeding Heir or Heirs, in any other Eſtate than the entailed Eſtate; and ſhall be intitled to recover Payment of the Surplus of his Claim, if any be, and no more, from the ſubſequent ſucceeding Heir or Heirs reſpectively.

'XXII. And whereas it may happen that the Heir, who next ſucceeds to the Proprietor who expended 'Money in making Improvements upon an entailed Eſtate, may pay all or Part of the Money due on 'account of ſuch Improvements, and may not live ſo long as to be indemnified by the third Part of the 'Rents which ſhall come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Heir who firſt ſucceeds in the entailed Eſtate to the Proprietor who expended the Money, does pay all or Part of the Money due on account of the Improvements made, and ſhall not live long enough to be indemnified of what he pays by one third Part of the Rents that ſhall come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; it ſhall be competent to his Executors or Aſſigns to ſue the ſucceeding Heir of Entail for Relief of ſuch Part of the Money as ſhall not be repaid by the third Part of the Rents which have come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs or Executors; and Relief ſhall in like Manner be competent to the Executors or Aſſigns of every Heir of Entail who pays more than is repaid by the third Part of the Rents which have come to his Uſe, or to the Uſe of his Heirs and Executors.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Money expended in making Improvements upon an entailed Eſtate, for which a Decree ſhall be obtained in the Court of Seſſion, ſhall be made uſe of as a Ground of Debt for adjudging the Eſtate upon which the Improvements have been made; and if any Decree of Adjudication ſhall be obtained againſt the entailed Eſtate for ſuch Debts, every ſuch Decree ſhall and is hereby declared to be void.

XXIV. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Heir of Entail who ſhall ſucceed to an entailed Eſtate upon which Improvements have been made, ſhall have Right to a Claim of Debt ariſing from the making of ſuch Improvements as next of Kin, or by the Will or Settlements of the Heir of Entail who-who expended the Money; in every ſuch Caſe, the Claim of Debt ſhall and is hereby declared to be extinguiſhed for ever, and ſhall never be ſet up as a Debt againſt any ſucceeding Heir.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Heir of Entail, againſt whom a Debt is created for Improvements made on the entailed Eſtate to which he ſucceeds, ſhall refuſe to pay the Money required of him under the Authority of this Act, and that Decrees ſhall be obtained againſt him for the whole of the Sum or Sums of Money of which he ſhall be required to make Payment; in every ſuch Caſe the Defender ſhall be liable in full Coſts of Suit; and if Decree is not obtained for the full Sum or Sums of Money of which Payment has been required, it ſhall be in the Diſcretion of the Court to award Coſts of Suit to either Party, as the Juſtice of the Caſe ſhall direct.

'XXVI. And whereas Queſtions may ariſe concerning the Amount of the Sums laid out under the Au'thority of this Act, at a great Diſtance of Time, when the material Witneſſes may be dead: For Remedy
'whereof, and for aſcertaining, in due Time, the Amount of the Sums ſo expended;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every Heir of Entail, after he ſhall have laid out Money upon the Improvement of his entailed Eſtate as aforeſaid, and ſhall have completed the Improvement of all or any particular Part of ſuch Eſtate, to bring, if he ſhall think proper, an Action of Declarator before the Court of Seſſion, or a Proceſs before the Sheriff, in which he ſhall call the Heir next intitled to ſucceed after the Heirs of his own Body, and ſhall in ſuch Suit produce proper Evidence of the Money laid out in ſuch Improvements; and the ſaid next Heir, or any other Heir of Entail, ſhall be intitled to produce proper Evidence to ſet aſide or diminiſh the ſaid Claim: And it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Court of Seſſion, or for the ſaid Sheriff, to pronounce a Decree for ſuch Part of the ſaid Sum, as, by the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, is intended to become a Charge againſt the ſucceeding Heirs in the ſaid entailed Eſtate; which Decree, if pronounced by the Sheriff, ſhall become final, unleſs carried to the Court of Seſſion by Suſpenſion within ſix Months after the ſame ſhall have been pronounced; and if pronounced by the Court of Seſſion, either in ſuch Proceſs of Declarator or Suſpenſion, ſhall be final, if an Appeal is not brought within twelve Months.

'XXVII. And whereas it frequently happens that there are not, upon entailed Eſtates, Manſion-houſes 'and Offices ſuitable to the Eſtates, and fit for the Accommodation of the Heirs of Entail; and that Man-
'ſion-houſes and Offices upon entailed Eſtates are ſometimes deſtroyed by Fire, or from other accidental
'Cauſes, or become inſufficient by Length of Time; and it being beneficial to the Public to encourage Heirs
'of Entail, in ſuch Caſes, to build Houſes and Offices ſuitable to their Eſtates, and fit for the Accommo'dation of their Families;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Heir of Entail who lays out Money in building a Manſion-houſe or Offices, or in repairing or adding to the Manſion-houſe or Offices upon his Eſtate, ſhall be a Creditor to the next ſucceeding Heir of Entail for three-fourth Parts of the Money expended by him.

XXVIII. Provided always, That the Sum or Sums of Money laid out by any one Heir of Entail, in the building a Manſion-houſe or Offices, or in the repairing or adding to the Manſion-houſes or Offices, ſhall not, in any Caſe whatever, be effectual to conſtitute a Claim againſt the ſucceeding Heir of Entail for more than two Years Rent of the ſaid entailed Eſtate, after Deduction of all Publick Burdens, Life Rents, and Intereſts of Debts, which may affect the ſaid Eſtate, as the ſame ſhall happen to be at the firſt Term of Whitſunday after the Death of the Heir who expended the Money claimed.

XXIX. Provided alſo, That the Proprietor of the entailed Eſtate, who lays out the Money, ſhall, previous thereto, give Notice in Writing to the Heir of Entail next intitled to ſucceed to the ſaid Eſtate after the Heirs of his own Body; and record Copies of the ſame, together with the Accounts of the Money expended, and the Vouchers thereof, in the Sheriff or Steward Court Books of the County within which the Manſion-houſes and Offices are ſituated, in the Form and Manner above directed with regard to Monies expended in making Improvements upon entailed Eſtates.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Executor or Executors, Aſſignee or Aſſignees, or other Perſon or Perſons having Right to the Claim ariſing from Money expended by the Proprietor of an entailed Eſtate, in the building a Manſion-houſe or Offices, or in the repairing or adding to the Manſion-houſe or Offices upon his Eſtate, may, after the Expiration of one Year from the Death of the Heir who expended the Money, require the Heir next ſucceeding to the Eſtate to pay the Whole, or ſuch Part thereof as is due by the Authority of this Act, with the legal Intereſt from the Term at which the ſucceeding Heir's Right to the Rents of the Eſtate did commence, upon receiving a proper Diſcharge and Aſſignment of the ſaid Claim; and if the Money is not paid within three Months of ſuch Requiſition, it ſhall be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons having Right, to ſue the next ſucceeding Heir, in the Manner above directed for the recovering of Money expended in the Improvement of entailed Eſtates.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame Rules of Relief among ſucceeding Heirs of Entail, and their Heirs and Succeſſors, of the Claim of Debt, and of Preference in Competition for Rents, and in ſubjecting Defenders to the Payment of Coſts, and for aſcertaining the Amount of the Sum laid out, ſhall take place with regard to Monies expended in the building, repairing, or adding to the Manſion-houſes or Offices upon entailed Eſtates under the Authority of this Act, as are before enacted, with reſpect to Monies expended by Proprietors of entailed Eſtates, in making Improvements upon their Eſtates for encreaſing the Rents and Value of them.

'XXXII. And whereas it may frequently happen, that the incloſing of Lands in Scotland may be re'tarded or prevented, or at leaſt rendered inconvenient, by Heirs of Entail not having it in their Power to 'exchange ſmall Parcels of the Lands of their entailed Eſtates for other Lands convenient for the entailed
'Eſtate, and more conducive to the Improvement of the Country in general: For Remedy whereof,' be it enacted enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for Proprietors of entailed Eſtates to excamb or make Exchanges of Land, with all and every Perſon or Perſons, for the Conveniency and Advantage of the ſaid Eſtates, and for the Improvement of the Country where ſuch Eſtates are ſituated, by incloſing or otherways.

XXXIII. Provided, That not more than thirty Acres of Arable Land, nor more than one hundred Acres of Lands conſiſting of Hills or other Grounds incapable or improper by their Nature for Culture by the Plough, of ſuch entailed Eſtates, lying together in one Place or Plot, ſhall be given in Exchange; and that an Equivalent in Land, contiguous to the entailed Eſtate with which the Exchange is to be made, ſhall be received in place of the Land given in Exchange: And for aſcertaining and adjuſting the Value of the Lands propoſed to be exchanged, an Application ſhall be made for that Purpoſe, by the Proprietor of the entailed Eſtate, to the Sheriff or Steward of the County within which the entailed Eſtate is ſituated, who thereupon ſhall appoint two or more ſkilful Perſons to inſpect and adjuſt the Value of the Lands propoſed to be excambed or exchanged; and upon ſuch Perſons ſettling the Marches of the Lands propoſed to be exchanged, and reporting upon Oath that the Exchange will be juſt and equal, the Sheriff or Steward may, and is hereby required to authorize the Exchange to be made by a Contract of Excambion; and which being executed and recorded in the Sheriff or Steward Books within three Months after the Execution thereof, the ſame ſhall be effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes; and the Land given in Exchange to the entailed Eſtate ſhall be held to be a Part thereof, and ſhall be ſubject to all the prohibitory, irritant, and reſolutive Clauſes of the Entail in the ſame Manner as if it had been originally a Part of the Eſtate; and the Lands given from the entailed Eſtate ſhall from thenceforth be held as out of the Entail, and be liberated from all the prohibitory, irritant, and reſolutive Clauſes thereof.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall extend to, and comprehend, all Tallies of Lands or Heritages in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, made or to be made, and whether prior or poſterior to the ſaid Act made in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and eighty-five.

CAP. LII.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Seſſion of Parliament. EXP.

CAP. LIII.

An Act to repeal an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Coal-heavers working upon the River Thames; and for enabling them to make Proviſion for ſuch of themſelves as ſhall be ſick, lame, or paſt their Labour, and for their Widows and Orphans; and to regulate the Price of their Labour; to prevent Frauds and Impoſitions on ſuch Labourers; and for their further Relief.

'WHEREAS an Act made in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Coal-heavers working upon the River Thames; and for enabling them to make a Proviſion for ſuch of themſelves as ſhall be ſick, lame, or paſt their Labour, and for their Widows and Orphans; hath been found ineffectual to anſwer the good Purpoſes thereby intended; and for Want of due Regulation in Payment of the Wages and Hire of the ſaid Coal-heavers, being Labourers employed in unloading Ships laden with Coals, great Impoſitions and Frauds have been committed by Coal-undertakers, being Perſons employed to procure Coal-heavers to unload ſuch Ships on the River Thames; whereby ſuch Coal-heavers have been deprived of great Part of the Fruits of their Labour, by means whereof great Diſturbances and Inconveniencies have ariſen: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the ſaid Act, and every Part thereof, ſhall be and ſtand repealed.

After 24 June, 1770, the 31 Geo. 2. c. 76, not printed in the uſual Collection of public Acts, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Coal-undertaker ſhall take, receive, or demand, of or from any Coal-heaver, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other valuable Thing whatſoever, as or for Commiſſion, or as a Reward or Gratuity for procuring ſuch Coal-heaver to be employed in unloading Ships loaded with Coals between London Bridge and Greenwich, nor by or under Pretence of furniſhing Shovels or other Tools for that Purpoſe, or by or under any other Pretence or Claim whatſoever, under the Penalty of five Pounds for every Offence, and of being rendered for ever thereafter incapable of exerciſing the Trade or Buſineſs of a Coal-undertaker.

Coal-undertakers not to take any Gratuity of Coal-heavers between London Bridge and Greenwich, on Penalty of 5l. and Incapacity.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Coal-undertaker, before he ſhall undertake to procure Coal-heavers to unload any ſuch Ship loaden with Coals as aforeſaid, ſhall take and ſubſcribe the following Oath before the Lord Mayor, or one of the Aldermen of the City of London; that is to ſay, Coal-undertaker to take the following Oath.

'I A. B.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I will well and truly exerciſe the Buſineſs of a Coal-undertaker; and that ſo long as I ſhall continue to exerciſe that Buſineſs, I will in all Things conform myſelf to the Directions of an Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of his Majeſty King GEORGE the Third, intituled, An Act to repeal an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Coal-heavers working upon the River Thames; and for enabling them to make Proviſion for ſuch of themſelves as ſhall be ſick, lame, or paſt their Labour, and for their Widows and Orphans; and to regulate the Price of their Labour; to prevent Frauds and Impoſitions on ſuch Labourers; and for their further Relief.

'So help me GOD.'

Penalty on Neglect. Oath to be inrolled.

Upon pain of forfeiting for every Ship loaden with Coals, for the Diſcharge of which he ſhall undertake to procure Coal-heavers, the Sum of five Pounds; which ſaid Oath ſhall be inrolled among the Records of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London aforeſaid.

Victuallers, &c. not to act as Coal-undertakers.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Coal-undertaker ſhall be a Victualler, or concerned directly or indirectly, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Perſon, or by way of Partnerſhip or Agreement, to receive any Part of the Profits of ſuch Trade, or in any other Manner in the ſelling Bread, Meat, or other Eatables, Wine, Beer, or Spirituous Liquors, or other Drink of any Kind or Species whatſoever, or of Tobacco, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Pounds, and of being rendered incapable for ever of exerciſing the ſaid Buſineſs of a Coal-undertaker: And if any ſuch Coal-undertaker after Conviction, and being adjudged to pay ſuch laſt mentioned Penalty, or the Penalty herein before inflicted for taking, receiving, or demanding any Sum or Sums of Money, or other valuable Thing whatſoever, as Commiſſion, or as a Reward or Gratuity for procuring Coal-heavers to be employed in unloading Ships loaden with Coals, ſhall again undertake to procure Coal-heavers to unload Ships loaden with Coals; ſuch Offender ſhall, for every Ship loaden in Part or in the Whole with Coals, which he ſhall, after ſuch Conviction and Adjudication, undertake to procure Coal-heavers to unload, forfeit, and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Perſons diſcharging Coal-Ships to be allowed 1s. 6d. per Score, and in Proportion for greater or leſs Quantities. Owner, &c. paying greater or leſs Price, forfeits 10s. for each Offence.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, there ſhall be one fixed and ſettled Price for the Hire or Labour of all ſuch Perſons as ſhall be employed in diſcharging Ships or Veſſels loaded with Coal in the River Thames, videlicet, One Shilling and Sixpence per Score, and no more, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and if any Captain or Owner, or other Perſon or Perſons having the Care of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall pay, or cauſe to be paid, directly or indirectly, to any Gang of Coal-heavers, or ſeparate Coal-heaver, or to any other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, any greater or leſs Sum or Hire or Wages than is hereby directed or appointed as aforeſaid; ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for each Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings; except ſuch Price or Wages for Labour ſhall be altered by virtue of this Act in the Manner herein-after directed.

Court of Mayor and Aldermen may annually alter the ſaid Price.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Court held in the City of London, commonly called The Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, is hereby authoriſed and impowered, in the Month of January in every Year, to alter, as they ſhall judge it neceſſary and convenient, the Price, Sum of Money, Pay, or Wages, hereby directed to be paid to ſuch Perſons as ſhall be employed in diſcharging Ships or Veſſels loaded with Coals as aforeſaid; to which Alterations all Perſons ſhall conform themſelves, under the Penalties hereby directed and inflicted.

After Ship ſhall be unloaded, Maſter, &c. to pay the Money due for unloading, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Captain or Maſter of a Ship or Veſſel, loaden or to be loaden with Coals, his Agent or Factor, or Agents or Factors, ſhall, after his Ship ſhall be unloaded within the Limits aforeſaid, pay or cauſe to be paid on Demand to the Foreman of the Gang, who ſhall have been employed to unload the ſame, or to ſuch other Perſon as he ſhall appoint, all and every Sum or Sums of Money due for unloading ſuch Ship; and ſuch Foreman of the ſaid Gang, after he ſhall have received ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to each of the ſaid Gang, which ſhall be employed in unloading ſuch Ship, his Share of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money: And if ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall, in either Caſe, not be paid and ſatisfied on Demand, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon ſo aggrieved, to apply and complain to the Lord Mayor, or any one of the Aldermen of the City of London aforeſaid, for Redreſs; who ſhall and may, with all convenient Speed, hear the ſaid Complaint and determine the ſame: And if ſuch Captain or Maſter of any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be adjudged indebted to the Gang complaining, who ſhall have been employed to unload the ſame Ship or Veſſel; or ſuch Foreman of the ſaid Gang ſhall be adjudged indebted to the ſaid Gang, or any of them complaining; it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Lord Mayor or Aldermen before whom ſuch Complaint ſhall be heard, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, forthwith, and without Delay, to cauſe ſuch Debt, together with the Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Complaint, not exceeding twenty Shillings, as ſuch Mayor or Aldermen ſhall judge reaſonable, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon indebted; and for Want of ſuch Diſtreſs, or ſufficient Diſtreſs, to commit him to either of the Compters within the ſaid City, there to remain until ſuch Debt, Coſts, and Charges ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied.

Wages to be paid in current Coin.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Wages and Hire of Coal-heavers ſhall be paid by the Maſters or Owners of Ships, or their Agents, to the Foreman of the Gang, and by him divided among the ſaid Coal-heavers, in current Coin, and not by way of Barter or Exchange, in any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Meat, Drink, or Materials for Wearing Apparel, under the Penalty of five Pounds.

Coal-heavers leaving Ship be-

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Coal-heaver employed in diſcharging or unloading any Ship or Veſſel as aforeſaid, ſhall leave the Ship before ſhe be fully diſcharged, not being obliged obliged thereto by Sickneſs or other Accident, and not being prevented from working by any Neglect or Default of the Maſter or Owner of ſuch Ship, or the Officers appointed to attend the Delivery thereof; every Perſon ſo offending ſhall be liable to be puniſhed in the ſame Manner as other Labourers are, by Law, liable to be puniſhed for leaving their Work unfiniſhed or unperformed.

fore he is diſcharged, to be puniſhed.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Captain or Maſter of a Ship or Veſſel loaden or to be loaden with Coals within the Limits aforeſaid, to employ his own Mariners in diſcharging his ſaid Ship or Veſſel, and to pay them as he and they ſhall agree; or to procure Coal-heavers or other Perſons to diſcharge the ſame, upon paying ſuch Coal-heavers or other Perſons the Pay or Wages by this Act directed and intended to be paid to Coal-heavers.

Captain may employ his own Mariners in diſcharging Ship of Coals, at the Price they ſhall agree upon, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Penalty and Penalties in this Act mentioned and contained, ſhall go to the Informer; and ſhall be recovered before the Lord Mayor, or any one of the Aldermen of the City of London; and be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Mayor or Aldermen before whom the ſame ſhall be recovered; and for Want of ſuch Diſtreſs, or ſufficient Diſtreſs, ſuch Offender ſhall, for every Offence, be committed by the ſaid Lord Mayor, or any one of the Aldermen of the ſaid City of London, to either of the Compters of the ſaid City, for any Term or Space not exceeding thirty nor leſs than fifteen Days.

Penalties.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Diſputes and Differences that ſhall or may at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of this Act, be or ariſe between any Captain or Maſter of any Ship or Veſſel loaden with Coals, the ſaid Coal-undertakers or Coal-heavers, or two or more of them, within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall be adjudged and determined before the ſaid Lord Mayor, or any one of the Aldermen of the ſaid City of London, and before no other Court or Courts, Magiſtrates or Magiſtrate whatſoever, in the ſame Manner as Diſputes and Differences between Maſters and Servants in Huſbandry are, by Law, directed to be adjudged and determined, and no otherwiſe; except in Caſes where ſuch Matters are or ſhall be altered, or otherwiſe provided for by this Act.

Diſputes to be determined by Lord Mayor, or one Alderman.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall think himſelf or themſelves aggrieved by any Adjudication or Determination of the Lord Mayor, or any one of the Aldermen of the ſaid City of London; it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo aggrieved, to appeal to the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the ſaid City of London, or any Adjournment thereof, for Redreſs, whoſe Determination ſhall be final; which Court is hereby authoriſed and impowered to award Coſts not exceeding forty Shillings, either to the Complainant or Defendant, as ſuch Court ſhall think juſt and reaſonable; and to cauſe the ſame to be levied and paid as Debts are herein before directed to be levied and paid.

Appeal.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sum of ſixpence in the Pound ſhall be ſtopped and deducted by the Foreman of every Gang out of the ſeveral Sums of Money ſo to be paid for the Hire and Wages of Coal-heavers ſo diſcharging ſuch Ships or Veſſels as aforeſaid; and the Money ſo ſtopped and deducted ſhall from Time to Time be paid to Charles Martyn, of Jermyn Street, Saint James's, Gentleman, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as he ſhall direct, until the full Sum of three hundred Pounds ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, for paying and diſcharging the Coſts, Charges, and other Expences incurred in obtaining and paſſing this Act; and the ſeveral Foremen ſhall be anſwerable to the ſaid Charles Martyn for the ſame; and the ſame ſhall be from Time to Time, in caſe of Neglect or Refuſal of Payment, levied and enforced in ſuch Manner as is directed with reſpect to the Debts due from Maſters of Ships, or their Agents, to Coal-heavers.

Foreman may ſtop 6d. in the Pound out of Coal-heavers Wages till 300l. be paid towards Expence of obtaining this Act. On Non-payment, may be levied.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Matter or Thing done in purſuance of this Act, then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced within ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be brought, laid, and tried in the City of London, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Actions, Suit or Suits; or if upon Verdict or Demurrer Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall and may recover Treble Coſts, and have ſuch Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Caſes by Law.

Limitation of Actions.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Public Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall remain and continue to be in force for the Term or Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act for puniſhing Offences committed by Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen, within certain Diſtricts and Places therein mentioned; and for renewing the Regiſtry of Carts and Carriages.

9 Annæ.

'WHEREAS Doubts have ariſen whether Offences committed by Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen, within certain Places, which by reaſon of the great Increaſe of Buildings, are now become 'the Suburbs of the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, are cognizable under an Act made in the ninth Year 'of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, in regard ſuch Places were not the actual Suburbs of either 'of the ſaid Cities at the Time of paſſing the ſaid Act, and that ſome of them are not compriſed within 'the Weekly Bills of Mortality:' For Remedy whereof, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, all and every the new Squares, Buildings, and Streets, within the ſeveral Pariſhes of Saint Mary le Bone; Saint George, Hanover Square; Saint George the Martyr, Queen Square; and Saint George, Bloomſbury, within the County of Middleſex, and alſo all the ſeveral Burying Grounds within five Miles of the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, belonging to any of the Pariſhes within the ſaid Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the Pariſhes herein before mentioned, ſhall be deemed, conſtrued, and adjudged, to be within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the Suburbs thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Act; and that the Juriſdiction and Authorities of the Commiſſioners for licenſing Hackney Coaches and Chairs, and of Juſtices of the Peace, and all the Proviſions, Penalties, and Forfeitures therein contained, ſhall extend, and be deemed, conſtrued, and adjudged to extend to all and every the ſaid new Squares, Buildings, and Streets, and alſo to the ſeveral Burying Grounds belonging to any of the Pariſhes within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or any of the ſeveral other Pariſhes herein before particularly mentioned.

Certain Pariſhes, &c. deemed to be within the Limits, &c.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, to order and direct the ſeveral Perſons who take out Licences for uſing Hackney Coaches, that they do provide, for the better Accommodation of the Public, Cheque Strings or Wires, to be placed in ſuch convenient Part of every ſuch Coach as to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſeem moſt convenient; and every Hackney Coachman plying for Hire without ſuch Cheque String or Wire, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of five Shillings; to be levied and recovered in ſuch Manner as other Penalties and Forfeitures are, by any Law now in being, relating to Hackney Coaches, directed to be levied and recovered.

'III. And whereas, in purſuance of the Directions of ſeveral former Acts for that Purpoſe, a very con'ſiderable Number of Carts, Cars, Drays, Fiſh Machines, and other Carriages, have, from Time to Time, 'been entered with the ſaid Commiſſioners; which ſaid Entries were, by the late Fire which happened in 'the Hackney Coach Office, entirely conſumed, and alſo all the Books of Entries of ſuch Numbers were 'totally deſtroyed, by Means whereof the Publick will be deprived of the Benefit intended by the ſaid ſeveral 'Acts, unleſs ſome Proviſion be made to compel the Owners of ſuch Carts, Cars, Drays, Fiſh Machines, 'and other Carriages, which had been entered at the ſaid Office, and were in uſe at the Time the ſaid 'Fire happened, to make Entries of ſuch Numbers as they were then poſſeſſed of, together with their 'Names and reſpective Places of Abode;' Be it therefore further enacted, That all and every Perſon or Perſons who was or were poſſeſſed of any Cart, Car, Dray, Fiſh Machine, or other Carriages, on the ſixteenth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, being the Day on which the ſaid Fire happened, and which had been reſpectively entered with the ſaid Commiſſioners, in purſuance of the ſaid former Acts, ſhall, and they are hereby reſpectively required to make a new Entry of every ſuch Cart, Car, Dray, Fiſh Machine, or other Carriage, with the ſaid Commiſſioners, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one; and for that Purpoſe the Owner or Owners of ſuch Cart, Car, Dray, Fiſh Machine, or other Carriage, ſhall make out and deliver, or cauſe to be made out and delivered, in Writing, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, at the Office for licenſing Hackney Coaches, within the Time aforeſaid, the true and real Number and Numbers of every ſuch Cart, Car, Dray, Fiſh Machine, or other Carriage ſo entered as aforeſaid, which was or were in uſe, or which might lawfully have been uſed and employed on the ſaid ſixteenth Day of November, together with the Name and Place of Abode of the Owner thereof; and thereupon the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, without Fee or Reward, to make an Entry or Entries of every ſuch Cart, Car, Dray, Fiſh Machine, or other Carriage, together with the reſpective Number thereof, and the Name and the Place or Places of Abode of the reſpective Owners thereof, in Books to be by them provided for that Purpoſe.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall neglect or refuſe to make ſuch Entry or Entries as aforeſaid, with the ſaid Commiſſioners, within the Time herein before limited, every ſuch Perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing to make ſuch Entry or Entries, ſhall be deemed and taken to have and be poſſeſſed of no ſuch Number or Numbers, nor to have made any Entry or Entries whatſoever, with the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſhall be ſubject and liable to all and every the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by all or any of the ſeveral Acts heretofore made for that Purpoſe, in the ſame Manner, and to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if no ſuch Entry or Entries had been ever made; any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, a Verdict ſhall be recorded for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall and may recover Double Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have, in other Caſes by Law, for Recovery of his or their Coſts.

General Iſſue.

Double Coſts.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for conſolidating, extending, and rendering more effectual the Powers granted by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, for making, enlarging, amending, and cleanſing the Vaults, Drains, and Sewers, within the City of London, and Liberties thereof; and for paving, cleanſing, and lighting the Streets, Lanes, Squares, Yards, Courts, Alleys, Paſſages, and Places; and preventing and removing Obſtructions and Annoyances within the ſame.

CXVIII. AND it is hereby further enacted and declared, That immediately after the ſeveral Authorities, Powers, and Proviſions herein before given or granted, eſtabliſhed, declared, and provided, ſhall commence and take Effect reſpectively, for the Purpoſes of paving, cleanſing and lighting the ſaid City, and the Liberties thereof, and the other Purpoſes of this Act, according to the Tenor and true Meaning thereof, the ſaid Act made in the eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better paving, cleanſing, and lighting the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and for preventing Obſtructions and Annoyances within the ſame, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, and for repealing an Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty, for thoſe Purpoſes, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

8 Geo. 3. repealed.

CXIX. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to repeal, annul, or make void, any of the Rates or Aſſeſſments made or charged by virtue or in purſuance of any ſuch former Act or Acts of Parliament, which were due and payable, or in Arrear, on the twenty-fifth Day of March, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, or any of the Remedies, Powers, or Proviſions given or provided by ſuch former Act or Acts reſpectively, for the collecting, levying, or recovering the ſame; but all ſuch Rates and Aſſeſſments, and all Arrears thereof reſpectively, which were due and payable on the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and all the Remedies, Powers, and Proviſions in and by ſuch former Act or Acts reſpectively granted, enacted, or provided, for the collecting, recovering, and levying the ſame reſpectively, ſhall continue and be in Force; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Rates under former Acts not to be annulled.

CXX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make void the Appointment of any Officers already appointed, by virtue of the ſaid Act hereby repealed, or to make void any other Proceeding, already had or commenced by virtue of, and under the Authority of the ſaid Act, or to prevent the completing of any ſuch Proceedings; but that the ſaid Commiſſioners, conſtituted by this Act, ſhall and may carry into Execution, and complete all ſuch Proceedings commenced under the ſaid Act, although repealed, in the like Manner as if the ſame had been commenced under and by virtue of this Act.

Not to make void Proceedings under the ſaid Act.

Act 19. 22, & 23 Car. 2. 2 Gul. & Mary. 10 Geo. 2. 17 Geo. 2. 33 Geo. 2. 6 Geo. 3.

CXXI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to revive the ſaid Acts made in the nineteenth and twenty-ſecond, and twenty-third Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, or the ſaid Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, or the ſaid Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, or the ſaid Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, or an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, or an Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, but ſuch Parts of the ſaid ſeveral Acts as reſpectively relate to the publick Sewers, Drains, Vaults, or Pavements of the ſaid City and Liberties, ſhall, and the ſame are hereby declared to be repealed; any Thing in any of the ſaid Acts to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Publick Act.

CXXII. And it is hereby further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for cleanſing and lighting the Streets of the Town of South Leith, the Territory of Saint Anthony's, and Yard Heads thereunto adjoining, and for ſupplying the ſeveral Parts thereof with freſh Water.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for the Encouragement of the White Herring Fiſhery.

Continued and amended by 29 Geo. 3. c. 26.

'WHEREAS the carrying on and Improvement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſheries are of great 'Importance to theſe Kingdoms, by increaſing the Trade and Navigation thereof; and being 'a Nurſery for Seamen, and otherwiſe a Means of employing and providing for great Numbers of induſtrious 'Poor, provided that reaſonable Encouragement be given to ſuch Perſons as are willing to carry on the 'ſaid Fiſheries:' Therefore, and for the better Regulation of the ſaid Trade, and for preventing Frauds and Impoſitions in the Management thereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That as an Encouragement to all Perſons whatſoever, as well Bodies Politick and Corporate as others, to engage in the ſaid White Herring Fiſheries, that, from and after the twenty-ſecond Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, a Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton ſhall be paid annually, in Manner as herein after provided for, to the Owner or Owners of all decked Veſſels from twenty to eighty Tons Burthen, which ſhall be fitted out and employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, in Manner and under the Regulations herein after mentioned, and that for the Space and Term of ſeven Years, from and after the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and to the End of the then next enſuing Seſſion of Parliament.

Bounty of 30s. per Ton on the Veſſels employed in the Fiſheries.

How and where paid.

II. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton ſhall, for every Veſſel or Veſſels proceeding to the ſaid Fiſheries immediately from any Port or Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, be paid out of ſuch Monies as ſhall be produced out of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms there; and for all other Veſſels which ſhall take their Departure from any Port or Place within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, out of the Monies which ſhall be produced out of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms or Exciſe within that Part of the united Kingdom laſt mentioned.

Proviſo.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be allowed or intitled to receive the Bounty herein before granted, for any Buſs or Veſſel which ſhall not proceed directly upon the ſaid Fiſhery from that Part of the united Kingdom to which ſuch Buſs or Veſſel ſhall belong, and where her Owners reſide; and that the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Buſs or Veſſel ſhall take out their Licence from the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where ſuch Buſs or Veſſel was bona fide manned, victualled, furniſhed, accoutred, and fitted out for that Voyage; any Thing in this Act, or any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Buſſes or Veſſels to be decked.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Buſs or Veſſel which ſhall be employed in the ſaid White Herring Fiſheries, whoſe Owner or Owners ſhall be intitled to the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton by virtue of this Act, ſhall be a decked Buſs or Veſſel, built in Great Britain after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and ſhall proceed on the ſaid Fiſheries from ſome Port in Great Britain, manned and navigated as by the Law now in Force is directed; and before ſuch Buſs or Veſſel proceed on ſuch Voyage, or be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, ſhe ſhall be viſited by ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms belonging to ſuch Port, who ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to examine into ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, and who ſhall take an Account of the Tonnage thereof by Admeaſurement, and ſhall certify ſuch his or their Viſitation, Examination and Admeaſurement, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and that ſhe hath on board ſuch a Quantity of Fiſhing-nets, and other Stores, to be uſed in the ſaid Fiſhery, as herein after mentioned, and otherwiſe is a proper Veſſel to be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and upon its further appearing, by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, or Agent appointed by them, and of the Maſter or chief Officer of ſuch Veſſel, written at the Foot of the ſaid Certificate, and made before the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port, who are hereby impowered and required to adminſter the ſame, That it is really and truly their firm Purpoſe and determined Reſolution, that ſuch Buſs or Veſſel ſhall proceed reſpectively, ſo manned, furniſhed, and accoutred, either to Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney; and be at the Rendezvous of the ſaid Fiſhery there on or before the twenty-ſecond Day of June, and ſhall not ſhoot or wet their Nets before the twenty-fourth Day of the ſaid Month of June, and ſhall continue fiſhing to the twelfth Day of October; or ſhall proceed to Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney; and be at the Rendezvous of the ſaid Fiſheries on or before the firſt Day of October, and ſhall continue fiſhing to the eleventh Day of January following, unleſs they ſhall have ſooner completed their Loading of Fiſh; and ſhall fiſh in an orderly and regular Manner, without impeding or obſtructing other Veſſels which ſhall be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and ſhall keep a Journal of their Proceedings: And if, after ſuch Certificate had, and Oath made, ſuch Owner or Owners, or their Agents, and Maſter, or Chief Officer of ſuch Veſſel as aforeſaid, do alſo become bound, with two ſufficient Sureties, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Penalty of ſuch Sums as ſhall be equal to Treble the Bounty on the Tonnage of his Veſſel intended by this Act (which Bond the Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Space of three Years, againſt the Maſter and his Sureties, for the faithful Dealing of the ſaid Maſter and Ship's Company, in regard to the ſaid Veſſel and Voyage); then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant to the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, full Licence and Authority to proceed on ſuch Voyage as aforeſaid.

Rep. in Part by 19 Geo. 3, c. 28.

'V. And, to prevent any Diſputes which may ariſe, whether a Veſſel be properly qualified and duly 'fitted out for the Herring Fiſhery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intitled to 'a Certificate from the Cuſtom-houſe Officers,' it is hereby enacted, That every ſuch Veſſel ſhall be a decked Veſſel, built in Great Britain, after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and ſhall have on board twelve Wincheſter Buſhels of Salt for every Laſt of Fiſh which ſuch Veſſel is capable of holding; which Salt ſhall be barrelled up in new Barrels, and as many more new Barrels as ſuch Buſs or Veſſel is capable of carrying, and ſhall have on board, at the Place of Rendezvous, two hundred and fifty ſquare Yards of Netting for each Ton of Buſs Meaſurement, together with the cuſtomary Quantity of other Materials for the Equipment and Mounting of the ſaid two hundred and fifty Yards of Netting in the Fiſhery Buſineſs; but with Liberty to make uſe of ſuch Nets in the ſame as they ſhall find beſt adapted to the ſaid Fiſheries.

Such decked Veſſel to have on board 12 Wincheſter Buſhels of Salt for every Laſt of Fiſh.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Veſſel of twenty Tons which ſhall be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, ſhall have on board, at ſuch of the Places aforementioned as ſhall be appointed for their Rendezvous, not leſs than ſix Men; and every Veſſel of greater Burden ſhall, over and above the ſix Men aforeſaid, have one for every five Tons which ſhe ſhall exceed twenty Tons.

Veſſel of 20 Tons to have ſix Men on board.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, on the Return of ſuch Veſſel into any Port of Great Britain for her Diſcharge, the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, or ſuch other Officer of the Cuſtoms as he ſhall appoint at ſuch Port, ſhall immediately repair on board ſuch Veſſel, and view the Condition of ſuch Veſſel and her Lading, and certify the ſame, together with their Obſervations thereon, and alſo the real Tonnage of the ſaid Buſs or Veſſel; and the ſaid Officers are alſo to take an Account of the Names of the Maſter and other Perſons on board, and to certify the ſame; and the Maſter ſhall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame), which ſhall be wrote on the Back of, or annexed to the Licence granted as aforeſaid, and which they are hereby required to deliver up, and what they did in purſuance thereof, That ſuch Veſſel was at one of the Places before mentioned at the Time appointed by this Act, and has not ſince been on any other Voyage, or purſued any other Deſign or View of Profit; and that they did remain fiſhing according to the Directions of this Act, and had, at the Time of their Rendezvous, the Quantity of Nets and other Stores and Number of Men herein before directed to be on board the ſaid Veſſel; which Certificate, Schedule, Licence, and Oath, together with the Account of the Fiſh taken by the ſaid Veſſel, ſhall be tranſmitted by the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port, in caſe the ſaid Buſs or Veſſel departed with her Licence from any Port within that Part of Great Britain called England, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms of England; and in caſe ſuch Buſs or Veſſel departed with her Licence from any Port within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms or Exciſe for that Part of the united Kingdom; and ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively, being fully ſatisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Maſter and other Perſons employed in ſuch Veſſels with reſpect to ſuch Voyage and Fiſhing, ſhall, on Demand, cauſe Payment to be made to the Owner or Owners, or to his or their Aſſigns, by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, as the Caſe ſhall happen, the Sum of thirty Shillings per Ton, according to the Admeaſurement of ſuch Veſſel, duly certified as aforeſaid.

Veſſels to be inſpected by Officers.

VIII. Provided always, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Owner and Owners aforeſaid ſhall not be intitled to have and receive the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton by this Act given, or allowed to Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, in reſpect of ſuch Veſſels as ſhall return into Port with a leſs Number of Hands than ſuch Veſſel is required by this Act to have on board at the Rendezvous, unleſs it ſhall be made appear, that ſuch Number hath been reduced by Death, or that ſuch Reduction is occaſioned by Sickneſs, or Deſertion, without any Default, Fraud, or Collufion, on the Part of the ſaid Owner and Owners.

Owners not intitled to Bounty in reſpect of ſuch Veſſels as return with leſs Hands than required.

IX. And

Act 19. 22, & 23 Car. 2. 2 Gul. & Mary. 10 Geo. 2. 17 Geo. 2. 33 Geo. 2. 6 Geo. 3.

CXXI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to revive the ſaid Acts made in the nineteenth and twenty-ſecond, and twenty-third Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, or the ſaid Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, or the ſaid Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, or the ſaid Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, or an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, or an Act made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, but ſuch Parts of the ſaid ſeveral Acts as reſpectively relate to the publick Sewers, Drains, Vaults, or Pavements of the ſaid City and Liberties, ſhall, and the ſame are hereby declared to be repealed; any Thing in any of the ſaid Acts to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Publick Act.

All Buſſes or Veſſels to be decked.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Buſs or Veſſel which ſhall be employed in the ſaid White Herring Fiſheries, whoſe Owner or Owners ſhall be intitled to the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton by virtue of this Act, ſhall be a decked Buſs or Veſſel, built in Great Britain after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and ſhall proceed on the ſaid Fiſheries from ſome Port in Great Britain, manned and navigated as by the Law now in Force is directed; and before ſuch Buſs or Veſſel proceed on ſuch Voyage, or be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, ſhe ſhall be viſited by ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms belonging to ſuch Port, who ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to examine into ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, and who ſhall take an Account of the Tonnage thereof by Admeaſurement, and ſhall certify ſuch his or their Viſitation, Examination and Admeaſurement, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and that ſhe hath on board ſuch a Quantity of Fiſhing-nets, and other Stores, to be uſed in the ſaid Fiſhery, as herein after mentioned, and otherwiſe is a proper Veſſel to be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and upon its further appearing, by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, or Agent appointed by them, and of the Maſter or chief Officer of ſuch Veſſel, written at the Foot of the ſaid Certificate, and made before the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port, who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame, That it is really and truly their firm Purpoſe and determined Reſolution, that ſuch Buſs or Veſſel ſhall proceed reſpectively, ſo manned, furniſhed, and accoutred, either to Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney; and be at the Rendezvous of the ſaid Fiſhery there on or before the twenty-ſecond Day of June, and ſhall not ſhoot or wet their Nets before the twenty-fourth Day of the ſaid Month of June, and ſhall continue fiſhing to the twelfth Day of October; or ſhall proceed to Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney; and be at the Rendezvous of the ſaid Fiſheries on or before the firſt Day of October, and ſhall continue fiſhing to the eleventh Day of January following, unleſs they ſhall have ſooner completed their Loading of Fiſh; and ſhall fiſh in an orderly and regular Manner, without impeding or obſtructing other Veſſels which ſhall be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and ſhall keep a Journal of their Proceedings: And if, after ſuch Certificate had, and Oath made, ſuch Owner or Owners, or their Agents, and Maſter, or Chief Officer of ſuch Veſſel as aforeſaid, do alſo become bound, with two ſufficient Sureties, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Penalty of ſuch Sums as ſhall be equal to Treble the Bounty on the Tonnage of his Veſſel intended by this Act (which Bond the Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Space of three Years, againſt the Maſter and his Sureties, for the faithful Dealing of the ſaid Maſter and Ship's Company, in regard to the ſaid Veſſel and Voyage); then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant to the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, full Licence and Authority to proceed on ſuch Voyage as aforeſaid.

Rep. in Part by 19 Geo. 3, c. 28.

'V. And, to prevent any Diſputes which may ariſe, whether a Veſſel be properly qualified and duly 'fitted out for the Herring Fiſhery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intitled to 'a Certificate from the Cuſtom-houſe Officers,' it is hereby enacted, That every ſuch Veſſel ſhall be a decked Veſſel, built in Great Britain, after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and ſhall have on board twelve Wincheſter Buſhels of Salt for every Laſt of Fiſh which ſuch Veſſel is capable of holding; which Salt ſhall be barrelled up in new Barrels, and as many more new Barrels as ſuch Buſs or Veſſel is capable of carrying, and ſhall have on board, at the Place of Rendezvous, two hundred and fifty ſquare Yards of Netting for each Ton of Buſs Meaſurement, together with the cuſtomary Quantity of other Materials for the Equipment and Mounting of the ſaid two hundred and fifty Yards of Netting in the Fiſhery Buſineſs; but with Liberty to make uſe of ſuch Nets in the ſame as they ſhall find beſt adapted to the ſaid Fiſheries.

Such decked Veſſel to have on board 12 Wincheſter Buſhels of Salt for every Laſt of Fiſh.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Veſſel of twenty Tons which ſhall be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, ſhall have on board, at ſuch of the Places aforementioned as ſhall be appointed for their Rendezvous, not leſs than ſix Men; and every Veſſel of greater Burden ſhall, over and above the ſix Men aforeſaid, have one for every five Tons which ſhe ſhall exceed twenty Tons.

Veſſel of 20 Tons to have ſix Men on board.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, on the Return of ſuch Veſſel into any Port of Great Britain for her Diſcharge, the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, or ſuch other Officer of the Cuſtoms as he ſhall appoint at ſuch Port, ſhall immediately repair on board ſuch Veſſel, and view the Condition of ſuch Veſſel and her Lading, and certify the ſame, together with their Obſervations thereon, and alſo the real Tonnage of the ſaid Buſs or Veſſel; and the ſaid Officers are alſo to take an Account of the Names of the Maſter and other Perſons on board, and to certify the ſame; and the Maſter ſhall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame), which ſhall be wrote on the Back of, or annexed to the Licence granted as aforeſaid, and which they are hereby required to deliver up, and what they did in purſuance thereof, That ſuch Veſſel was at one of the Places before mentioned at the Time appointed by this Act, and has not ſince been on any other Voyage, or purſued any other Deſign or View of Profit; and that they did remain fiſhing according to the Directions of this Act, and had, at the Time of their Rendezvous, the Quantity of Nets and other Stores and Number of Men herein before directed to be on board the ſaid Veſſel; which Certificate, Schedule, Licence, and Oath, together with the Account of the Fiſh taken by the ſaid Veſſel, ſhall be tranſmitted by the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port, in caſe the ſaid Buſs or Veſſel departed with her Licence from any Port within that Part of Great Britain called England, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms of England; and in caſe ſuch Buſs or Veſſel departed with her Licence from any Port within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms or Exciſe for that Part of the united Kingdom; and ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively, being fully ſatisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Maſter and other Perſons employed in ſuch Veſſels with reſpect to ſuch Voyage and Fiſhing, ſhall, on Demand, cauſe Payment to be made to the Owner or Owners, or to his or their Aſſigns, by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, as the Caſe ſhall happen, the Sum of thirty Shillings per Ton, according to the Admeaſurement of ſuch Veſſel, duly certified as aforeſaid.

Veſſels to be inſpected by Officers.

VIII. Provided always, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Owner and Owners aforeſaid ſhall not be intitled to have and receive the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton by this Act given, or allowed to Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, in reſpect of ſuch Veſſels as ſhall return into Port with a leſs Number of Hands than ſuch Veſſel is required by this Act to have on board at the Rendezvous, unleſs it ſhall be made appear, that ſuch Number hath been reduced by Death, or that ſuch Reduction is occaſioned by Sickneſs, or Deſertion, without any Default, Fraud, or Colluſion, on the Part of the ſaid Owner and Owners.

Owners not intitled to Bounty in reſpect of ſuch Veſſels as return with leſs Hands than required.

IX. And

Owners not to forfeit Bounty, if Veſſels did depart, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Owner and Owners ſhall not be deemed liable to forfeit or incur a Forfeiture of the ſaid Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton, ſo given to Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, in reſpect of ſuch Buſſes as ſhall not arrive at one of the Places in and by this preſent Act appointed for the rendezvouſing of the Buſſes or Veſſels to be employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, by or on the reſpective Days appointed for the Rendezvous of ſuch Buſſes or Veſſels; provided that ſuch Buſſes or Veſſels did really and bona fide take their Departure for ſuch reſpective Places of Rendezvous, or one of them, at leaſt five Days before the reſpective Days herein before named and appointed for the Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries to be at ſuch reſpective Places of Rendezvous, and that ſuch Buſſes or Veſſels be fitted out in all Reſpects conformable to the Directions and Regulations herein before provided.

In caſe Buſſes do not arrive at their Rendezvous, the Oath may be varied.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where the reſpective Buſſes employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, and taking their Departure for ſuch reſpective Places of Rendezvous at the reſpective Times before mentioned, ſhall not arrive at the ſaid reſpective Stations at Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney; or one of them, on or before the reſpective Days herein before directed and appointed, the before-mentioned Oath, required to be made by the reſpective Maſters of ſuch Buſſes or Veſſels at their Return into Port for their Diſcharge, with reſpect to ſo much of ſuch Oath as relates to their having arrived at ſuch reſpective Places of Rendezvous, or one of them, on ſuch Days as is [are] for that Purpoſe already mentioned and appointed, or either of them, and to their having remained fiſhing, according to the Directions of this preſent Act, may and ſhall, from henceforth, be varied and made conformable to the particular Circumſtances attending ſuch reſpective Buſſes or Veſſels ſo quitting their reſpective Stations at Sea, from whence the ſaid Fiſheries are directed to be carried on, or either of them, or to their not arriving at any of the ſaid reſpective Stations of Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk; Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland; Leith, in the County of Edinburgh; Inverneſs, in the County of Inverneſs; or to Braſſey Sound, in Shetland; Campbeltown, or Oban, in Argyleſhire; or Kirkwall, in Orkney, herein before appointed for the Rendezvous of ſuch Buſſes or Veſſels; and that ſuch Oath ſhall be made and taken by the Maſter or other Chief Officer of ſuch Buſs or Veſſel ſo returning into Port for a Diſcharge.

Perſons employed to have the free Uſe of all Ports, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons employed in the ſaid Fiſheries may fiſh in any Part of the Britiſh Seas, and ſhall have and exerciſe the free Uſe of all Ports, Harbours, Shores, and Forelands in Great Britain, or the Iſlands belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, below the higheſt High-water Mark, and for the Space of one hundred Yards on any waſte or uncultivated Land beyond ſuch Mark, within the Land, for landing their Nets, Caſks, and other Materials, Utenſils, and Stores, and for erecting Tents, Huts, and Stages, and for the landing, pickling, curing, and reloading their Fiſh, and in drying their Nets, without paying any Foreland or other Dues, or any other Sum or Sums of Money, or other Conſideration whatſoever, for ſuch Liberty (except as herein after is excepted), any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding: And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to demand or receive any Dues, Sums of Money, or other Conſideration whatſoever, for the Uſe of any ſuch Ports, Harbours, Shores, or Forelands, within the Limits aforeſaid, or ſhall obſtruct the Fiſhermen, or other Perſons employed in the taking or curing of Fiſh, or drying their Nets, in the Uſe of the ſame, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and levied in Manner herein after directed.

XII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to exempt the Veſſels or Boats employed in the ſaid Fiſheries from the Payment of ſuch Harbour or Pier Duties as are, and by the Law ought to be, demanded for Ships, Veſſels, or Boats, in Piers or Harbours, which are built or artificially made, but that ſuch Harbour or Pier Dues ſhall be paid in like Manner as the ſame were liable to be paid before the paſſing of this Act.

Penalty to be determined by Bill or Information.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalty herein before mentioned ſhall and may be proſecuted and determined by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively; wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and one Moiety of ſuch Penalty ſhall be to the Uſe of his Majeſty, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſue for and proſecute the ſame.

Commiſſioners to order Payment of Bounty, according, &c.

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for England and Scotland reſpectively, to order the ſaid Bounty to be paid by the Receiver-general or Caſhier of the Cuſtoms for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Buſs or Veſſel ſhall have departed as herein before directed, out of any Money in the Hands of ſuch Receiver-general or Caſhier, ariſing from any of the Duties, Revenues, and Cuſtoms, under the Management of ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners; and if the Receiver-general or Caſhier of the Cuſtoms at Edinburgh ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſaid Bounty, the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at Edinburgh, or any three of them, ſhall forthwith give the Perſon or Perſons intitled to receive ſuch Bounty a Certificate, certifying the ſame to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Exciſe for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; which Certificate, being affixed to the Licence, and other Certificates and Documents required by Law, and being produced to the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, they the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authoriſed and required, on Demand, to cauſe the Money therein certified as aforeſaid to be due, to be paid by the Receiver-general, or Caſhier of the ſaid Exciſe, out of any Money in his Hands ariſing from any of the Duties and Revenues under the Management of ſuch Commiſſioners, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'XV. And

'XV. And whereas the Revenue in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hitherto applicable to the 'Payment of the Bounties granted for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery, hath not 'been ſufficient to ſatisfy and pay the ſaid Bounties for ſeveral Veſſels and Buſſes which have proceeded 'by Licence on the ſaid Fiſhery from thence, and divers Certificates and Orders for the Payment of ſuch 'Bounties do for that Reaſon remain unſatisfied:' Now, for making a reaſonable Compenſation for ſuch Delay of Payment, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon and Perſons who, from and after the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, ſhall be legally intitled to receive any ſuch Bounty which ſhall then remain due and unſatisfied, for or in reſpect of any Buſs or Veſſel which, before the firſt Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, proceeded from Scotland upon the ſaid White Herring Fiſhery, ſhall, for the Forbearance of ſuch Money as ſhall be ſo due, be allowed Intereſt, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum for the ſame, ſuch Intereſt to be computed from the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and be continued until Notice ſhall be given in the London Gazette, and Edinburgh Courant, by Order of the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, that the Money due for ſuch Bounties ſhall and will be paid off and diſcharged.

Intereſt of 3 per Cent. for Forbearance.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to cauſe the ſaid Intereſt allowed by this Act to be paid annually by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms in Scotland, out of any Money in his Hands ariſing from any of the Duties, Revenues, and Cuſtoms, under the Management of ſuch Commiſſioners.

Commiſſioners in Scotland may cauſe ſaid Intereſt to be paid annually.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, for preventing any Difficulties about aſcertaining, getting in, and receiving all ſuch Sums of Money as ſhall for the future become due and payable by Law, as a Duty of Sixpence per Month from all Seamen who are or ſhall be employed in the Service of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery, for the Support of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, the Commiſſioners for the Time being of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or of Exciſe, if in Scotland, as the Caſe may be, ſhall, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time, after the Commencement of this Act, to tranſmit, or cauſe to be tranſmitted, with all convenient Speed, to the Office of the Receiver for the Time being of the ſaid Duty in London, a true and exact Copy of every Certificate which ſhall, from Time to Time, after the ſaid Commencement, be tranſmitted to them the ſaid Commiſſioners, by all or any of the reſpective Collectors and Comptrollers of the ſeveral Outports in Great Britain, in order to the ſaid Commiſſioners cauſing Payment to be made of the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton, purſuant to the Directions of an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-third Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery.

An Act for the better Support and Eſtabliſhment of the Greenland and Whale Fiſhery.

'WHEREAS the free Importation of Fins, Oil, and Blubber of Whales, and the Oil-ſkins and 'other Produce of Seals, and other Creatures, taken or caught in the Greenland Seas, and Davis's 'Streights, and the Bounties given by former Acts of Parliament for the Encouragement of his Majeſty's 'Subjects to carry on and improve the Greenland and Whale Fiſheries, have been found of great Advan-'tage to the Navigation, Trade, and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and further Encouragements are ne-'ceſſary to ſupport and eſtabliſh the ſaid Fiſheries;' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, for and during the Space of fifteen Years, to be computed from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, to import Whale Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, Seal Oil, Seal Skins, or any other Produce of Seals, or other Fiſh or Creatures taken or caught in the ſaid Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or in any Parts of the Seas adjoining or adjacent thereunto, in Britiſh Ships, whereof the Captain or Maſter, and one-third Part at the leaſt of the Mariners are Britiſh Subjects, without paying any Cuſtom, Subſidy, or other Duty for the ſame, during the ſaid Term of fifteen Years; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Perſons may import Blubber, &c. caught in the Greenland Seas, &c. during fifteen years.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to give Liberty of importing any of the before-mentioned Commodities Duty-free, unleſs the Captain, Maſter, or other Commanding Officer, of the Ship or Veſſel importing the ſame, ſhall firſt make Oath, before ſome or one of the Commiſſioners or principal Officer of the Cuſtoms in the Port or Ports of Importation (who is and are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) that all the Whale Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, Seal Oil, Seal Skins, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fiſh or Creatures, imported in ſuch Ship or Veſſel, was really and bona fide the Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, or the Skins, Oil, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fiſh or Creatures, caught and taken in the ſaid Greenland Seas, Davis's Streights, or other Parts of the Seas adjoining or adjacent thereunto, by the Crews of ſuch Ships and Veſſels only, whereof the Captain or Maſter, and one-third Part, at the leaſt, of the Mariners were Britiſh Subjects.

Captain to make Oath, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, the former Bounties granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Encouragement of the ſaid Greenland or Whale Fiſhery, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or allowed (except in ſuch Caſes only where eſpecial Proviſion is made for the ſame by this Act) and in lieu and in ſtead thereof, the ſeveral reſpective Bounties herein after mentioned, ſhall be paid and allowable under the ſeveral Rules and Reſtrictions herein after expreſſed and directed; (that is to ſay) Every Britiſh Ship or Veſſel that ſhall, within the Time limited by this Act, proceed from any Port of Great Britain on the Whale Fiſhery to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, and the adjacent Seas, manned and navigated as aforeſaid, ſhall, before ſhe proceed on ſuch Voyage, or be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, be viſited by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms belonging to ſuch Port, who ſhall examine into ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and take an Account of the Tonnage thereof by Admeaſurement, and ſhall certify ſuch his or their Viſitation, Examination, and Admeaſurement, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and if it appear by the Certificate of ſuch Officer or Officers, that ſhe hath on board ſuch a Number of Men, Proviſions, Boats, Fiſhing Lines, and Inſtruments to be uſed in ſuch Fiſhery as herein after Bounties granted by former Acts to ceaſe.

Britiſh Ships to be viſited, &c.

after are mentioned, that ſhe is ſtrongly built, and otherwiſe a proper Ship for ſuch Voyage and Fiſhery, and hath on board, among her Crew, a ſufficient Number of Harpooners, Steerſmen, and Line-managers, who have before been employed in ſuch Voyages (the Names of ſuch Perſons to be contained in ſuch Certificate); and if it further appear by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, and of the Maſter or Chief Officer of ſuch Ship, written at the Foot of ſuch Certificate, and made before the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame), that it is really and truly their firm Purpoſe and determined Reſolution, that ſuch Ship ſhall, as ſoon as Licence ſhall be granted, forthwith proceed, ſo manned, furniſhed, and accoutred, in a Voyage to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the Seas adjacent, and there, in the then approaching Seaſon, to uſe the utmoſt Endeavours of themſelves and their Ship's Company to take Whales, or other Creatures living in the Sea, and on no other Deſign or View of Profit in ſuch Voyage, and to import the Whale Fins, Oil, and Blubber thereof, into the Kingdom of Great Britain (naming the Port to which it is their Intention to return); and if the Maſter, after ſuch Certificate had, and Oath made, do alſo become bound, with two ſufficient Securities, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Penalty of ſuch Sum as ſhall be equal to Treble the Bounty intended by this Act (which Bond the ſaid Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Term of three Years, againſt the Maſter and Sureties, for the faithful Dealing of the ſaid Maſter and Ship's Company, in regard to the ſaid Ship and Voyage); then, and in all ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful for any three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England or Scotland reſpectively, for the Time being, on receiving ſuch Certificates and Oaths made, and it being certified to them by the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port, that ſufficient Security hath been given as aforeſaid, to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant, to the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Ship, full Licence and Authority to proceed on ſuch Voyage as aforeſaid.

Ships of 200 Tons Burthen how to be furniſhed.

'IV. And to prevent any Diſputes that may ariſe, whether a Ship be properly qualified, and duly fitted 'out for the Whale Fiſhery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intitled to a Certi-'ficate thereof from the Cuſtom-houſe Officers,' it is hereby enacted, That every Ship of the Burthen of two hundred Tons, deſigned for this Fiſhery, ſhall, and is hereby obliged to have on board forty Fiſhing Lines, of one hundred and twenty Fathom each, forty Harpoon Irons, four Boats, with ſeven Men (including a Harpooner, a Steerſman, and a Line-Manager to each Boat, making in the whole twenty-eight Men, beſides the Maſter and Surgeon) with ſix Months Proviſions, at the leaſt, for ſuch Number of Men; and every Ship of larger Burthen an Increaſe of ſix Men, one Boat, ten ſuch Lines, and ten Harpoon Irons more, for every fifty Tons above the ſaid two hundred Tons, together with Proviſions in Proportion; and every Ship, which ſhall be ſo employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, ſhall have on board an Apprentice, indentured for the Space of three Years at the leaſt, for every fifty Tons Burthen, who ſhall be accounted as one of the Number of Men required to be on board ſuch Ship as aforeſaid.

On Return of ſuch Ship, Officers of the Cuſtoms to inſpect her.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on the Return of ſuch Ship to the Port to which the Maſter and Mate declared, on Oath, their Intention to return, the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, at ſuch Port, ſhall immediately repair on board, and view the Condition of ſuch Ship and her Lading, and certify the ſame, together with their Obſervations thereon, as alſo the real Tonnage of the ſaid Ship; and the ſaid Officers are alſo to take an Account or Schedule of the Names of the Maſter, Mate, and other Perſons on board, diſtinguiſhing therein the Harpooners and Perſons more immediately employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, and to certify the ſame; and the Maſter and Mate ſhall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame) on the Back of, or annexed to the Licence granted as aforeſaid, which they are hereby then required to deliver up, that they did, in purſuance thereof (mentioning the Day of their Departure), proceed in a Voyage directly to the Places aforeſaid, and have not ſince been on any other Voyage, or purſued any other Deſign, or View of Profit; and that they did there (mentioning the Time of their Stay in thoſe Seas) uſe their utmoſt Endeavour of themſelves, and their Ship's Company, to take Whales, and other Creatures living in thoſe Seas; and that all the Whale Fins, Oil, and Blubber, imported (if any) in ſuch Ship, was really and bona fide caught and taken in the ſaid Seas, by the Crew of ſuch Ship only, or with the Aſſiſtance of the Crew of ſome other Britiſh Ship licenſed for that Voyage, purſuant to the Directions of this Act; all which Schedule, Certificate, Licence, and Oath, ſhall be tranſmitted by the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port, to the reſpective Commiſſioners for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Ship departed with her Licence; and ſuch Commiſſioners being fully ſatisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Maſter, and other Perſons employed in ſuch Ships, with reſpect to ſuch Voyage and Fiſhery, ſhall, on Demand, cauſe Payment to be made to the Maſter or Owners, or to his or their Aſſigns, by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Ship departed, the Bounty or Premium following, according to the Admeaſurement of ſuch Ship duly certified as aforeſaid; (that is to ſay) For every ſuch Ship as ſhall proceed on the ſaid Fiſhery, from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, to the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, the Sum of forty Shillings per Ton; and for every ſuch Ship, as ſhall proceed on the ſaid Fiſhery from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, to the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, the Sum of thirty Shillings per Ton; and for every ſuch Ship as ſhall proceed on the ſaid Fiſhery from the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, to the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſix, the Sum of twenty Shillings per Ton.

Bounty on Veſſels.

No Perſon to receive Bounty unleſs Ship ſail from Port where inſpected.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be allowed or intitled to receive the Bounty herein before granted, for any Ship which ſhall proceed upon the ſaid Whale Fiſhery, from any Part of Great Britain, after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, unleſs ſuch Ship ſhall ſail from the Port where ſhe ſhall be ſurveyed and cleared directly on her intended Fiſhery, on or before the tenth Day of April in each and every Year, and ſhall continue with her Crew in the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the adjacent Seas, diligently endeavouring to catch Whales, or other Creatures living in thoſe Seas, and ſhall not depart from thence before the tenth Day of Auguſt then following, unleſs ſuch Ship ſhall be laden with the Blubber and Fins of one Whale, caught by the Crew thereof, or with the Aſſiſtance of the Crew of ſome other licenſed Ship, before that Time; or ſhall be forced, by ſome unavoidable Accident or Neceſſity, to depart ſooner from thoſe Seas; which Accident or Neceſſity ſhall be verified on the Oaths of the Maſter and Mate belonging to ſuch Ship, upon her Return from the ſaid Fiſhery, before the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port where ſhe ſhall arrive, who ſhall tranſmit the ſame, together with the Schedule, Licence, and other Documents by this Act required, to the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for that Part of Great Britain from whence ſuch Ship departed with her Licence.

'VII. And whereas the Diſpatch of Ships on the Whale Fiſhery to the Greenland Seas, Davis's Streights, 'and Seas adjacent, muſt of Neceſſity be within the Months of March or April; and ſome Britiſh Ships, 'for the Sake of keeping the Men that have been taught the Art of the ſaid Fiſhing in Employ, and to pre-'vent their going into foreign Service, may have been fitted out from the River of Thames, or other Parts 'of his Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions, and proceeded on the ſaid Whale Fiſhery to the Greenland Seas, or 'Davis's Streights, and Seas adjacent, ſince the Commencement of this Seſſion of Parliament, and before 'the Commencement of this Act, and it will be but juſt and reaſonable that the Bounties intended to be 'given on the Return of the Ships hereafter to be fitted out on ſuch Voyage, ſhould be given alſo to the 'Owners of ſuch Ships already ſailed upon ſuch Voyage, and not yet returned;' Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships already ſailed on the ſaid Voyage and Fiſhery reſpectively, who have conformed themſelves, in all Reſpects, to the Rules and Directions preſcribed by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament which were in Force at the Commencement of this Act, for granting a Bounty upon ſuch Ships, ſhall be allowed and intitled to receive the Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton for ſuch Voyage, in the ſame Manner as he or they would have been intitled to receive the ſame, if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Bounties how to be ſettled.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, to order the reſpective Receivers-general of the Cuſtoms, in caſe the Monies remaining in their Hands, ariſing from the Old Subſidy, ſhall not be ſufficient, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, to ſatisfy the ſaid Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton, and thirty Shillings per Ton, and twenty Shillings per Ton, during the ſeveral Periods herein before limited, payable on all Ships employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, according to the Directions of this preſent Act, to pay the ſame out of any Monies that ſhall be in their Hands, ariſing from any of the Duties and Revenues under their Management reſpectively.

Commiſſioners to lay before Parliament, Number of Ships employed, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for England and Scotland reſpectively, ſhall, at the beginning of every Seſſion of Parliament, lay before both Houſes of Parliament an Account in Writing under their Hands of what Number of Ships have been employed in the Whale Fiſhery to Davis's Streights and the Greenland Seas, with their reſpective Names and Burthens, from whence they were fitted out, and at what Port in Great Britain they were diſcharged, and alſo what Quantity of Oil, or Whale Fins each Ship ſhall have imported.

Ships under 200 Tons intitled to Bounty, &c.

'X. And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that Ships under the Burthen of two hundred Tons 'are fit for the ſaid Fiſhery;' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships, under the Burthen of two hundred Tons, which ſhall be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, who have conformed themſelves, in all Reſpects, to the Rules and Directions herein before preſcribed to the Owners of Ships of two hundred Tons, ſhall be intitled to the ſaid Bounty, as herein before limited, according to the Admeaſurement of ſuch Ship or Ships reſpectively.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Ship, to be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, although ſhe be above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, ſhall be intitled to a larger Bounty than a Ship of four hundred Tons would be intitled to.

XII. Provided alſo, That nothing in this preſent Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to oblige the Owner or Owners of any Ship above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, in order to intitle him or them to the ſaid Bounty, to fit out, equip, and man, any ſuch Ship, otherwiſe than as a Ship of the Burthen of four hundred Tons only is, by this preſent Act, required to be fitted out, equipped, and manned.

'XIII. And whereas Applications have heretofore been made to Parliament for the Bounty on Ships em-'ployed in the ſaid Fiſhery, that have happened to be loſt at Sea before their Return to Great Britain, and 'a Doubt hath ariſen whether the ſaid Bounty may be lawfully inſured by the Owner or Owners of ſuch 'Ships;' For obviating ſuch Doubt, and for preventing any future Applications to Parliament for the Owners may inſure Bounty.

Bounty on any ſuch Ships, be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any Ship employed, or deſigned to be employed, in the ſaid Fiſhery, to inſure the Bounty which ſuch Owner or Owners would be intitled to upon the Return of ſuch Ship to the Port to which the Maſter and Mate of ſuch Ship ſhall have declared on Oath their Intention to return, and on the Performance of all other Matters directed and appointed by this preſent Act to be performed for obtaining the ſaid Bounty.

Ships fitted out from America to be inſpected.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, for and during the Space of fifteen Years, to be computed from the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, every Ship Ship built or fitted out in any of his Majeſty's Dominions in America, not being more than two Years old from the firſt building thereof, that proceeds from any Port in his Majeſty's American Dominions on the Fiſhery aforeſaid, manned and navigated as by the Laws now in force is directed, which ſhall, before ſhe proceeds on ſuch Voyage, be viſited by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms belonging to ſuch Port, who ſhall take an Account of the Tonnage thereof in ſuch Manner as is herein before directed concerning Britiſh Ships which ſhould be intitled to the Benefits of this Act, and ſhall certify ſuch his or their Viſitation, Examination, and Admeaſurement, to the Governor or Commander in Chief of the Place where ſuch Ship ſhall be fitted out, or to the Naval Officer of ſuch Port; and if it appear, by the ſaid Certificate of ſuch Officer or Officers, that ſhe had, at the Time of giving ſuch Certificate, on board ſuch a Number of Men, Proviſions, Boats, Fiſhing-lines, and Inſtruments, to be uſed in ſuch Fiſhery as is herein before required of Britiſh Ships which ſhould be intitled to the Benefit of this preſent Act, and that ſhe is a Ship ſtrongly built, and otherwiſe a Ship proper for ſuch Voyage and Fiſhery, and had, at the Time of granting the ſaid Certificate, on board, among her Crew, ſuch a Number of Harpooners, Steerſmen, and Line-managers, who had before been employed in ſuch Voyages (the Names of ſuch Perſons to be contained in ſuch Certificate) according to the Directions aforeſaid concerning Britiſh Ships to be employed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and if the Owner or Owners, and Maſter, or Chief Officer of ſuch Ship, ſhall, in Writing, at the Foot of ſuch Certificate, make ſuch Oath before the Governor, Commander in Chief, or Naval Officer (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) as is herein before required of the Owner or Owners, and Maſter, or Chief Officer of ſuch Britiſh Ship as aforeſaid, and likewiſe that ſuch Ship is not more than two Years old from the firſt building thereof; and if the Maſter ſhall likewiſe, after ſuch Certificate had, and Oath made, become bound with ſuch Sureties in ſuch Penalty and Condition as herein before is required to be given by the Maſter of ſuch Britiſh Ships as aforeſaid, which ſaid Bond is hereby required to be taken by the Governor, or Commander in Chief, or Naval Officer of ſuch Place, from whence the ſaid Ship is ſo fitted out; then, and in all ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Governor, or Commander in Chief, or Naval Officer, and they are hereby required to give and grant to the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Ship, full Licence and Authority to proceed on ſuch Voyage.

On Arrival of ſuch Ship in Britain, Cuſtom-houſe Officers ſhall make ſuch Schedule as before directed.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on the Arrival of ſuch Ship at the Port in Great Britain to which the ſaid Maſter and Mate declared on Oath they intended to proceed after their intended Voyage to the Greenland Seas, or to Davis's Streights, or to the Seas adjacent, or on their Arrival at ſome other Part of Great Britain where they ſhall unload, the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms of ſuch Port ſhall proceed in ſuch Manner, and make ſuch Schedule as is herein before directed, concerning Britiſh Ships who were to be intitled to the Benefits of this Act; and ſuch Schedule, Certificate, Licence, and Oath, ſhall be tranſmitted to the reſpective Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for that Part of Great Britain in which ſuch Ship ſhall arrive, after her ſaid Voyage to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the Seas adjoining; and ſuch Commiſſioners being ſatisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Maſter, and other Perſons employed in ſuch Ship, with reſpect to ſuch Voyage and Fiſhery, ſhall, on Demand, cauſe Payment to be made to the Maſter, or Owners, or to his or their Aſſigns, by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms of that Part of Great Britain at which the ſaid Ship ſhall arrive as aforeſaid, of the like Sum per Ton, according to the Admeaſurement of ſuch Ship duly certified as aforeſaid, and in like Manner as to the Owners and Maſters of Britiſh Ships who are intitled to the ſaid Bounties by virtue of this preſent Act.

American Veſſels to ſail on their intended Voyage before May 1.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Ships that ſhall be fitted out in America for the ſaid Fiſhery, after having conformed to all the aforeſaid Rules and Reſtrictions, ſhall ſail from ſuch Port where ſurveyed directly on her intended Fiſhery on or before the firſt Day of May, and ſhall not depart or leave Davis's Streights, or Greenland, and Seas adjacent, before the twentieth Day of Auguſt, unleſs ſuch Ship ſhall be laden with the Blubber and Fins of one Whale, caught by the Crew thereof, or with the Aſſiſtance of the Crew of ſome other licenſed Ship before that Time, or ſhould meet with any unavoidable Accident, ſo as to endanger the Lives of the Ship's Crew, which Accident, ſhall be declared on the Oaths of the Maſter and Mate, Carpenter, Harpooners, Line-managers, Boat-ſteerers, and Surgeon, belonging to ſuch Ship, upon her Return from the ſaid Fiſhery, before the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port where ſhe ſhall arrive, who ſhall tranſmit the ſame to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England or Scotland reſpectively; and in caſe of any irregular Proceeding contrary hereunto every Ship ſo offending ſhall loſe the Benefit of this Bounty.

Whale Fins may be imported without paying more Cuſtom than granted by 25 Car. 2.

'XVII. And for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fiſhery, in the Gulf and River of Saint Law-'rence, and on the Coaſts of his Majeſty's Colonies in America,' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and during the Space of fifteen Years, to be computed from the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, to import in Ships belonging to his Majeſty's Subjects (whereof the Captain or Maſter, and three-fourths of the Mariners, are his Majeſty's Subjects) Whale Fins, taken from Whales caught by any of his Majeſty's Subjects in the Gulf or River of Saint Lawrence, or in any Seas on the Coaſts of any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, without paying any Cuſtom, Subſidy, or Duty, for the ſame, other than and except the Rate or Duty commonly called The Old Subſidy, granted by an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade, for and during the Term aforeſaid; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Oath to be made by the Captain, &c.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to allow the Importation of ſuch Whale Fins without paying any Cuſtom, Subſidy, or Duty, other than and except the ſaid Rate or Duty commonly called The Old Subſidy, unleſs the Captain, Maſter, or other commanding Officer of the Ship or Veſſel, or the Perſon importing the ſame, ſhall firſt make Oath before one of the principal Officers of the Cuſtoms in the Port or Ports of Importation (who is and are hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) that all the Whale Fins imported in ſuch Ship or Veſſel were, to the beſt of his Knowledge and Belief, really, and bona fide, the Fins of Whales caught and taken in the Gulf or River of Saint Lawrence, or in the Seas or the Coaſts of ſome of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, by the Crew of ſuch Ships and Veſſels only, whereof the Owner or Owners, the Captain or Maſter, and three-fourths of the Mariners, were his Majeſty's Subjects.

Harpooners, Line-manager Boat-ſteerer, and Sailors how to be privileged.

'XIX. And whereas the Greenland Fiſhery Trade cannot be carried on without a certain Number of 'Men who are uſed to the ſaid Fiſhery, which, nevertheleſs, is intended as a Nurſery of able and hardy 'Seamen for the public Service in the Royal Navy;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Harpooner, Line-manager, or Boat-ſteerer, who ſhall be in, or belong to any Ship or Veſſel in the Greenland Fiſhery Trade, and whoſe Name (diſtinguiſhing the Capacity in which the Perſon ſo named, is to act), ſhall be inſerted in a Liſt, which is hereby required to be delivered on Oath, by the Owner of ſuch Ship, to the Collector of the Cuſtoms at the Port from which ſuch Ship is intended to proceed upon the ſaid Fiſhery (which Oath ſuch Collector is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter) ſhall be impreſſed from the ſaid Service; and that any ſuch Harpooner, Line-manager, or Boat-ſteerer, may, during the Time of the Year that he or they are not employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, ſail in the Colliery Trade, upon giving Security, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, that he or they will proceed in the ſaid Ship or Veſſel to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, on the Whale Fiſhery the next Seaſon: And that every Seaman, or common Mariner, who after the firſt Day of February in any Year during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall be entered to ſerve on board any Ship, which ſhall be intended to proceed on the ſaid Fiſhery in the following Seaſon, whoſe Name ſhall be inſerted in a Liſt to be delivered as aforeſaid, and who ſhall have given Security, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, to proceed, and ſhall proceed accordingly, ſhall be privileged, and exempt from being impreſſed from or out of the ſaid Service, from the ſaid firſt Day of February, till after the Expiration of the then next Seaſon for the ſaid Fiſhery, and until the Voyage Home from thence ſhall be fully completed and ended, and no longer; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to amend an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for extending like Liberty in the Exportation of Rice from East and Weſt Florida, to the Southward of Cape Finiſterre in Europe, as is granted by former Acts of Parliament to Carolina and Georgia.

"Rice may be exported from the Floridas to the Southward of Cape Finiſterre, under like Regulations as "from Carolina. During the Continuance of 10 Geo. 3. Rice may be exported as therein directed, under "the Reſtrictions contained in 4 Geo. 3."

CAP. XL.

An Act for the more effectually preventing the counterfeiting the Copper Coin of this Realm.

'WHEREAS the coining or counterfeiting any of the Copper Monies of this Realm being puniſh-'able only as a Miſdemeanor, the Practice thereof hath of late Years greatly prevailed, and is 'likely to continue to increaſe, to the great Prejudice of Trade, and the manifeſt Wrong and Injury of his 'Majeſty's Subjects:' For Redreſs of which growing Miſchief, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, make, coin, or counterfeit, any of the Copper Monies of this Realm, commonly called an Halfpenny, or a Farthing, ſuch Perſon or Perſons offending therein, and his, her, or their Counſellors, Aiders, Abettors, and Procurers, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony.

Counterfeiting Copper Halfpence or Farthings adjudged Felony.

Felony.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, buy, ſell, take, receive, pay, or put off any counterfeit Copper Money, not melted down, or cut in Pieces, at or for a lower Rate or Value than the ſame, by its Denomination, doth or ſhall import, or was counterfeited for, every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony.

Juſtices to cauſe Houſes to be ſearched.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one Juſtice of the Peace, on Complaint made before him upon the Oath of one credible Perſon, that there is juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect that any one or more Perſon or Perſons is or hath been concerned in counterfeiting the Copper Monies of this Realm, by Warrant under his Hand, to cauſe the Dwelling-houſe, Room, Work-ſhop, Outhouſe, Yard, Garden, or other Place belonging to ſuch ſuſpected Perſon or Perſons, to be ſearched for Tools and Implements for coining ſuch Copper Monies; and if any ſuch Tools or Implements ſhall at any Time be found hid or concealed in any Place ſo ſearched, or be found in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, not then employed in the coining of Money in ſome of his Majeſty's Mints, nor having the ſame by ſome lawful Authority, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever diſcovering the ſame, to ſeize, and he and they are hereby authoriſed and required to ſeize the ſame, and to carry them forthwith to ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the County, City, or Place, where the ſame ſhall be ſeized, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſecured and produced in Evidence againſt any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall or may be proſecuted for any of the Offences aforeſaid, in ſome Court of Juſtice proper for the Determination thereof; and after ſuch Time as they, or any of them, ſhall have been produced in Evidence, as well the ſame ſo produced as the other ſo ſeized and not made uſe of in Evidence, and every of them, ſhall forthwith, by Order of that Court where ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be tried, or by Order of ſuch or ſome other Juſtice of the Peace, in caſe there be no ſuch Trial, be defaced and deſtroyed, or otherwiſe diſpoſed of, as ſuch Court, or ſuch Juſtice, ſhall direct.

Perſons diſcovering Tools may ſeize ſame, &c.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to explain an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſo far as relates to the Importation of unmanufactured Wood of the Growth and Product of America; and to explain ſo much of an Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas, as relates to the Importation of Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn landed at certain Places therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the First, intituled, An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, various Sorts of Wood and Timber, and of the Goods commonly called Lumber, in the ſaid Act particularly enumerated, being the Growth and Product of his Majeſty's Britiſh Plantations or Colonies in America, may be imported directly from thence free of all Cuſtoms and Impoſitions whatſoever: And whereas Mahogany, and various Sorts of American Wood, are become very uſeful and neceſſary to Cabinet-makers and other Artificers in this Kingdom, and it would tend to the Improvement of the Manufactures thereof, and to the more comfortable Support and Maintenance of great Numbers of his Majeſty's Britiſh Subjects employed in the making and working of ſuch Goods, and to the Increaſe of the Exportation thereof into foreign Parts, when ſo manufactured here, if Liberty was given to import ſuch Goods from all Parts of America Duty-free;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import into this Kingdom directly, from any Part of America in Britiſh Veſſels, navigated according to Law, any Sort of unmanufactured Wood, being the Growth and Product of America (except Maſts, Yards, and Bowſprits) without paying any Subſidy, Cuſtom, or other Duty whatſoever for the ſame, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

8 Geo. I.

Unmanufactured Wood may be imported from America, except &c. without paying Cuſtom or Duty.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a due Entry of ſuch Goods ſhall be firſt made in the Cuſtom-houſe belonging to the Port where the ſame ſhall be imported, in the ſame Manner and Form, expreſſing the Quantities and Qualities of the reſpective Goods, as was uſed and practiſed before making of this Act, and the ſaid Goods ſhall be landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, otherwiſe ſuch Goods ſhall be liable to the Payment of the ſame Duties as would have been due and payable for the ſame, if this Act had not been made.

'III. And whereas ſeveral Parcels of Mahogany of the Growth and Produce of the Bay of Honduras have been imported into the Port of London ſince the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, for which the Importers have paid or depoſited the Duties payable thereon with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms; and it is reaſonable that the Importers of ſuch Mahogany ſhould receive the Benefit intended by this Act;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, or any four of them, to order the ſaid Duties ſo paid or depoſited, to be repaid; and ſuch Officers are hereby authoriſed and required to repay the ſame to the Importers of ſuch Mahogany, or to any other Perſon legally authoriſed to receive the ſame.

'IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That no Goods or Merchandiſes liable to retain the Infection of the Plague, and coming from the Levant without a clean Bill of Health, ſhall be landed at any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, or of the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, unleſs it ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of his or their Privy Council, that the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes have been ſufficiently opened and aired in the Lazarets of Malta, Ancona, Venice, Meſſina, Leghorn, Genoa, and Marſeilles, or one of them: And whereas Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn of the Product and Manufacture of Aſia, are, by the Laws now in Force, prohibited to be imported 'into 26 Geo. 2.

Goods from the Levant liable to retain Infection without a clean Bill of Lading, ſhall not be landed.

Silk and Mohair Yarn, of the Product of Aſia, &c.

'into this Kingdom from any Port or Place in the Streights or Levant Seas, except ſuch Ports or Places as 'are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, and ſome Doubts have ariſen, whether ſuch Raw Silk 'and Mohair Yarn, though ſhipped and laden in the ſaid Streights and Levant Seas, within the Dominions 'of the Grand Seignior, can be legally imported into this Kingdom, after having been landed at Malta, 'Ancona, Venice, Meſſina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marſeilles, for the Purpoſe of being opened and aired as afore-'ſaid;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, any ſuch Raw Silk or Mohair Yarn as ſhall be or have been ſhipped in any Port or Place in the ſaid Streights or Levant Seas, within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, and which ſhall be afterwards landed at any or either of the Places herein before particularly mentioned for the Purpoſe of opening and airing only, and which ſhall be reſhipped on board the ſame Ship from which they were ſo landed, ſhall, upon Importation into this Kingdom, be deemed and taken to have been imported from the Port or Place within the Grand Seignior's Dominions where ſuch Goods were firſt ſhipped, and not from the Place where they were landed to be opened and aired; any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to regulate the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament.

10 Geo. 3.

'WHEREAS an Act was paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to regulate the 'Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament: And whereas further 'Proviſions may be neceſſary to prevent all Obſtructions and Difficulties which in certain Caſes may ariſe 'in the Execution of the ſaid Act;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, if ſeveral Parties, on diſtinct Intereſts or Grounds of Complaint, ſhall preſent ſeparate Petitions, complaining of an undue Election, or Return of a Member or Members to ſerve in Parliament, the ſame Notices and Orders ſhall be given to all ſuch Parties, or their reſpective Agents, as by the ſaid Act are directed to be given to the ſitting Members, or the Petitioners therein mentioned, or their reſpective Agents.

Notice and Orders to be given to Parties and their Agents.

Clauſe in 10 Geo. 3. repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Clauſe in the ſaid Act which provides, that no Petition ſhall be taken into Conſideration within fourteen Days after the Appointment of the Committee of Privileges, be repealed; and that from henceforth no Petition, complaining of an undue Election, or Return of a Member or Members to ſerve in Parliament, ſhall be taken into Conſideration within fourteen Days after the Commencement of the Seſſion of Parliament in which it is preſented, nor within fourteen Days after the Return to which it relates, ſhall be brought into the Office of the Clerk of the Crown.

III. And be it further enacted, That if at the Time of drawing by Lot the Names of the Members in Manner preſcribed by the ſaid Act, the Number of forty-nine Members, not ſet aſide nor excuſed, cannot be completed, the Houſe ſhall proceed in the Manner they are directed by the ſaid Act to proceed, in caſe there be leſs than one hundred Members preſent at the Time therein preſcribed for counting the Houſe; and ſo from Day to Day, as often as the Caſe ſhall happen.

On the Day appointed for hearing Complaints, the Houſe ſhall not proceed to other Buſineſs.

IV. And be it further enacted, That on the Day appointed for taking any Petition, complaining of an undue Election, or Return of a Member or Members to ſerve in Parliament, into Conſideration, the Houſe ſhall not proceed to any other Buſineſs whatſoever, except the ſwearing of Members previous to the Reading of the Order of the Day for that Purpoſe.

Manner of adjourning.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the Select Committee ſhall have Occaſion to apply or report to the Houſe, in relation to Adjournment of the ſaid Select Committee, the Abſence of the Members thereof, or the Non-attendance or Miſbehaviour of Witneſſes ſummoned to appear, or appearing before them, and the Houſe ſhall be then adjourned for more than three Days, the ſaid Select Committee may alſo adjourn to the Day appointed for the Meeting of the Houſe.

If more than two Parties on diſtinct Intereſt, each Party ſhall ſtrike off a Member from the 49 ſucceſſively, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if, on a Complaint by Petition of an undue Election or Return, there ſhall be more than two Parties before the Houſe, on diſtinct Intereſt, or complaining or complained of upon different Grounds, whoſe Right to be elected or returned may be affected by the Determination of the ſaid Select Committee, each of the ſaid Parties ſhall ſucceſſively ſtrike off a Member from the forty-nine Members to be choſen by Lot, until the ſaid Number be reduced to thirteen, in the ſame Manner as by the ſaid Act is directed for the ſtriking off a Member alternately by the Parties therein mentioned; and the Liſts of the forty-nine Members choſen by Lot ſhall, for this Purpoſe, be given to all the ſaid Parties, and the Order in which the ſaid Parties ſhall ſo ſtrike off the ſaid Members ſhall be determined by Lot after they are withdrawn from the Bar, and in ſuch Caſe neither of the ſaid Parties (there being more than two) ſhall be permitted to name a Member to be added to the Members ſo drawn by Lot as aforeſaid; but that as ſoon as the Liſt of thirteen Members ſhall be returned by the Parties to the Houſe, ſuch thirteen Members ſhall immediately withdraw, and ſhall by themſelves chuſe two Members then preſent in the Houſe, whoſe Names ſhall not have been drawn, to be added to the ſaid thirteen Members; and ſhall, within one Hour from the Time of their withdrawing, report the Names of ſuch two Members to the Houſe; which two Members ſhall be liable to be ſet aſide on the like Objections for which Nominees may be ſet aſide by virtue of the ſaid Act: And in caſe ſuch two Members, or either of them, ſhall be ſet aſide for any of the Cauſes aforeſaid, then the ſaid thirteen Members ſhall chuſe one or two other Members, as the Caſe ſhall require, until two Members are choſen, againſt whom none of the Objections to Nominees mentioned in the ſaid Act ſhall be taken and allowed; and that the Names of ſuch two Members ſhall be then added to the ſaid Liſt of thirteen Members; and all the ſaid fifteen Members ſhall be ſworn at the Table, and they ſhall be the Select Committee appointed for the Purpoſes expreſſed in this and the ſaid former Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That where the ſaid Nominees are by this Act directed to be named by the ſaid thirteen Members, no Member preſent at the Time of the Ballot ſhall depart from the Houſe until the Time for the Meeting of the ſaid Select Committee ſhall be fixed.

Freeholders intitled to vote.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Freeholder, being above the Age of one and twenty Years, who ſhall have within the Rape of Bramber, in the ſaid County of Suſſex, a Freehold of the clear yearly Value of forty Shillings, to give his Vote at every Election of a Burgeſs or Burgeſſes to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough of New Shoreham.

Right of Election, in whom veſted.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Right of Election of a Member or Members to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough of New Shoreham ſhall be, and is hereby declared to be, in ſuch Freeholders as aforeſaid, and in the Perſons who, by the Cuſtom and Uſage of the ſaid Borough, have, or ſhall hereafter have, a Right to vote at ſuch Election, thoſe whoſe Names are mentioned herein, and incapacitated and diſabled by this Act, only excepted; and the Conſtable, or other proper Officer for the Time being, to whom the Return of ſuch Writ or Precept does belong, is hereby required to return the Perſon or Perſons to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough who ſhall have the major Number of Votes of ſuch Freeholders and other Perſons having a Right to vote at ſuch Election (except ſuch Perſons as are herein before excepted); any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Freeholders, before admitted to poll, to take the following Oath.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Freeholder, before he is admitted to poll at any Election for the ſaid Borough, ſhall, if required by the Candidates, or any of them, or any other Perſon having a Right to vote at the ſaid Election, firſt take the Oath (or being one of the People called Quakers, the ſolemn Affirmation) following; videlicet,

"YOU ſhall ſwear, or, being a Quaker, ſolemnly affirm, That you are a Freeholder in the Rape of Bramber, in the County of Suſſex, and have a Freehold Eſtate, conſiſting of (ſpecifying the Nature thereof, and if it conſiſts in Meſſuages, Lands, or Tithes, in whoſe Occupation the ſame are; and if in Rent, the Names of the Owners or Poſſeſſors of the Tenements out of which ſuch Rent is iſſuing, or of ſome of them), lying or being at within the Rape of Bramber, in the County of Suſſex, of the clear yearly Value of forty Shillings, over and above all Rents and Charges payable out of or in reſpect of the ſame; and that you have been in the actual Poſſeſſion or Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof for your own Uſe above twelve Calendar Months (or that the ſame came to you within the Time aforeſaid by Deſcent, Marriage, Marriage Settlement, Deviſe, or Promotion to a Benefice in a Church, or by Promotion to an Office); and that ſuch Freehold Eſtate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, on Purpoſe to qualify you to give your Vote; and that the Place of your Abode is at in and that you are twenty-one Years of Age, as you believe; and that you have not been polled before at this Election."

Oath.

Perſons guilty of Perjury, &c. liable to the Penalties as directed by 5 Eliz. and 2 Geo. II.

Which Oath, or ſolemn Affirmation, the Conſtable, or other proper Officer to whom the Return of any Writ or Precept for ſuch Election ſhall belong, is hereby required to adminiſter: And in caſe any Freeholder or other Perſon taking the ſaid Oath or Affirmation hereby appointed, ſhall thereby commit wilful Perjury, and be thereof convicted; or if any Perſon ſhall unlawfully and corruptly procure or ſuborn any Freeholder or other Perſon to take the ſaid Oath or Affirmation, in order to be polled, whereby he ſhall commit ſuch wilful Perjury, and ſhall be thereof convicted, he and they, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, ſhall incur ſuch Penalties as are inflicted on Perſons guilty of Perjury, or Subornation of Perjury, in and by two Acts of Parliament, one made in the fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, (intituled, An Act for puniſhing ſuch Perſons as ſhall procure or commit wilful Perjury, or ſuborn or procure any Perſon to commit any wilful or corrupt Perjury); and the other made in the ſecond Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing and further Puniſhment of Forgery, Perjury, and Subornation of Perjury, and to make it Felony to ſteal Bonds, Notes, or other Securities for Payment of Money), contrary to the ſaid Acts.

Conſtable to back a Precept the Day of the Receipt thereof.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Conſtable, or other proper Officer, to whom any Writ or Precept ſhall be directed for making any Election for the ſaid Borough, ſhall, upon the Reception of ſuch Writ or Precept, indorſe upon the Back thereof the Day of his Receipt thereof, in the Preſence of the Party from whom he received ſuch Precept; and ſhall forthwith cauſe publick Notice to be given within the ſaid Borough of New Shoreham, and at the Towns of Bramber and Steyning, in the ſaid County of Suſſex, by fixing up a Notice thereof in Writing on the Market-houſes, or on the Doors of the Churches of the ſaid Towns, of the Day of Election; and ſhall proceed to Election thereupon, within the Space of twelve Days, and not leſs than eight Days, next after his Receipt of the ſame Precept.

Act to be read publickly.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be publickly read at every Election for the ſaid Borough of New Shoreham, immediately after the Acts directed by any Act of Parliament to be read thereat, and before the Perſons preſent ſhall proceed to make ſuch Election.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act made in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned, for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than one Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain; and for ſettling certain Doubts and Diſputes which have ariſen upon the ſaid Act of Parliament.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned, for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller

'Quantities than one Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and 'condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain; among other Things reciting, That the taking off the 'Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight, then payable as therein is mentioned, upon Black and 'Singlo Teas, and the allowing, upon the Exportation of all Teas which ſhall be exported to Ireland, and 'to his Majeſty's Plantations in America, the Whole of the Duty paid upon the Importation thereof into 'this Kingdom, appear to be the moſt probable and expedient Means of extending the Conſumption of 'Teas legally imported within this Kingdom, and of increaſing the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and 'to his Majeſty's Plantations in America, which are now chiefly furniſhed by Foreigners in a Courſe of 'illicit Trade; and further reciting, That the United Company of Merchants of England trading to 'the Eaſt Indies, are willing and deſirous to indemnify the Publick in ſuch Manner as is therein after pro-'vided, with reſpect to any Diminution of the Revenue which ſhould or might happen from this Experi-'ment, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That for and during the Space of five Years, to be computed 'from the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſaid Inland Duty of one 'Shilling per Pound Weight upon Teas ſhall not be paid for in reſpect of any Bohea, Congo, Souchong, 'or Pekoe Teas, commonly called Black Teas, or any Teas known by the Denomination of Singlo Teas, 'which ſhall be cleared for Conſumption within Great Britain, out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid United 'Company, but that all ſuch Teas ſo to be cleared, whether the ſame have been already or ſhall be 'hereafter ſold by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall be, and are thereby freed and diſcharged, 'during the ſaid Term, from the ſaid Inland Duty; and it is thereby, amongſt other Things, further en-'acted, That for and during the like Space of five Years, to be computed from the fifth Day of July, 'one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas exported 'from this Kingdom, as Merchandiſe to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, 'the whole Duties of Cuſtoms, payable upon the Importation of ſuch Teas, and for making good any 'Diminution which might happen in the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, by the Diſcontinuance of the 'ſaid Duty, and the Allowance of the ſaid Drawback, during the Term aforeſaid; it was further enacted, 'That on or before the firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and on or 'before the firſt Day of September, in each of the four ſucceeding Years, a true and exact Account ſhall 'be taken, ſtated, and made up, by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, of the 'Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for and in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, and alſo 'of the Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe, upon Teas cleared out of the Warehouſes belonging to the 'ſaid Company within the Year, ending the fifth Day of July immediately preceding the taking, ſtating, 'and making up ſuch Accounts, and that a Sum which ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of the Du-'ties of Cuſtoms, paid upon the Importation of Teas which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Co-'lonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for five Years, preceding the fifth Day of July, one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſhall be deducted from the Total of the Net Produce, ſo ſtated 'of the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, in the ſaid Account for the Year ending the ſaid fifth Day of 'July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and for each of the ſaid four ſucceeding Years reſpec-'tively; and if after ſuch Deduction ſhall have been made, the remaining Sum ſhall not amount to the Sum 'as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for and in reſpect of Teas ſold 'by the ſaid Company, and alſo to the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe, upon Teas cleared out 'of the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, on an Average for five Years, preceding the ſaid fifth Day of 'July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, from Time to Time, as 'often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, within forty Days after a Copy 'of ſuch yearly Account reſpectively, ſhall have been delivered, their Chairman, Deputy Chairman, 'Secretary, Caſhier, or Accomptant General, ſhall advance and pay for every ſuch Year reſpectively, 'into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, for his Majeſty's Uſe, ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall, with 'the Monies remaining in ſuch reſpective annual Account, after the Deduction aforeſaid ſhall have been 'made, amount to ſuch a Sum, as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the ſaid Duties of 'Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon Teas, on the ſaid Average of five Years, preceding the ſaid fifth Day of 'July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſo as the Money to be paid by the ſaid Company, 'or their Succeſſors, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, ſhall not in any one of the ſaid five Years, exceed 'ſuch a Sum, as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Amount of thc ſaid Inland Duty of one Shilling per 'Pound Weight, upon Teas cleared from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company for Conſumption with-'in Great Britain, and alſo to the annual Net Amount of the Duties of Cuſtoms, paid on the Importa-'tion of Teas, which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, 'upon an Average for five Years, preceding the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ſixty-ſeven: And whereas the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms, paid upon the Importa-'tion of Teas, which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, 'upon an Average for five Years, preceding the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ſixty-ſeven, is found to amount to the Sum of thirty-two thouſand three hundred and two Pounds, 'four Shillings and Sixpence, and the annual Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for or in 'reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, together with the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Ex-'ciſe upon Teas, cleared out from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, on an Average of five Years 'preceding the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, is found to amount to 'the Sum of ſeven hundred and eighteen thouſand, nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, one Shilling, 'and two Fifth Parts of a Penny: And whereas if the ſaid Sum of thirty two thouſand three hundred 'and two Pounds, four Shillings and Sixpence, ſhould be deducted from the Total of the Net Produce of 'the Cuſtoms of Exciſe, upon Teas ſold by the ſaid United Company, and cleared out of their Warehouſes,

'after paying such Drawbacks as are allowed by the said in Part recited Act, in the Year ending on the 'said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, and in each of the said four succeeding 'Years; and, if the said United Company should be bound to pay such Sum, as will make the Sum which 'shall remain after such Deduction equal to the said Sum of seven hundred andeighteen thousand nine hundred 'and sixty-six Pounds, one Shilling, and two Fifth Parts of a Penny, your Majesty would probably in every 'of the said Years, receive from the said United Company a greater Sum of Money, in the Name of In-'demnity, than the actual Deficiency of your Majesty's Revenue, computed upon the Average in the said 'recited Act mentioned, would amount to; and, on the other Hand, if the said Deduction should be made 'from the said Total of the Produce of the Customs and Excise, upon Teas sold by and cleared out of the 'Warehouses of the said United Company for the Year, ending on the said fifth Day of July, one thousand 'seven hundred and sixty-eight, and for each of the said four succeeding Years, before paying or deducting 'such Drawbacks as are allowed by the said recited Act; and if the said Company should only pay such 'Sum, as would make the Sum, in such Case, remaining equal to the said Sum of seven hundred and eigh-'teen thousand nine hundred and sixty-six Pounds, one Shilling, and two Fifth Parts of a Penny, your 'Majesty would probably in every of the said Years, receive less than the actual Deficiency of your Ma-'jesty's Revenue, computed upon the Average in the said Act mentioned, would amount to; so that the 'Rule prescribed by the said Act, for estimating the Indemnity therein provided, is inadequate and ineffec-'tual, whereupon Doubts and Disputes have arisen between the Officers of your Majesty's Revenue, and 'the said United Company concerning the Manner of ascertaining the same: And whereas it appears to have 'been the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, That the said United Company should fully indemnify 'your Majesty, for any Diminution of your Majesty's Revenue, which might happen from the Experiment 'in the said Act mentioned, by paying to your Majesty such Sum of Money as should be sufficient to make 'the Net Produce of the Duties of Customs and Excise, upon Teas sold by and cleared out of the Ware-'houses of the said Company in the said Year, to be computed from the fifth Day of July, one thousand 'seven hundred and sixty-seven, after paying the said Drawbacks allowed by the said Act, and in each of 'the said four succeeding Years, after the like Payment of the said Drawbacks, equal to the said Sum of 'seven hundred and eighteen thousand nine hundred and sixty-six Pounds, one Shilling, and two Fifth 'Parts of a Penny, and the said United Company are willing, and have agreed, to indemnify your Ma-'jesty accordingly, provided the several Sums so to be computed, may be accepted in Satisfaction and 'Discharge of their Agreement, and of the Act herein before recited; may it therefore please your most 'Excellent Majesty that it may be declared and enacted;' and be it declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That instead of the Rate of Indemnity provided by the said Act, and to be computed as therein is mentioned, the said United Company shall be liable to pay and make good to his Majesty for the Year ending on the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, and for each of the said four succeeding Years, such Sum of Money as, together with the Net Produce of Customs, upon Teas so by the said Company and the Net Produce of Excise upon Teas cleared out from the Warehouses of the said Company, shall, in and for each of the said Years, amount to the Sum of seven hundred and eighteen thousand nine hundred and sixty-six Pounds, one Shilling and two Fifth Parts of a Penny, and no more.

Company shall pay annually to His Majesty for each succeeding Year since 1768, the sum of 718,966 l. 1 s. and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny.

II. And whereas, by an Account stated and made up in conformity to the Rate of Indemnity herein before last mentioned, for the first four of the said five Years, the said four Years ending on the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one, the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, stand indebted to his Majesty in the Sum of one hundred and seventeen thousand three hundred and fourteen Pounds, one Shilling, and three Pence, and seven Twentieth Parts of a Penny; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Company shall, on or before the fifth Day of July, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer the said Sum of one hundred and seventeen thousand three hundred and fourteen Pounds, one Shilling, and three Pence, and seven Twentieth Parts of a Penny, without any Abatement or Defalcation whatsoever.

Monies to be applied to the Uses of 7 Geo. 3.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies that shall be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, in pursuance of this Act, shall be applied to and for the Uses and Purposes directed by the afore-mentioned Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on or before the first Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, a true and exact Account shall be taken, stated, and made up by the proper Officers of the Customs and Excise respectively, of the Net Produce of all the Duties of Customs for and in respect of Teas sold by the said United Company, and also the Net Produce of all the Duties of Excise upon Teas cleared out from the Warehouses belonging to the said United Company, within the Year ending the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two: And if the Net Sum Total of both the said Revenues, after paying the said Drawback allowed by the said recited Act, shall not amount to the Sum of seven hundred and eighteen thousand nine hundred and sixty-six Pounds, one Shilling, and two Fifth Parts of a Penny, the said United Company shall, within forty Days after such Account shall have been delivered to their Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Secretary, Cashier, or Accomptant-General, advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, for his Majesty's Use, such Sum of Money as shall, together with the said Sum Total of Customs and Excise, computed as aforesaid, make up the said Sum of seven hundred and and eighteen thouſand nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, one Shilling, and two Fifth Parts of a Penny.

V. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Sum of one hundred and ſeventeen thouſand three hundred and fourteen Pounds, one Shilling, and three Pence, and ſeven Twentieth Parts of a Penny, and alſo ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall be payable by the ſaid United Company, in reſpect of the Account herein before directed to be made up for the Year ending on the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, ſhall, in Default of Payment as aforeſaid, be ſued for and recovered in ſuch Manner and Form as the ſeveral Sums required to be paid in and by the ſaid recited Act are therein directed to be ſued for and recovered.

In Default of Payment by the ſaid Company, it may be ſued for and recovered.

VI. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid recited Act is and ſhall be confirmed and eſtabliſhed, except ſo far as the ſame is hereby explained, altered or repealed.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the better regulating the future Marriages of the Royal Family.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS your Majeſty, from your Paternal Affection to your own Family, and from your Royal Concern for the future Welfare of your People, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, was graciouſly pleaſed to recommend to your Parliament to take into their ſerious Conſideration, Whether it might not be wiſe and expedient to ſupply the Defect of the Laws now in being, and, by ſome new Proviſion, more effectually to guard the Deſcendants of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second (other than the Iſſue of Princeſſes who have married, or may hereafter marry, into Foreign Families) from marrying without the Approbation of your Majeſty, your Heirs or Succeſſors, firſt had and obtained; we have taken this weighty Matter into our ſerious Conſideration; and, being ſenſible that Marriages in the Royal Family are of the higheſt Importance to the State, and that therefore the Kings of this Realm have ever been entruſted with the Care and Approbation thereof; and being thoroughly convinced of the Wiſdom and Expediency of what your Majeſty has thought fit to recommend, upon this Occaſion, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Deſcendant of the Body of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, Male or Female, (other than the Iſſue of Princeſſes who have married, or may hereafter marry, into Foreign Families) ſhall be capable of contracting Matrimony without the previous Conſent of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſignified under the Great Seal, and declared in Council (which Conſent, to preſerve the Memory thereof, is hereby directed to be ſet out in the Licence and Regiſter of Marriage, and to be entered in the Books of the Privy Council); and that every Marriage, or Matrimonial Contract, of any ſuch Deſcendant, without ſuch Conſent firſt had and obtained, ſhall be null and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

No Deſcendant of Geo. 2. (other than, &c.) capable of contracting Matrimony without Conſent, &c.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any ſuch Deſcendant of the Body of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, being above the Age of twenty-five Years, ſhall perſiſt in his or her Reſolution to contract a Marriage diſapproved of, or diſſented from, by the King, his Heirs or Succeſſors; that then ſuch Deſcendant, upon giving Notice to the King's Privy Council, which Notice is hereby directed to be entered in the Books thereof, may at any Time from the Expiration of twelve Calendar Months after ſuch Notice given to the Privy Council as aforeſaid, contract ſuch Marriage; and his or her Marriage with the Perſon before propoſed, and rejected, may be duly ſolemnized, without the previous Conſent of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; and ſuch Marriage ſhall be good, as if this Act had never been made, unleſs both Houſes of Parliament ſhall, before the Expiration of the ſaid twelve Months, expreſsly declare their Diſapprobation of ſuch intended Marriage.

III. And

Perſons who ſhall wilfully aſſiſt, &c. incur the Penalties provided by 16 Rich. 2.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who ſhall knowingly or wilfully preſume to ſolemnize, or to aſſiſt, or to be preſent at the Celebration of any Marriage with any ſuch Deſcendant, or at his or her making any Matrimonial Contract, without ſuch Conſent as aforeſaid firſt had and obtained, except in the Caſe above-mentioned, ſhall, being duly convicted thereof, incur and ſuffer the Pains and Penalties ordained and provided by the Statute of Proviſion and Premunire made in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of RICHARD the Second.

CAP. XII.

An Act for further continuing Two Acts made in the Sixth and Ninth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, in his Majeſty's Dominions in America, till 24 March 1774.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the more effectual proceeding againſt Perſons ſtanding Mute on their Arraignment for Felony or Piracy.

'FOR the more effectual proceeding againſt Perſons ſtanding Mute on their Arraignment for Felony, or Piracy,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon, from and after the paſſing of this Act, being arraigned on any Indictment, or Appeal for Felony, or on any Indictment for Piracy, ſhall, upon ſuch Arraignment, ſtand mute, or will not anſwer directly to the Felony, or Piracy, ſuch Perſon ſo ſtanding Mute, as aforeſaid, ſhall be convicted of the Felony or Piracy charged in ſuch Indictment or Appeal; and the Court before whom he ſhall be ſo arraigned ſhall thereupon award Judgment and Execution againſt ſuch Perſon, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Perſon had been convicted by Verdict or Confeſſion of the Felony, or Piracy, charged in ſuch Indictment or Appeal; and ſuch Judgment ſhall have all the ſame Conſequences in every Reſpect as if ſuch Perſon had been convicted by Verdict or Confeſſion of ſuch Felony or Piracy, and Judgment had been thereupon awarded.

Perſons arraigned,

II. And be it further enacted, That the Proviſions of this Act ſhall extend to his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America.

CAP.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for giving Relief in Proceedings upon Writs of Mandamus for the Admiſſion of Freemen into Corporations; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS divers Perſons, who have a Right to be admitted Citizens, Burgeſſes, or Freemen, of divers Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, and Places, within that Part of Great Britain called England and Wales, being refuſed to be admitted thereto, have, in many Caſes, no other ordinary Remedy to procure themſelves to be admitted to the Franchiſes of being Citizens, Burgeſſes, or Freemen, than by Writs of Mandamus, the Proceedings on which are very dilatory and expenſive; and, although any ſuch Writ of Mandamus is obeyed, the Perſon applying is nevertheleſs put to great and unneceſſary Trouble, Delay, and Expence: And whereas by the Laws now in being, in many Caſes, no Proviſion is made for giving Coſts to the Party ſuing out any ſuch Writ where the ſame is obeyed;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, where any Perſon ſhall be intitled to be admitted a Citizen, Burgeſs, or Freeman, of any ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, Cinque Port, or Place, and ſhall apply to the Mayor, or other Perſon, Officer or Officers, in ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, Cinque Port, or Place, who hath or have Authority to admit Citizens, Burgeſſes, and Freemen therein, to be admitted a Citizen, Burgeſs, or Freeman thereof; and ſhall give Notice, ſpecifying the Nature of his Claim, to ſuch Mayor, or other Officer or Officers, that if he or they ſhall not ſo admit ſuch Perſon a Citizen, Burgeſs, or Freeman, within one Month from the Time of ſuch Notice, the Court of King's Bench will be applied to for a Writ of Mandamus, to compel ſuch Admiſſion; and if ſuch Mayor, or other Officer or Officers, ſhall, after ſuch Notice, refuſe or neglect to admit ſuch Perſon, and a Writ of Mandamus ſhall afterwards iſſue to compel ſuch Mayor, or other Officer or Officers, to make ſuch Admiſſion, and, in obedience to ſuch Writ, ſuch Perſons ſhall be admitted by the ſaid Mayor, or other Officer or Officers, a Citizen, Burgeſs, or Freeman of ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, Cinque Port, or Place, then ſuch Perſon ſhall (unleſs the Court ſhall ſee juſt Cauſe to the contrary) obtain and receive from the ſaid Mayor, or other Officer or Officers, ſo neglecting or refuſing as aforeſaid, all the Coſts to which he ſhall have been put in applying for obtaining and ſerving ſuch Writ of Mandamus, and enforcing the ſame, by a Rule to be made by the Court out of which ſuch Writ ſhall iſſue, for the Payment thereof, together with the Coſts of applying for, obtaining, ſerving, and enforcing the ſaid Rule; and if the Rule ſo to be made ſhall not be obeyed, then the ſame ſhall be enforced in ſuch Manner as other Rules made by the ſaid Court are or may be enforced by Law.

Perſon intitled to be admitted, and applying for that Purpoſe, giving Notice, &c.
if Mayor, &c. refuſe to admit, and a Mandamus iſſue, the Mayor to pay all Coſts.

'II. And, in order that it may be known what Perſons are, from Time to Time, admitted Freemen or Burgeſſes of any City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Bailiff, Town Clerk, or other Officer of any City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port, having the Cuſtody of, or Power over, the Records of the ſame, ſhall, upon the Demand of any two Freemen or Burgeſſes, permit ſuch Freemen or Burgeſſes, and their Agent or Agents, at any Time whatſoever, between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Three in the Afternoon, to inſpect the Entries of Admiſſion of Freemen, Burgeſſes, or other inferior Corporations, and to take Copies or Extracts therefrom, paying for every ſuch Inſpection two Shillings and ſix Pence; and for every ſuch Copy or Extract, not exceeding ſeventy-two Words, the Sum of four Pence; and ſo in Proportion for all ſuch Copies or Extracts: And if any Mayor, Bailiff, Town Clerk, or other Officer, ſhall refuſe or deny the Inſpection of any ſuch Entries, or to give Copies or Extracts thereof, as before directed; he or they ſhall, for every ſuch Denial or Refuſal, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds to any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered, with Full Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; in which Action, it ſhall be ſufficient for the Plaintiff to alledge in his Declaration, that the Defendant or the Defendants is or are indebted to the ſaid Plaintiff in the Sum of one hundred Pounds for Money had and received to his Uſe; provided that ſuch Action ſhall be commenced within the Space of one Year after the Cauſe of it ſhall have ariſen, and not afterwards.

Freemen to inſpect Entries of Admiſſion, &c.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for Deepening, Cleaning, Scouring, Preſerving, and Maintaining, the Harbour of Ayr; for enlarging and improving the Quays and Piers; for erecting Docks, Breaſts, Jettees, and Piers; and for regulating Ships, Lighters, and other Veſſels, trading into and going out of the ſaid Harbour; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors; and for indemnifying the Marſhal of the King's Bench Priſon from Proſecutions at Law, for certain Eſcapes from the ſaid Priſon.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for the better ſecuring and preſerving his Majeſty's Dock Yards, Magazines, Ships, Ammunition, and Stores.

'WHEREAS the Safety and Preſervation of his Majeſty's Ships of War, Arſenals, Magazines, 'Dock Yards, Rope Yards, Victualling Offices, Military, Naval, and Victualling Stores, and 'the Places where ſuch Stores are kept or depoſited, either within this Realm, or in any of the Iſlands, 'Countries, Forts, or Places thereunto belonging, is of great Importance to the Welfare and Security 'of the Kingdom; may it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, either within this Realm, or in any of the Iſlands, Countries, Forts, or Places thereunto belonging, wilfully and maliciouſly ſet on fire, or burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy, or cauſe to be ſet on fire, or burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, or aid, procure, abet, or aſſiſt in the ſetting on fire, or burning, or otherwiſe deſtroying of any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War, whether the ſaid Ships or Veſſels of War be on float or building, or begun to be built, in any of his Majeſty's Dock Yards, or building or repairing by Contract in any private Yards, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, or any of his Majeſty's Arſenals, Magazines, Dock Yards, Rope Yards, Victualling Offices, or any of the Buildings erected therein, or belonging thereto; or any Timber or Materials there placed, for building, repairing, or fitting out of Ships or Veſſels; or any of his Majeſty's Military, Naval, or Victualling Stores, or other Ammunition of War, or any Place or Places, where any ſuch Military, Naval, or Victualling Stores, or other Ammunition of War is, are, or ſhall be kept, placed, or depoſited; that then the Perſon or Perſons guilty of any ſuch Offence, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Perſons who ſhall wilfully ſet on fire, &c. Ships of War, in any Dock Yards, &c. ſhall ſuffer Death.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon who ſhall commit any of the Offences before mentioned, in any Place out of this Realm, may be indicted and tried for the ſame, either in any Shire or County within this Realm, in like Manner and Form, as if ſuch Offence had been committed within the ſaid Shire or County, or in ſuch Iſland, Country, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall have been actually committed, as his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, may deem moſt expedient for bringing ſuch Offender to Juſtice; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom notwithſtanding.

Perſons offending out of this Realm, may be tried in any Shire, &c.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for the more effectual veſting in the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich the forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Naval Officers, Seamen, and Marines, in Prizes taken from the Enemy; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS, previous to, and during the Courſe of, the late Wars againſt France and Spain, 'divers Ships and Veſſels were taken from the Enemy by ſeveral of his Majeſty's Ships of War, 'and Fort Lewis at Senegal, the Iſland of Goree, the Iſlands of Martinico, Guadeloupe, and ſeveral other 'of the Leeward Iſlands, the Towns of Pondicherry and Karrical, and divers other Settlements on the 'Coaſt of Coromandel, the Fortreſſes of Chandenagore, Budgia Tanna, and Hughley, in or near the Province of Bengal, and the Fortreſs of Geriah, the Town of Havanna, and ſundry Ships of War in the 'Harbour thereof, the City, Town, and Fort of Manilla, and divers other Forts, Settlements, and 'Places of or belonging to or under the Dominion of the Crowns of France and Spain, or their Allies, 'were reduced and taken by the conjunct Force of his Majeſty's Navy and Army; and large Quantities of Money, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, were taken and ſeized, as Booty or Plunder, by 'ſuch conjunct Force; and divers Sums of Money were paid, or given or agreed to be paid, by way of 'Ranſom, to the Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors, who had conjunctively taken and ſeized ſundry Goods, 'Wares, and Merchandizes, as Booty or Plunder; and alſo for the Ranſom of ſundry Forts, Places, 'Settlements, and Iſlands, ſo reduced and taken by ſuch Conjunct Force as aforeſaid; and alſo divers 'Sums of Money were given by certain foreign Princes, in Alliance with the Crown of Great Britain, 'and of the trading Companies thereunto belonging and ſubject, by way of Donation to, and to be 'diſtributed among, ſuch Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors, as had aſſiſted ſuch foreign Princes, in Recompence for their good Service and Aſſiſtance: And whereas certain Acts were made in the twenty-ninth and thirty-third Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty, and in the ſecond Year of the Reign 'of his preſent Majeſty, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more ſpeedy and effectually manning his Majeſty's Navy; and for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of ſuch Prize and Bounty 'Money as were thereby appropriated to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital: And whereas Doubts have 'ariſen whether the Ships and Veſſels ſo taken, previous to the Commencement of the late War, and 'the Booty or Plunder ſo taken on Shore by ſuch conjunct Force, and the ſaid Ships ſo taken in the 'Harbour of Havanna, and ſuch Ranſom, and alſo ſuch Donations as aforeſaid, can be conſidered as 'ſubject to ſuch Diſtribution as in the ſaid Acts are mentioned; and whether ſuch Shares thereof, as 'have been forfeited and unclaimed by the Officers and Seamen ſerving on board his Majeſty's Navy, 'do belong to the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent; and whether ſuch 29 and 33 Geo. 2. and 2 Geo. 3.

'Shares ought to be paid by the ſeveral Agents, or other Perſons in whoſe Hands the ſaid forfeited and 'unclaimed Shares do now remain to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Uſe thereof: For Remedy whereof, and to obviate all Doubts and Difficulties which have ariſen, or may ariſe, concerning 'the ſaid forfeited and unclaimed Shares, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money, ariſing by Sale of any Ship or Veſſel taken from the Enemy, previous to the Commencement of the late War, and now remaining unpaid to the Captors thereof, and all and every the Booty Money, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which were ſo taken by ſuch conjunct Force, on Shore, and the Money paid, or agreed to be paid, for the Ranſom of any Ship, Town, Fort, Place, Settlement, or Iſland, ſo reduced and taken by ſuch conjunct Force, or of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes found therein; and all and every Ship and Ships taken by, or ſurrendered by virtue of any Capitulation, or otherwiſe, to ſuch conjunct Force, and alſo all ſuch Monies as have been given by way of Donation as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and taken to be included in the ſaid Acts, and to be ſubject to ſuch and the ſame Mode of Diſtribution, Management, and Application, as any other Ships, Veſſels, Goods, and Merchandizes, were, purſuant to the ſaid Acts, liable to, or ought to be ſubject, but not ſo as to impeach, affect, or diſturb any Mode of Diſtribution, which may have been already adopted, or any Payments which have been actually and bona fide made agreeable thereto.

All Sums ariſing by Sale of Ships, &c. taken previous to the Commencement of the late War, mentioned therein, are hereby deemed to be included in the ſaid Acts.

II. Provided always nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, ſo as to make it neceſſary to have any Capture on Shore, condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, or to give any Court of Admiralty any greater or other Power or Juriſdiction, than what ſuch Court would be intitled to, in caſe this Act had not been made.

Court of Admiralty to have no additional Juriſdiction.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Agent and Agents (who, at the Time of paſſing this Act, ſhall be reſiding in Great Britain) nominated and appointed for the Receipt and Diſtribution of the Booty and Plunder, found in the Fortreſs of Geriah, or of the Money ariſing by the Sale of any Ship, Veſſel, Goods, and Merchandize, taken from the Enemy during the late Wars with France and Spain, or of the Booty and Plunder found in any Town, Fort, Place, or Settlement, reduced and taken, during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, or of the Ranſom of any Ship, Town, Fort, Place, Settlement, or Iſland, or of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, reduced and taken as aforeſaid, or of any ſuch Donation as aforeſaid, or on any Bounty Bill, or Bounty Bills, given or granted for the taking, burning, ſinking, or deſtroying any of the Enemies Ships of War, or Privateers, during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, and all and every Perſon and Perſons acting as ſuch Agent or Agents, and reſiding in Great Britain as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, account for, and pay to the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, or to his ſufficient Deputy or Agent, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every Sum and Sums of Money, as ſhall be then remaining in their Hands, on account of ſuch Shares of the Money ariſing as aforeſaid, as would have belonged to ſuch Officers and Men of his Majeſty's Navy and Marines, who had forfeited the ſame, by deſerting from his Majeſty's Service, in caſe they had not ſo deſerted, and alſo ſuch Shares thereof as were forfeited by the ſeveral Naval Officers, Seamen, and Marines intitled thereto, on occaſion of their not claiming the ſame, within three Years from the reſpective Times appointed for the Payment of the ſaid Shares, by the publick Notifications given of the Times of ſuch Payment, purſuant to the ſaid Acts of Parliament.

All Agents, &c. ſhall, before March 25, 1773, pay to the Treaſurer of the Hoſpital, all Sums then remaining in their Hands, &c. and all forfeited Shares, not claimed within three Years, &c.

'IV. And whereas it hath frequently happened that divers Naval Officers, Seamen, and Marines, have 'been prevented, by Abſence, or other inevitable Accidents, from claiming their Shares of Prize and Bounty 'Money, within three Years after publick Notifications have been given of the Time appointed for Pay-'ment thereof;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Naval Officer, Seaman, or Marine, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall, after his Share of Prize or Bounty Money has been paid to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, or his Deputy, for the Uſe thereof, by virtue of this Act, give ſufficient Proof to the Board of Directors of the ſaid Hoſpital of his Inability of claiming his Share of Prize and Bounty Money in due Time, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Board of Directors, and they are hereby impowered to order the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital to refund and pay to ſuch Naval Officer, Seaman, or Marine, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſuch his Share of Prize or Bounty Money, ſo received by the ſaid Treaſurer; and that the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital ſhall be allowed ſuch Payment, on paſſing his Account before the Auditor of the ſaid Hoſpital.

Officers, &c. prevented from claiming, giving ſufficient Proof of their Inability, to have their Shares refunded.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Prizes, and other Benefits accruing to the ſaid Hoſpital, by virtue of this or any former Act, ſhall and may be recovered by any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, to be brought in the Name of the Maſter, or Governor, and Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Time being.

Bill or Information.

'VI. And whereas many Agents appointed for the Receipt and Diſtribution of Prize Money, and 'Money ariſing on Bounty Bills, have been induced to delay the Payment of forfeited and unclaimed 'Shares, due to the ſaid Royal Hoſpital, by virtue of the ſaid Acts, and to carry on long and expenſive 'Litigations with the Governor and Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, in conſideration that the Intereſt of the 'Money due to the ſaid Hoſpital, for ſuch forfeited and unclaimed Shares, does ſometimes far exceed, or 'may be at leaſt equivalent to the Coſts of the ſaid Agents, attending ſuch Litigations;' for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Suit ſhall, after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, be brought in any of his Majeſty's Courts

After March 25, 1773, Suits brought in Behalf of the Hoſpital againſt Agents, Courts of Law or Equity, by or on the behalf of the ſaid Hoſpital, againſt any Agent or Agents nominated and appointed for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or either of them, or againſt any Perſon or Perſons acting as ſuch Agent or Agents (who at the Time of paſſing this Act ſhall be reſiding in Great Britain), their Executors or Adminiſtrators, for an Account of, or to compel Payment of any ſuch Shares as aforeſaid; ſuch Agent or Agents, or Perſon or Perſons acting as ſuch, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital, or to his ſufficient Deputy, for the Uſe thereof, Intereſt at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch Sums of Money as ſhall, in the Event of the ſaid Suit, appear to be remaining in the Hands of ſuch Agent or Perſon reſpectively, on Account of ſuch forfeited and unclaimed Shares as aforeſaid, together with the Amount of ſuch forfeited and unclaimed Shares; ſuch Intereſt to be computed from the End of three Years next after the Time appointed by ſuch Notifications as ſhall have been given purſuant to the ſaid Acts for the Payment of ſuch Shares as aforeſaid.

5l. per Cent. Intereſt for Monies in their Hands, to be paid by ſaid Agents.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Agent and Agents (who at the Time of paſſing this Act ſhall be reſiding in Parts beyond the Seas), nominated and appointed for the Receipt and Diſtribution of the Money ariſing by the Sale of any Ship, Veſſel, Goods, and Merchandize, taken from the Enemy during the late Wars with France and Spain, or of the Booty and Plunder found in any Town, Fort, Place, or Settlement, reduced and taken during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, or of the Ranſom of any Ship, Town, Fort, Place, Settlement, or Iſland, or of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, reduced and taken as aforeſaid, or on any Bounty Bill, or Bounty Bills, given or granted for the taking, burning, ſinking, or deſtroying, any of the Enemies Ships of War or Privateers, during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, and all and every Perſon and Perſons acting as ſuch Agent or Agents, and reſiding in Parts beyond the Seas as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, other than and except ſuch Agents or Perſons as are or ſhall be reſiding in Eaſt India; ſhall, on or before the thirty-firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, account for and pay to the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, or to his ſufficient Deputy, Attorney, or Agent, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be then remaining in their Hands on Account of ſuch Shares of the Money ariſing as aforeſaid, as would have belonged to ſuch Officers and Men of his Majeſty's Navy and Marines, who had forfeited the ſame by deſerting from his Majeſty's Service, in caſe they had not ſo deſerted, and alſo ſuch Shares thereof as were forfeited by the ſeveral Naval Officers, Seamen, and Mariners, intitled thereto, on occaſion of their not claiming the ſame within three Years from the reſpective Times appointed for the Payment of the ſaid Shares, by the publick Notifications given of ſuch Payment, purſuant to the ſaid Acts; and that ſuch Agents or Perſons as are or ſhall be reſiding in Eaſt India ſhall account for, and pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, or to his ſufficient Deputy, Attorney, or Agent, for the Uſe thereof, ſuch Shares as aforeſaid, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four: And that if any Suit ſhall, after the ſaid thirty-firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, be brought in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Law or Equity by or on behalf of the ſaid Hoſpital, againſt any Agent or Agents nominated and appointed for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or either of them, or againſt any Perſon or Perſons acting as ſuch Agent or Agents (who at the Time of paſſing this Act ſhall be reſiding in Parts beyond the Seas), their Executors or Adminiſtrators, other than and except ſuch as are or ſhall be reſiding in Eaſt India, for an Account of, or to compel Payment of any ſuch Shares as aforeſaid; ſuch Agent or Agents, Perſon or Perſons, acting as ſuch, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall pay to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital, or to his ſufficient Deputy, Attorney, or Agent, for the Uſe thereof, Intereſt at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall, in the Event of the ſaid Suit, appear to be remaining in the Hands of ſuch Agent or Perſon reſpectively, on account of ſuch forfeited and unclaimed Shares as aforeſaid, together with the Amount of ſuch forfeited and unclaimed Shares; ſuch Intereſt to be computed from the End of three Years next after the Time appointed by ſuch Notifications, as have been given purſuant to the ſaid Acts, for the Payment of ſuch Shares as aforeſaid.

Agents, before Dec. 31. 1773, to pay to the Treaſurer of the Hoſpital, all Sums remaining in their Hands on account of ſuch Shares; and if any Suit ſhall be brought againſt any Agent, &c. except ſuch as are in Eaſt India, ſuch Agent ſhall pay 5l. per Cent. together with the Amount of unclaimed Shares.

VIII. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, ſo as to vacate any Agreement entered into between the Commanders of his Majeſty's Sea and Land Forces conjunctively employed in the Expedition againſt Manilla, or any other Place, during the late Wars with France and Spain.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as by virtue of ſuch Agreements became due to his Majeſty's Land Forces, and are now remaining unclaimed in the Hands of any Agent or Agents, ſhall be forthwith paid to the Commiſſioners appointed by an Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to oblige Agents for Prize Money to account for ſuch Sums of Money as remain in their Hands unclaimed the Property of any of his Majeſty's Land Forces, and for the Application thereof; to be applied by the ſaid Commiſſioners according to the Directions of the ſaid Act.

All Money due to Land Forces unclaimed, in the Hands of any Agent, to be forthwith paid, &c.

X. And be it further enacted and declared, That this Act ſhall be deemed a Publick Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Publick Act.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for Building a Bridge over the River Thames, near the Town of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

CAP. XLII.

An Act for ſettling and determining what Parts of the Precinct of the Savoy, in the County of Middleſex, ſhall be under the Survey of the Court of Exchequer, and what Parts thereof under the Survey of the Duchy of Lancaſter.

'WHEREAS within the Liberty of the Savoy, Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of the Duchy of Lancaſter, in the County of Middleſex, there is a certain Place or Piece of Ground, formerly the Scite of the Manor of the Savoy, and now commonly known by the Name of The Precinct of the Savoy,

'Savoy, being heretofore Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy: And whereas by certain Letters 'Patent, under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, bearing Date the third Day of April, in the 'ſecond Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, the ſaid King granted and confirmed the ſaid 'Place or Piece of Ground (by the Deſcription of the Scite of the Manor of the Savoy, or a certain 'Place or Piece of Ground called The Savoy, Parcel of the Duchy of Lancaſter, lying in the Pariſhes 'of Saint Clement Danes, without the Bars of the New Temple, London, and the Bleſſed Mary le Strand, 'in the County of Middleſex, abutting as therein is mentioned) unto the Executors of the Will of 'King Henry the Seventh, their Heirs, and Aſſigns, for ever, to the Intent they might erect, found, 'and eſtabliſh an Hoſpital thereon: And whereas an Hoſpital was, in purſuance thereof, afterwards 'erected, founded, and eſtabliſhed on the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground, which afterwards became 'veſted in the Maſter and perpetual Chaplains of the Hoſpital of the Savoy: And whereas upon a 'Viſitation of the ſaid Hoſpital, by Sir Nathan Wright, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, on 'or about the thirty-firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and two, the ſaid Lord Keeper 'declared the ſaid Hoſpital to be diſſolved, and certified the ſame unto the then Lord High Treaſurer of 'England, and the Barons of the Exchequer, and thereupon the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground was 'duly put in Charge for the Benefit of the Crown: And whereas a Doubt hath ariſen in point of 'Law, whether the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground, upon the Diſſolution of the ſaid Hoſpital, eſcheated 'to her then Majeſty Queen Anne, in Right of her Crown of England, or whether the ſame reverted 'to her ſaid Majeſty, as Parcel of the Duchy of Lancaſter, whereby it is uncertain in what Manner 'Leaſes and Grants thereof ought to be made, and the Revenues ſued for, and collected; and 'whilſt ſuch Doubt remains, the Premiſes cannot be improved ſo as to yield the Advantage the 'ſame are capable of: And whereas by Permiſſion of his Majeſty or his Predeceſſors, Kings of 'England, there have been built and erected in and upon the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground cer-'tain Churches, called The High German Church, and The Low German Church, and convenient 'Church-yards or Burying-grounds have been incloſed adjoining or contiguous thereto reſpectively; 'and there are alſo now ſtanding upon the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground certain Buildings, now 'uſed as Barracks for Soldiers, and as Priſons and Suttling-houſe, belonging to and for the Uſe 'of the ſaid Barracks; and alſo two Dwelling-houſes adjoining or contiguous to the ſaid Barracks, 'which are uſually inhabited by certain of the Officers of the Army having Command of the 'Soldiers reſiding in the ſaid Barracks: And whereas, for obviating and removing the ſaid Doubt 'and Inconveniencies, his Majeſty is minded that the aforeſaid Churches, Church-yards, Barracks, 'Priſons, Suttling-houſe, and Dwelling-houſes, with the Scites thereof, ſhall be from henceforth 'deemed, taken, and adjudged to be, Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of the Crown of this Realm, and as 'ſuch be under the Survey, Rule, Order, and Government, of the Court of Exchequer; and that 'all the Reſt and Reſidue of the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground, with all the Buildings thereon, ſhall 'be united and annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter; his Majeſty is therefore pleaſed and contented 'that it may be enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed;' and be it enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That our Sovereign Lord the King ſhall from henceforth have, hold, poſſeſs, and enjoy to him, his Heirs and Succeſſors for ever, in Right of his Crown, all thoſe two ſeveral Churches called The High German Church, and The Low German Church, ſituate, ſtanding, and being within and upon the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground, called The Precinct of the Savoy, in the County of Middleſex, together with the Church-yards and Burying-grounds to the ſame Churches adjoining and belonging; and alſo all thoſe Buildings ſtanding and being within and upon the ſaid Precinct, now uſed and employed as Barracks for Soldiers, and as Priſons and Suttling houſe, belonging to the ſaid Barracks; and alſo all thoſe two Dwelling-houſes, ſituate within and upon the ſaid Precinct, near unto a Place called The Friary, and uſually occupied and enjoyed by ſuch of the Officers of the Army as have the Command of the Soldiers in the ſaid Barracks, for the Time being; and alſo all the Scites, Ground, and Soil, whereon the ſaid Churches, Barracks, Priſons, Suttling-houſe, and Dwelling-houſes reſpectively ſtand, and the Soil of the ſaid Church-yards and Burying-grounds reſpectively, together with all Ways, Paths, and Paſſages, to and from the ſame Premiſes reſpectively; and that all and ſingular the ſame Churches, Church-yards, Burying-grounds, Barracks, Priſons, Suttling-houſe, and Dwelling-houſes, and the Scites, Grounds and Soil thereof, ſhall, by Authority and Force of this Act, be from henceforth for ever in the Order, Survey, and Governance, of our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King's Court of Exchequer, and of the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame; and all the Farms, Iſſues, Rents, and Arrears of Rent, Revenues, and Profits, coming and growing of, or which have grown and are now due for the Premiſes, and every Part thereof, ſhall be ordered, taken, received, and anſwered, by the ſame Chancellor, Miniſters, and Officers of the ſame Court in ſuch and like Manner and Form as the Farms, Iſſues, Rents, Revenues, and Profits, of other the Hereditaments, and Poſſeſſions of the Crown, within the Survey, Rule, Order, and Governance, of the King's Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame Court, have been or ought to be ordered, taken, received, and anſwered.

All Buildings, &c. upon the Precinct of the Savoy, to be enjoyed by his Majeſty, &c. hereafter in Right of his Crown; with all the Dwelling-houſes ſituate near the Friary.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Reſt and Reſidue of the ſaid Place or Piece of Ground, called The Precinct of the Savoy, with the Soil thereof, and all Meſſuages, Houſes, and Buildings whatſoever thereon, with all and every their Appurtenances, ſhall be, and the ſame are, by the Authority and Force of this Act, from henceforth, for ever, united and annexed unto the Duchy of Lancaſter, and ſhall be adjudged, deemed, deemed, and taken for ever, for and as Parcels and Members of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and ſhall be of the ſame Nature, Quality, Kind, and Condition, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes, as others the ancient Poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy (lying out of the County Palatine of Lancaſter), be, and ought to be, and ſhall be, in the Letting, Setting, Order, Rule, Survey, Receipt, and Governance, of the Chancellor, Council, and Officers of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, for the Time being, for evermore, in like and the ſame Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as others the ſaid ancient Poſſeſſions belonging to the ſaid Duchy (lying out of the ſaid County Palatine), be, have been, or ought to be; and that all and ſingular the ſaid Meſſuages, Houſes, Buildings, and Ground, united and annexed to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, by Authority and Force of this Act, and all and ſingular Grants, Leaſes, and Letters Patent thereof, or of any Part thereof, hereafter to be made by the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors ſhall, for evermore, paſs and be made under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy, and not under any other Seal, or otherwiſe, and with the like and the ſame Livery and Seiſin, Attornments, Ceremonies, Orders, and Circumſtances in the Law, and in the ſame Manner and Form, as other the ancient Poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, and the Grants, Leaſes, and Letters Patent thereof, heretofore of ancient Time made, have uſed and ought to be made and paſſed, and not otherwiſe, nor in any other Manner or Form; any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The Precinct of the Savoy to be hereafter annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained, ſhall extend to abate or affect any Action, Information, Bill, Suit, or other Proceeding, already brought or commenced by or on the Behalf of his Majeſty, in any of the Courts of Law or Equity, againſt any Perſon or Perſons for the Recovery of the Poſſeſſion of the Premiſes contained or mentioned in this Act, or any Part thereof, or for the Meſne Rents and Profits thereof, or any Part thereof, but that the ſame Actions, Informations, Bills, Suits, and other Proceedings, ſhall and may be proſecuted and carried on in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and with the ſame Validity and Effect, as if this Act had not been made.

In any Suit, it ſhall be ſufficient for his Majeſty to prove his Title.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That in every Action, Information, Bill, or Suit, brought, or commenced, or to be brought or commenced, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, it ſhall be ſufficient for his Majeſty to make due Proof of a Title to the Premiſes in queſtion, either in Right of his Crown, or as Parcel of his Duchy of Lancaſter; and that all and every Judgment and Decree already had, or to be had, obtained, and pronounced therein reſpectively, and every Execution thereupon, ſhall be available, and ſhall be and remain in full Force and Effect.

Proof of Title derived from the Crown, ſhall be an effectual Bar againſt his Majeſty.

V. Provided alſo, That in every ſuch Action, Information, Bill, or Suit, it ſhall be ſufficient for the Defendant or Defendants to make due Proof of a Title to the Premiſes in queſtion, derived from or under his Majeſty, or any of his Royal Predeceſſors, either in Right of his Crown, or as Parcel of his ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and that every ſuch Title ſhall be deemed, taken, and adjudged to be, an available, ſufficient, and effectual Bar againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, or any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

His Majeſty may, aſſign any Part of the Premiſes.

VI. And, to the End and Intent the Premiſes may be laid out to the greater Advantage, and may thereby be improved to their utmoſt Value, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may, from Time to Time hereafter, at his and their Liberties and Pleaſures, by Letters Patent, to be ſealed with the Seal of the Duchy of Lancaſter, limit, aſſign, and appoint, any Part or Parts of the Premiſes, which by Force of this Act are annexed and united to the ſaid Duchy, unto the Survey, Rule, Order, Governance, Juriſdiction, Letting, and Setting of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame Court, and the Premiſes to be ſo limited, aſſigned, and appointed, by Force of any ſuch Letters Patent, ſhall, from the Teſte of the ſaid Letters Patent, be ſevered from the ſaid Duchy, and ſhall from thenceforth be and remain in the Survey, Rule, Order, Governance, Juriſdiction, Letting, Setting, and Receipt of the ſame Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame; and all the Farms, Iſſues, Rents, Revenues, and Profits of the Premiſes, ſo to be limited, aſſigned, and appointed, ſhall be ordered, taken, received, and anſwered by the ſame Chancellor, Miniſters, and Officers of the ſame Court of Exchequer, in ſuch and in like Manner and Form, and to and for ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes, as the Farms, Iſſues, Rents, Revenues, and Profits, coming and growing by, or out of other the Lands and Hereditaments, being the ancient Poſſeſſions of the Crown, within the Order, Survey, and Governance of the ſame Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame have been, or ought to be ordered, taken, received, and anſwered; and that our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may alſo, from Time to Time hereafter, at his and their Liberties and Pleaſures, by Letters Patent, to be ſealed with the Great Seal, unite, annex, limit, aſſign, and appoint unto the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, any Part or Parts of the Premiſes, which, by Force of this Act, are put under the Order, Survey, and Governance of the Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame; and that all and every the Premiſes which ſhall happen to be united and annexed to the ſaid Duchy, by Force of any ſuch Letters Patent, ſhall be, from the Teſte of the ſaid Letters Patent, within the Order, Survey, Rule, Governance, Juriſdiction, Letting, and Setting of the Chancellor, Council, and Officers of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter for the Time being, as others the Poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, lying and being out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, have, uſed, and ought to be, and that as well all and every ſuch Limiting, Aſſignment, and Appointment made, or to be made, by our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the Premiſes, unto the Court of Exchequer, and the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame, by any Letters Patent, under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy, as alſo all and every ſuch Annexing, Limiting, Aſſignment, and Appointment, to be made by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any the Premiſes unto the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, caſter, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal, ſhall be as good and available as if done by Authority of Parliament.

VII. Saving to all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, and to their Heirs, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, and to the Heirs, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns of every of them, all ſuch Right, Title, Intereſt, Poſſeſſions, Leaſe and Leaſes, Rents, Profits, Eaſements, Actions, Suits, and Demands whatſoever, which they or any of them ſhould, might, or ought to have had, in, to, or out of any of the Premiſes before the making of this Act, and not herein or hereby expreſsly taken away, altered, or abridged, in like and the ſame Manner, Form, and Condition, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes, as if this Act had never been made. Saving all Rights, &c.

CAP. XLIII.

CAP. XLV.

An Act for the better Regulation of Carters, Carriages, and loaded Horſes; and for removing Obſtructions and Nuiſances upon the Streets and Highways within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act for the more effectual preventing of Frauds in the Revenues of Exciſe with reſpect to Tea, Soap, Low Wines, and Spirits.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paſte, imported, and for granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paſte; and for better aſcertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts, imported; and for granting Relief to Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath;' it was enacted, That no Tea exceeding the Quantity of ſix Pounds Weight ſhould be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom by Land or Water, without ſuch Permit, or Certificate, as is therein expreſſed and required: And by the ſaid Act it was further enacted, That every Seller of and Dealer in Tea ſhould, each Night, enter into a Book, kept for that Purpoſe, an Account of the groſs Quantity of Tea, which he ſhould retail or conſume in each Day in ſmall Quantities, under the Weight of ſix Pounds, and in one other Book ſhould enter, every Night, every Parcel of Tea above the Weight of ſix Pounds which he ſhould ſell in each Day: And whereas by the ſaid recited Act, no Proviſion is made for diſtinguiſhing in ſuch Permits or Certificates, or in ſuch Entries, the Quality or Colour of the Tea ſo permitted or certificated, or ſo entered, in the ſaid Books, whereby great Frauds and Abuſes have been committed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relative to the Duties on Tea, and to the manifeſt Prejudice of the fair Trader in the ſaid Commodity; for Remedy whereof, and for the greater and more effectual Diſcouragement of the illegal and pernicious Practice of unlawfully importing and clandeſtinely running of Tea;' Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, all Dealers in and Sellers of Tea, who ſhall then have, or from thenceforth receive into their Cuſtody any Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, ſhall, and are hereby obliged and directed, from Time to Time, to mark each and every Caniſter, Bag, Jar, Tub, Box, Caſk, or other Package, in which they ſhall keep any Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, with the Word Black, and alſo to mark each and every Caniſter, Bag, Jar, Tub, Box, Caſk, or other Package, in which they ſhall keep any other Kind of Tea, not being Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, with the Word Green, the ſaid Words Black and Green to be reſpectively marked on the moſt conſpicuous Part of ſuch Caniſter, Bag, Jar, Tub, Box, Caſk, and other Package. 10 Geo. I. Dealers in Tea ſhall mark each Caniſter.

'II. And, for avoiding all Doubts and Controverſies concerning the two Kinds of Teas in this Act mentioned, and diſtinguiſhed by the Names of Black Tea and Green Tea,' it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That by the Term or Name Black Tea, is meant all ſuch Teas as are uſually called or known by the Name of Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea; and that by the Term or Name Green Tea, is meant all Teas not being ſuch Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea. How to be diſtinguiſhed.

Officers of Exciſe finding an Increaſe, to ſeize, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, the Officer and Officers of Exciſe who ſhall, from Time to Time, ſurvey and take the Stock of Tea at the Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and other Places made uſe of for keeping Tea by Dealers in and Sellers of Tea, ſhall keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account of the Black Tea, and of the Green Tea, which ſhall at any Time be in their or any of their Cuſtody; and if ſuch Officer of Exciſe ſhall find any Increaſe either of Green Tea or of Black Tea in the Cuſtody of any ſuch Dealer or Seller, over and above the Quantity of each reſpective Sort which ſuch Officer found in ſuch Dealer or Seller's Cuſtody at the Time of ſuch Officer's laſt preceding Survey upon ſuch Dealer or Seller, ſuch Increaſe ſhall be deemed and taken to be made by Tea for which no Duties were paid, and which had been privately brought in by ſuch Dealer or Seller without Permit or Certificate, and ſo much of the Green Tea or Black Tea reſpectively as ſhall be found ſo increaſed ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized and carried away by ſuch Officer of Exciſe who ſhall ſo find the ſame, unleſs the Owner thereof ſhall make it appear that the ſaid Increaſe was made by ſuch Green Tea or Black Tea reſpectively brought in with an authentick Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duties thereof.

Sellers of Tea, under 6 lb. to keep diſtinct Accounts, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, all Dealers in and Sellers of Tea who ſhall ſell or conſume the ſame in ſmall Quantities, under the Weight of ſix Pounds, ſhall and are hereby obliged and directed to keep ſeparate and diſtinct Accounts of all the Black Tea, and of all the Green Tea, which they or any of them ſhall ſo reſpectively ſell or conſume in ſmall Quantities in each Day, and ſhall, every Night, enter into a Book, to be kept for that Purpoſe, an Account of the groſs Quantities of the Black Tea, and alſo of the Green Tea, which have been by him, her, or them reſpectively ſo retailed or conſumed in that Day in ſmall Quantities under the ſaid Weight of ſix Pounds; and the ſaid Dealers in and Sellers of Tea ſhall alſo keep one other Book, wherein they ſhall make ſeparate and diſtinct Entries of all the Black Tea, and all the Green Tea, above the Weight of ſix Pounds, which they ſhall reſpectively ſell in each Day; which ſaid Books ſhall be provided, and the Entries ſo to be made in the ſaid Books, ſhall be under the ſame Directions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted by the ſaid above-recited Act of the tenth of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt.

No Tea, exceeding 6 lb. to be removed without a Permit;

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Tea, exceeding the Quantity of ſix Pounds Weight, ſhall be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom by Land or by Water without a Permit or Certificate, ſigned by one or more of the Officers for the Inland Duties on Tea, ſignifying and certifying the Names and Places of Abode of the Buyer and Seller, and expreſſing the Quantity and Quality of the Tea; that is to ſay, if the Tea ſo to be removed or carried is Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then to expreſs in the Permit or Certificate that the ſame is Black Tea; and if the Tea ſo to be removed and carried is neither Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then to expreſs in the Permit or Certificate that the ſame is Green Tea, and alſo certifying that the Inland Duties chargeable upon Tea have been duly paid and ſatisfied, upon Pain of forfeiting the Tea which is ſo found removing or carrying from one Place to another without ſuch Permit or Certificate, expreſſing the Quality as aboveſaid, together with the Package in which the ſame ſhall be contained, which Permit or Certificate ſhall be left with the Officer of the Diviſion to which the ſame ſhall be carried, to prevent the Seizure thereof, in which Permit or Certificate the Officer who grants the ſame ſhall expreſs and limit the Time for which the ſame ſhall continue in Force.

'VI. And whereas by the ſaid recited Act it is enacted, That no Tea ſhould be ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, but when the ſame ſhould be in ſome Warehouſe or Place entered for keeping the ſame, upon Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Tea ſo ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, and Treble the Value thereof, together with the Package containing the ſame: And whereas the Penalty by the ſaid Act provided has by Experience been found ineffectual, and ill-diſpoſed Perſons have thereby been induced to carry Tea which hath been clandeſtinely imported into this Kingdom, from Houſe to Houſe, in ſmall Parcels, in Diminution of the Revenue, and to the great Diſcouragement of the fair Dealer in Tea;' For

No Tea to be ſold but out of Warehouſes and Shops approved of by 10 Geo. 1.

Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any Tea ſhall be ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, either by Wholeſale or Retail, but when the ſame ſhall be in ſome or one of the Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, or other Places, entered and approved as by the ſaid Act is directed, the Perſon or Perſons ſo uttering, ſelling, or expoſing to Sale ſuch Tea, in any other Place or Places than thoſe entered and approved as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of ten Pounds, together with all the Tea which ſhall be ſo ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale.

3 Geo. 3.

'VII. And whereas by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and further improving of the Revenues of Cuſtoms, Exciſe, Inland and Salt Duties, it was enacted, That Makers of Hard Soap ſhould provide Covers to their Coppers, Pans and Utenſils, wherewith they ſhould boil or make Hard Soap; which Coppers, Pans, and Utenſils, and alſo the Pipe or Pipes that conveyed the Waſte or Salt Lees from ſuch Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, the Officers of Exciſe were to lock and ſeal down in Manner as in and by the ſaid Act was particularly required and directed; and by the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Act it was enacted, That if by any Art, Device, or Contrivance whatſoever, any ſuch Maker of Hard Soap ſhould open any Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, or any Pipe or Pipes, after the ſame ſhould have been locked down and

'ſecured,

'ſecured, and before the ſame had been unlocked and opened by the Officer of Exciſe, or ſhould wilfully break or damage any ſuch Lock, Seal, or Faſtening, that every ſuch Maker of Hard Soap ſo offending ſhould, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds: And whereas the ſaid Penalty of twenty Pounds by the ſaid Act provided hath, by Experience, been found ineffectual, and not ſufficient to prevent and reſtrain Makers of Hard Soap from opening their Coppers, Pans, Utenſils, and Pipes, in regard the Duties of one Boiling of Soap, may, and often do, amount to much more than the Sum of twenty Pounds, whereby ill-diſpoſed Perſons have been encouraged and induced to open their Coppers, Pans, Utenſils, and Pipes, to the great Diminution of the Revenue ariſing by the Duties laid upon Soap, and to the Prejudice of the fair Traders, who duly pay the full Duties for all Soap by them made:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at any Time after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, any Maker of Hard Soap ſhall, by any Art, Device, or Contrivance whatſoever, open, or cauſe to be opened, any Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, or any Pipe or Pipes, that convey the Waſte or Salt Lees from ſuch Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, after the ſame ſhall have been ſecurely locked and ſealed down by the Officer of Exciſe, and before the ſame ſhall have been unlocked and opened by the Officer of Exciſe, or ſhall wilfully break or damage any ſuch Lock or Seal, or other Faſtening, every ſuch Maker or Makers of Hard Soap, ſo offending in any of the ſaid Caſes, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Makers of Hard Soap opening any Copper, &c. forfeit 100l.

'VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing the exceſſive Uſe of Spirituous Liquors, by laying additional Duties thereon; for ſhortening the Prohibition of making Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, and from Meal, Flour, and Bran; for encouraging the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits; and for more effectually ſecuring the Duties payable upon Spirits, and preventing the fraudulent Relanding or Importation thereof,' it was enacted and declared, That Perſons making or keeping any Waſh, Cyder, or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, and having in their Poſſeſſion or Occupation any Still or Stills, containing ſeparately or together ten Gallons or upwards, ſhould be deemed and taken to be Common Diſtillers for Sale, and ſhould be liable to the Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and be ſubject to the Survey of the Office of Exciſe, and to the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures impoſed by any Act of Parliament then in Force, in anywiſe relating to Diſtillers: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether by the Word Still, in the ſaid Clauſe mentioned, the Body of the Still, excluſive of the Head of ſuch Still, is not to be underſtood; now, to obviate all ſuch Doubts,' be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Still, the cubic Contents of which, when the Head is on, will amount to ten Gallons or upwards, is a Still containing ten Gallons or upwards, within the true Meaning of the laſt recited Act; and all and every Perſon or Perſons, having or keeping any Waſh, Cyder, or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, and having in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion or Occupation, any ſuch laſt-mentioned Still or Stills, containing ſeparately or together ten Gallons or upwards, Proof being thereof made as by the laſt recited Act is directed, ſhall be deemed and taken to be a common Diſtiller for Sale, and ſhall be liable to the ſeveral Rates, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in and by the laſt-recited Act mentioned or referred unto.

33 Geo. 2.

Cubic Contents of a Still, to be ten Gallons. Perſons uſing ſuch, deemed Common Diſtillers.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Offender, who ſhall be proſecuted for any of the Penalties by this Act given, ſhall not be proſecuted again for the ſame Offence by any former Act; and that ſuch Offender, who ſhall be proſecuted for the Penalty given by any former Act, ſhall not be proſecuted again, for the ſame Offence, by virtue of this preſent Act, or any Thing herein contained.

'X. And whereas great Frauds are committed by Corn Diſtillers charging their Stills, in the Abſence of the Officers of Exciſe, with Worts or Waſh, of which no Account has been taken by the ſaid Officers, and the Proviſions hitherto made have been found ineffectual to reſtrain ſuch Practices;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, every Corn Diſtiller, or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn or Grain, ſhall, at his, her, or their own Expence, find, provide, and affix ſufficient Faſtenings (to be approved of, in Writing, by and under the Hands of the reſpective Surveyors or Supervifors of Exciſe of the Diviſion or Diſtrict in which every ſuch reſpective Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn ſhall reſide) to the Heads of each and every Low Wine Still, and Waſh Still, Waſh Pumps, and charging Cocks, through which Worts or Waſh are conveyed into ſuch Waſh Still or Waſh Stills belonging to, or uſed by, any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker as aforeſaid; which ſaid Still Heads, and charging Cocks, and Waſh Pumps, ſhall, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time, to be ſecurely locked and ſealed by the Officer of Exciſe who ſurveys ſuch Diſtiller and Maker as aforeſaid, in Manner as is herein-after directed; and ſuch Locks and Keys, as ſhall be neceſſary for ſecuring the ſaid Still Heads, and Charging Cocks and Waſh Pumps, ſhall be provided by the reſpective Surveyors or Supervifors of Exiſe of the Diviſion or Diſtrict in which ſuch reſpective Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall reſide, at the Expence of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker; and whenever any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn, ſhall be deſirous of charging his Still or Stills, or of uſing the Charge Cock or Waſh Pump ſo locked and ſealed, and ſhall have given Notice as herein-after is directed, the Officer of Exciſe ſhall attend to unlock and open the ſaid Still Heads, Charging Cocks, and Waſh Pumps.

Corn Diſtillers, &c. to provide and affix ſufficient Faſtenings to the Heads of every Still, &c.

Locks and Keys to be provided.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any ſuch Diſtiller and Maker of Low Wines and Spirits, whoſe Still-houſe or Still-houſes are under the Survey of the London Officers, or is or are ſituate in London or Weſtminſter, or within any other City in Great Britain, ſhall be deſirous of opening his Low Wines Still or Stills, or of charging his Waſh Still or Waſh Stills, he, ſhe, or they ſhall give, or cauſe to be given, to one of the Officers of Exciſe, under whoſe Survey ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall then be, a Notice in Writing at leaſt four Hours before the particular Hour or Time of the Day when he, ſhe, or they intend to charge ſuch Still or Stills.

Diſtillers to give Notice, &c.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, ſo ſituate as aforeſaid, ſhall be minded to open or to charge his Still or Stills at any Hour or Time between twelve in the Night and ſix in the Morning; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall give the Notice in Writing, at leaſt twelve Hours before the particular Hour or Time of the Night when he intends ſo to open his Low Wine Still, or to charge his Waſh Still or Waſh Stills; and every other Corn Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn or Grain, whoſe Still-houſe or Still-houſes is or are not ſituate in London or Weſtminſter, nor under the Survey of the London Officers, nor in ſome other City in Great Britain, ſhall give or ſend at leaſt twelve Hours Notice, in Writing, at the next Office of Exciſe, or to the proper Officer under whoſe Survey ſuch laſt-mentioned Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall then be, of ſuch his or their Intention of opening or charging their Still or Stills: And in caſe any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall not begin to charge his Still or Stills at the Hour mentioned in ſuch Notice, or within two Hours next after the Expiration of ſuch Hour and Time, then every ſuch Notice ſhall be and is hereby declared void and null, and every ſuch Diſtiller and Maker of Low Wines and Spirits ſhall be obliged to give a freſh Notice before the Officer ſhall be bound to open the Heads of any ſuch Still or Stills, or the ſaid Charge Cocks, or Waſh Pumps, ſo locked as aforeſaid.

Officers of Exciſe to attend.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of Exciſe ſhall, from Time to Time, attend, agreeable to ſuch Notices ſo to be given or left as before directed; and when and ſo ſoon as ſuch Officer ſhall be at ſuch Still-houſe, every ſuch Diſtiller or Maker as aforeſaid, or his or their Servants, ſhall, and they are hereby required to turn the Diſcharge Cocks of every Waſh Still, that the Officer may be ſatisfied that the ſaid Waſh Still or Waſh Stills are really empty; and then, and not before, ſuch Officer ſhall open the Stills, Cocks, and Pumps, ſo locked and ſecured, and ſhall continue in the ſaid Still-houſe all the Time that ſuch Waſh Still ſhall be charging; and when the ſame ſhall be fully charged, ſhall immediately lock and ſecure, as before, all the ſaid Still Heads, Waſh Pumps, and Charging Cocks, to the Waſh Stills belonging or affixed, and ſhall leave them ſo locked and ſecured at all Times.

XIV. Provided always, That when and ſo often as it ſhall be found neceſſary to have ſuch Still Heads or Charge Cocks, or Waſh Pumps open, for repairing or amending the ſame, or either of them; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for the Officers of Exciſe ſo to do, for all the Time the Workmen ſhall be actually employed in repairing and mending the ſame; but the ſaid Officers ſhall lock and ſecure all ſuch Stills, Waſh Pumps, and Charge Cocks, every Night, when and ſo ſoon as the ſaid Workmen ſhall leave off their Work; and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Officers ſhall attend at ſix of the Clock each Morning, whilſt ſuch Repairs are doing, in order to open ſuch Stills, Charge Cocks, and Pumps.

Diſtillers uſing other Conveyances to forfeit 100l.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines, or Spirits as aforeſaid, ſhall have any Pipe or Conveyance to the Low Wine Stills from any other Veſſel or Utenſil, except the known and entered Low Wine Caſk, on Pain of forfeiting, for every ſuch Conveyance, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Preſuming to diſtil, before ſufficient Faſtnings are provided,

XVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn, ſhall, after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, preſume to diſtill or make Low Wines or Spirits, before he, ſhe, or they ſhall have found, provided, and affixed ſufficient Faſtnings, to be approved as aforeſaid, to every ſuch Still Head, and to the Charge Cocks to each Waſh Still and Waſh Pump to him, her, or them belonging, or by him, her, or them uſed, according to the Directions of this Act; or ſhall refuſe to pay for the Locks and Keys to be provided in purſuance of the Directions of this Act; or ſhall neglect or refuſe to turn the Diſcharge Cock of the Waſh Stills as required by this Act, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit fifty Pounds: And if by any Means, Device, or Contrivance whatſoever, any Perſon ſhall open any Still Head, or Charge Cock, or Waſh Pump, after the ſame ſhall have been locked and ſecured as aforeſaid, before the ſame ſhall have been opened by the Officer of Exciſe, or ſhall wilfully hurt or damage any ſuch Lock, or other Faſtning; every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

forfeit 50 l. Opening Still Heads, &c. after being locked, forfeit 200 l.

XVII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct, hinder, or oppoſe any of the ſaid Officers, in the Execution of any of the Powers given to him by this Act, the Perſon or Perſons offending therein ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Forfeitures and Penalties.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

General Iſſue.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted for any Thing done by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, in his or their Defence or Defences; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall diſcontinue his or their Action or Actions, or be nonſuited, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, on Demurrer or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt any ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. Treble Coſts.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to continue an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the Committing of Frauds by Bankrupts, and for making Proviſion for diſcharging Bankrupts, in certain Caſes, from their Impriſonment.

'WHEREAS the Law hereafter mentioned hath, by Experience, been found uſeful and beneficial, 'and is near expiring; may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act to prevent the Committing of Frauds by Bankrupts), which was to continue in Force from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-two, for the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, made in the ninth and ſixteenth Years of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty; and by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, was amended and further continued until the firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-ſeven; and which by two ſubſequent Acts, made in the thirty-firſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, and the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

'II. And whereas many Perſons againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy hath iſſued are, nevertheleſs, confined in Priſon, though they have delivered up all their Effects; for Relief therefore of ſuch Perſons,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy has been awarded and iſſued, and who was or were in Cuſtody on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, for any Debt due before ſuch reſpective Commiſſions iſſued, and who have, or ſhall have, duly conformed themſelves to the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to Bankrupts, and are not, nor have been, committed by any Warrant of the Commiſſioners in ſuch reſpective Commiſſion named, for Contumacy, or Non-compliance with thoſe Laws, that it ſhall and may be lawful for any one of the Judges of the Court wherein ſuch Proceſs has iſſued againſt ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, on Petition of ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, to ſummon his, her, or their Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to appear before him, to ſhew Cauſe why ſuch Bankrupt ſhould not be diſcharged from his, her, or their Impriſonment (ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts firſt making Oath that ſuch Debt or Debts did accrue before the iſſuing out ſuch Commiſſion); and ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs not appearing, or appearing and not proving that ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts has or have concealed any of his, her, or their Effects, or that he, ſhe, or they has or have not conformed him, her, or themſelves to the Laws againſt Bankrupts, ſuch Judge ſhall and may, by Warrant or other Inſtrument under his Hand, diſcharge him, her, or them, from ſuch his, her, or their Impriſonment for any Debt or Debts due before ſuch Commiſſion iſſued, and ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts ſhall not be ſubject or liable to be arreſted for any Debt or Debts due or contracted before ſuch Commiſſion iſſued; ſubject nevertheleſs, in every other Reſpect, to the Laws againſt Bankrupts: And all and every Sheriff or Sheriffs, Bailiff and Officer, Gaoler and Keeper, are hereby required, on the Delivery of ſuch Warrant or Inſtrument of Diſcharge to ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs, Bailiff, or other Officer, Gaoler or Keeper, to diſcharge ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts out of Cuſtody accordingly; and they are hereby declared and enacted to be indemnified from any Action or Actions that ſhall or may be brought, commenced, or proſecuted againſt him, or them, for any Eſcape or Eſcapes for or on Account thereof.

See Coup. 138.

'III. And whereas many Bankrupts, from a Fear of being arreſted and thrown under a long Impriſonment, do abſcond and ſecrete themſelves from their Homes, or go abroad into Foreign Parts, to the great Diſtreſs of their Families, and the Detriment of this Kingdom;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy hath been awarded and iſſued on or before the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, who hath or have regularly ſubmitted to the ſame, and juſtly conformed him, her, or themſelves, to the ſeveral Statutes now in Force concerning Bankrupts, and who ſhall be hereafter arreſted and held to Bail, or taken in Execution for any Debt or Debts due and accruing before the Date or Dates of ſuch reſpective Commiſſions, ſhall and may, after the Expiration of forty Days from the Time of ſuch Arreſt, in like Manner, petition any one of the Judges of the Court wherein ſuch Proceſs has iſſued: and ſuch Judge is hereby authoriſed and required to diſcharge ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts in like Manner, and on the like Terms and Conditions as are aforeſaid, and directed; and if ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts ſhall be afterwards arreſted for any other Debt or Debts alſo accruing before ſuch reſpective Commiſſions iſſued, any Judge of the the Court wherein ſuch Proceſs iſſued ſhall, upon Summons of the proper Party or Parties, immediately diſcharge ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts from ſuch Arreſt; nevertheleſs ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts to be ſubject, in all other Reſpects, to the Laws relating to Bankrupts, as aforeſaid.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for the more effectual preventing of Frauds in the Stamp Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, Paper, and Cards.

'FOR the more effectual Prevention of ſeveral Frauds, whereby his Majeſty's Duties, granted by 'ſeveral Acts of Parliament on that Behalf, on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, have been 'very much diminiſhed, the Penalties thereon preſcribed being found inſufficient to deter Offenders;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons, at any Time after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, ſhall write or engroſs, or cauſe to be written or engroſſed, either the Whole, or any Part of any Writ, Mandate, Bond, Affidavit, or other Writing, Matter, or Thing whatſoever, in reſpect whereof any Duty is or ſhall be payable by any Act or Acts made, or to be made, in that Behalf, on the Whole, or any Part of any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper whereon there ſhall have been before written any other Writ, Bond, Mandate, Affidavit, or other Matter, or Thing, in reſpect whereof any Duty was or ſhall be payable as aforeſaid, before ſuch Vellum, Parchment, or Paper ſhall have been again marked or ſtamped, according to the ſaid Acts; or ſhall fraudulently eraſe or ſcrape out, or cauſe to be eraſed or ſcraped out, the Name or Names of any Perſon or Perſons, or any Sum, Date, or other Thing, written in ſuch Writ, Mandate, Affidavit, Bond, or other Writing, Matter, or Thing, as aforeſaid; or fraudulently cut, tear, or get off, any Mark or Stamp, in reſpect whereof, or whereby, any Duties are or ſhall be payable, or denoted to be paid or payable as aforeſaid, from any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, Paper, Playing Cards, Outſide Paper of any Parcel or Pack of Playing Cards, or any Part thereof, with Intent to uſe ſuch Stamp or Mark for any other Writing, Matter, or Thing, in reſpect whereof any ſuch Duty is or ſhall be payable, or denoted to be paid or payable as aforeſaid; then, ſo often, and in every ſuch Caſe, every Perſon ſo offending, in any of the Particulars before mentioned, and every Perſon knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or aſſiſting any Perſon or Perſons to commit any ſuch Offence or Offences as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and conſtrued to be guilty of Felony, and, being thereof convicted by due Courſe of Law, ſhall be tranſported to ſome of his Majeſty's Plantations beyond the Seas, for a Term not exceeding ſeven Years, according to the Laws in Force for the Tranſportation of Felons: And if any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted or tranſported ſhall voluntarily eſcape or break Priſon, or return from Tranſportation before the Expiration of the Time for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be ſo tranſported as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon or Perſons being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy, and ſhall be tried for ſuch Felony in the County where he, ſhe, or they ſhall be apprehended.

Perſons committing Frauds on ſtamped Vellum, &c.

Guilty of Felony.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, commit any of the Offences aforeſaid, and afterwards, being out of Priſon, diſcover one or more Perſons who ſhall, ſince that Time, have committed any of the Offences aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons diſcovered ſhall be convicted of ſuch Offence or Offences, he, ſhe, or they, ſo diſcovering, ſhall have and be intitled to his Majeſty's gracious Pardon for all ſuch Offences by him or her committed at any Time or Times before ſuch Diſcovery made.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp duties upon Policies of Aſſurance; and for reducing the Allowance to be made in reſpect of the prompt Payment of the Stamp-duties on Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other exciſeable Liquors; and for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs; ſo far as the ſame relates to Hackney Coaches.

7 Geo. 3.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent 'Majeſty, intituled, An Act for altering the Stamp-duties upon Policies of Aſſurance; and for reducing 'the Allowance to be made in reſpect of the prompt Payment of the Stamp-duties on Licences for retailing 'Beer, Ale, and other exciſeable Liquors; and for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating 'to Hackney Coaches and Chairs; it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That from and after the firſt 'Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, every Coachman, licenſed by the Com'miſſioners for regulating and licenſing Hackney Coaches, plying for Hire within the City of London 'or Weſtminſter ſhould be obliged and compellable on every Day of the Week, at ſeaſonable Times, 'to go any where, within the Diſtance of ten Miles from the City of London or Weſtminſter; and 'in caſe of Refuſal ſo to do, ſhould be liable to the like Penalty or Puniſhment as might by Law then 'be inflicted in Caſes of Refuſal to carry for Hire by licenſed Hackney Coachmen: And whereas a

'Doubt

'Doubt has ariſen, whether Coachmen licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and who ply out of the ſaid 'Cities, are by Law obliged, on every Day of the Week, at ſeaſonable Times, to go any where 'within the Diſtance of ten Miles from the ſaid Cities; may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may 'be enacted;' and be it enacted by King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Clauſe in the ſaid Act, and all the Powers and Authorities thereby granted, ſhall, from the Time of paſſing this Act, be deemed, conſtrued, and taken to extend to all and every Perſon and Perſons ſo licenſed, who ſhall ply for Hire, as well within the Weekly Bills of Mortality and the Suburbs of the ſaid Cities of London or Weſtminſter, as within the ſaid reſpective Cities.

To extend to all licenſed Perſons in London and Weſtminſter.

'II. And whereas a great Number of Perſons licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners to uſe and keep 'for Hire Hackney Coaches, regularly uſe and employ the ſame as Stated Stages to and from different 'Towns and Places in the Neighbourhood of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Borough 'of Southwark, which is of great publick Utility and Convenience, ſome of which Towns and Places 'are within, and others without the Weekly Bills of Mortality: And whereas a Doubt has ariſen, 'whether by the Laws now in Force relating to Hackney Coaches, ſuch Perſons being licenced in the 'uſual and general Form, are not compellable to do the ordinary Work of Hackney Coaches, and to carry 'Fares for Hire, to any Parts or Places within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within the Diſtance 'of ten Miles thereof, which would be attended not only with great Inconvenience to the Inhabitants of 'ſuch Towns and Places, but might alſo be a great leſſening to his Majeſty's Revenue ariſing from Hackney 'Coaches;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches, or any other Perſon or Perſons having Authority to put any of the Laws in Execution concerning licenſed Hackney Coachmen, their Renters, or their Drivers, ſhall not be compelled or compellable to fine or puniſh any licenſed Hackney Coachman, his Renter or Driver, for refuſing to carry a Fare out of the ordinary Courſe of his Stage-work or Duty, who ſhall regularly uſe and employ his Coach, ſo licenſed, as a Stage Coach to and from any of the Towns or Places in the Neighbourhood of the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter; and who ſhall alſo, by Painting in legible Characters on the Door of ſuch Coach, or by a Board, to be painted in legible Characters, and affixed on the Door of every ſuch Coach, plainly denote and diſtinguiſh the ſame to be a Stage Coach to and from any ſuch Town or Place; any Thing in the above recited Act, or in any other Act relating to Hackney Coaches, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Commiſſioners not to fine or puniſh any Stage Coach Renter or Driver.

CAP. L.

An Act for encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of ſuch Bark ſhall exceed a certain Rate for a limited Time.

'WHEREAS the Manufacture of Leather is of Importance to the Trade of this Kingdom: And 'whereas Oak Bark has of late riſen greatly in its Price, and the preſent Duties upon the Im'portation of Foreign Bark amounts to a total Prohibition of the ſame;' may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of June, in this preſent Year, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, all Subſidies Cuſtoms, Duties, and Impoſitions whatſoever impoſed, and now payable by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament on the Importation of Oak Bark into Great Britain, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

Revived and continued for 5 Years, by 24 Geo. 3. Seſſ. 2. c. 19.

All Cuſtoms payable by former Acts to ceaſe.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of June, there ſhall be paid on the Importation of Oak Bark a Duty of one Penny for each Hundred Weight of Oak Bark ſo imported into this Kingdom; which ſhall and may be raiſed, levied, collected, and recovered by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures as the Duty for any Goods or Merchandiſe imported into Great Britain, may be raiſed, levied, collected, or recovered by any Act of Parliament now in Force, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating thereto, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Duty of 1d. per Cwt. to be paid on Importation of foreign Bark.

III. Provided always, That at all Times hereby, when the Price of Oak Bark ſhall be under ten Pounds for the Load of Hatch Bark, containing forty-five hundred Weight, delivered at the Buyers Warehouſes in the City of London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or when the Price of Oak Bark in the Rinds ſhall be under two Pounds ten Shillings for the Load of Rinds, containing thirty Yards, when the ſame are ſet three Rinds thick with two Skirts and a Cover, delivered at the Buyers Warehouſes within the City of London, or Weekly Bills of Mortality; then, and in either of theſe Caſes, no Oak Bark whatſoever ſhall be allowed to be imported into Great Britain; any Thing in this Act, or any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

When the Price is under 10l. per Load; or in the Rind, 2l. 10s.

no Oak Bark to be imported.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall import or cauſe to be imported, any Oak Bark, when the Price of the Load of Hatch is in London, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, delivered at the Buyers Warehouſes under the Price of ten Pounds per Load of Hatch, or when the Price of the Load of Rinds ſhall be under two Pounds ten Shillings for the Load of Rinds, when the ſame are ſet, and containing as aforeſaid, delivered at the Buyers Warehouſes, within the City of London, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſuch Oak Bark ſo imported ſhall be forfeited, and the Importer thereof ſhall, over and above, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds for each Load of Hatch or Rinds ſo imported; to be recovered and applied in Manner herein after directed.

Penalty.

'V. And, in order to aſcertain the Price of Oak Bark in London, and within the Weekly Bills of 'Mortality,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, a Regiſter or Regiſters ſhall be kept by the Clerk of the Tanners Company of the Prices at which Oak Bark is bought by all and every Perſon or Perſons reſiding in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or by any other Perſon or Perſons for the Uſe of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons.

To aſcertain the Price, Regiſters be kept, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have purchaſed, or cauſed to be purchaſed, five Loads of Hatch Bark, each Load containing forty-five hundred Weight, ſhall, within ten Days after ſuch Bargain or Purchaſe, give, or cauſe to be given in to the Clerk of the Tanners Company, a Note in Writing, ſpecifying the Date of ſuch Bargain or Purchaſe, the Name or Names of the Purchaſer or Purchaſers, the Name or Names of the Seller or Sellers, and their reſpective Places of Abode, and alſo the Quantity of Hatch ſo purchaſed, together with the Price paid, or to be paid for the ſame, and ſhall deliver and pay to the Clerk, with every ſuch Note one Shilling; and the Clerk of the ſaid Company ſhall, within twenty-four Hours after receiving ſuch Note in Writing, as aforeſaid, enter the ſame in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpoſe; and in caſe any Tanner or other Perſon or Perſons reſiding in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhall purchaſe any Oak Bark in the Rinds, or by any other Mode or Manner whatſoever, amounting in Quantity to twenty Loads of Rinds, each Load containing thirty Yards of Rinds, when the ſame are ſet three Rinds thick as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo purchaſing ſhall, within ten Days after ſuch Purchaſe, give, or cauſe to be given in to the Clerk of the Tanners Company, a Note in Writing, ſpecifying the Date of ſuch Bargain or Purchaſe, the Name or Names of the Purchaſer or Purchaſers, and Seller or Sellers, and their reſpective Places of Abode, and the Quantity of Rinds or Bark ſo purchaſed by the Load, each Load containing thirty Yards of Rinds, when the ſame are ſet three Rinds thick as aforeſaid, the Price paid or to be paid for the ſame, together with the County at which ſuch Bark was taken off the Trees; and ſhall alſo deliver and pay to the Clerk, with every ſuch Note, the Sum of one Shilling; and the Clerk of the ſaid Company ſhall in like Manner, within twenty-four Hours after receiving ſuch Note in Writing, as aforeſaid, enter the ſame in a Book or Books to be kept for the Purpoſe.

Perſons purchaſing five Loads, ſhall give in a Note.

VII. And be it further enacted, That ſuch Regiſter and Regiſters, Book or Books, ſo to be kept as aforeſaid, ſhall and may be inſpected, at all convenient Times, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, without any Fee or Reward to be demanded or taken for the ſame.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That when it ſhall appear, from the Entries to be made as aforeſaid, that the average Price of the Hatch Bark does amount to ten Pounds per Load, each Load containing forty-five hundred Weight, or that the average Price of Rind Bark does amount to two Pounds ten Shillings per Load, each Load containing thirty Yards of Rinds, when the ſame are ſet three Rinds thick as aforeſaid, delivered at the Buyers Warehouſes; then, or in any of theſe Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful for three or more of the ſaid Purchaſers of Hatch or Rind Bark as aforeſaid, within the City of London, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, and they are hereby required to certify to the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or any two of the Aldermen thereof, the average Price of the Load of Hatch or Rind Bark (each Load reſpectively containing as aforeſaid), for the Space of one Month preceding; and the ſaid three or more Purchaſers ſhall reſpectively make Oath, that the Note given in by them to the Clerk of the Tanners Company, contains a true Account of the Price paid for the Bark; and the ſaid Clerk of the Tanners Company ſhall make Oath of the Truth of his Entries agreeable to the Notes in Writing ſo delivered in to him as aforeſaid, whereupon the ſaid Mayor or Aldermen ſhall, and they are hereby required to ſign the ſame, and to deliver the ſame, as ſoon as conveniently may be, to the Collector or Receiver of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at the Port of London, who ſhall, and is hereby required to publiſh the ſame in the London Gazette; from and after which Publication, no more than one Penny per Hundred Weight ſhall be demanded or taken by any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any other Perſon whatſoever, on the Importation of any Oak Bark into Great Britain.

The average Price for one Month to be certified to the Lord Mayor, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That on the firſt Tueſday of every Month, after the Importation of Oak Bark ſhall be permitted in Manner aforeſaid, the Clerk of the ſaid Tanners Company ſhall, in Writing, certify upon Oath to the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or any two of the Aldermen thereof, the average Price of Oak Bark by the Load of Hatch or Rinds, each Load reſpectively containing as aforeſaid; for which Certificate the ſaid Clerk ſhall receive a Fee of ſix Shillings and eight Pence; and if from ſuch Certificate it ſhall appear that the Price of Oak Bark is under ten Pounds the Load of Hatch, or that the Price of Rind Bark is under two Pounds ten Shillings the Load, each Load of Hatch and Rind containing reſpectively as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Certificate ſhall be ſigned and tranſmitted to the Collector of the Cuſtoms as aforeſaid, and ſhall be publiſhed in the next London Gazette; from and after which Publication no Oak Bark ſhall be imported into this Kingdom till the Price ſhall amount to ten Pounds per Load of Hatch Bark, or to two Pounds ten Shillings per Load of Rind Bark, each Load containing reſpectively as aforeſaid, and the Importation thereof be again permitted in Manner above directed. Provided always that no Certificate to be produced to the Lord Mayor or Aldermen as aforeſaid ſhall affect the Importation of Oak Bark, unleſs it ſhall appear that the Quantities tities purchaſed within the Space of one Month, and duly regiſtered as directed by this Act, ſhall exceed one hundred Loads of Hatch, or three hundred Loads of Rind Bark, each Load containing reſpectively as aforeſaid.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons purchaſing Bark within the Limits aforeſaid ſhall neglect, for the Space of fourteen Days, to give in a Note in Writing to the Clerk of the Tanners Company of his or their Purchaſe or Purchaſes, purſuant to the Directions of this Act, or ſhall give in a falſe Note, or a Note deficient in any of the Particulars aforeſaid, every Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; to be recovered and applied in Manner herein after directed: And if the Clerk of the ſaid Tanners Company ſhall refuſe or neglect, for the Space of three Days, to enter the ſaid Note or Notes, after the ſame ſhall be delivered to him as aforeſaid, he ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; to be recovered and applied in Manner herein after directed. Perſons neglecting to give in Notes to forfeit 20l.

XI. Provided always, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall bona fide give any Order or Orders for the Importation of Oak Bark, during the Time that ſuch Bark was allowed to be imported, on Payment of the Duty of one Penny per Hundred Weight, but which Bark ſhall not arrive till after the Importation thereof was ſtopped in Manner aforeſaid, ſuch Oak Bark ſhall and may (upon ſufficient Proof being made to the Collector of the Cuſtoms, by producing Copies of the Orders and Affidavits to verify the ſame, that the Orders for ſuch Bark were given while the ſame was allowed to be imported upon Payment of the ſaid Duty) be entered and imported upon Payment of the Duty aforeſaid. Orders given during the Time allowed hereby to be valid.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Lord Mayor or Aldermen ſhall, within the Space of ten Days after ſuch Certificate has been made and delivered as aforeſaid, have reaſon to ſuſpect, or if Affidavit ſhall be made before him or them that the ſaid Certificate was not truly or bona fide made, or that the ſame does not contain the true Particulars of the Bargains therein ſpecified; then, and in any ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Mayor or Aldermen, and he or they are hereby required, to ſummon before him or them reſpectively any Perſon or Perſons, and to examine them reſpectively upon Oath, which Oath the ſaid Mayor or Aldermen are hereby authoriſed to adminiſter, touching the Rates and Prices of Oak Bark, or any other Matter or Thing contained in the ſaid Certificate. Lord Mayor, &c. to examine Offenders.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſwearing to the Certificates, or to the Entries and Notes as above directed, or who ſhall be examined on Oath, purſuant to the Directions of this Act, ſhall wilfully forſwear him or herſelf, or themſelves, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſubject and liable to be proſecuted as for Perjury, by Indictment or Information, by due Courſe of Law; and, if convicted, ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties that Perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are ſubject and liable to. Perjury.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Oak Bark which ſhall be ſeized and condemned in purſuance of this Act, and all Penalties and Forfeitures whatſoever by this Act inflicted, ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney-General, or in the Name or Names of the Officer or Officers of the Exciſe or Cuſtoms, who ſhall ſeize the ſaid Oak Bark; and one Moiety of the clear Produce ariſing from the Sale of all ſuch Goods, and of the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, after all Charges deducted, ſhall belong to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeiſe, inform, or proſecute for the ſame. Action, &c.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in Force for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament. Continued by 17 Geo. 3. c. 44. § 3.

'WHEREAS the Tonnage of the Ships employed, and of thoſe now building, in order to be employed in the Service of the United Company of Merchants in England trading to the Eaſt Indies, doth greatly exceed the Tonnage of Shipping requiſite to carry on the Trade of the ſaid United Company, to and from the Eaſt Indies: And whereas the building any more Ships for the Service of the ſaid United Company, until thoſe which are now employed, or building to be employed as aforeſaid, ſhall be reduced in Tonnage to the Quantity requiſite for carrying on the ſaid Trade, will occaſion an unneceſſary Conſumption of Oak Timber, fit for building large Ships; for Remedy whereof, and for the more effectually ſecuring a Quantity of Oak Timber of a proper Growth for the Uſe of the Royal Navy;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the eighteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, the ſaid United Company of Merchants trading to the Eaſt Indies, or any Perſon or Perſons employed by the ſaid Company, or any of their Directors, or any of them, ſhall not build, or begin to build, or cauſe any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to build, or begin to build any new Ship (except thoſe now building), for the Service of the ſaid United Company, until the Tonnage of all the Ships employed, or to be employed, in the Trade of the ſaid Company, on Freight to and from the Eaſt Indies, ſhall be reduced to forty-five thouſand Tons, Builders Meaſurement, on Pain that the ſaid Company, and every other Perſon and Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every Ship which ſhall be built, or begun to be built, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of five thouſand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; one Moiety whereof ſhall be for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, together with full Coſts of Suit, for the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

East India Company not to build new Ships (thoſe now building excepted), till the Tonnage be reduced to 45,000 Tons.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid eighteenth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, until the Tonnage of all the Ships employed, or to be employed, in the Service of the ſaid United Company trading to the Eaſt Indies, on Freight to and from the Eaſt Indies, ſhall be reduced to forty-five thouſand Tons, Builders Meaſurement, the ſaid United Company, or any Perſon or Perſons employed by the ſaid Company, or any of their Directors, or any of them, ſhall not in any Manner whatſoever, charter, contract for, or hire any Ship for the Uſe of the ſaid Company, unleſs ſuch Ship ſhall have been built, or begun to be built, on or before the ſaid eighteenth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, on Pain that the ſaid Company, and every other Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every Ship which ſhall be ſo chartered, contracted for, or hired as laſt mentioned, forfeit and pay the Sum of five thouſand Pounds of like lawful Money; one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, together with full Coſts of Suit, to the Uſe of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered in Manner aforeſaid.

on Penalty of 5000 l. for each Offence.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing herein before contained ſhall be deemed, or conſtrued to extend, to prohibit the ſaid United Company from building, contracting for, or hiring, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of this Act, any Ship or Ships whatſoever in India, or in any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, for their Uſe or Service; or from building, contracting for, or hiring within this Kingdom, during the Continuance of this Act, any Ship or Ships, not exceeding ſix in Number in the Whole, nor in Burthen three hundred Tons reſpectively, to be employed as Packets, or Advice Boats, in the ſaid United Company's Service, and that all ſuch laſt mentioned Ships which ſhall be built in India, or in any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, ſhall be, to all Intents and Purpoſes, conſidered and deemed to be Britiſh-built Ships; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Perſon ſhall be ſued by Action of Debt for any pecuniary Forfeiture or Penalty impoſed by this Act, it ſhall be ſufficient for the Plaintiff in ſuch Action to declare that the Defendant is indebted to him in the Sum of five thouſand Pounds, being forfeited by an Act paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, For the more effectually ſecuring a Quantity of Oak Timber for the Uſe of the Royal Navy.

Act to be given in Evidence.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing herein contained, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within the Space of ſix Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and ſhall be laid in the County or Place where the Cauſe of Action ſhall ariſe; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial thereupon, for his and their Defence; and if upon ſuch Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his or their Action or Suit, or if Judgment be given for the Defendant or Defendants upon Demurrer or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts to him or them awarded againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. Treble Coſts.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and allowed to be a Publick Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Publick Act.

CAP. LV.

An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes, in relation to the Trade carried on between Great Britain and Ireland.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation), no Goods or Commodities, the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Africa, Aſia, or America, can be imported into this Kingdom from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from thoſe of the ſaid Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from thoſe Ports where ſuch Goods can only, or are, or have uſually been firſt ſhipped for Tranſportation: And whereas, notwithſtanding the ſaid recited Act, Rum, Sugar, Coffee, and other American and Aſiatic Goods have been entered outwards for Exportation in the Kingdom of Ireland, to be imported into Great Britain, and have been clandeſtinely and illegally landed in this Kingdom, contrary to the ſaid recited Act, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue of Cuſtoms, and the Detriment of the fair Trader: For Remedy whereof, may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Rum, Sugar, Coffee, or any other Goods whatſoever, which are prohibited to be imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or which are liable to Forfeiture upon being ſo imported, by any Act or Acts of Parliament made in this Kingdom, ſhall be exported or entered for Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain; nor ſhall any Cocket or Clearance be granted in Ireland for the Exportation of ſuch Goods to Great Britain, any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding. 12 Car. 2. No Rum, Sugar, &c. prohibited from Ireland to Britain, ſhall be exported.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant, or other Perſon, ſhall enter any ſuch Goods for Exportation to any Foreign Ports, or other Place whatſoever, and ſuch Goods ſhall, nevertheleſs, be carried to Great Britain, and landed there, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Drawback paid, or to be paid, for the ſame ſhall be forfeited; and the Exporter of ſuch Goods, and the Maſter of the Ship or Veſſel on board which the ſame were loaden and exported, and every Perſon concerned or aſſiſting in the Exportation or Landing of the ſaid Goods, whether any Drawback has been or is to be paid for the ſame or not, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value of the ſaid Goods, and the Ship or Veſſel, on board which ſuch Goods were laden and exported, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, ſhall alſo be forfeited; and ſhall and may be ſeized and proſecuted by any Officer of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain or Ireland: And the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures herein-before mentioned ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered, in ſuch and the like Manner as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law of the Revenue may be ſued for and recovered in the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland reſpectively; one Moiety of which Penalties and Forfeitures (after deducting the Charges of Proſecution), ſhall be to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Officer of the Cuſtoms as ſhall ſue and proſecute for the ſame. Merchants entering Goods for Exportation to foreign Ports, and landing them in Britain, ſhall forfeit the Drawback, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, the Exporter or Perſon having the Direction of the Voyage, and the Maſter or Perſon having the Charge or Command of the Ship or Veſſel on board which any Goods ſhall be entered for Exportation to Foreign Parts, in order to obtain a Drawback thereon, ſhall ſwear upon the Debenture that the ſaid Goods are really and bona fide intended to be exported to the Port or Place mentioned in the Entry, and to no other; and that no Part thereof is relanded, or intended to be relanded in any Part of Ireland, or in Great Britain, or the Iſle of Man, or the Iſlands of Faro or Ferro; nor to be tranſhipped or put on board any Ship or Veſſel, unleſs in caſe of real Diſtreſs, to ſave the ſaid Goods from periſhing. Exporter, &c. to obtain a Drawback, ſhall ſwear upon the Debenture, &c.

'IV. And, for the better preventing Frauds in relanding in Ireland any Goods which are intitled to a 'Drawback or Bounty on Exportation from thence to this Kingdom,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Drawback or Bounty ſhall be allowed or paid for any Goods exported or entered for Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain, until a Certificate ſhall be produced under the Hands and Seals of Office of the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms for the Port where ſuch Goods ſhall be landed in Great Britain, teſtifying the landing thereof; which Certificate ſhall alſo expreſs the exact Weight, Meaſure, or Quantity of the Goods ſo landed, with the Number and Marks of the Caſks, Bales, or other Packages, in which ſuch Goods ſhall be contained. No Drawback allowed, till Certificate produced by Collector, &c.

'V. And the better to prevent the clandeſtine importing and landing of foreign Brandy, Rum, Strong 'Waters, or other Spirits in ſmall Veſſels, which hover upon the Coaſts of Ireland,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Britiſh Clandeſtine importing of foreign Brandy, Rum, &c. how to be prevented.

Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Ireland, either from the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, or from Great Britain, in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever under the Burthen of ſeventy Tons; or if any foreign Brandy, Strong Waters, or other Spirits, ſhall, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, be imported or brought from any other Port or Place whatſoever, in foreign Parts, into the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, in any Ship or Veſſel under the Burthen of one hundred Tons, except only for the Uſe of the Seamen then belonging to and on board ſuch Ships or Veſſels reſpectively, not exceeding two Gallons for each ſuch Seaman, every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, and alſo all ſuch Brandy, Rum, Strong Waters, or other Spirits, ſhall, in each and every ſuch Caſe, be forfeited; and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Revenue in Ireland, and proſecuted, tried, determined, recovered, and diſpoſed of, in ſuch and the like Manner as any Forfeitures incurred by the Laws now in Force in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland againſt the running, or intending to run, Goods into that Kingdom, may, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force in that Kingdom, be proſecuted, tried, determined, recovered, and diſpoſed of.

General Iſſue.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as Defendants have in other Caſes by Law.

Treble Coſts. See 18 Geo. 3. c. 55. 20 Geo. 3. c. 6. 10. and 18. and Index, Tit. Ireland.

CAP. LVI.

An Act to continue ſeveral Laws relating to the Allowance upon the Exportation of Britiſh-made Gunpowder; to the giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores from the Britiſh Colonies in America; to the further encouraging the Manufacture of Britiſh Sail Cloth, and to the Duties payable on Foreign Sail Cloth; to the granting a Liberty to carry Sugars of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any of his Majeſty's Sugar Colonies, directly into Foreign Parts, in Ships built in Great Britain, and navigated according to Law; to the free Importation of Cattle from Ireland; and to the regulating the Fees of Officers of the Cuſtoms, and Naval Officers in America.

WHEREAS the Laws herein-after mentioned have, by Experience been found uſeful and beneficial, and are near expiring; may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting an Allowance upon the Exportation of Britiſh-made Gunpowder, which was to continue in Force for five Years, from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, made in the tenth, ſixteenth, twenty-fourth, and the thirty-firſt Years of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, and the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

ſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, on the Behalf of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, to treat, contract, and agree for the abſolute Purchaſe or Sale, Releaſe, or Surrender, to or for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any Eſtate or Eſtates of Inheritance, in any Lands, Meſſuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which they ſhall judge to be by their Situation, and in other Reſpects, convenient and fit for the Purpoſes intended by this Act, with the Owner and Owners of ſuch reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates of Inheritance, for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, or upon ſuch other Terms or Conditions as they ſhall think fitting; and that upon the executing of ſuch Contracts or Agreements, by or on the Behalf of ſuch Owner or Owners as aforeſaid, or upon executing ſuch other Conveyances, Aſſignments, Releaſes, or Surrenders, as in ſuch Contract or Contracts ſhall be agreed on for that Purpoſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, and they are hereby impowered to order and direct the Payment of the ſaid Sum of five thouſand Pounds; and likewiſe, in caſe that Sum ſhall not be ſufficient, then by and out of any Monies ariſing, or to ariſe to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, of or for any Cuſtoms, Subſidies, Impoſitions, or other Duties, upon the Importation or Exportation of any Goods or Merchandizes whatſoever, already granted or payable or hereafter to be granted or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in Great Britain, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, to order and direct the Payment of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money from Time to Time, as ſhall be ſo contracted or agreed on for ſuch Purchaſe or Purchaſes, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as, according to the Terms of ſuch Contracts or Agreements, ſhall be intitled to have and receive the ſame.

The Meſſuages ſo to be purchaſed to be veſted in the Crown, for erecting a Lazaret.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and immediately after ſuch Payment of the Purchaſe-money to the Perſon or Perſons ſo intitled to receive the ſame as aforeſaid, the ſeveral Lands, Meſſuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premiſes, and ſuch Contracts or Agreements mentioned or compriſed, or intended ſo to be, together with all Rights, Members, Eaſements, and Appurtenances whatſoever, to the ſame, or any Part thereof, belonging and uſually held and enjoyed therewith, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, from Time to Time, unalienably, veſted in the Crown, for the Purpoſes of making, erecting, or eſtabliſhing there a Lazaret or Lazarets; and his Majeſty, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, ſhall for ever have, hold, and enjoy the ſame, againſt ſuch Vendor and Vendors reſpectively; and all and every Perſon and Perſons, claiming, or to claim, by, from, or under them, or any of them, freed and diſcharged of and from all former Entails, and from all Incumbrances whatſoever made or granted of the Premiſes, or any Part thereof: And the Receipt or Receipts of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as ſhall be intitled or authoriſed to receive ſuch Purchaſe-money as aforeſaid, under his or their Hands reſpectively, teſtifying the Payment of the ſame, or any Part thereof, by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they, or any three of them, ſhall order and direct to pay the ſame, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſuch Receipt or Receipts ſhall be given for: And his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall be abſolutely acquitted and diſcharged of and from the ſaid Monies, notwithſtanding any Miſapplication of the ſame, or any Part thereof.

Price of ſuch Premiſes may be ſettled by a Jury.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as often as any Difference ſhall ariſe concerning ſuch Purchaſe, or the Price or Conſideration between the ſaid Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, and the Owner or Owners of ſuch Lands, Meſſuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as aforeſaid, their Guardians or Truſtees (not being the Dwelling-houſe of ſuch Owner or Owners, or Park, Garden, Orchard, Yard, or planted Walk, or Avenue to ſuch Houſe), it ſhall and may be lawful for any one or more Perſon or Perſons, to be appointed for that Purpoſe by his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, under his or their Sign Manual, and ſuch Perſon and Perſons are hereby authoriſed, thirty Days at the leaſt before any General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace to be held for the reſpective Counties or Diviſions where ſuch Premiſes as aforeſaid ſhall reſpectively lie, to give, or cauſe to be given, to ſuch reſpective Owner or Owners, or to be left at their laſt Places of Abode reſpectively, a Notice in Writing, deſcribing the ſaid Premiſes, and purporting, that the Price or Conſideration of ſuch Premiſes will be adjuſted and ſettled by a Jury at the ſaid Seſſions: And the Juſtices, at their ſaid Seſſions, upon Proof to them made of ſuch Notice or Notices given, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required to charge the Jury which ſhall attend at the ſaid Seſſions, or ſome other Jury of twelve honeſt and ſubſtantial Men (to be then and there impannelled and returned by the Sheriff of the County, without Fee or Reward), and cauſe to be ſworn well and truly on their Oaths, to aſſeſs the Value of the Premiſes compriſed in ſuch Notices, and the Price or Conſideration to be given for the ſame, to the reſpective Owner or Owners thereof, according to their reſpective Intereſts therein, which Oath the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter to the ſaid Jury; and to which ſaid Jury, the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo to be appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the Parties intereſted in ſuch Premiſes, ſhall have their lawful Challenges; and the ſaid Jury, being ſo ſworn and charged as aforeſaid, after proper Evidence, on Oath, given to them, ſhall, by their Verdict, aſſeſs the Price or Conſideration to be given for ſuch Premiſes to the reſpective Owner or Owners thereof, according to their reſpective Intereſts therein; which Verdict of the ſaid Jury, and Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices thereupon, ſhall be concluſive, and finally bind all Parties; and from and after ſuch Verdict and Judgment, and paying ſuch Price or other Conſideration, the ſaid Premiſes ſhall veſt in and be held by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Manner and for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

and

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for the further Encouragement of the Herring Fiſhery on the Coaſts of the Iſle of Man; and for obviating a Doubt which has ariſen with reſpect to the allowing the Bounties upon the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one.

'WHEREAS it is neceſſary that ſome further Encouragement ſhould be given to the Inhabitants 'of the Iſle of Man, to engage in and carry on the Herring Fiſhery on the Coaſts thereof; 'may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, it ſhall and may be lawful to import, and bring into any Part of Great Britain, any Sort of Herrings caught upon the Coaſts of the Iſle of Man, and cured there, upon Payment of the Duties herein-after mentioned; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding; that is to ſay, For every Barrel of White Herrings, containing thirty-two Gallons, three Shillings and four Pence, and for every thouſand of Red Herrings one Shilling and eight Pence, and after thoſe Rates for any greater or leſs Quantities of ſuch Herrings reſpectively.

Any Sort of Herrings, caught and cured near the Iſle of Man, may be brought into Great Britain, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duties which ſhall be charged upon ſuch Herrings, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be raiſed, levied, and recovered by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and applied to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as are directed and preſcribed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, which are now in Force, reſpecting the Duties upon Fiſh brought or imported into England, from that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland; and the ſaid Herrings ſo imported from the Iſle of Man, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall, in all Reſpects, be ſubject and liable to the ſame Rules and Regulations, as ſuch Herrings brought from Scotland are liable to by Law, except in ſuch Caſes where any Alteration is made by this Act.

Herrings from the Iſle of Man liable to the ſame Duties as thoſe brought from Scotland.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter or other Perſon, having the Charge of the Ship ſo importing ſuch Herrings, ſhall bring with him a Certificate or Certificates from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magiſtrates for the Time being, that Oath has been made before him or them, in the Preſence of the Officer of the Cuſtoms for the Port or Place where ſuch Herrings ſhall be put on board, that the ſame were bona fide taken on the Coaſts of the Iſle of Man and cured there; which Certificate or Certificates ſhall alſo be atteſted by the ſaid Officer of the Cuſtoms, and ſhall expreſs the Number of Barrels, and Quantity of ſuch Herrings reſpectively, and the Marks of the Package expreſſed in the Bill or Bills of Lading, with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall have made the Oath herein-before directed, and where and to whom ſuch Herrings ſhall be conſigned in Great Britain; and the Maſter or Perſon taking Charge of the Ship or Veſſel importing the ſame, ſhall alſo make Oath before the Collector or Principal Officer of the Salt Duties, at the Port or Place of Importation in Great Britain, that the ſaid Herrings are the ſame that were taken on board, by virtue of the ſaid Certificate or Certificates, ſo to be produced; on Failure whereof, or of any of the Requiſites herein-before mentioned, the Herrings ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as ſuch Herrings would have been liable to by Law, if this Act had not been made.

Certificate, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, it ſhall and may be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Subjects, inhabiting and reſiding in the Iſle of Man, to export from thence, and import into any Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in Britiſh Ships or Veſſels, manned and navigated according to an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, (intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation), Herrings caught and cured by them, in the ſame Manner as Victuals of and from Ireland may be imported into the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, by an Act made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the ſaid King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade); any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Inhabitants of the Iſle of Man may export Herrings to the Britiſh Colonies.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Fiſherman inhabiting the Iſle of Man, to load there, on board any Veſſel or Boat employed in the Fiſhery on the Coaſts of the ſaid Iſland, any Quantity of Salt which ſhall be ſufficient and neceſſary for curing the Cargo of Herrings taken by ſuch Veſſel or Boat, Bond being firſt given to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with one ſufficient Surety beſides the Maſter, to be approved of by the Collector, or other Principal Officer of his Majeſty's Revenue, at the Port or Place from whence ſuch Veſſel or Boat ſhall depart, in the Penalty of fifty Pounds for every Ton of Salt which ſhall be ſo taken on board, with Condition that the ſame ſhall be uſed only in the curing of ſuch Herrings, and ſhall not be landed in any Part of Great Britain, or tranſhipped, or put on board any other Ship or Veſſel; and on Return of ſuch

Quantity of Salt neceſſary for curing ſuch Herrings may be loaded on board any Veſſel, Bond being given, &c.

ſuch Veſſel or Boat from the Fiſhery into any Port or Place in the ſaid Iſle of Man, the Maſter and one of the Crew belonging to and employed on board ſuch Veſſel or Boat, during the whole Voyage, ſhall make Oath before the Collector, or other Principal Officer of his Majeſty's Revenue, at the neareſt Port where they ſhall arrive, (which Oath ſuch Collector or other Officer is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter), that the Salt ſo laden in ſuch Veſſel or Boat (excepting ſuch Part thereof, as may remain unuſed on board) has been really and truly expended in curing the Herrings caught and taken by them, and that no Part thereof had been landed in any Part of Great Britain, or tranſhipped, or put on board any other Ship or Veſſel; which Bond ſhall continue in Force for one Year from and after the Completion of the Voyage: And in caſe no Fraud appears within that Time, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Receiver-General of his Majeſty's Revenue in the Iſle of Man, or his Deputy, to direct the ſaid Bond to be cancelled and delivered up.

CAP. LIX.

An Act for veſting in his Majeſty certain Hereditaments at Richmond, in the County of Surrey, belonging to Catharine Viſcounteſs Fitzwilliam, and held by Leaſe from the Crown; and for veſting the Freehold and Inheritance of certain Leaſehold and Copyhold Hereditaments at Richmond aforeſaid in Truſtees, and their Heirs, in Truſt for the ſaid Catharine Viſcounteſs Fitzwilliam, as a Part of the Compenſation for the ſame, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

CAP. LX.

An Act for granting a Drawback of Part of the Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of Tea to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America; for altering the Drawback upon Foreign Sugars exported from Great Britain to Ireland; for continuing the Bounty on the Exportation of Britiſh made Cordage; for allowing the Importation of Rice from the Britiſh Plantations into the Ports of Briſtol, Liverpoole, Lancaſter, and Whitehaven, for immediate Exportation to Foreign Parts; and to impower the Chief Magiſtrate of any Corporation to adminiſter the Oath, and grant the Certificate required by Law, upon the Removal of certain Goods to London, which have been ſent into the Country for Sale.

7 Geo. 3. c. 56.

'WHEREAS the Drawback allowed by an Act of Parliament, made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of one Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain, and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company as is therein mentioned; for permitting the Exportation of Teas, in ſmaller Quantities than one Lot, to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas, ſeized and condemned, from being conſumed in Great Britain), upon the Exportation of Tea into Ireland, and the Britiſh Plantations in America, from this Kingdom, will ceaſe on the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two: And whereas it may tend to promote and encourage the Importation of Tea into Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, from this Kingdom, and prevent the illicit Trade carried on with Foreigners for that Commodity, if a Drawback of Part of the Cuſtoms paid here was allowed upon the Exportation thereof to thoſe Places: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for and during the Space of five Years, to be computed from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas which ſhall be ſold after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, at the publick Sale of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or which after that Time ſhall be imported by Licence, in purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act for repealing the preſent Inland Duty of four Shillings per Pound Weight upon all Tea ſold in Great Britain, and for granting to his Majeſty certain other Inland Duties, in lieu thereof; and for better ſecuring the Duty upon Tea, and other Duties of Exciſe; and for purſuing Offenders out of one County into another); and which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandiſe to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, three Fifth Parts of the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms which were paid upon the Importation of ſuch Teas; which Drawback or Allowance, with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to Ireland, ſhall be made to the Exporter in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance is now payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of Foreign Goods to Ireland; and with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, the ſaid Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon Foreign Goods, exported to Foreign Parts, was, could, or might be made, before the paſſing of this Act, (except in ſuch Caſes as are otherwiſe provided for by this Act.)

During Five Years a Drawback of Three-fifth Part of Duties of Cuſtoms to be allowed on Teas exported to Ireland or America.

II. Provided

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Drawback allowed by this Act ſhall not be paid or allowed for any Teas which ſhall not be exported directly from the Warehouſe or Warehouſes wherein the ſame ſhall be lodged, purſuant to the Directions of an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, and the before-recited Act, made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second.

No Tea to be exported to Ireland, &c. in Ships of leſs Burthen than 80 Tons, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Tea ſhall be exported, or laden on board any Ship or Veſſel in order to be exported, to the Kingdom of Ireland, or to any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in any Ship of leſs Burthen than eighty Tons, nor in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package whatſoever, other than that in which it was originally imported into Great Britain, nor in any leſs Quantity than the Whole and entire Quantity contained in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package, in which the ſame was ſold at the publick Sale of the ſaid Eaſt India Company, or in which the ſame was imported by Licence, as aforeſaid, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of ſuch Tea, and the Package containing the ſame, or the Value thereof.

Merchants entering Tea for Ireland, or America, and landing it in other Ports, to forfeit, &c.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant, or other Perſon, ſhall enter any Tea for Exportation to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in order to obtain the Drawback allowed by this Act, and ſuch Tea ſhall be carried to any other Part or Place beyond the Seas, and landed there; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Drawback paid, or to be paid for the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and the Exporter of ſuch Tea, and the Maſter of the Ship or Veſſel on board which the ſame was loaden and exported, and every Perſon concerned or aſſiſting in the Exportation, or landing of the ſaid Tea, whether any Drawback hath been or is to be paid for the ſame or not, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value of ſuch Tea.

Manner of Proſecutions.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures, as well ſpecifick as pecuniary, by this Act inflicted, ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney-General, or in the Name or Names of ſome Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, in ſuch and the like Manner and Form, and by the ſame Rules and Regulations, as other Penalties and Forfeitures for Offences againſt the Laws relating to the Cuſtoms may, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Penalty and Forfeiture ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as ſhall inform and proſecute for the ſame.

No Part of the old Subſidy ſhall be repaid for Sugars the Growth of foreign Colonies.

'VI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty 'King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and encouraging the Trade of his Majeſty's 'Sugar Colonies in America, and other Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, no Sort of Sugars 'can be imported into the Kingdom of Ireland, but ſuch only as ſhall be fairly and bona fide loaden and 'ſhipped in Great Britain, and carried directly from thence in Ships navigated according to Law: And 'whereas Sugars, the Growth and Manufacture of Foreign Plantations, not under the Dominion of his 'Majeſty, exported from this Kingdom to Ireland, do draw back all the Duties paid down or ſecured upon 'the Importation of ſuch Sugars, except one Half of the old Subſidy, amounting only to one Shilling and 'ten Pence, and ſixteen Twentieth Parts of a Penny, per Hundred Weight; and it will tend to promote 'the Exportation of Britiſh Sugars from this Kingdom to Ireland, and improve and increaſe the Trade of 'his Majeſty's Sugar Colonies, if the Whole of the old Subſidy was retained upon the Exportation of 'Foreign Sugars to Ireland from this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Part of the Rate or Duty commonly called The Old Subſidy, ſhall be repaid or drawn back for any Sugars, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of any Foreign Colony or Plantation, not under the Dominion of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or for any Sugars which are to be deemed and taken to be Foreign Sugars, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom to Ireland; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Bounty allowed by 6 Geo 3. c. 45 continued for 3 Years.

'VII. And whereas by an Act made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intituled, 'An Act for allowing a Bounty on the Exportation of Britiſh made Cordage; and for diſcontinuing the Draw-'backs upon Foreign Rough Hemp exported), a Bounty was granted upon the Exportation of Britiſh made 'Cordage, under certain Limitations and Reſtrictions in the ſaid Act mentioned; which Bounty will ceaſe 'and determine at the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid 'Bounty ſhould be continued under ſome further Reſtrictions;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Bounty allowed by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby continued from the Expiration thereof, for the further Term of three Years, under the ſeveral Regulations and Reſtrictions herein-after provided and expreſſed.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Bounty ſhall be allowed or paid by virtue of this Act for any Cordage, which ſhall be exported, or entered for Exportation, to any Part of Aſia, Africa, or America, the Iſle of Man, or the Iſlands of Faro or Ferro; and that, inſtead of the Oath required by the before-recited Act to be made by the Exporter or Manufacturer of ſuch Cordage, on the Entry or Debenture, ſuch Exporter or Manufacturer ſhall ſwear, that the ſaid Cordage is of Britiſh Manufacture, and made from Hemp imported from Foreign Parts, or from Hemp of the Growth of Great Britain, and not from Hemp of the Growth or Produce of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America; and that the ſame is really and truly exported, or intended to be exported to, and landed in ſome Foreign Part of Europe, as expreſſed in the Entry, by Way of Merchandiſe, and not for the Uſe of the Ship in her Voyage, nor relanded, or intended to be relanded, in any Part of Great Britain, tain, or landed, or intended to be landed, in Aſia, Africa, or America, the Iſle of Man, or the Iſlands of Faro or Ferro.

6 Geo. 3. extend to this Act.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That, in all other reſpects, the ſeveral Regulations, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned and preſcribed in and by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall extend and be applied to Cordage exported in purſuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes relative thereto had been repeated and again enacted in this preſent Act.

Like Liberty of importing Rice from America by 5 Geo. 3. c. 45.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the like Liberty which is granted by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for more effectually ſecuring and encouraging the Trade of his Majeſty's American Dominions; for repealing the Inland Duty on Coffee impoſed by an Act made in the thirty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, and for granting an Inland Duty on all Coffee imported (except Coffee of the Growth of the Britiſh Dominions in America); for altering the Bounties and Drawbacks upon Sugars exported; for repealing Part of an Act made in the twenty-third Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, whereby Bar Iron, made in the ſaid Dominions, was prohibited to be exported from Great Britain, or carried Coaſtwiſe; and for regulating the Fees of the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Dominions), to import Rice from any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, into the Port of Plymouth, and ſeveral other Ports of this Kingdom in the ſaid Act mentioned, for immediate Exportation into Foreign Parts, upon Payment of one Half of the old Subſidy, ſhall be extended to the Ports of Briſtol, Liverpoole, Lancaſter, and Whitehaven, under the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, in all Reſpects, as are preſcribed and directed by the ſaid recited Act, with Reſpect to Rice ſo imported into the ſeveral Ports in the ſaid Act particularly mentioned.

Oath required by 9 Geo. 3. c. 41.

'XI. And whereas by an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intituled, 'An Act for better ſecuring the Duties of Cuſtoms upon certain Goods removed from the Out-ports, and 'other Places, to London; for regulating the Fees of the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the Province of 'Senegambia in Africa; for allowing to the Receivers-General of the Duties on Offices and Employments in 'Scotland a proper Compenſation for their Trouble and Expences; for the better Preſervation of Hollies, Thorns, 'and Quickſets, in Foreſts, Chaces, and private Grounds, and of Trees and Underwoods in Foreſts and Chaces; 'and for authoriſing the Exportation of a limited Quantity of an inferior Sort of Barley called Bigg, from the 'Port of Kirkwall, in the Iſlands of Orkney), it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That if any Foreign 'Baſt or Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſe-hair Hats or Bonnets, Foreign Platting, or other Foreign Manu- 'facture of Baſt, Straw, Chip, Cane, or Horſe-hair, proper for making of Hats or Bonnets, Succus Liquo- 'ritiæ, commonly called Spaniſh Juice, of Foreign Produce or Manufacture, Foreign Snuff, Nanquin 'Cloth, Muſlin, Foreign Callico, Foreign Dimity, or China Earthen-ware, exceeding the Quantities 'therein reſpectively mentioned, ſhall have been imported or ſeized within the Port of London, and ſent from 'thence to any Out-port for Sale, ſuch Goods ſhall not be removed from any Out-port into the Port of 'London, or the Members thereof, or to any Place whatſoever within the Diſtance of twenty Miles from 'the Royal Exchange of London, without a Certificate from the Collector, or other proper Officer of his 'Majeſty's Cuſtoms, at or neareſt to the Port or Place from whence ſuch Goods are intended to be removed, 'certifying that the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Goods hath made Oath before him that the ſaid Goods, 'and every Part thereof, had been ſent to ſuch Owner or Proprietor from London for Sale, in the lawful 'Way of Trade, referring to the Time when, with the Name and Reſidence of the Perſon from whom ſuch 'Goods were ſent, and that ſuch Owner or Proprietor verily believed the Duties payable upon the Import- 'ation of ſuch Goods had been duly paid and ſatisfied, or that the ſaid Goods had been before compounded 'for or condemned; and that the ſaid Certificate ſhall expreſs the Quantity and Quality of the ſaid Goods, 'with the Marks of the Package thereof, to what Places, and to whom the ſame are conſigned, and by what 'Carriage the ſame are intended to be removed; and if the ſaid Goods are removed by Land, the ſaid 'Certificate ſhall alſo expreſs and limit the Time for which the ſame ſhall continue in Force: And whereas 'ſuch Goods are frequently ſent from London for Sale to ſeveral Inland Parts of this Kingdom, very diſtant 'and remote from any Out-port or Place where any Collector, or other Officer of the Cuſtoms is 'reſident, and the Proprietors of ſuch Goods cannot, without great Inconvenience and Expence, make 'the Proof, and obtain the Certificate required by the ſaid recited Act upon the Return of ſuch Goods: 'Now, for Remedy thereof,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any of the ſaid Goods, exceeding the Quantities in the before-recited Act mentioned, which ſhall have been imported or ſeized within the Port of London, and ſent from thence into the Country for Sale, ſhall be afterwards removed by Land from any Place in this Kingdom, which ſhall exceed the Diſtance of five Miles from any Port or Place where any Cuſtom-houſe is eſtabliſhed, or any Collector or other Officer of the Cuſtoms ſhall reſide, in order, and with an Intent, to be brought into the Port of London, or the Members thereof, or to any Place whatſoever within the Diſtance of twenty Miles from the Royal Exchange of London, the ſaid Oath required by the ſaid recited Act ſhall and may be adminiſtered by the Chief Magiſtrate of any Corporation at or neareſt to the Place from whence ſuch Goods are intended to be removed, who is hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter the ſame, and to grant a Certificate thereof, in the Form and to the Effect required by the ſaid recited Act, under his Hand, and the publick Seal of ſuch Corporation; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

to be adminiſtered by the Chief Magiſtrate of any Corporation.

Forfeitures to extend to this.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, inflicted and incurred by the ſaid recited Act upon the Removal of any ſuch Goods, without the Certificate therein directed, or falſely making Oath to any of the Facts by the ſaid Act required to be ſworn, or for counterfeiting, raiſing, or falſifying any ſuch Certificate, or for knowingly knowingly or willingly making uſe of any ſuch Certificate ſo counterfeited, raſed, altered, or falſified, ſhall extend to this Act, and be in full Force againſt every Perſon who ſhall act contrary thereto, in as full and ample Manner as if the ſame had been again particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as Defendants have in other Caſes by Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

CAP. LXI.

An Act to regulate the making, keeping, and Carriage of Gunpowder, within Great Britain, and to repeal the Laws heretofore made for any of thoſe Purpoſes.

'WHEREAS the Manufacture of Gunpowder within Great Britain, though neceſſary to be encouraged in reſpect of the Value of Gunpowder, as an Article of Defence and Commerce, yet ought to be regulated by Law, in order to prevent the great Miſchiefs which may ariſe from Exploſions occaſioned by the improper Conſtruction and Uſe of the Mills, Engines, and Buildings, employed in the making of Gunpowder, and for keeping and carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, or in an improper Manner: And whereas the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reducing into one Act of Parliament the ſeveral Laws relating to the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder, and for more effectually preventing Miſchiefs, by keeping or carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, contains no Proviſion for regulating the making of Gunpowder, and is in other Reſpects defective, on which Account it may be convenient to repeal the ſaid Act, and, in the Room thereof, to have a new Law for regulating, as well the making as the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall uſe, or cauſe to be uſed, any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, or in any Manner manufacture Gunpowder in any Place or Places within Great Britain, except in Mills and other Places where the Manufacture of Gunpowder ſhall be actually carrying on at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, or where it ſhall afterwards become lawful to carry on ſuch Manufacture, by obtaining a Licence for that Purpoſe, under the Proviſions herein-after contained, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured contrary to the aforeſaid Proviſion, and alſo two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſons to manufacture Gunpowder, except, &c. without a Licence.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, for the making of Gunpowder, employ, work, or uſe, any Mill or Engine, worked with a Peſtle or Peſtles, and commonly called a Peſtle Mill, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured therein, and alſo two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſon to uſe a Peſtle Mill.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, in or with any Mill or Engine uſed for the making of Gunpowder, make or cauſe to be made, at any one Time under any ſingle Pair of Mill Stones, any Quantity of Gunpowder, or Materials to be made into Gunpowder, exceeding forty Pounds, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder ſo made at one Time, and exceeding the ſaid Quantity of forty Pounds, and alſo two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Not exceeding 40lb. to be made at any Time under a ſingle Pair of Mill Stones.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be liable to any Proſecution under this Act, for uſing any Peſtle Mill or Mills in the making of Gunpowder, or for making above the Quantity of forty Pounds of Gunpowder at a Time, under every ſingle Pair of Mill Stones in any one Mill, till after the Expiration of one Year from the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Powder Mills at this Time erected in the Pariſhes of Battel, Crowhurſt, Seddelſcomb, and Brede, in the County of Suſſex, ſo far as relates to the making ſuch fine Fowling Gunpowder only, as is known and diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Battle Powder.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall dry, or cauſe to be dried, at any one Time, in any one Stove or Place, uſed for the drying of Gunpowder, any Quantity of Gunpowder exceeding forty hundred Weight, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder above the ſaid Quantity of forty hundred Weight, and the Sum of two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Not exceeding 40 Cwt. to be dried at one Time.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to keep in any Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place, uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, or in any Building adjoining or belonging thereto (except Magazines or Store-houſes conſtructed with Stone or Brick, and ſituate fifty Yards at leaſt from the Gunpowder Mill or Mills),

No greater Quantity than neceſſary to be kept in Drying-houſes.

Mills), any greater Quantity of Gunpowder than ſhall be neceſſary for the immediate Work then carrying on in ſuch Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, upon Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder kept above ſuch neceſſary Quantity, and the Sum of two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Sufficient Magazines to be provided.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, keeping or uſing any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, ſhall, beſides the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes, near their Mills, have or provide a good and ſufficient Magazine or Magazines, remote from their reſpective Mills, for the Purpoſe of receiving and ſafe-keeping all the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, as ſoon as the ſame can, from Time to Time, be conveniently removed thereto (which laſt-mentioned Magazine or Magazines ſhall be well and ſubſtantially built with Brick or Stone, near the River Thames, and below Blackwall, or in ſome other convenient Place to be licenſed by the Juſtices of the Peace, in Manner herein-after mentioned), upon Pain that all and every Perſon or Perſons making Gunpowder, without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines remote from their Mills, or other Places of making Gunpowder, ſhall forfeit the Sum of twenty-five Pounds for every Month during which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall make Gunpowder without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines, and the Sum of five Pounds for every Day during which he, ſhe, or they (not being hindred by Streſs of Weather, or other juſt Impediment) ſhall wilfully neglect or delay removing, with due Diligence, the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, from thence, or from the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes adjoining thereto, to the Magazine or Magazines ſo to be ſituate remote from the Mill.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Maker or Makers of Gunpowder ſhall be liable to any Proſecution under this Act, for not having a Magazine or Magazines remote from their reſpective Gunpowder Mill or Mills, till after the Expiration of one Year, from the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

No Charcoal to be kept within 20 Yards.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Maker and Makers of Gunpowder, who ſhall keep, or permit to be kept, any Charcoal within twenty Yards of any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for making Gunpowder, or of any Drying, Corning, or Duſting-houſe, or Magazine or Storehouſe thereto belonging, ſhall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds for every Week during which ſuch Charcoal ſhall be ſo kept.

Dealers not to keep more than 200lb. of Gunpowder.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall have or keep, at any one Time, being a Dealer or Dealers in Gunpowder, more than two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder; and not being ſuch, more than fifty Pounds of Gunpowder, in any Houſe, Mill, Magazine, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Yard, Wharf, or other Building or Place, occupied by the ſame Perſon or Perſons (all Buildings and Places adjoining to each other, and occupied together, being to be deemed one Houſe or Place within this Act), or on any River, or other Water (except in Carriages loading or unloading or paſſing on the Land, or in Ships, Boats, or Veſſels, loading or unloading, or paſſing on any River, or other Water, or detained there by the Tide or bad Weather), within the following Limits; (that is to ſay,) within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within three Miles of either of them, or within any City, Borough, or Market Town of Great Britain, or one Mile of the ſame, or within two Miles of any Palace or Houſe of Reſidence of his preſent Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of her preſent Majeſty the Queen, or any Queen Conſort, or Dowager, or within two Miles of any Gunpowder Magazine, belonging to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or within Half of a Mile of any Pariſh Church, or in any other Part of Great Britain (except in Mills or other Places which at the Commencement of this Act ſhall be uſed for the making of Gunpowder, and the Magazines, Storehouſes, and Offices thereto adjoining and belonging, and in the Places where it ſhall be lawful to make Gunpowder, or to keep greater or unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, by Force of the Proviſions herein-after contained), on Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder beyond the Quantity hereby allowed to be kept, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be; and alſo two Shillings for every Pound of Gunpowder beyond ſuch allowed Quantity.

500lb. may be kept for Mines.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to keep, for the Uſe of any Mine or Colliery, any Quantity of Gunpowder, not exceeding three hundred Pounds Weight, in any Magazine or Warehouſe, ſo as ſuch Magazine or Warehouſe be within two hundred Yards of the reſpective Mine or Colliery for the Uſe of which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be kept, and alſo that ſuch Magazine or Warehouſe be not within any of the Limits herein before particularly deſcribed.

Manner of giving Notice for conſtructing new Mills.

'XIII. And whereas it may be neceſſary to have ſome Places appointed, in which it may be lawful 'to erect new Mills, or other Engines, for making Gunpowder, with proper Magazines and Offices ad-'joining thereto, and to have Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in Places where 'there are no Mills;' be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace for each County, or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, upon Application made to them by any Perſon or Perſons (ſuch Perſon or Perſons having given Notice in Writing of the Intention to make ſuch Application, as alſo of the Place or Places propoſed for ſuch Purpoſes reſpectively, fourteen Days before making it, to an Overſeer or Churchwarden of the Pariſh or Place in which it is propoſed to erect or make any ſuch new Mill, and Offices or Magazine, or of an adjoining Pariſh, if the Place ſhall be extraparochial; which Overſeer or Churchwarden is hereby required to cauſe ſuch Notice to be publickly read on the Sunday next enſuing, in the Pariſh Church after Divine Service), from Time to Time, to licenſe the erecting or having ſuch Mills for making Gunpowder, and proper Offices adjoining thereto, or ſuch Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſuch Places not not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits within Great Britain, herein-before particularly deſcribed.

'XIV. And whereas it would be proper that the Determination of the ſaid Court of Quarter-Seſſions, 'on any ſuch Application, ſhould not be final, but that any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be refuſed ſuch 'Licence or Appointment by the ſaid Court of Quarter-Seſſions, ſhould have an Opportunity of bringing 'his or their Caſe before the Court of King's Bench, in order that the ſaid Court may finally hear and 'determine the ſame;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Caſe where the ſaid Court of Quarter-Seſſions ſhall, on ſuch Application made as aforeſaid, refuſe to licenſe any ſuch new Mills and Magazines for making and keeping Gunpowder, or to appoint Pieces of Ground for Magazines of Gunpowder, remote from any Mills, it ſhall be lawful for all Perſons who may think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch Refuſal, to apply to ſuch Court of Quarter-Seſſions, for a Special Caſe thereupon; and the Juſtices then preſent ſhall, and are hereby required, to certify the Special Circumſtances of the Caſe in queſtion, together with the Proofs offered for and againſt the Application, in order that the ſaid Caſe and Proceedings may be removed, by Writ of Certiorari, into the Court of King's Bench; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby required, in their Return to ſuch Writ of Certiorari, to ſtate ſuch Special Caſe, to the End that the ſaid Court of King's Bench may judge of the real Merits thereof; and if upon the whole Matter it ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Court of King's Bench, that the Juſtices ought not to have refuſed the ſaid Licence or Appointment, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Court ſhall have Power, and is hereby directed to make an Order upon the ſaid Juſtices to grant ſuch Licence, or make ſuch Appointment, without any freſh Application, at their next General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace; and the Coſts to be incurred by reaſon of ſuch Writ of Certiorari, ſhall be awarded according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Court of King's Bench.

Proceedings may be removed.

XV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to pay any Penalty or Proſecution under this Act, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices, in any Magazine apart and remote from any Gunpowder Mill, and already built and uſed for that Purpoſe, in any Place not being within London and Weſtminſter, and the other Limits within Great Britain herein-before particularly deſcribed, until the Expiration of ſix Calendar Months, after an Adjudication by the Juſtices of the Peace for the County or other Diviſion, in which any ſuch Magazine ſhall be, at their General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, that the ſame is dangerous; it being hereby declared that they ſhall not have Authority to make any ſuch Adjudication, except on Complaint made to them of any ſuch Magazine, by ſome Houſeholder of the Pariſh or Place in which the Magazine ſhall be, and after due Summons of the Owner or Owners of the Magazine complained of, to anſwer ſuch Complaint; and after ſuch Examination on Oath of the Witneſſes produced, to ſupport or invalidate ſuch Complaint; and alſo that no Perſon ſhall be liable, at any Time, to any Penalty or Proſecution whatſoever, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices of the Peace, in any Magazine erected by Appointment of the Juſtices of the Peace, under the Power given to them by any of the former Acts regulating the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder.

No Perſon liable to pay any Penalty, till ſix Months after an Adjudication.

'XVI. And whereas by this Act the Makers of Gunpowder will be liable to Penalties for not having 'Magazines remote from their Mills, and in ſome Caſes they may not be able to agree for the Purchaſe 'of Pieces of Ground proper for ſuch Magazines;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace for each County or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, ſhall, on Application made to them, at their General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, by any Maker or Makers of Gunpowder, from Time to Time, appoint proper and convenient Pieces of Ground (not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits of Great Britain, herein-before particularly deſcribed, and not exceeding one Acre in any one Place), with the Uſe of convenient Roads thereto, on which Pieces ſo to be appointed, ſuch Makers of Gunpowder may erect Magazines for keeping Gunpowder, in any Quantity, after having agreed with the Owners of ſuch Grounds for the Purchaſe of the ſame; and if any ſuch Owner ſhall not agree, or by reaſon of any Impediment cannot ſo agree, ſuch Juſtices ſhall iſſue a Warrant to the Sheriff of the County, or other Officer having Return of Writs within their Juriſdiction, to impanel and return before them, at ſuch Times and Places as ſhall be appointed by ſuch Warrant, a ſufficient Jury, who, upon their Oaths, to be adminiſtered by the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall inquire into the true Value of the ſaid Pieces of Ground, with the Uſe of ſuch convenient Roads thereto, and their Verdicts ſhall be kept with the Records of the ſaid Seſſions reſpectively; and the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices thereon ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties: And for that End the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have Power to ſend for any Perſons intereſted, and to examine any Parties or Witneſſes upon Oath; and the Sums of Money ſo to be aſſeſſed and adjudged not exceeding thirty Years Purchaſe, ſhall be paid to the Owners of the ſaid Ground, according to their reſpective Intereſts therein, in ſuch Proportions as ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices; and upon ſuch Payment, or in caſe of Refuſal to accept the Money, then upon leaving the ſame with the Juſtices for the Benefit of the Owners, the Inheritance of the ſaid Ground, and the Uſe of the ſaid Roads thereto, ſhall be veſted in the Purchaſers thereof, their Heirs and Aſſigns, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe.

Juſtices to appoint Ground for Magazines.

'XVII. And whereas Leaſes, or Agreements for Leaſes, may have been made of Magazines or other 'Places for keeping Gunpowder, and, in conſequence of this Act, it may become unlawful to keep 'unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſome ſuch Magazines or Places;' be it therefore enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for the Leſſee or Tenant of any ſuch Magazine or Place for keeping Gunpowder, to make void any ſuch Leaſe or Agreement, upon giving three Calendar Months Notice in Writing to the Leſſor or Owner of ſuch Magazine or Place, of the Deſire of the Tenant to have ſuch Leaſe or Agreement determined, and upon paying to ſuch Leſſor or Owner all Rents and Sums of Money which ſhall become due for the ſame, to the Time of Determination limited in ſuch Notice, and upon performing all Covenants and Agreements on the Part of the Leſſee or Tenant to that Time.

and

25 Barrels, by Land, and not exceeding 200 by Water.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall have or convey at any one Time within Great Britain more than twenty-five Barrels of Gunpowder, in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage by Land, or more than two hundred Barrels of Gunpowder, in any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel by Water (except in Veſſels with Gunpowder imported from, or to be exported to, any Place beyond the Sea, or going Coaſtwiſe), and all Gunpowder conveyed on Land or Water (excepting ſuch Veſſels for Importation or Exportation of Gunpowder, or going Coaſtwiſe), ſhall be in Barrels cloſe joined and hooped, without any Iron about them, and ſo ſecured that no Part of the Gunpowder be ſcattered in the Paſſage; and each Barrel ſhall contain no more than one hundred Pounds of Gunpowder; and when conveyed by Land ſhall be entirely encloſed in a Leather Bag, or a Bag commonly called A Saltpetre Bag; and every Carriage in which Gunpowder ſhall be conveyed by Land, ſhall have a complete Covering of Wood, painted Cloth, Tarpaulin, or Wadmill Tilts, over all the Gunpowder therein contained: And alſo no Gunpowder ſhall be conveyed in any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel by Water (except in Veſſels with Gunpowder imported, or to be exported in Manner aforeſaid, or going Coaſtwiſe), that hath not a cloſe Deck; and as ſoon as any Gunpowder is put on board ſuch Veſſel, all ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be covered with Raw Hides or Tarpaulins; and all Gunpowder, which ſhall be carried or conveyed (except in ſuch Veſſels with Gunpowder for Importation or Exportation as aforeſaid, or going Coaſtwiſe), within any Part of Great Britain, in greater Quantity, or in other Manner than is herein-before preſcribed; and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be, may be ſeized by any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have the ſame Authority to remove ſuch Gunpowder and Barrels, and to uſe for that Purpoſe, during the Space of twenty-four Hours after Seizure, the Carriage or Veſſel in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be ſeized, and the Tackling, Beaſts, and Accoutrements belonging thereto, on the Terms of paying a Recompence for the Uſe thereof; and to detain ſuch Gunpowder and Barrels as is herein-after given to Perſons ſearching under a Warrant of a Juſtice of the Peace; and ſuch Seizure ſhall be for his, her, or their own Uſe, on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

No Gunpowder to be loaded, till that condemned be unloaded.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Barge, Boat, or Veſſel, having ſtale, condemned, or returned Gunpowder on board, arrives at the Wharf, Key, or other Place where the ſame is intended to be landed, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall begin to unload, or ſhall bring down to ſuch Wharf, Key, or other Place, with Intent to load in ſuch Veſſel any other Gunpowder, until the whole, or a Part of ſuch ſtale, condemned, or returned Gunpowder, be firſt unloaded and carried away from ſuch Wharf, Key, or other Place of landing; and after ſuch unloading and carrying away of Part of ſuch Gunpowder, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall begin to load, or ſhall ſo bring down, with Intent to load, any greater Quantity of other Gunpowder than the Part unloaded and carried away, on Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Gunpowder as ſhall be ſo brought down or loaded, contrary to the aforeſaid Proviſion.

Smoaking on board Veſſels loaded with Powder.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, having the Care or Management of any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel whatſoever (except Ships or Veſſels with Gunpowder on board imported from, or to be exported to, Places beyond Sea, or going Coaſtwiſe), loaded with Gunpowder, or any other Perſon on board the ſame, ſhall bring, have, or uſe, or permit any Perſon or Perſons to bring, have, or uſe any Charcoal or other combuſtible Matter, or any Fire or lighted Candle, or ſhall ſmoak, or wittingly permit any Perſon to ſmoak, on board the ſame, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Penalty for protracting Time, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons having the Care of any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, uſed for the Conveyance of Gunpowder by Land, ſhall, after beginning to place or load therein any Quantity of Gunpowder, or beginning to unload the ſame thereout, ſtop or ſtay at any Place of loading, or in the loading or unloading, ſuffer any longer Time to paſs than with the Uſe of all due Diligence ſhall be reaſonably neceſſary for the Purpoſe of loading or unloading; and no Perſon or Perſons having the Charge or Care of any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel uſed for the Conveyance of Gunpowder by Water (except in the Caſe of Veſſels loading for Importation or Exportation of Gunpowder to or from Places beyond Sea, or going Coaſtwiſe), ſhall, after beginning to load or unload any Quantity of Gunpowder, ſtop or ſtay at any Wharf, Key, or other Place of loading, or in the loading or unloading thereof ſuffer any longer Time to paſs than with the Uſe of all due Diligence ſhall be reaſonably neceſſary for the Purpoſe of loading or unloading, not exceeding eighteen Hours, unleſs hindered by the Weather; and every ſuch Barge, Boat, or Veſſel (except ſuch Veſſels as aforeſaid), having ſo completed her Loading, ſhall depart from the Place of loading on her Courſe the firſt enſuing Tide, unleſs hindered by Streſs of Weather, or other juſt Impediment; and no Perſon ſhall load, take in, carry, or convey, in any Waggon, Cart, or other Land Carriage laden with Gunpowder, or in any Barge, Boat, or Veſſel laden with Gunpowder, on any River (except in the Caſe of Veſſels laden with Gunpowder for Importation from, or Exportation to, Places beyond Sea, or going Coaſtwiſe), any other Lading of any Kind whatſoever; and all and every Perſon and Perſons offending againſt any of the aforeſaid Proviſions for loading and unloading, ſhall, for each Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the aforeſaid Proviſions for, or relative to, the Conveyance of Gunpowder, or the loading or unloading thereof, ſhall extend to any other Waggon, Cart, or Land-carriage, or any other Barge, Boat, or Veſſel, than ſuch as ſhall be loaded with, or employed in, conveying a Quantity of Gunpowder exceeding one hundred Pounds Weight.

'XXIII. And, for the more eaſy Diſcovery of the making, keeping, and Carriage of Gunpowder 'contrary to the Proviſions herein before made,' be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace of any County, or other Diviſion within Great Britain, in which Gunpowder is ſuſpected to be made, kept, or carried, contrary to this Act, on Demand made, and a reaſonable Cauſe aſſigned upon Oath by any Perſon or Perſons, to iſſue a Warrant or Warrants, under his Hand and Seal, for ſearching, in the Day-time, any Houſe, Mill, Magazine, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Yard, Wharf, or other Place, or any Carriage, Ship, Boat, or Veſſel, in which ſuch Gunpowder is ſuſpected to be made, kept, or carried, contrary to this Act; and that all Gunpowder found upon ſuch Search to be made, kept, or carried, contrary to this Act, and alſo the Gunpowder Barrels, ſhall be immediately ſeized by the Searcher or Searchers, who ſhall, with all convenient Speed after the Seizure, remove ſuch Gunpowder, and the Barrels in which it ſhall be, to ſuch proper Places as they, in conformity to the Reſtrictions of this Act, ſhall think fit: And in the Caſe of any ſuch Gunpowder ſeized in any Carriage or Veſſel, may uſe for the Purpoſe of Removal, during the Space of twenty-four Hours after Seizure, ſuch Carriage or Veſſel, with the Tackling, Beaſts, and Accoutrements belonging thereto (paying afterwards to the Owner or Owners thereof a ſufficient Recompence for the Uſe thereof, to be ſettled by the Juſtices before whom the Complaint ſhall be heard, after the Seizure; and in caſe of Nonpayment, immediately after Settlement by ſuch Juſtices, to be recoverable by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Parties Goods and Chattels, as is herein-after directed concerning the pecuniary Penalties of this Act); and may detain ſuch Gunpowder, and the Barrels in which it ſhall be, till it ſhall be adjudged, on a Hearing before any two or more ſuch Juſtices, whether the ſame ſhall be forfeited; and ſuch Searcher or Searchers, Seizer or Seizers, ſhall not be liable to any Suit for ſuch Detainer, or for any Loſs of or Damage which may happen to the ſaid Gunpowder or Barrels, other than by the wilful Acts or Neglects of them, or the Perſons with whom they ſhall intruſt the keeping thereof.

Juſtices to iſſue a Warrant to ſearch.

'XXIV. And, for Security of the great Number of Ships and Veſſels lying in the River Thames, 'and of the Dock Yards, Wharfs, and Buildings, on the Sides of the Thames above Blackwall,' be it further enacted, That no Maſter or Commander of any Ship or other Veſſel lying in the Thames, and outward-bound, ſhall receive, or permit to be received, on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel more than twenty-five Pounds of Gunpowder (except for the King's Service) before the Arrival of ſuch Ship or Veſſel at, over-againſt, or below Blackwall; and that the Maſter or Commander of every Ship or Veſſel coming into the River Thames, ſhall (except in the Caſe of Gunpowder for the King's Service) put on Shore in proper Places, in conformity to the Reſtrictions of this Act, all the Gunpowder on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel above the Quantity of twenty-five Pounds, either before the Arrival of ſuch Ship or Veſſel at Blackwall, or within twenty-four Hours (if the Weather ſhall permit), after coming to an Anchor there, or to the Place of unloading there, and ſhall not afterwards have on board more than twenty-five Pounds of Gunpowder (except for the King's Service), on Pain of forfeiting, for every Offence in any of the ſaid Caſes, all the Gunpowder found on board above the Weight of twenty-five Pounds, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be, and alſo two Shillings for every Pound of Gunpowder above the Quantity of twenty-five Pounds.

Regulation for Security of the Veſſels in the River Thames.

'XXV. And, for the better Diſcovery of Maſters or Commanders of inward or outward-bound 'Ships, who ſhall have Gunpowder in their Ships or Veſſels in the Thames, contrary to this Act,' be it further enacted, That the Maſter, Warden, and Aſſiſtants of the Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, in the County of Kent, for the Time being, ſhall, from Time to Time, appoint one or more Perſon or Perſons, a Searcher or Searchers for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder in Ships or other Veſſels in the River Thames, which Perſon or Perſons, ſo appointed, are hereby authoriſed, at any Time between Sun-riſing and Sun-ſetting, to enter any Ship or Veſſel (except his Majeſty's Ships) in the River Thames, above Blackwall, and to ſearch the ſame for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder, and alſo ſhall have the ſame Powers of ſeizing, removing to proper Places, and detaining all ſuch unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder found on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be, as are herein-before given to Perſons ſearching for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder under a Warrant of a Juſtice of the Peace.

Maſter, &c. of Trinity Houſe to appoint Searchers.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties created by this Act, ſhall be recoverable before two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County or other Diviſion in which the Offence ſhall be committed, on Proof of the Offence, by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, or on Confeſſion of the Offender; and one Moiety of each Penalty ſhall belong to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer or Informers proſecuting for the ſame; and where the Penalty ſhall be pecuniary, in caſe of Nonpayment, it ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of ſuch Juſtices; and the Overplus of the Money raiſed, after deducting the Penalty, and the Expences of the Diſtreſs and Sale, ſhall be rendered to the Owner; and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Offender ſhall be ſent, by ſuch Juſtices, to the Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding ſix Months, nor leſs than three Months, as ſuch Juſtices ſhall think moſt proper.

Penalties and Forfeitures.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to any Proſecution for any Offence againſt this Act, unleſs ſuch Proſecution ſhall be commenced within fourteen Days after Seizure of the Gunpowder, or Commiſſion of the Offence, where there ſhall not be any Seizure; and that if any Suit or Action ſhall be proſecuted in England, againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, or the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done by Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall Proſecution within 14 Days.

General Iſſue.

ſhall become nonſuit, or diſcontinue his, her or their Action or Actions, after iſſue joined, or if on Demurrer, or otherwiſe, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendants have by Law in other Caſes.

Treble Coſts.

Limitation.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Actions, Suits, and Proſecutions, to be commenced in England, againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing to be done in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Fact was committed, and ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwiſe.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall not extend, or be any Ways conſtrued to extend, to any Mills or other Buildings erected, or which may hereafter be erected, for the Purpoſe of making Gunpowder, in any Lands belonging to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or to the keeping of Gunpowder at any Storehouſe or Magazine belonging to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or to hinder the Trial of Gunpowder by his Majeſty's Officers, as is uſual, for the Service of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or to the keeping of Gunpowder at the Magazines now erected for that Purpoſe, of Barking Creekſmouth, in the County of Eſſex, and Erith Level, in the County of Kent, or to the keeping of Gunpowder at the Magazines or Storehouſes now erected near Liverpoole, in the County of Lancaſter, or the City of Briſtol, or to the Carriage of Gunpowder, to or from the King's Magazines, under a ſpecial and expreſs Order of the King's Board of Ordnance; ſuch Order to contain the Quantity of Gunpowder ſo to be carried, and the Time for which ſuch Order ſhall be in Force; or to the Carriage of Gunpowder with Forces on their March, or with the Militia, during their annual Exerciſe; or which ſhall be ſent for the Uſe of ſuch Forces or Militia.

Not to extend to unlimited Quantities from Ships below Blackwall.

XXX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That this preſent Act ſhall not extend to hinder any Perſon or Perſons from carrying or conveying an unlimited Quantity of Gunpowder, in ſuch cloſe-decked Veſſels, in Manner as herein-before is directed, from any Ships or Veſſels lying below Blackwall, to any of the Magazines for Gunpowder, ſo ſituate below Blackwall, or from ſuch Magazines to any Ships or Veſſels lying below Blackwall, and going to any Place beyond Sea, or Coaſtwiſe.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall commence, and begin to be in Force, on the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two; and from and immediately after the Commencement thereof, an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament (intituled, An Act for reducing into one Act of Parliament the ſeveral Laws relating to the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder, and for more effectually preventing Miſchiefs, by keeping or carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities), and all former Statutes, ſo far as they relate to the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby repealed.

CAP. LXXI.

An Act for repealing ſeveral Laws therein mentioned againſt Badgers, Engroſſers, Foreſtallers, and Regrators, and for indemnifying Perſons againſt Proſecutions for Offences committed againſt the ſaid Acts.

' WHEREAS it hath been found by Experience, that the Reſtraints laid by ſeveral Statutes upon ' the Dealing in Corn, Meal, Flour, Cattle, and ſundry other Sorts of Victuals, by preventing a ' free Trade in the ſaid Commodities, have a Tendency to diſcourage the Growth, and to enhance the ' Price of the ſame; which Statutes, if put in Execution, would bring great Diſtreſs upon the Inhabitants ' of many Parts of this Kingdom, and in particular upon thoſe of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act, made in the third and fourth Year of King EDWARD the Sixth, intituled, An Act for the buying and ſelling of Butter and Cheeſe; and alſo an Act, made in the fifth and ſixth Year of King EDWARD the Sixth, intituled, An Act againſt Regrators, Foreſtallers, and Engroſſers; and alſo an Act made in the third Year of PHILIP and MARY, intituled, An Act for the keeping of Milch Kine, and for breeding and rearing of Calves; and alſo an Act made in the fifth Year of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act touching Badgers of Corn, and Drovers of Cattle, to be licenſed; and alſo an Act made in the fifteenth Year of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the ſelling of live fat Cattle by Butchers; and ſo much of an Act, made in the fifth Year of Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for continuing the Laws therein mentioned relating to the Poor, and to the buying and ſelling of Cattle in Smithfield, and for ſuppreſſing of Piracy, as relates to Butchers ſelling Cattle alive or dead within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or within ten Miles thereof; and all Acts made for the better Enforcement of the ſame, being detrimental to the Supply of the labouring and manufacturing Poor of this Kingdom, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be repealed.

3, 4, 5, & 6 Edw. 6.; 3 Phil. and Mary; 5 Eliz.; 15 Car. 2.; 5 Annæ repealed.

All Informations, &c. commenced under the ſaid Acts, to determine; but Proceedings to be void.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Informations, Indictments, Suits, or Proſecutions, already commenced, for the inflicting any Puniſhment, or for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, under the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, ſhall ceaſe and determine; and no further Proceedings ſhall be had thereupon: And that no Information, Indictment, Suit, or Proſecution, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, under or by virtue of the ſaid Acts, or any of them; but that all ſuch Proceedings ſhall be void, and of no Effect; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act for rendering the Payment of the Creditors of Inſolvent Debtors more equal and expeditious, and for regulating the Diligence of the Law by Arreſtment and Poinding, and for extending the Privilege of Bills to Promiſſory Notes, and for limiting Actions upon Bills and Promiſſory Notes, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

So much of this Act, as relates to Bills, &c. is made perpetual by 23 Geo. 3. c. 18. ſect. 55.

' WHEREAS by the Laws now ſubſiſting in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the perſonal ' Eſtates of ſuch Debtors as become Inſolvent are generally carried off by the Diligences of ' Arreſtment and Poinding, executed by a few Creditors, who from the Nearneſs of their Reſidence to, ' and Connection with ſuch Debtors, get the earlieſt Notice of the Inſolvency, to the great Prejudice of ' Creditors more remote and unconnected, and to the Diſappointment of that Equality which ought to ' take place in the Diſtribution of the Eſtates of Inſolvent Debtors among their Creditors: Therefore, to ' remedy ſuch Injuſtice and Inequality in Time coming, and to render the Payment of the Creditors of ' Inſolvent Debtors more equal and expeditious, may it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be ' enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That when any Debtor, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall ſuffer a Poinding on a Horning, or on the Precept of an inferior Judge, after the Days of the Charge are elapſed, to be executed againſt his perſonal Eſtate, or any Part of it, or ſhall be under Diligence by Horning and Caption, and ſhall be impriſoned, or retire to the Abbey, or any other privileged Place, or fly or abſcond for his Perſonal Security, or defend his Perſon by Force; or if any Debtor out of Scotland, or who cannot be impriſoned by reaſon of Privilege, ſhall be under Diligence by Letters of Horning duly denounced and regiſtered, and ſhall have his or her perſonal Eſtate, or any Part thereof, attached by Arreſtment; it ſhall be lawful to the Creditor or Creditors at whoſe Inſtance the ſaid Diligence proceeds, to apply to the Court of Seſſion by a ſummary Petition for a Sequeſtration of the Debtor's Eſtate, which Court is hereby authoriſed and required, upon ſuch Application, and Production of the Grounds of Debt and Diligence aforeſaid, and the Execution of a Meſſenger, or other Officer of the Law, employed in executing the ſaid Diligence, and upon his, her, or their making Oath to the Verity of the Debt, upon which the Diligence has proceeded, or his, her, or their known Agent, making Oath, that he believes the Debt for which the Diligence has proceeded to be due, to grant Warrant for citing the Debtor or Debtors, if more than one are bound for the Debt, and the Diligence aforeſaid have been uſed againſt them, by delivering to him, her, or them a Copy of the Petition perſonally, or by leaving it at his, her, or their Dwelling-places; or if he, ſhe, or they are out of Scotland, by affixing Copies upon the Market Croſs of Edinburgh, Pier and Shore of Leith, to appear in Court within the Time ſpecified in the Warrant for Citation, not being leſs than Six, nor more than thirty Days, from the Date of the Citation, to ſhew Cauſe why Sequeſtration ſhould not be awarded againſt his, her, or their perſonal Eſtate; and if the Debtor or Debtors ſhall not appear within the Time ſpecified in the Citation by themſelves or Counſel, or ſhall not either pay the Debt upon which the Diligence has proceeded, or ſhew other reaſonable Cauſe why the Court ſhould not proceed to Sequeſtration, the Court ſhall forthwith ſequeſtrate his, her, or their perſonal Eſtate, and appoint a Factor for managing and recovering the ſame; and ſhall likewiſe make an Order, requiring him, her, or them, to produce their Books and Papers, and to make a full and fair Diſcovery of his, her, or their whole Eſtate, heritable and moveable, wherever ſituated, upon Oath, if required by the Petitioner or Petitioners, or other Creditors appearing; and to grant a Diſpoſition of his whole perſonal Eſtate, wherever ſituated, to the Factor ſo named, for the Benefit of his whole Creditors; which Diſpoſition ſhall not be reduceable upon any of the former Statutes concerning Bankrupts: And if the Debtor or Debtors ſhall refuſe to obey ſuch Orders, the Court may compel him, her, or them, by Impriſonment, until he, ſhe, or they ſhall comply: And if the Creditor or Creditors, having uſed the Diligence aforeſaid, are deſirous to apply for a Sequeſtration of his, her, or their Debtor's perſonal Eſtate in Time of Vacance, ſuch Creditor or Creditors may preſent his, her, or their Petition, and produce their Grounds of Debt, and Diligence, to the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills for the Time, who thereupon is authoriſed and required to grant Warrant for citing the Debtor or Debtors, and to ſequeſtrate, if proper, and to appoint a Factor, and to do every Thing neceſſary in Execution of this Act, during the Vacance, that the Court is impowered to do, when the Petition is preſented to it while the Court is ſitting; and when the Application for Sequeſtration is made to the Court, and any Thing ſhall be left undone at the End of any Seſſion by the Want of Time, the Lord Ordinary on the Bills is authoriſed and required to do every Thing neceſſary in Execution of this Act, during the Vacance, that he is empowered to do when the Petition for Sequeſtration is originally preſented to him, and the Court; or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, in Time of Vacance, may grant to Debtors not in Priſon, cited under the Authority of this Act, a Protection from perſonal Diligence for ſuch Time as unto the Court, or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, ſhall ſeem expedient, for the Execution of the Act: And if the Debtors cited to appear are in Priſon, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacance, at the Deſire of the Petitioner or Petitioners, may grant Warrant for bringing the Perſons of ſuch Debtors into Court, or before the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, in Time of Vacance, in the Cuſtody of a Macer of Court, Meſſenger, or other Perſon authoriſed for that Purpoſe; and if that is not required, may grant Warrant for the Liberation of ſuch Debtors; and may, in either Caſe, when ſuch Debtors appear in Court, or before the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Time of Vacance, grant to them a perſonal Protection, or not, as their Behaviour in doing Juſtice to their Creditors ſhall ſeem to merit.

Debtors ſuffering Poinding on a Horning, or ſhall be impriſoned, or retire to the Abbey, &c.

Court of Seſſion to grant Warrant for citing them;

and if they ſhall not appear; pay the Debt; diſcover their Eſtate on Oath;

or grant a Diſpoſition for the Benefit of their Creditors;

Lord Ordinary's Powers in Time of Vacance.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, in the Nomination of a Factor, the Court, or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills at the Time of the Sequeſtration, ſhall prefer the Perſon preſented by the Majority of the Creditors concurring in the Application for Sequeſtration, or producing their Grounds of Debt in the Hands of the Clerk to the Sequeſtration; and who immediately thereafter ſhall cauſe an Advertiſement to be inſerted in the London Gazette, and in the publick Paper to be appointed as is hereinafter mentioned, intimating the Sequeſtration; and requiring the whole Creditors of the Debtor or Debtors to meet at the Time and Place appointed by the Court, or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, not ſooner than thirty Days after the Sequeſtration, in order to their continuing the ſame Factor, or chuſing another, upon the ſequeſtrated Eſtate; and the Perſon choſen by a Majority in Value of the Creditors preſent at ſuch Meeting, by themſelves, or by their Attornies or Agents authoriſed to act for them, and who ſhall then have produced their Claims and Vouchers, or Grounds of Debt, and proved their Debts in Manner after directed, ſhall be, by the Court, appointed Factor upon the ſequeſtrated Eſtate; and thereupon the Powers of the Factor, named at the Time of the Sequeſtration, if the Perſon made Choice of is different from him, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and he ſhall be obliged to convey to the new Factor the Whole of the perſonal Eſtate which the Bankrupt diſponed to him, and that ſhall then not be recovered and converted into Money; and ſhall deliver to the new Factor every Part of the Bankrupt's Eſtate in his Poſſeſſion, and all Securities taken for the ſame, or any Part thereof, and pay ſuch Balance as may appear to be due by him when his Accounts are ſettled.

Factor preſented by Majority of Creditors to be preferred; who ſhall give publick Intimation of a Sequeſtration, &c.

Court of Seſſion, or Lord Ordinary to make interim Orders.

III. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if Circumſtances lead to ſuſpect that the Debtor or Debtors may embezzle, ſecrete, or dilapidate, his, her, or their Effects, between the Time of preſenting the Petition for Sequeſtration, and the ſequeſtrating and appointing a Factor, the Court, in Time of Seſſion, or the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills in Time of Vacance, may, at the Suit of any Creditor who petitions for the Sequeſtration, and upon his, her, or their making Oath, or upon the Oath of his, her, or their known Agent or Attorney, that he, ſhe, or they, have reaſon to ſuſpect that the Debtor or Debtors may embezzle, ſecrete, or dilapidate, his, her, or their Effects, make ſuch interim Orders as ſhall be judged moſt expedient for preventing the Eſtate of the Debtor or Debtors from being embezzled, ſecreted, or dilapidated.

Factors Powers.
